

Pittsburgh, Pa.
January 29, 1937

MEMORANDUM FOR SPECIAL AGENT L. V. BOARDMAN:

I again desire to call to your attention the importance of forwarding to the field division the form recently prepared immediately upon the receipt of a new case by you.

According to a rough draft submitted by you in the case of HARRY HOLLAND, INMVA, it appears that you conducted an investigation on January 12, 17, and 19, 1937. The rough draft report was received January 23, 1937, it having been mailed at Charleston, W. Va., January 26, 1937. Your rough draft was the first information received from you that you had conducted an investigation in the matter.

Meanwhile, on January 20, 1937, the Washington Field Division addressed a teletypewriter message to the Division at Pittsburgh advising that Harry Holland broke jail at Azard, Kentucky, January 6, 1937, while being held on a local charge. He was later apprehended at St. Paul, Virginia, January 7, 1937 in possession of a 1935 Chevrolet Sedan, stolen at Vicco, Kentucky, and was committed to the Meigs County Jail by the Sheriff. He escaped therefrom January 10, 1937 and, according to the teletypewriter message from the Washington Field Division, he was, on January 20, 1937, in custody of the Sheriff at Beckley, W. Va.

Immediately after receipt of that teletypewriter message, two long distance telephone calls were made to the Sheriff at Beckley for the purpose of ascertaining if Holland was in jail at Beckley, but no information could be procured. A long distance telephone call was made to Special Agent Wells at Charleston, requesting him to make an investigation of the matter, but no information was obtained. At least, Agent Wells did not notify the Pittsburgh field division as to the outcome of his inquiry.

A telegram was sent to the Louisville Field Division, within which district the case originated, requesting additional information as to the identity of Harry Holland. The Louisville field division addressed a lengthy wire to the field division at Pittsburgh explaining the circumstances.

During all of this time you had the information in your possession and the division at Pittsburgh knew absolutely nothing about it.

I have called matters of this nature to your attention before. If the matters brought to your attention are not clearly understood by you you should at least so state.

Very truly yours,

D. DiLILLO
Special Agent in Charge

Director,
Division of Investigation,
U. S. Department of Justice,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Mr. K. V. Randolph, applicant for the Division of Investigation, Department of Justice, spent the early part of his life in Vineland, New Jersey. His father runs a school stationery supply store in that town. Mr. Randolph went to Bucknell College and was there during the years from 1923 to 1928. He received his B.A. degree in 1928. Mr. Randolph was an average student while at this school, his average being approximately 82 or 83. He participated in athletics, namely, track. It is not known whether Mr. Randolph participated in any other extra curricular activities. As to Mr. Randolph's moral character, he seems to have led a normal life of a college student with the exception of one indiscretion in which he was involved while at school, the indiscretion being he was in an automobile accident and it was later learned that one of the occupants of the car was a married daughter of one of the professors of this school. Seemingly, no undue notoriety resulted from this affair; also, no litigation ensued. Mr. Randolph is quite well acquainted with Hugh Yates, a fraternity brother, who is now living in Dellos Falls, Vermont. He is likewise acquainted with Henry Reismier, whom it is believed still lives in Squirrel Hill, Pennsylvania. Both of the aforementioned students were fraternity brothers of Mr. Randolph and went to school with him during the four years.

Mr. Randolph, after leaving Bucknell College, went to Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., where he took up the study of law. He was graduated from Georgetown University in 1932. His average there was not known by the person who granted this interview, nor was any enlightenment obtained as to his moral character while at that institution. Mr. Randolph at present is a law clerk at Scott, Pierce & Scott, lawyers, in Camden, New Jersey.

Mr. Nicholson, the gentleman from whom I obtained this information, was a fraternity brother of Mr. Randolph while they were at Bucknell College. Mr. Nicholson was evidently a good friend of Mr. Randolph. In Mr. Nicholson's opinion, Mr. Randolph is a good student (a little better than the average), has good moral qualities, and feels that Mr. Randolph has a very engaging personality. Mr. Nicholson was not very familiar with the family history of Mr. Randolph. Mr. Nicholson stated that he thought Mr. Randolph was approximately 27 or 28 years.

The correctness of the above information is not definite or certain in all respects but was given by Mr. Nicholson to the best of his knowledge. Further information in regard to Mr. Randolph could most likely be obtained in Vineland, New Jersey, where Mr. Randolph spent a large portion of his early life. Further, Mr. Nicholson was of the opinion that Mr. Yates and Mr. Reismier, whose addresses are stated above; can give additional information in regard to Mr. Randolph.

Yours truly,

LELAND V. BOARDMAN

transcript is being furnished herewith to the Division.

In Miss Dulke's letter of transmittal of the transcript mentioned herein, she indicates that on September 4, 1937, a transcript of the records of Boardman was issued by Baker University to the University of Minnesota. She writes that Boardman's father, Mr. W. M. Boardman, at the time of Boardman's enrollment at Baker University was Dean of Dwight Junior College, Evelyn, Minnesota; that Boardman is a member of the Catholic Church, and, according to Miss Dulke's letter, was wholly self-supporting. He gave his date of birth as April 21, 1900, it being noted his birth date in Division letter is given as April 21, 1909.

While at Baker University, Boardman was a member of the Sigma Tau Epsilon social fraternity; was also a member of the Baker University Choral Union.

Miss Dulke writes that, although she is not personally acquainted with Boardman, Dr. H. H. Wright, Dean of Baker University, told her that he recommended Boardman very highly, stating that Boardman's sister was at one time instructor of violin in Baker University and is now the wife of C. Allderdice, one of Baldwin's leading merchants. Mr. Wright further stated to Miss Dulke that the applicant was a fine student and a young man of excellent character and he, Mr. Wright, was glad to recommend Boardman, his college record being entirely satisfactory, and his progress being above the average.

During telephonic conversation with Miss Dulke, she stated that the records of the University show that Boardman while at the University lived with one Mrs. J. C. Wise, no address being given for her. An endeavor was made to reach Mrs. Wise by telephone by this agent, but the Baldwin telephone operator indicated that she had no telephone in the name of J. C. Wise and knew of no individual by that name.

RE: TRAINING SCHOOL ASSIGNMENTS

Dear Sir:

As of possible assistance to you in selecting posts of duty, I submit herewith certain abbreviated data as to each of the twenty-nine men left in the current Training School:

LEWIS V. BOARDSMAN, Special Agent. A.B.; LL.B. University of Minnesota. Age 35; married, one daughter, age 3. Legal residence Eveleth, Minn. Preference as to assignment, St. Paul or Kansas City. Has heretofore worked only in Minnesota. I believe Boardsman is suitable for assignment anywhere. He has a nice personality, and would fit into most any community.

FRANK C. BRATNER, Special Agent (A). B.S. Johns Hopkins; M.A. George Washington. Age 39, married, no children. Legal residence Indianhead, Ind. Preference as to assignment, Jacksonville or Nashville. Has previously worked in New York City, Baltimore and Washington, D. C. Apparently better fitted by personality and experience for assignment in the South.

MICHAEL J. CASHBY, Special Agent. No degrees. Age 27, single. Legal residence, Joliet, Ill. Office preference, Chicago. Has worked twelve years with police department, Joliet, Ill., fingerprinting, photography and stolen cars. Previous army training, firearms expert. Unusually nice appearance and approach. Would make a valuable man at Chicago or similar metropolitan area in the middle West.

LESTER W. CUMMINS, Special Agent. B.S. University of Alabama; admission to Alabama Bar. Age 35, married, two children, ages 7 and 1. Legal residence, Attalla, Ala. Preference, Birmingham or anywhere in the South. Previous employment and experience confined to State of Alabama. Chester seems to be a live wire, and in my opinion is better fitted for assignment in the South or Southwest.

[redacted] Special Agent. B.S.; LL.B. Age 27, single. Legal residence, San Francisco. Office preference, San Francisco, Portland, Denver. Previous experience, has been confined to State of California. By personality seems better fitted for assignment in the West or on the West Coast.

[redacted] Special Agent. B.S.; J.D., University of Iowa. Age 24, single. Legal residence Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Office preference, Omaha, St. Paul or Denver. Previous employment, attorney at Cedar Rapids. By personality seems best fitted for assignment in the middle West. Will require considerable supervision under a strong Agent in Charge at first. b6

[redacted] Special Agent (A). B.C.C. Southwestern University. Age 25, married, no children. Legal residence, Clarendon, Va. Preference, Washington. Previous employment, Washington, D. C., and in many parts of the country while in the Navy. Erwin seems suitable for assignment in any section of the United States, but would probably do better work in the South.

[redacted] Special Agent. B.S.; M.A. Age 20, married, no children. Legal residence, Minneapolis, Minn. Preference, New York or Chicago. Previous experience, graduate Naval Academy, Annapolis, and commissioned officer in Navy at Chicago; 2 years field engineer Minneapolis. Groff has a nice personality, and seems suited for assignment anywhere, but is probably better fitted for work in a metropolitan area of the East or middle West.

[redacted] Special Agent. A.B.; LL.B. Age 25, single. Legal residence, Cincinnati. Office preference, West Coast or Cincinnati. Previous employment and schooling, all in Indiana and Ohio, principally Cincinnati. Will require considerable supervision under a strong Special Agent in Charge. Recommend that he be assigned to one of the smaller offices in the middle West. b6

[redacted] Special Agent. Age 25, single. Legal residence, Oklahoma City. Preference, Boston. Schooling and previous occupation all in State of Oklahoma. By personality seems fitted for assignment anywhere.

[redacted], Special Agent. B.A.; LL.B. Age 27, married, no children. Legal residence, Cameron, La. Schooling and previous employment all in State of Louisiana. Seems suitable for assignment anywhere. b6

JOHN E. LUNSFORD, Special Agent. Age 23, single. LL.B. Legal residence, Knoxville, Tenn. Office preference, West Coast or Texas. No previous employment; all schooling at University of Tennessee. Seems suitable for assignment in any section of the United States, but may do better work in the West or South.

[redacted], Special Agent. LL.B. Age 24, single. Legal residence, Knoxville, Tenn. Office preference, Charlotte, Jacksonville or Birmingham. Schooling and previous employment confined to State of Tennessee, principally at Knoxville. Does not seem very aggressive; will require close supervision at first. Seems more suitable for assignment to a small office in the South or West.

N. E. HANSON, Special Agent (A). Accountancy graduate, no degree. Age 33, single. Legal residence, Chicago. Office preference, St. Paul, Detroit, Cincinnati. All schooling and previous employment at Chicago, Ill. I believe this man should be assigned to some metropolitan area under a strong Agent in Charge.

THOMAS M. McDADE, Special Agent. LL.B.; LL.M., and graduate accountant. Age 27, single. Legal residence, Brooklyn, N. Y. Office preference, Denver, Salt Lake City, or St. Paul. All previous schooling and experience in New York City and New England States. Seems better fitted for assignment in the East, North or West Coast. By personality and training would not fit so well in a Southern office.

[redacted] Special Agent (A). Has completed accounting courses, but no degrees. Age 26, single. Legal residence, Chicago. Office preference, Indianapolis, Detroit or St. Louis. Education and previous experience all obtained at Chicago. Seems better fitted by personality for assignment to a metropolitan area. b6

Re: Leland V. Boardman,
Special Agent.

Dear Sir:

As a result of my observation of the above Special Agent during the course of the training school which began July 30th and terminated September 22d, I desire to submit the following report:

Special Agent Boardman is 25 years of age, married and has one daughter aged 3 years. His legal residence is Eveleth, Minnesota. He expressed a preference for assignment at St. Paul or Kansas City and was ordered to report to Chicago at the end of the training school.

EDUCATION AND PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE.

At the time he entered our service, Boardman had the degrees of B.A. and LL.B. from the University of Minnesota, the latter degree conferred in 1934. He had taken the Minnesota Bar examination in July, 1934, but had not been advised as to the results.

Prior to his assignment as a Special Agent, he had had five years of experience as a salesman of high school and college jewelry and medals manufactured by the Josten Manufacturing Company of Owatonna, Minnesota. This work had been accomplished during college vacations and while going to school.

EXAMINATION GRADES.

During the course of the training school, he made the following grades on the examinations given:

FIREARMS TRAINING.

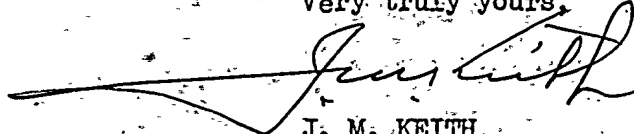

At Fort Washington, Md., Boardman qualified in the use of the pistol, shooting an average score of 85.1%. He was also given appropriate training in the use of the shotgun; Thompson Submachine gun, rifle, Colt Monitor and gas equipment.

REMARKS.

During the course of the training school, Boardman was attentive; alert and displayed an abundance of energy. He has a nice personal appearance and personality, is tactful and amenable to discipline. He exhibited a slight degree of over-confidence and some lack of judgment at the beginning of the training school, but due to the various things called to his attention and the discipline maintained he displayed quite an improvement before its conclusion.

I believe that Boardman will develop into a good field Agent but am rather doubtful as to the likelihood of his developing as an administrative employee.

Very truly yours,

J. M. KEITH,
Special Agent in Charge.

Dear Sir:

Re: Special Agent L. V. Boardman
Thirty-Day Report

The above Special Agent is a young man of very good personal appearance and he makes a good impression on those with whom he comes in contact generally. He leaves the impression of knowing what he is doing and he apparently has a good grasp of his duties and approaches same in a very business-like manner. He seems to be a substantial individual and there is not much lost motion on his part.

He has been assigned recently to War Risk Insurance cases exclusively, in view of my conversation with Mr. Tamm of the Division. From a review of his work in this type of case, it is apparent that he is able to review the long briefs and to segregate the unnecessary from the essential facts. His reports are well organized and he has made not more than the usual errors for one of his length of service.

I believe this Agent to be outstanding among the new Agents in the Chicago district and I believe that a continuation of his present efforts will develop him into a valuable employee. He has not been qualified on bankruptcy work and since his arrival in Chicago no opportunity has been afforded him for this purpose. It is my belief that he has the mentality to qualify within a very short time after he has been given the opportunity.

He is a loyal and willing worker and has performed a great deal of overtime during the past several weeks. He appears to be very interested in his work and all in all I believe he is progressing in a very satisfactory manner.

Dear Sir:

I am herewith submitting a Driver's Report--Accident, Standard Form #26, and Investigating Officer's Report--Accident, Standard Form #27, with regard to an accident had by Special Agent L. V. Boardman of this Office, on South Clark Street, between West Madison and West Monroe Streets.

Special Agent Boardman was proceeding south on South Clark Street at approximately 10 miles an hour in second gear at the time that the driver of the privately owned automobile opened his left-hand door preparatory to getting out of his car. As the left-hand door, when opened, projected into the lane of traffic Agent Boardman hit this door, thereby causing a dent in said door panel. At the time Agent Boardman saw said door being opened he was approximately ten feet away from the other car. Agent Boardman immediately sounded his horn and applied his brakes, but due to the slippery condition of the streets skidded slowly into the open door. Agent Boardman then parked his car and went back and secured the name and license number of the other car, which are set out in the Accident Reports.

Agent Boardman is of the opinion that he is entirely without blame, and that the driver of the privately owned automobile was negligent in opening his door into the lane of traffic. It was inadvisable for Agent Boardman to swerve his car in an effort to avoid hitting this door because a streetcar was on the other side of Agent's car. There was no damage done to the Government owned automobile.

Special Agent Boardman has explained the circumstances surrounding this accident so that this information will be at hand should the driver of the privately owned automobile attempt to claim damages to his car.

Very truly yours,

Special Agent in Charge,

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter to the Division dated December 5, 1934, setting forth a suggestion by Special Agent L. V. Boardman to the effect that all Division offices request the various Veterans Administration Facilities and Naval Hospitals to submit a list of all doctors presently in their employ, copies of which could be transmitted to the Division where an alphabetical list of all doctors so employed might be maintained, and this information, in turn, furnished to the various field offices by the Division.

The Division has heretofore considered the advisability of maintaining a card index file containing the names and addresses of the Veterans Administration physicians, for the use of field offices, but information received from the Veterans Administration indicated there are about 12,000 physicians now engaged, either full-time or part-time, by the Veterans Administration, and the names of considerably more than this number are maintained in the "resigned" files of the Veterans Administration. In view of the large number of physicians so affected, and the frequent transfers by the Veterans Administration, the Division is of the opinion that the suggestion of Agent Boardman is not practical at this time.

However, the Division is very grateful for Agent Boardman's interest in increasing the Division's efficiency in War Risk Insurance investigations.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

Special Agent L.V. Eschman has suggested that all the Division offices request the various Veterans Administration Facilities and Naval Hospitals to submit a list of all doctors presently in their employ. These lists which could probably be secured with very little effort, could then be submitted to the Division where an alphabetical list of all doctors in the employ of the Veterans Administration and Naval Hospitals could be arranged. Designating the facility where each doctor is presently located. This compiled list could then be furnished each Division office.

The central office of the Veterans Administration, and the Surgeon General Navy Department, Washington, D.C., could then be asked to keep either the Division or the field offices informed of all transfers from one hospital to another of the various doctors in their employ. A notation of these transfers could then be submitted to all the field offices by the Division, or else the field offices having been directly notified by the Veterans Administration or the Surgeon General, could submit a notation of the transfers in memorandum form to the Division, and send copies to all the field offices, notifying them of the transfer of the doctors in question. Probably it would be more convenient for the field offices to request that the hospitals within their jurisdiction keep them notified of any transfers, thereby relieving the Division of this detail. In this manner, the compiled list of doctors would constantly be kept up to date.

It is felt that this plan would obviate the necessity of having to write to the Veterans Administration or the Surgeon General, Washington, D.C., thereby hastening the investigation in expedite War Risk Insurance cases. This practice would also eliminate the necessity of the offices to which leads have been sent to interview doctors, getting out leads to other offices advising the office of origin that the doctors in question are no longer located at that particular Veterans Administration hospital.

CommentsSpecial Agent in Charge Review

Special Agent Dearden is a young man of good personal appearance and impresses one as being very confident. He is not assigned to War Risk Insurance work exclusively and has shown a grasp of the type of work indicating that he will develop into an average Agent if he would do as well on general assignment as he does on War Risk Insurance work. He is interested in his work and applies himself diligently. I believe he is developing in a satisfactory manner.

Inspection Notes

When I went out in the Agent's room to call this Agent in for an examination he was dictating to a stenographer, Miss Bernick. I asked him if he could leave his work for a few minutes and come in and talk with me. He told me he was getting out an expedite report on a War Risk Insurance case. This was about 4:30 in the afternoon. I told him to lay aside the report for a few moments and he could come back to it. He was in the room with me for approximately thirty or thirty-five minutes. I then watched him when he went back to his desk and he dictated to the stenographer for about four or five minutes and spent four or five minutes in conversation with her and Special Agents around his desk. It was then noted that the stenographer went home immediately and did not type the report that night.

This Agent in my opinion will need careful and close supervision for some time to come and it is felt that his development will be slow. He was observed on one or two other occasions dictating after his examination on the Manual of Rules and Regulations and Instructions, and he appeared to loose some time in assembling his work for dictation, which would waste a stenographer's time.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON.

RE: ACCIDENT INVOLVING BUREAU AUTOMOBILE
Hudson Sedan, Motor #54055
Date of Accident - November 20, 1934
Damage to Bureau automobile - None
Agent involved - Special Agent L. V. Boardman Office - Chicago.

The following information is submitted in connection with the above accident involving a Bureau automobile driven by Special Agent L. V. Boardman on November 20, 1934, while in the performance of his official duties.

Agent Boardman stated that he was proceeding along a street in Chicago at approximately 10 miles per hour, in second gear as it had been raining and the streets were wet, when the driver of a privately owned automobile opened the left hand door preparatory to getting out. Agent Boardman was within about ten feet of the car and sounded his horn and applied his brakes. Due to the slippery condition of the street the Bureau car skidded into the other car, causing a dent to be made in the open door. Agent Boardman did not try to swerve the Bureau car because he would have hit a street car on the other side. He stopped his car and learned that the driver of the other car was Mr. Frank Wouoson of Chicago. No damage was done to the Bureau car.

SAC Ladd reports that Boardman presents a good personal appearance and has a good personality; that he is very quiet and businesslike in his demeanor, conscientious, and willingly devotes overtime to his duties; that his dictation is good and his reports are usually thorough, requiring only average supervision; and that his status is GOOD. He believes Boardman may be developed into a valuable man for use on dangerous assignments.

In November, 1934, Inspector Egan reported that in his opinion this agent would need careful and close supervision for some time to come and that he felt his development would be slow. He noted an instance wherein Agent Boardman seemed to lose some time in assembling his work for dictation.

At the conclusion of the training course in September, 1934, Instructor Keith reported that Boardman was alert, attentive, displayed an abundance of enthusiasm, was possessed of a nice appearance and personality, was tactful, and was amenable to discipline. He stated that, while this employee exhibited a slight degree of over-confidence and some lack of judgment at the beginning of the training school, quite an improvement was noted before its conclusion. He felt that Boardman would develop into a good field agent but was doubtful that he possessed any executive possibilities.

RECOMMENDATION

I recommend a $100 increase in salary.

In arriving at the above rating for an employee, consider each of the ten qualifications separately. In the column headed "Grade" give a separate rating between 0 and 100% for each qualification, as explained at the beginning of the sheet under definitions of Inferior, Unsatisfactory, Fair, Good, and Excellent. Then multiply each separate grade given in each separate qualification by the respective number indicated in the column headed "Relative Weight." Extend the figure obtained for each separate qualification into the column headed "Total." Add all the figures in the column headed "Total" and divide this sum by 20 to arrive at the final rating.

REMARKS:

(Under this heading shall be set forth a digest of criticisms and conditions of significance which will reflect deficiencies, meritorious features, and special qualifications or disqualifications.)

Special Agent Boardman presents a very good personal appearance and is possessed of a good personality, although very quiet and business-like in his demeanor. He is conscientious and willingly devotes overtime to his duties. I have found him to have a good knowledge of the Bureau's work and while he has been handling exclusively War Risk Insurance investigations for the past several months, I have recently assigned him to bankruptcy work and find that he is qualified to grasp the essential elements of that type of investigation.

He is qualified to operate a typewriter in a satisfactory manner; likewise he is capable of driving an automobile in a satisfactory manner. Boardman has been qualified with the degree of marksman in the use of all types of weapons and I believe that he is cool and level-headed enough so that he may be developed into a valuable man for use on hazardous assignments. His dictation is good and his reports are usually thorough, requiring only average supervision. I do not see any signs of executive ability in this employee. His status, however, is that of a good Agent.

If deficiencies or disqualifications have been noted under "Remarks," have you brought them to the attention of the employee prior to the rendition of this rating? Yes

Rating Officer.

BIO SERVICE:

This agent is a young man of very good personal appearance and has a good personality. He has a good working knowledge of the work of the Bureau and of the himself continuously at all times. Recently he was used on the No. 1 desk here and in this capacity he functioned quite well for one of his experience in this type of work. Considering his status as a whole, I believe it to be good.

INSTRUCTIONAL WORK:

This employee made a very good impression on me, has a good personal appearance and is much, is interested, willing, and during the examination on the final, he became extremely nervous. I asked him the reasons for this and he had no explanation to offer. I explained to him in detail the purpose of an inspection, that we were there to help him, if possible, and that he should look on a discussion of the Manual of Instructions regarding it, as an opportunity to gain information of which he did not in possession and for the Inspectors to be able to review his work and offer constructive criticism. He felt a great deal better when he left the room after the examination than he did when he entered at first. One of my men told me that the Inspector had been on something else, but nevertheless his attitude was entirely different when he left the room. He informed me that he would have a different view of instructions Inspector. This employee is of the type that needs encouragement, but will develop with proper supervision. His status should be shown as fair.

Re: Special Agent L. V. Boardman
Thirty Day Report

Dear Sir:

Special Agent L. V. Boardman reported for duty at this station on July 24, last, and has since that date been engaged upon general assignment and has during the subsequent period rendered satisfactory services.

This employee makes a good personal appearance and I believe that he leaves a good impression with those upon whom he calls in connection with official matters. I have the impression that Agent Boardman is generally well-informed regarding the requirements of his position and he impresses me as being a substantial and reliable individual. The investigative assignments which have recently received his attention during his period of assignment here have been logically developed and as speedily reported as could be expected. His reports are well worked and contain all essential facts, indicating careful and thorough investigative activity.

While this Agent does not impress me as an outstanding Agent, I believe, from the manner in which he approaches his duties and the ability which he displays in the conduct of his work, that he has potentialities for much further development and that he has the basic qualifications which properly directed and developed will make him a better than average Agent. This employee has had very substantial experience in various types of Bureau investigations during the fourteen months of service with this Bureau. He is well qualified as a typist, is a capable automobile operator, is well qualified in the use of all types of weapons and appears to be level-headed and conservative to the extent that he could be detailed on dangerous assignments.

Agent Boardman is a willing worker and loyal to this organization and manifestly interested to advance in the organization. He has, without complaint, performed much overtime duty during the period of his assignment at this station.

An effort will be made to supervise the activities of this employee in a manner which will develop to the fullest extent the substantial potentialities which in my judgment he possesses.

"This employee, assigned to this station a little over a month ago, has rendered satisfactory services. He appears to be well informed with respect to the Bureau's practices and methods and has, I believe, made satisfactory development since his appointment to this service in July, 1934.

Agent Boardman exercises good judgment, is attentive to his duties, develops his cases logically, works steadily, but not too rapidly. When he first reported at this office, he appeared to a considerable degree to lack confidence in his own judgment, and made very few decisions on his own initiative. This may have been due to the fact that he was in a new territory and new section of the country to him, and he apparently felt that there were some rules or practices in this office that he was not informed of as a new Agent. I gathered the impression that perhaps his attitude in this regard was due to the fact that in his previous assignment he had received closer and more constant supervision than has been ordinarily possible of giving to Agents at the Los Angeles Office.

Agent Boardman is a better than average marksman. I regard him as a satisfactory and valuable employee."

This Agent makes a fair appearance and impression and seems rather serious minded, conscientious, and energetic. He is not very forceful, appears to be lacking in aggressiveness and initiative and it is believed he is somewhat lacking in self-confidence and gives the impression of not being sure of himself. This tendency may be overcome with more experience, but he will never be more than an average Agent at best.

Dear Sir:

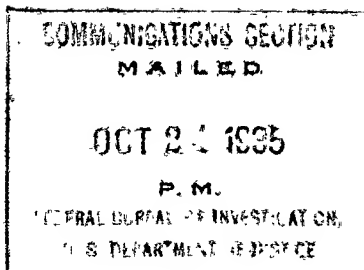

Reference is made to the efficiency rating submitted by you under date of September 30, 1935, in the case of Special Agent L. V. Boardman.

In connection with a review of the record of this employee, the Bureau desires to call your attention to the report submitted in his case by Inspectors Egan and Whitley relative to the September inspection of the Los Angeles Office. The Inspectors stated that Agent Boardman makes a fair appearance and impression, and seems rather serious minded, conscientious and energetic. They state he is not very forceful; that he appears to be lacking in aggressiveness, and initiative; and it is believed that he is somewhat lacking in self confidence, as he gives the impression of not being sure of himself. They think this tendency may be overcome with more experience, but that Agent Boardman will never be more than an average agent at best.

It is desired that you give your attention to this report on the part of the Inspectors in this case, and that you endeavor in your supervision of the work of the employee to correct these faults in his case.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover,
Director

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

I today saw Mr. L. V. Boardman, Special Agent assigned to the Los Angeles Office, who has been attending the retraining class. Mr. Boardman made a very favorable personal appearance. He seems to be interested in his work and in talking with him I did not reach the same conclusion that the Inspectors reached, namely, that he was lacking in aggressiveness and initiative. There is no doubt that he may need additional seasoning and experience, but he manifested the attitude of wanting to learn, which, of course, is a valuable attribute.

John Edgar Hoover,
Director.

Mr. Dunn states this agent presents a very good personal appearance; has a good personality; works hard; has a good knowledge of the work; is satisfactory for hazardous assignments, and all in all is a competent and satisfactory Special Agent.

Inspectors Egan and Whitley in September, 1935, stated this agent makes a fair appearance and impression; and seems to be rather serious minded, conscientious and energetic. They state he is not very forceful; appears to be lacking in aggressiveness and initiative, and is somewhat lacking in self confidence. They think this tendency may be overcome with more experience, but that he will never be more than an average agent at best.

This agent was recently promoted to $3300 per annum in Grade Caf-9.

RECOMMENDATION

I recommend no other change. I suggest that the attached letter go forward to Special Agent in Charge Dunn, apprising him of the views of the Inspectors concerning this agent, and suggesting that Mr. Dunn endeavor to assist him in developing a greater degree of confidence and aggressiveness.

Consider carefully these definitions, keep them in mind when rating, and compare the employee with all others in the same position for the entire service:

INFERIOR (0-59%).....EXCEPTIONALLY POOR performance of duty; EXCEPTIONALLY LACKING in qualification considered.

EXCELLENT (93-100%).....Duty performed in HIGHLY EFFICIENT MANNER; qualified to a PREEMINENT DEGREE.

To what degree has he exhibited the following qualifications? Consider him in comparison with others in the same position for the entire service.

In arriving at the above rating for an employee, consider each of the ten qualifications separately. In the column headed "Grade" give a separate rating between 0 and 100% for each qualification, as explained at the beginning of the sheet under definitions of Inferior, Unsatisfactory, Fair, Good, and Excellent. Then multiply each separate grade given in each separate qualification by the respective number indicated in the column headed "Relative Weight." Extend the figure obtained for each separate qualification into the column headed "Total." Add all the figures in the column headed "Total" and divide this sum by 20 to arrive at the final rating.

REMARKS:

(Under this heading shall be set forth a digest of criticisms and conditions of significance which will reflect deficiencies, meritorious features, and special qualifications or disqualifications.)

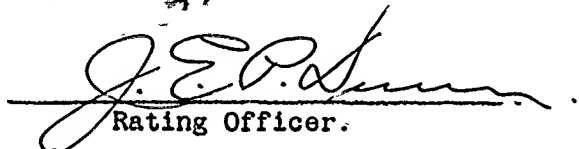

Special Agent Boardman, comparatively new at this station, presents a very good personal appearance and has a good personality, although somewhat quiet and conservative in his demeanor. He is a hard working Agent and has displayed a good knowledge of the Bureau's work. He has been engaged upon general assignment at this station since his arrival here and has discharged such assignments in a competent manner. Agent Boardman is a good typist and a capable automobile driver.

During the period of his assignment at this station he has made a general average of 87.5 in the use of the .38 calibre revolver. He has likewise developed a good degree of expertness in the use of all other types of weapons and it is my judgment that he is cool and level-headed enough so that he could be safely used in connection with hazardous assignments.

In general, his work at this station has been satisfactory. He does not appear to possess a great degree of executive or administrative capacity, although his assignments have not been such as to give any specific indication in this regard.

I regard Agent Boardman as a competent and satisfactory Agent.

If deficiencies or disqualifications have been noted under "Remarks," have you brought them to the attention of the employee prior to the rendition of this rating? _____

Rating Officer.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

On November 2nd, I talked with Special Agent L. V. Boardman of the Los Angeles Office, a member of the retraining class.

I fully agree with you that Mr. Boardman does not evidence the deficiencies which were mentioned by the Inspectors following the recent inspection of the Los Angeles Office. He certainly did not appear to me to be lacking in aggressiveness and initiative. I talked with Mr. Boardman concerning this particular point, and he indicated that he has up to this time been somewhat nonplused in his contacts with Inspectors of the Bureau. I pointed out to him the manner in which he should regard an Inspector, and I believe that his attitude in this respect will improve.

He impressed me as being a very conscientious and desirable type of employee. He makes a good personal appearance, and I am inclined to believe he will develop further in the service.

Respectfully,

Clyde Tolson.

Re: L. V. BOARDMAN,
Special Agent.

Entered on duty - July 30, 1934.
Present salary - $3300.00.
Date of latest promotion - September 1, 1935.
Legal residence - Eveleth, Minnesota.
Office of preference - St. Paul, Minnesota.
Office to which assigned - Los Angeles, California.

Special Agent Boardman attended the Retraining School for a period of four weeks, beginning October 7, 1935; making a grade of 98 on the written examination; revolver score of 92.4; qualified in the use of firearms; qualified in latent fingerprint and fingerprint identification work; crime scene test "Good."

My attention was favorably attracted to this Agent during the discussion of a raid in which he participated. It was one of the most intelligent presentations that has been made by any of the Special Agents in discussing a particular raid project. His enunciation was slightly too precise but from the standpoint of intelligent presentation, he did an excellent job. He makes an unusually good appearance and has a good personality. He was very neatly attired, always prompt in getting to his seat in the morning and following recess periods, and demonstrated above average interest in the Retraining School work. I subsequently discussed a number of the employees in the class with Special Agent in Charge Hanson who stated that Boardman, in his opinion, was one of the outstanding men in the class, that he had initiative, intelligence, enthusiasm, and intense interest. I heartily concur in this observation and note that he has a good educational background; has even had some practical experience as a salesman which should add to his equipment as a Special Agent in making contacts.

I believe this Agent is ripe for a trial in some position of increased responsibility and would recommend that he be brought into Washington in a supervisory position so his prospects of further development may be both measured and directed.

Respectfully,

H. H. CLEGG.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Re: L. V. Boardman,
Special Agent.

In view of Mr. Hince's transfer as an assistant supervisor in the Laboratory, it will be necessary to designate someone for this position. I have had a talk with Mr. Clegg regarding the members of the various retraining classes and the best possibility, according to Mr. Clegg's recommendation, is Special Agent L. V. Boardman. The comments concerning the work of Mr. Boardman while he was in the Retraining Class have been noted in Mr. Clegg's memorandum of November 5, 1935, attached hereto, and it is believed that it would be desirable to have Mr. Boardman assigned to the Laboratory to perform the work formerly assigned to Mr. Hince to ascertain whether he is capable of supervisory duties.

Accordingly, it is recommended that Mr. Boardman be assigned to the Laboratory for a period of time for observation purposes.

The following special report is submitted concerning the work of Special Agent L. V. Boardman, Grade 9, who is assigned to the Laboratory.

During the period of his assignment to administrative duties in the Laboratory Mr. Boardman has evidenced a great deal of interest in the work performed. He has not had previous training in technical or scientific lines and this has been some handicap to him in his efforts to gain a general knowledge of the work and procedures followed in the Laboratory, as a result of which his progress in this direction has naturally been slow. He appears, however, to be approaching the problem in this respect in an organized and enthusiastic manner. The employee seems to have a certain amount of executive and administrative ability, the full extent and value of which it has not been possible to accurately gauge during the period of his assignment here. I do believe, however, that this latent attribute is capable of further development.

He does not appear to have had much experience in the handling of personnel and his ability along this line has also been difficult to gauge due to the short period he has been under my observation. So far he has indicated a desirable tendency to exact prompt and complete performance of assignments and to follow up assignments to personnel. On the other hand he has exhibited a tendency to be impatient with the shortcomings of other employees assigned to the Laboratory to such a point that such impatience on his part approaches irritability during his discussions of the subject matter with the employee. I think that with further experience in the handling of personnel he will improve in this respect and I am endeavoring to guide him as much as possible in this regard.

Have talked with this employee and will do so again.

I recommend the employee be continued on his present assignment and will submit a further report on his progress within sixty days.

RE: AGENTS' INSURANCE FUND

This is to advise you that this fund now amounts to $6,170.00, representing contributions from 612 Special Agents. These five contributions were made subsequent to the time the amount of the fund was paid over to Mrs. Klein.

The above mentioned figure includes the contributions of thirteen former Special Agents. Under date of November 26, 1935, a refund of $10 was made to former Special Agent (A) S. R. Kerr upon his specific request. There are now 18 Agents who have not affiliated themselves with the fund.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. QUINN.

On February 15, 1936, Mr. L. V. Boardman called this office in an effort to ascertain the status of his December, 1935, expense account in the amount of $123.64. He was informed that a check in this amount had been sent to him by messenger on January 27, 1936.

Inasmuch as a subsequent search on the part of Mr. Boardman failed to locate the check, and the records of the Division of Accounts of the Department verify the records of this office, a memorandum has been prepared for the General Agent requesting that payment on this check be stopped and steps taken for the issuance of a duplicate check in this amount. Inquiry of the Treasury Department on February 21, 1936, reflected that this check had not been returned to the Treasury by February 20, 1936.

I am of the opinion that this check was either lost by the messenger taking the same to the Identification Unit, or that the check was placed on Mr. Boardman's desk in his absence, and was blown or brushed into the waste basket.

Respectfully,

W. R. Glavin.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. EDWARDS.

Re: Voucher check for Mr. L. V.
Boardman.

On or about the 7th of January I submitted an expense voucher in the sum of $123.64 for the voucher period of from December 1st to 31st, 1935. Inasmuch as I had not received a check covering this voucher I contacted Mr. C. W. Whaling of the Chief Clerk's Office and asked him whether or not they had ever received my expense account. Mr. Whaling then advised me that the records in the Chief Clerk's Office indicated that they had sent to me by messenger on January 27, 1936, a check in the aforementioned amount. I, of course, advised Mr. Whaling that the check had never been received by me.

Thinking that the check might possibly have been received in Mr. Coffey's Office and been misplaced I immediately made a thorough check of this office with negative results. I then made inquiry of Mrs. Speake, Mrs. Brownscombe, and Mr. Reynolds to see if by any chance the check had been misrouted to their respective divisions. These individuals all advised that they had no recollection of ever having received a check for me. Mrs. Speake then advised that she had contacted the messengers and that Mr. Kleinkauf recalled delivering a check personally to me in the approximate sum of $100.00. I immediately contacted Mr. Kleinkauf who stated that to the best of his recollection he had brought a check to me on about January 16th or 17th in the sum of approximately $100.00. Inasmuch as I had received an expense check in the sum of approximately $90.00 about the middle of January I contacted Mr. Whaling of the Chief Clerk's Office who advised that their records indicated they had sent by messenger a check in the sum of $90.00 and some cents to me on January 17th. This undoubtedly is the check which Mr. Kleinkauf recalls delivering to me. I am advised by Mr. Whaling that a "stop order" is being placed on the payment of said check.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. EDWARDS

Re: Telegram for the Tulsa World in connection with the murder of George Stewart and Louis Pappan erroneously addressed.

With reference to the telegram for the Tulsa World in connection with the Louis Pappan and George Stewart case, which telegram was erroneously addressed to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, you are advised that I made inquiry concerning this and found out Mrs. Rhodes, the stenographer, erroneously prepared the address in the first instance.

The outgoing wire was approved in my absence from the desk by Mr. Boardman.

I have brought this matter to the attention of both of these employees, pointing out the necessity for unusual care in the examination of matters of this kind.

It would appear from the attached note from the Communications Section that the telegram was eventually correctly routed to Tulsa.

Respectfully,

E. P. Coffey.

REMARKS

Mr. Edwards states that Mr. Boardman, in spite of his lack of training and experience in scientific work, has developed in a very satisfactory manner as a Supervisor in the Laboratory and Single Fingerprint Section. He considers that Boardman has a very promising future in an administrative capacity as he has good judgment, is forceful, presents a very good personal appearance and exhibits a very satisfactory attitude. His only criticism of Boardman is an impatient attitude in the handling of personnel, but he has accepted criticism in this respect in the proper spirit and he believes this tendency will disappear.

EFFICIENCY RATING SHEET

Office submitting Division Five

Date submitted March 31, 1936

Name of employee L. V. Boardman Caf 9 $3300
(Title) (Grade) (Salary)
Entered on duty July 30, 1934 Entered on duty this office December 12, 1935
(Date) (Date)

Consider carefully these definitions; keep them in mind when rating, and compare the employee with all others in the same position for the entire service:
INFERIOR (0-59%).....EXCEPTIONALLY POOR performance of duty; EXCEPTIONALLY LACKING in qualification considered.
UNSATISFACTORY (60-74%)...Duty NOT performed AS WELL AS SHOULD BE EXPECTED; not satisfactory; DECIDEDLY below standard.
FAIR (75-84%).....Work ORDINARILY satisfactory; NOT OUTSTANDING.
GOOD (85-92%).....Duty performed in an EFFICIENT MANNER; qualifications UP TO STANDARD and ENTIRELY SATISFACTORY.
EXCELLENT (93-100%).....Duty performed in HIGHLY EFFICIENT MANNER; qualified to a PREEMINENT DEGREE.

To what degree has he exhibited the following qualifications? Consider him in comparison with others in the same position for the entire service.

| | GRADE | RELATIVE WEIGHT | TOTAL |
|--|-------|-----------------|-------|
| KNOWLEDGE: Extent of information concerning all duties of his position; ability to analyze cases; practical application of intelligence and educational training; readiness of comprehension | 88 | 7 | 616 |
| JUDGMENT: Common sense; ability to think clearly and arrive at logical conclusion; tact | 92 | 4 | 368 |
| INITIATIVE: Trait of beginning needed work or taking appropriate action on own responsibility in absence of orders | 95 | 1 | 95 |
| FORCE: Aggressiveness; faculty of performing work with vigor and resolution | 90 | 1 | 90 |
| INDUSTRY: Physical activity; application to work; health; energy | 90 | 1 | 90 |
| ACCURACY: Attention to details; thoroughness; precision | 85 | 1 | 85 |
| PERSONAL APPEARANCE: Impression made on others; personality; neatness | 90 | 1 | 90 |
| PAPER WORK: Reporting; marshaling facts; dictating | 88 | 2 | 176 |
| ATTITUDE TOWARD WORK: Attention to duty; loyalty to the service; amenability to discipline; dependability | 90 | 1 | 90 |
| EXECUTIVE CAPACITY: Executive ability; leadership; capacity to direct, control, and influence others in proper performance of duties | 90 | 1 | 90 |
| TOTAL (divide by 20) | | | 1790 |
| Rating | | | 89.5 |

In arriving at the above rating for an employee, consider each of the ten qualifications separately. In the column headed "Grade" give a separate rating between 0 and 100% for each qualification, as explained at the beginning of the sheet under definitions of Inferior, Unsatisfactory, Fair, Good, and Excellent. Then multiply each separate grade given in each separate qualification by the respective number indicated in the column headed "Relative Weight." Extend the figure obtained for each separate qualification into the column headed "Total." Add all the figures in the column headed "Total" and divide this sum by 20 to arrive at the final rating.

REMARKS:

(Under this heading shall be set forth a digest of criticisms and conditions of significance which will reflect deficiencies, meritorious features, and special qualifications or disqualifications.)

Mr. Boardman has been assigned to the Laboratory and Single Fingerprint Section in a supervisory capacity since last December. In spite of his lack of training and experience in scientific work, he has developed in a very satisfactory manner. In fact I consider that he has a very promising future in an administrative capacity, as he has good judgement, is forceful, presents a very good personal appearance and exhibits a very satisfactory attitude towards his work. The only criticism which can be made of Mr. Boardman is an impatient attitude in the handling of personnel. This has been brought to his attention by Mr. Coffey and myself on several occasions and he has accepted the criticism in the proper spirit. It is believed that this tendency will disappear.

If deficiencies or disqualifications have been noted under "Remarks," have you brought them to the attention of the employee prior to the rendition of this rating? Yes.

Rating Officer.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. CLEGG

Re: Injury in Gymnasium.

Special Agent Boardman fell against the oar of the rowing machine while playing handball today. He bruised his left hip rather severely. I immediately gave him a heat treatment and massage with wintergreen and recommended that he should go home immediately and soak his hip in hot water and epsom salts.

I believe that this injury will clear up over the weekend and do not think a doctor's attention is necessary.

Respectfully,

M. E. Goudge

I think that the six best speakers from among the personnel at the Dept of Government to appear before the SAC Conference are as follows: [redacted], H. H. Clegg, Harold Nathan, R. T. Harbo, R. E. Foxworth and L. R. Pennington.

In summarizing, I believe that six of the above mentioned speakers, as indicated, are especially effective and that probably ten more officials and employees at the Dept of Government can make creditable speeches with several of them showing definite possibilities of rapid development if given sufficient opportunity.

Respectfully,

C/ W.H.D. Lester

NOTE: There are some excellent suggestions in this. Particularly we should develop some of the latent material of Wash. It is more than I suspected was available.

J. E. H.

L. V. Pennington

I did not hear this gentleman talk before the Special Agents in Charge Conference but do not think he would make a successful speaker. He is rather colorless and lacks "punch." I recommend that he be given no speaking assignments at the present time.

As a matter of record, I think it should be recorded that Special Agent L. V. MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

Re: Agents' Insurance Fund

This is to advise you that the Agents' Insurance Fund now amounts to $6,471.65, representing contributions from 634 Special Agents. The difference of $131.65 is explained by the fact that $50.00 of this amount is applicable to the first fund which was disbursed upon the death of Agent N. B. Klein. These five contributions were made subsequent to the time the amount of the fund was paid over to Mrs. Klein. The additional $81.65 represents two interest payments, one on February 3, 1936, for $20.45, and the other on June 1, 1936 for $61.20.

The above mentioned figure includes the contributions of 43 former Special Agents. Four refunds have been made to the following former Special Agents:

These refunds were made upon the specific requests of the resigning Agents.

There follows a list of the Agents who have not contributed to the fund and the reasons, if any, for not affiliating themselves with the fund. At time of writing there are 12 Agents and 10 trainees who have not contributed.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We were pleased this morning to have as a speaker at our convocation Mr. L.V. Boardman of Huntington, representing your department. I am, without his knowledge, writing to you to express appreciation for the splendid address which he gave and for the fine presentation of your work and of the objectives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I am naturally in my position very critical of speakers, and I take special pleasure in ending word to you that he did an unusually fine piece of work both from your viewpoint and ours, and he is deserving of the highest commendation, and of our deepest appreciation.

Dear Sir:

While I was in Washington, D. C. about two weeks ago, Inspector H. H. Clegg inquired as to the type of instruction given by Special Agent L. V. Boardman of the Bureau's Laboratory before the police school of instruction conducted at Columbus, Georgia from September 22 to September 26, 1936.

I recently returned from Columbus, Georgia where the school of instruction was completed with lectures given for five days on investigative procedure. I took the opportunity to inquire indirectly regarding the type of instruction given by Agent Boardman and the manner in which he was received. I found that he had conducted three classes a day of two hours each; one before the Military Police of Fort Benning, Georgia; and two at the Columbus, Georgia Police Department. The latter classes were also attended by officers from nearby police departments. Not only did Captain Thomas J. Cross, Provost Marshal, Fort Benning, Georgia, Chief of Police H. W. Cornett and Captain H. M. Adair of the Columbus, Georgia Police Department comment highly upon the instruction given by Agent Boardman, but I also found that the members of the police organizations, those who attended the schools as students, voluntarily expressed themselves as being pleased with the type of instruction given and also the manner in which it was given. Apparently Agent Boardman left a very favorable impression.

Very truly yours,

E. E. Conroy

Dear Mr. Hoover:

It was our pleasure to hear L. V. Boardman, Resident Agent, Huntington, W. Va., discuss the qualifications, work, and activities of the F.B.I. last evening at our Rotary meeting. To say that the 100 men and women who heard him enjoyed the discussion would be putting it mildly. Then through the co-operation of your office it was possible for us to have Mr. Boardman speak to our high school students this morning. The impression which he made upon them was decidedly in the right direction.

As president of Rotary, as well as superintendent of schools, I wish to express the appreciation of these organizations for the work you and your men are doing. In Mr. Boardman we had a speaker who represented your Department both ably and well.

It is our wish that continued success may attend the efforts of the organization which you represent.

Sincerely yours,

Special Agent P. DiLillo made the following suggestions:

The group may favorably consider the advisability of issuing a circular letter to all Special Agents who have particularly excelled in the investigation of violations of National Prohibition Act cases, suggesting that they relate a system used in investigation or recovering concealed assets. The information so gathered might then be compiled in a memorandum to be sent to each office for discussion at a monthly conference, on the possibility that the system used in a certain case might be used in a case in which similar circumstances.

13. Motion adjourned.

Very truly yours,

H. L. [illegible]

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover,

Dear Sir:

The writer was present, last night, at a special meeting of the Kane, Pennsylvania, Rotary Club, where your special agent, Mr. L. V. Boardman, gave a most interesting and instructive talk on the splendid work you are doing for the Country.

Such able speakers as Mr. Boardman are rare in this section of the State, and it would, indeed, be a great privilege to us in Port Allegany if you would kindly grant permission for him to come as our guest speaker in the near future and give a similar talk.

In discussing the proposition with our president, Mr. J. H. Isherwood, it has been decided that, in the event you kindly concede to our request, we will arrange for a Rotary Ann, and invite Rotarians from our neighboring clubs, Coudersport, Bradford and Olean as well as friends prominent in our Community.

We would, no doubt, have an audience of 80 to 100. The meeting would be held in the Canoe Place Inn of this town, preferably on a Thursday evening, to commence at 6:30 P.M. The date would depend upon your decision and as to when Mr. Boardman could make it convenient to come.

Thanking you in anticipation of a favorable answer,

Believe me.

Mr. John Edgar Hoover,
Director,
Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I wish to express in this letter the sentiment of my entire department, as well as my own personal appreciation of the Bureau's efforts to assist us in organizing and conducting the Training School which has just been brought to a highly successful conclusion.

It is my intention to convey to you the high regard this personal contact with the representative personnel, has engendered for your organization.

I can not commend too highly, each of the experts, Mr. Conroy, Mr. Boardman and Mr. Nitschke, who conducted the course of instructions in which each is particularly qualified.

We feel especially favored in having been selected to receive the benefits of the vast knowledge and experience of these experts, not to mention the services of each of the many agents of the Bureau who are frequently of invaluable assistance to this department.

It is hardly possible to estimate the good your cooperation with all law enforcement agencies throughout the country has done and is doing, especially with regard to the enlightenment of these organizations as to the inadequacies of their present methods, and future possibilities.

In our own organization, the fire arms instructions alone, more than justified any incidental expense and effort, by demonstrating our deficiency, both in the matter of equipment and skill.

Please be assured that your efforts have not been wasted, for it is my intention to continue along the lines suggested by the Bureau's instructors.

Assuring you again of my fullest appreciation of your assistance and cooperation, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

On the following morning, Evans met me and brought the Buick to Art Metal Shop, 520 Fifth Avenue, for repairs. The fender was straightened and repainted so that it looks the same as before. ACCIDENT TO BUREAU AUTOMOBILE,
BUICK SEDAN, Motor #42995115

Dear Sir:

Special Agent Leland V. Boardman submitted a memorandum dated December 12, 1936, pertaining to a collision had at Huntington, West Virginia, while driving Bureau Buick Sedan, motor number 42995115, with a Ford Sedan, driven by Alton Evans, of 1310 Tenth Avenue, Huntington, West Virginia.

The memorandum submitted by Special Agent Boardman follows:

"On Friday evening, December 11, 1936, at 8:15 P. M., while I was crossing the intersection at Eleventh Avenue and Fifth Street, Huntington, West Virginia, on my way up from Williamson, West Virginia, I ran into a Ford Sedan, Model 1930, driven by Alton Evans, 1310 Tenth Avenue, Huntington, West Virginia. I was traveling West on Fifth Street, which is a through street, and Evans was traveling North on Eleventh Avenue, which is a stop street. Evans neglected to come to a stop at the intersection and, before I could stop Buick Car #10, the car skidded into the Ford, thereby damaging the left front fender of the Buick, and the right rear fender of the Ford. Immediately after the accident, I called to Evans' attention the fact that he had failed to come to a stop. He stated that he had not known that there was a stop sign there and, therefore, had failed to observe it. He admitted liability for the accident thereafter. Driving in his car with him were Rebecca and Josephine Dobbins, 431 West 8th Street, Huntington, West Virginia. Rebecca Dobbins tried to convince Alton Evans that he was not at fault - in fact, she was practically abusive. Alton Evans apologized for the actions of his girl-friend on the following morning and stated that she was nervous as a result of the accident. The collision was very slight, and no occupation of either car was injured in any manner, according to their own statements.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Recently we were privileged to have your representative Mr. L. V. Boardman of Pittsburgh, Pa., address our "Americo Club" and he was most favorably received. Since that date, I have contacted the officials of the following organizations and can arrange to use Mr. Boardman or some such representative a full day here in Donora any Tuesday that you can arrange in Feb.

1. Address the Junior High School assembly at 9:30 (950 pupils)
2. Address the Senior High School assembly at 11:00 (1,100 pupils)
3. Address Donora Rotary Club at noon. (40 members)
4. Inspect the America Steel & Wire plant as guest of the officials at 2 o'clock.
5. Address the annual "Father and Son" banquet of all scouts in Donora. (250 present)

Hoping that you can arrange to let us have Mr. Boardman some Tuesday in February as I believe such a day would be well spent in this industrial community, 85 percent foreign, and I would judge a future hot-bed of criminals. In appreciation of your fine work and realizing the value of such publicity as Mr. Boardman can present to our young people, I beg to remain,

REMARKS:

(Under this heading shall be set forth a digest of criticisms and conditions of significance which will reflect deficiencies, meritorious features, and special qualifications or disqualifications.)

This agent arrived at the Pittsburgh Field Division on September 29, 1935, and has, since that time, been a resident agent at Huntington, West Virginia. He makes a favorable impression. He has a good personal appearance and, I am informed, he has been favorably received as a resident agent by law enforcement officials and attaches of the United States District Court in the Southern District of West Virginia.

During the short interim of residency at Huntington, he has only handled the most common types of cases. His investigations have been conducted efficiently and have required only limited supervision. Since his arrival within the Pittsburgh Field Division, he has had no opportunity to conduct investigations of cases requiring a great deal of judgment, tact, and initiative.

This agent is cognizant of the work and functions of the Bureau and is able to deliver a commendable address on the subject. He appears to be well versed on matters pertaining to the Bureau Technical Laboratory, from which laboratory he was transferred to this field division.

Agent Boardman dictates well, is a fair typist, and his rough drafts do not require many changes. This agent is qualified in the use of firearms and in the use of the Bureau technical equipment. I have had no occasion to observe him in cases involving personal danger, but I believe that in such cases he would give a good account of himself. Agent Boardman is a careful automobile driver. During the brief period of his assignment to this division, he has exhibited no indication of executive ability.

The work of this agent is satisfactory.

If deficiencies or disqualifications have been noted under "Remarks," have you brought them to the attention of the employee prior to the rendition of this rating? Yes

Dear Sir:

Attached hereto is report submitted by Special Agent Leland V. Boardman, January 13, 1937 in the matter entitled as above.

It will be noted that the investigation was begun on October 31, 1936; that additional inquiry was made November 25, 1936, and that the matter was finally submitted to the United States Attorney at Bluefield, West Virginia, January 9, 1937.

I have brought this and other similar instances to the attention of Special Agent Boardman with the request that hereafter he submit reports as soon as an investigation is conducted by him. Prior to the submission of this report I had reportedly advised Agent Boardman that now matters must be reported promptly to the Pittsburgh Field Division and as soon as received, and that reports must immediately be submitted after an inquiry has been conducted.

It may be noted that Special Agent Boardman had not advised this field division that he was conducting such an investigation and that the division was not apprised that such an investigation was being conducted by him until January 13, 1937 when a rough draft was submitted.

Agent Boardman, when confronted with these facts, replied that he realized that he had been lax in submitting reports promptly but that he had no "conjugation" over the matter as he had been engaged in other urgent official duties. Mr. Boardman promised that he would hereafter be prompt in the submission of reports and the reporting of new cases received to this division.

Incidentally, in connection with this particular case, I suggested to Agent Boardman that he should not have conducted such an extensive inquiry in the matter, based upon the first report made by the complainant, as the facts were not such as to deserve such consideration. Mr. Boardman explained that he conducted the inquiry at the suggestion of the United States Attorney.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. CLEGG

Re: Auto Driving Test of Special Agent L. V. Boardman.

Please be informed that on September 13, 1936, I gave an automobile driving test to Special Agent L. V. Boardman. Notations and observations were made as to whether Special Agent Boardman checked the oil, gas, water and tires, prior to starting; also the manner in which the automobile was started, the manner of shifting gears and releasing the clutch, starting, acceleration, running speed, manner of slackening speed, stopping and starting, manner of turning, backing and parking, both on the right and the left.

In addition, observations were made as to whether Special Agent Boardman complied with the speed laws, watched the caution signs, was cautious in approaching intersections, observed the traffic in the rear and the sides, the use of hand signals and courtesy towards drivers and pedestrians. An observation was also made as to the facility and ease with which the automobile was operated. Special Agent Boardman exhibited to me an automobile driver's permit for the District of Columbia which will expire in 1939, and he also informed me that he owns his own automobile and has been driving for approximately twenty years.

It is my opinion that Agent Boardman should be given a grade of Very Good.

Respectfully,

Lloyd W. Bryan

Dear Mr. Hoover:

At a recent Kiwanis meeting in Clarksburg, West Virginia, it was my pleasure to hear an address by one of your investigators, Mr. L. V. Boardman. His talk was most interesting and highly appreciated by all present.

We would appreciate if if you could arrange to have one of your investigators visit our Club and give a talk covering activities of the G-Men or any other subject which you might care to choose.

Our Club has a membership of around forty. If you can send one of your men, I would be glad to arrange so that he could also speak to our local high school which has an enrollment of five hundred. Then, too, we have located here in Philippi Alderson-Broadbush College which has an enrollment of around one hundred and fifty and I would be pleased to have it arranged so that he could also talk to the student body in this school. Both the high school and college will end their terms the latter part of May. Any date between now and that time would be acceptable to our Club except May 14th.

Would you please advise me if you could furnish us a man for these talks?

Dear Sir:

This is my thirty-day efficiency report on the

Agent Boardman, from the time of my arrival in Pittsburgh on April 21, 1937, until the opening of the Huntington, West Virginia Office on May 20, 1937, was Resident Agent at Huntington, W. Va. During this time he was over-assigned and a review of his file discloses that prior to my arrival at this office he was used for the purpose of making speeches, which required him to be away from his assigned cases for a good portion of the time.

Agent Boardman handled his work in a good manner and his reports were well typed and required little supervision.
He is of neat appearance, of mild manner and appears to lack drive and force.

I have heard many compliments on his speaking ability and in all I was well pleased with the manner in which he handled his work as Resident Agent. My criticism of him is that he was occasionally slow in submitting reports and as stated above this is probably due to the fact that he was over-assigned and had too many cases to attend to at one time.

I have not been able to ascertain if this Agent possesses any latent executive ability.

Very truly yours,

REMARKS:

(Under this heading shall be set forth a digest of criticisms and conditions of significance which will reflect deficiencies, meritorious features, and special qualifications or disqualifications.)

During his period of assignment to this office Special Agent Boardman has been Resident Agent in Huntington, West Virginia, where he performed his duties very satisfactorily. This Agent is familiar with the rules and regulations of the Bureau and with its instructions and has applied them to the cases investigated by him.

Agent Boardman makes a good appearance. The United States Attorney and the Court in the Southern District of West Virginia are favorably impressed with his ability as an Agent. Agent Boardman has been able to enlist and maintain the cooperation of law enforcement officers in the Southern District of West Virginia, and has stimulated their interest in the work and functions of the Bureau.

Agent Boardman has cooperated with the office at all times. He is amenable to criticism. He at no time committed the same error twice. He is a hard worker. He is well qualified in delivering addresses before civic, scholastic, religious, and other organizations on the work and functions of the Bureau. His addresses have been favorably commented upon by his audiences.

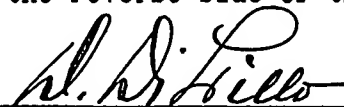

This Agent appears to be loyal to the Bureau. I have had no occasion to observe this Agent on the witness stand. I do believe, however, that he has no difficulty in this regard. Likewise, I have had no occasion to personally observe this Agent in raids and cases involving personal danger. I believe, however, that in those cases he would give a good account of himself.

This Agent dictates well. He uses the typewriter and his work needs only a limited amount of supervision.

I have noticed no outstanding qualifications with regard to this Agent's possible executive ability, however, I believe that with some training he may well develop in this regard.

The services of this Agent have been very satisfactory.

Have the contents of this report under the heading "Remarks" been read in full to the employee to whom they relate, and has the employee been informed as to the status reflected on the reverse side of this report? No

Special Agent
30 Day Efficiency Report

Dear Sir:

DECLASSIFIED BY 1565 SDP/KSL
ON 6-19-91

This Agent has a good knowledge of the various phases of the Bureau's work, and requires little supervision. He presents a good personal appearance and it is my opinion that he favorably impresses persons with whom he comes in contact. I know that he is very well thought of by the law enforcement officials in this vicinity.

He is a conscientious, willing worker and has put in a great deal of overtime. At first he appears to lack vigor and aggressiveness, however, he is the methodical type and handles large volumes of work. He organizes his investigations and follows them to a logical conclusion, in a minimum amount of time, without obtaining irrelevant information. This Agent is a fair typist and a good automobile driver.

I have no basis for judging his knowledge of technical equipment or his use of firearms. I have had occasion to hear this Agent relating facts in two cases where guilty pleas were entered, which facts were presented clearly, intelligently, and in a logical, convincing manner.

This Agent has been greatly over-assigned and it has been necessary for him to handle expedite matters from day to day, and he has had no occasion to exhibit executive traits, however, he appears to have good judgment and may possibly develop in this regard. XEROX

RE: AGENTS' INSURANCE FUND.

For your information, the following Agents have not contributed to any of the insurance funds which have been subscribed to by the various Agents of this Bureau:

Leland V. Boardman //
~~T. P. Geraghty~~
A. D. Mehegan

R. G. Gillespie has not subscribed to any of the funds; however, no requests have been made of him to subscribe in view of the fact that he has been on leave without pay during the entire period of time the fund has been in existence. I do not believe we should ask him to subscribe until he returns to actual duty.

For your further information, Special Agent (A) G. A. Stevens did not contribute to any of the funds until after the death of Special Agent Baker. He then contributed to the Rowe fund. He has not as yet contributed to the present fund; however, he has been on special assignment ever since the fund was started.

Respectfully,

W. R. Glavin.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

I today interviewed Mr. Leland V. Boardman, Special Agent assigned to the Huntington, West Virginia, Office. Mr. Boardman makes a very favorable personal appearance and seems to be enthusiastic about his work. He is particularly desirous of overcoming such shortcomings as have been reflected in his file in the past and seems to be entirely sincere in seeking advice relative to these matters and the methods and measures he should take to overcome them. I believe that if he is as sincere as he expresses himself to be he will soon overcome these shortcomings and be a valuable man with some executive possibilities. He has acquired a greater degree of aggressiveness and forcefulness than he has had in the past.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover,
Director.

I talked to this employee today, and reviewed his personnel file with him. I pointed out certain derelictions on his part within the past rating period which mitigated against the possibility of promotion in his case on July 1st. Mr. Boardman stated that he is very much interested in the work of the Bureau, and he is quite hopeful of being able to advance in the service. Mr. Boardman indicated that he has turned down offers of commercial employment on several occasions of higher salaries than he is receiving in the Bureau.

During the course of my conversation with this employee, I advised him that I wanted to refer to a matter on a personal rather than an official basis, namely, the fact that he made certain remarks to Mr. Coffey when he was assigned at the Seat of Government concerning the Agents' Insurance Fund, which rather left the impression that he had not given proper consideration to the reasons for the establishment of this fund. Mr. Boardman stated that when this matter was mentioned to him by Mr. Coffey, he advised him that he had just taken out a $5000 insurance policy and for that reason did not feel that he could afford at that time to join the agents' fund. He said the statements made to him by Mr. Coffey at the time rather indicated that Mr. Coffey looked upon him as a "black sheep" because he had not joined this fund, and that he was so ashamed of the manner in which Mr. Coffey spoke to him and the impression apparently created by his failure to join the first funds that he had been ashamed thereafter to contribute on the theory that possibly it would be assumed that he was doing so because he had been "bawled out" for not joining originally. He states he has felt for some time that he would like to join the insurance fund, but has not done so for the reason stated.

I was rather impressed with Mr. Boardman's explanation of this matter and with his apparent sincerity and interest in advancement in the Bureau.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. CLEGG

Of the members of the retraining school presently in session, whose speeches I heard, I found the talks delivered by Special Agents [redacted] and L. V. Boardman to reflect public speaking ability.

Agent [redacted] has a natural fluency, good presence on the platform, a pleasing voice, and showed the ability to develop original ideas in connection with a talk. He impressed me as having had considerable experience in speaking. I think his services might be utilized by the Bureau along these lines in addresses before police organizations and civic groups. He might also be kept in mind in connection with police training instruction and the Bureau's training schools at Washington.

Agent Boardman apparently has had a little public speaking experience, but indicated considerable interest in his speech, as shown by the excellent preparation he gave to it. He also acquitted himself very creditably from the standpoint of platform presence and delivery. I think that, with a little training, he would make a very satisfactory representative for the purpose of speaking before local civic clubs and law enforcement organizations.

Respectfully,

DECLASSIFIED BY 1565 SDR/KSL
ON 6-19-91

Dear Sir:

In view of the transfer of the above Agent to the Detroit Division, I desire to submit the following supplement to my report dated June 18, 1937.

Since the submission of my thirty day report on Agent Boardman, I have had occasion to observe him on the range and he is capable of handling all types of firearms. He also has a better than the average knowledge of the technical equipment.

The criticism has previously been made that this Agent appears to lack vigor and aggressiveness or force and drive. Agent Boardman is conscious of this criticism which has been called to his attention and he has personally sought the advice of the writer relative to overcoming these deficiencies. Consequently I have observed this Agent closely and have noted that he attacks his investigations, regardless of their nature, with enthusiasm and interest, and without loss of time. It is true that he does not rush about the office or from interview to interview, however, he accomplishes his work in a minimum amount of time and covers his leads with an even methodical stride. This Agent's even manner might leave the impression that he is lacking in aggressiveness and vigor, however, it has been my observation that he is not lacking in either of these qualities.

It is my opinion that this Agent is not only interested in the Bureau's work but is also ambitious to advance. During the tenure of this Agent's assignment to the Huntington Office his work has been entirely satisfactory and I consider him better than the average Agent.

It is necessary that a grade of eighty-five per cent or more be made on the written examinations and the other tests which were given during the school in order for the grade to be considered satisfactory.

In firearms training, the passing grade for all weapons is sixty per cent, with the exception of the Practical Pistol Course, for which the passing grade is fifty per cent. Any grade made in the use of firearms which does not meet with these requirements is considered unsatisfactory.

Remarks: This Agent has a good personality, nice appearance, and was the outstanding man in his retraining school. He was particularly effective in crime scene work and the leadership he displayed was far superior to that of any of the others designated to handle supervisory positions in the theoretical problems. He made one of the two best speeches before the class. Throughout the school, he evidenced an apparent desire to leave the impression of high interest on his part. He was apparently sincere in his efforts to show both the ability, which he does possess, and his willingness. This Agent is entitled to a status of Good.

SAC Newman reports this Agent, who has been assigned to the Detroit office since August 17, 1937, presents a good appearance, makes a good impression in his contacts with others, understands very well the duties of his position, dictates very well, and his reports require a minimum of correction. This Agent has made a very good showing in fire-arms training, and is considered by Mr. Newman as being a good man to use on raid work of any kind. Although Mr. Newman has not heard him testify, he believes he would make a good witness, as Agent is definite and possesses a good intellect. Agent types satisfactorily and is a good automobile driver. Mr. Newman reports that Agent could display a little more speed in his assignments and that by moving around and getting to his work more quickly his value as an Agent would be more obvious.

On May 21, 1937, SAC Untreiner in a thirty day report stated Agent handles his work in a good manner, and his reports are well typed and require little supervision; that Mr. Untreiner had heard many compliments on his speaking ability and was well pleased with the manner in which he handled his work as Resident Agent. His criticism of Boardman was that Agent was occasionally slow in submitting reports, probably due to the fact that he was over-assigned.

On June 1, 1937, Mr. Clegg by memorandum for the Director included this Agent's name in a list of Agents recommended as suitable material for general training purposes in law enforcement and investigative work.

67-38609-1111
RX

On June 18, 1937, SAC Reynolds in a thirty day report stated Agent is conscientious, a willing worker, and has put in a great deal of overtime. He organizes his investigations, follows them to a logical conclusion in a minimum amount of time, and handles a large volume of work.

On July 20, 1937, the Director interviewed Agent, at which time he stated Agent was particularly desirous of overcoming his shortcomings as reflected in his file, and the Director stated that if Agent is as sincere as he expressed himself to be he would soon overcome these shortcomings and be a valuable man with some executive possibilities.

On July 23, 1937, Mr. Hince in a memorandum for Mr. Clegg stated that of the members of the retraining school presently in session whose speeches he had heard, this Agent was one of two whose talks delivered reflected public speaking ability, that Agent indicated considerable interest in his speech and acquitted himself creditably from the standpoint of platform presence and delivery.

On July 19, 1937, Mr. Tolson talked to this Agent and reviewed his personnel file with him, pointing out certain derelictions on his part which mitigated against the possibility of promotion in his case on July 1st.

On August 16, 1937, SAC Reynolds in a supplementary report stated Agent has a better than average knowledge of technical equipment, and Agent is not only interested in the Bureau's work but is ambitious to advance. This Agent's even manner might leave the impression that he is lacking in aggressiveness and vigor. However, Mr. Reynolds states Agent is not lacking in either of these qualities.

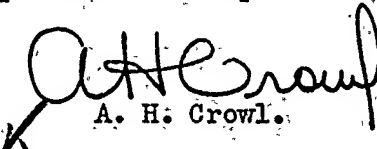

At the conclusion of the retraining school ending July 24, 1937, Mr. Hince reported Agent has a good personality, nice appearance, and was outstanding in his retraining school. He was particularly effective in crime scene work, and the leadership he displayed was far superior to that of any of the others designated to handle supervisory positions in the theoretical problems. Throughout the school he evidenced an apparent desire to leave the impression of high interest on his part.

On September 29, 1937, SAC Newman in a thirty day report stated the work of Agent has been very satisfactory, that although he gave no indication of being particularly speedy, he nevertheless brought his work to a logical conclusion with comparatively little wasted effort. His dictation was good, and his reports, although containing a few minor errors, were set up in good order.

During the October, 1937, inspection of the Detroit office, Mr. Egan reported this Agent was at the office for four or five days during the inspection and he had no opportunity to review any of his work. However, Agent presents a good appearance, seems willing and interested, and Mr. Egan would class him as about an average Agent.

RECOMMENDATION

No change is recommended in this case, inasmuch as Agent received a change in grade and $300 promotion on September 1, 1937.

(Under this heading shall be set forth a digest of criticisms and conditions of significance which will reflect deficiencies, meritorious features, and special qualifications or disqualifications.)

This Agent's appearance is good and he makes a good impression in his contacts with others. He understands very well the duties of his position and I consider him as being better than an average Agent.

I believe Agent Boardman could display a little more speed in his assignments. By moving around and getting to his work more quickly his value as an Agent would be more obvious.

The report work of this Agent is good. He dictates very well and his reports require the minimum of correction.

Agent Boardman has made a very good showing in firearms training and I consider him as being a good man to use on raid work of any kind. He types satisfactorily and I rate him as a good automobile driver.

The work of Agent Boardman during the period of my observation has been entirely satisfactory. I consider him to be above the average as an Agent; however, I do not believe him to possess any appreciable amount of executive ability. He has made a very good showing in the use of firearms and I believe him to be well qualified for raid work. I have not heard him testify but persons who have heard him in this district have commented favorably upon his ability in this regard.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I want to take this opportunity to write and thank you for the splendid co-operation I received from your entire staff when the whereabouts of my daughter were unknown from Monday afternoon until Tuesday noon.

Messrs Smith and Boardman, the two men who were assigned to this duty, worked relentlessly day and night trying to get a line on my daughter. Naturally, the first thing I suspected was that Trudy had been kidnapped, or that some tragedy had befallen her.

This experience strengthens more than ever the good feeling that I have always had toward the Department of Justice, and I know that I could always count on your help should the occasion arise.

Again I want to offer my thanks to the Department, and especially to Messrs Smith and Boardmen, who had absolutely no fear of newspaper men, and performed their duties so zealously.

With kindest personal regards, and hoping that I can be of some service to you sometime, I am,

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Just a few lines at this time to let you know of the tremendous success we are having with our training school in Birmingham. Of course we have not completed our training period as yet, but I feel that you would like to hear of the results of this school for the first two weeks. Mr. Bugas has been most helpful in assisting us to organize the school, and we feel that our success could not have been possible without his assistance. Our officers are still commenting on the thorough and comprehensive manner in which he presented his lectures on "Crime Scenes", which lectures were most helpful and illuminating.

Your Mr. Lee C. Boardman has won the hearts of the entire Police Department with his charming personality, and coupled with his thorough knowledge of the subject, he left an indelible impression and a desire to hear him again upon his return to this City.

Perhaps Mr. Bugas has already informed you that we have approximately 235 officers attending the training school, and the requests to attend, from other Departments as well as other interested persons, have been so numerous that we do not have the facilities to meet these additional demands.

In addition to your own Bureau in Birmingham we want you to consider the Birmingham Police Department as a part of your organization here, perhaps not as efficient in many respects, but I do assure you, our officers do have the desire to do everything possible to further your interest here, and cooperate in every way humanly possible.

Many members of the Police Department join me in respectfully requesting you to give every consideration to a personal visit by you, at the conclusion of this 15 weeks course here. We feel that your presence will do much in the way of Law Enforcement itself, and your personal interest in crime prevention would be felt for years to come.

Will you not make a special effort to be with us during the early part of June, at which time our present instruction period will close.

Mr. Hoover - March 1, 1938

Again thanking you for your many courtesies extended to this Department and with best wishes for your continued success, I am

Yours very truly,

Eugene "Bull" Connor

Missoula, Montana.

My dear Chief:

In the absence of Mr. Hoover from Washington, I am in receipt of your letter of February 23, 1938, and I am indeed pleased that you and the officers in attendance at the recent police school at Missoula found the instruction given by the Bureau's representatives to be of value. It was a very great pleasure to cooperate with you in the conduct of a training course for police officers and I want to assure you of the Bureau's desire to continue to render such cooperation as may be possible from time to time. It is interesting to note that the school was of service to law enforcement officers from five states and twenty-three cities and that the attendance was so satisfactory.

Permit me to congratulate you, on behalf of Mr. Hoover, on your progressive attitude toward law enforcement matters as evidenced by your deep interest in police training.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

CITY OF MISSOULA
STATE OF MONTANA

Hon J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

On behalf of the entire congregation of 140 men and women who were in attendance at the school which was conducted so ably, by Mr. H.E. Anderson, Agent in Charge of Butte and the other members of your wonderful Organization, I wish to express the sincere thanks for the entire body, as was expressed in a dinner after the School.

The school was attended by representatives from five states and twenty-three cities from the state of Montana. Classes were conducted so efficiently, that after the first two days, we were forced to exclude several students of the University. President Simons, was so elated at the outcome, that he has started now in procuring lecturers from some courses and has offered the State University buildings for an annual school. He assured Mr. Anderson and Chief Smith that he will cooperate in any way possible to assist your department in conducting an annual police school.

Mr. Boardman gave a wonderful lecture and also used the laboratory facilities. All in attendance were high in their praise of the education they received. Mr. Nirschke gave an exhibition at Fort Missoula, attended by several hundred soldiers, and by citizens from this community. The soldiers put on a small way, their gas attack and used some of their smoke bombs. The instructions received relative to snap shooting have my men all striving to perfect their marksmanship and the officers at Fort Missoula are going to try several small improvements mentioned by your efficient gun expert.

Markedly successful, the school was wholeheartedly endorsed by the citizens of the community. We of the law enforcement agencies here, fully believe that something material has been accomplished through the kind cooperation and efforts of you and your men.

It is our hope that Montana may have a permanent annual police school in the future, providing a seat of instruction for officers from throughout the state and surrounding areas. This would, may I point out, avoid a repetition of instruction and conserve on the undoubtedly valuable time of your operatives.

Once more, allow me to extend my deep appreciation to you and to the men of your department. With expressions of highest esteem, I remain

H.M. Smith, Chief of Police

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Mr. Hince reports the following concerning the two weeks' work of the fingerprint portion of the Fingerprint and Laboratory Instructors' School:

The members of the school have been rated, with respect to fingerprint work, as follows:

| | Combined Relative Standing |
|------------------|---------------------------------------|
| G. J. Engert | 1 |
| "L. V. Boardman" | 2 |
| H. A. Martin | 3 |
| H. W. Acers | 4 |

| H. M. Sirene | 11 |
| [redacted] | 12 |
| J. F. Sears | 13 |
| A. P. Kitchin | 14 |

The above rating reflects Mr. Hince's opinion as to the ability of these men to handle fingerprint instruction.

Relative ratings were arrived at by giving equal weight to their technical skill and to their teaching ability.

The relative standings of the men with respect to technical knowledge and teaching ability are noted below:

The grades made on the fingerprint classification examination are as follows:

| W. M. Sirens | 72 |
| J. F. Sears | 61 |

Mr. Q. Tamm did not take the fingerprint examination. He became ill, was unable to take the examination, and has not yet returned to duty.

February 19, 1938.

The relative standings concerning technical knowledge are not arranged strictly according to the examination grades inasmuch as the examination referred only to fingerprint classification. Knowledge of the men concerning latent fingerprint work and other technical matters, as observed by Mr. Hince during the demonstration conducted by the class members, was also considered.

If the Bureau decides to reestablish the five-day fingerprint schools in field offices, which are open to identification officers, Mr. Hince believes that the following are capable of handling the instruction in the order named:

G. J. Engert
L. V. Boardman

For short courses in fingerprint work, where detailed discussions of technical phases are not included, Mr. Hince believes that all members of the school would be satisfactory with the exception of Messrs. A. B. Ground, W. C. McCarthy and G. E. Syphers who, although they have high technical knowledge and are not rated lowest in teaching ability, do not have sufficient personality to maintain interest in a school conducted for law enforcement officers.

Special Agent A. P. Kitchin, it is recommended, should not be assigned to any instruction work requiring extended instruction. Agent Kitchin was observed by Mr. Hince to be unusually impatient during the fingerprint course and Mr. Hince does not believe that he has the ability to maintain composure under fire without losing his patience.

Mr. M. W. Acers was the outstanding man in the class with respect to teaching ability but was very low in technical knowledge. He was called out of the class several times and missed some of the work. It was noted that he was not formally assigned to the school but attended in connection with his present duties.

During the school, a new instruction outline for a course in fingerprint identification work was worked out and copies are being furnished to each of the members of the school and are also being placed in the training school files.

Respectfully,

Personal and Confidential

Director,
Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Quoted below is a memorandum submitted to me under date of March 2nd, 1938 by Special Agent J. C. Mertz, working in the Wichita area:

"Re: CAPTAIN LEROY BOWERY

"Captain BOWERY has returned to Wichita from the ten day police school, of which he was in charge at Minneapolis, Minnesota. In discussing the school with him this morning, he advised me in the utmost confidence that Special Agent Boardman, who lectured at the school, created an unfavorable impression because of one fault. Captain Bowery stated that there were a number of high ranking instructors and professors from the University of Minnesota in attendance, and that they all expressed dismay that Boardman should see fit to illustrate his lecture with profanity.

"BOWERY stated he observed that BOARDMAN did not use profanity in his private conversation, but did use it in his lecture to the police school, and accompanied it with a patronizing manner, as if to indicate that he believes profanity should be used in addressing a group of policemen.

"According to BOWERY, certain instructors from the University of Minnesota asked him if BOARDMAN was taught to speak in that manner by the F. B. I. at Washington, D. C. Their question was based upon the fact that BOARDMAN was known to most of the instructors present, since he attended the University of Minnesota, and he did not possess the habit displayed while a student at that place.

"BOWERY stated that otherwise BOARDMAN was a very able and fluent speaker, and well equipped to carry on that type of work for the Bureau. BOWERY did not wish for his statements to be repeated, but would "set BOARDMAN right" if he sees him again, or if he can find a Special Agent who knows BOARDMAN well enough to carry the word

*This is terrible & must be stopped at once.
Call Boardman by phone.*

Copy to Mr. Tolson
Copy to Mr. Clegg

to him personally. I assured Captain BOWERY that his confidence would be respected, and in the interest of further cooperation between the writer and Captain BOWERY, I believe it would be well that this report be treated in a like manner, insofar as Captain BOWERY is concerned.

"Captain BOWERY also mentioned Special Agent in Charge HENDON being in attendance at the school, and stated he had heard adverse comment from several sources in Minneapolis concerning the personality of HENDON. It seems that some of the instructors from the University of Minnesota made statements to him that the impression left by Mr. HENDON was not good, and that they did not believe him fitted for an executive position, inasmuch as any system which places a man in an executive position with only two and one-half years experience is basically unsound."

"The above criticism of the Bureau was conveyed to Captain BOWERY in his capacity as Director of the Police School at Minneapolis, and was repeated to the writer by Captain BOWERY in a spirit of true friendship for the Bureau. It caused him some concern that such remarks were made to him, and not knowing what to do, he felt obliged to repeat the statements to the writer, but feels that the statements are best forgotten."

It is to be noted that Captain BOWERY wishes the information submitted by him in this respect to be treated in the strictest confidence. Captain BOWERY, as you know, is a graduate of the FBI National Police Academy.

Very truly yours,

Dwight Brantley

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Re: L. V. Boardman,
Special Agent.

I telephoned Special Agent L. V. Boardman at Billings, Montana, where he is conducting a police training school. I informed him that from a confidential source which could not be disclosed the Bureau had received information that the faculty and instructors at the University of Minnesota and many of the officers in attendance had expressed dismay at the fact Boardman had used profane language during the course of his series of lectures. I informed him that, of course, this was a condition which the Bureau objected to most vigorously, was considered as a terrible reflection, and it was something that obviously must be stopped at once. I informed him that it was natural the members of the faculty would be shocked, that one of them had even inquired if this was something which had been taught to Agent Boardman at Washington, while the officers gained the impression that he was using profanity in a patronizing manner, and that there was no occasion for it in either event.

A letter, likewise, is being addressed to Mr. Boardman along this same line.

Respectfully,

H. H. Clegg.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Reference is made to the Director's inquiry as to whether Special Agent L. V. Boardman admitted using profanity. I am sure that he did make use of profanity in his lectures because when I talked to him over the telephone he did not deny having done so, and secondly he inquired as to my own viewpoint as to the advisability of eliminating profanity completely when talking before certain groups of police officers. I informed him that of course there was never any excuse for profanity; it lowered the impression which it created; it did not credibly represent the dignity of the Bureau's instructors. He stated he would be definitely guided by the instructions in the future. I considered his comments as tantamount to his admission but he states he will refrain from the use of profanity in all future lectures.

Respectfully,

H. H. Clegg.

Dear Sir:

Special Agent L. V. Boardman, of your office, was recently engaged in the surveillance which was being made at the home of Joseph Sieber, Sr., Bayfield Heights, Ohio. This surveillance was discontinued due to the receipt of information that Sieber had in the past and is now possibly suffering from a venereal disease.

For the protection of the Agent, the Bureau desires that he immediately be afforded a Wassermann, Kahn or such other tests as are necessary in order to establish definitely that he did not contract any venereal disease while working on this assignment. It will not be necessary that Agent Boardman receive a complete physical examination.

Dear Sir:

On the evening of April 29, 1938, in accordance with an invitation extended by Chief of Police Louis Claude, FBI National Police Academy graduate, and by Mr. C. C. Ludwig, connected with the League of Minnesota Municipalities, I attended the final dinner of the Police Training School sponsored by the latter organization. Sitting next to me at the dinner table was Mr. George B. Vold, Associate Professor of Sociology at the University of Minnesota, who had lectured during the school. Professor Vold mentioned to me that he had heard one of the lectures delivered by Special Agent Lee Boardman, in accordance with the Bureau's designation. He stated that Boardman was an effective lecturer but remarked that he, unfortunately, used a great deal of profanity which detracted from that effectiveness.

Subsequently, I talked to Chief Claude and discreetly inquired concerning Boardman's presentation. Louie Claude stated that there was one thing he wished that I might tell Boardman so as not to offend him and that was he should not use so much, or the type of, profanity in his lectures. Mr. Claude stated that Boardman was a good lecturer but that in his attempt to get down on even ground with police officers, he went to extremes in his language and that he had noted somewhat of a chill fall over the group as a result thereof.

On May 3, 1938, I also had an opportunity to talk with Chief of Police Edward Brick of St. Cloud, Minnesota, who was in attendance at the above school. Chief Brick volunteered the information to a group of officers, including myself, "that Boardman of the FBI sure was a good lecturer". He was enthusiastic in his praise of Boardman and remarked to me that Boardman got down and used plain language in an effective manner.

This is furnished to the Bureau for whatever value it may be.

Dear Sir:

I just recently had the opportunity to attend a course of instruction held under the supervision of several men from your Department. This school was held in the City of Casper, Wyoming, May 16th, 17th and 18th, 1938.

I wish to take this opportunity to comment on the fine course of instruction received by us from Mr. L. V. Boardman. It was thru his ability to present to us the knowledge that he has acquired thru his vast experience as a peace officer, that I consider this course of instruction such an outstanding success.

I also wish to comment on the instructions received from Mr. Jerry Campbell, Firearms Expert, on the valuable information received on the use of firearms and on the lecture received from Mr. R. D. Brown, Agent in Charge of the Denver, Colorado Office.

I hope that some time this fall I will be able to have some of the men from your Department come to our City for a few days and give a course of instruction to the rest of my Officer's, as well as any peace officers in the State of Wyoming whom may be interested in gaining the valuable information that your men are able to put at their disposal.

We had a fine banquet; however, had you been available everything would have been perfect. Mr. Brown, Special Agent in Charge of the Denver office of the F. B. I. arrived for the last part of the program, which made it very nice to have another special.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for all the courtesies your office extended to our department to make our school a success. I sincerely hope that I will be in a position to reciprocate in the future.

I trust that this finds you and your enjoying the best of health.

Mr. C. E. Krieger,
Chief of Police,
Rock Springs, Wyoming.

My dear Chief:

I am in receipt of your letter of May 21, 1938, and I want to thank you for your thoughtfulness in writing to me concerning the advantages of the course of instruction which you recently attended at Casper, Wyoming. It is noted that this course of training for police officers was under the supervision of Captain R. O. Miller of the Casper, Wyoming, Police Department, a graduate of the FBI National Police Academy, and that instruction was furnished by representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I am appreciative for your very kind comments relative to the services rendered by the Bureau's representatives.

With reference to your suggestion that during the Fall of 1938 it would be desirable to have a course of instruction in the Rock Springs Police Department, in connection with which assistance might be rendered by representatives of the Bureau, I want to assure you of my desire to cooperate with you in any manner possible. As of possible interest to you, however, I want to suggest that you may wish to consider filing an application to attend the FBI National Police Academy in Washington or to designate a representative of your department to take this course of training. The Academy furnishes instruction in general law enforcement practices and techniques to the designated representatives of law enforcement agencies. Three sessions of the Academy are held each year and each session lasts for three months. There is no expense for the instruction given or the equipment used, the only costs to those in attendance being for transportation to and from Washington and living expenses while in the city. No formal application is necessary, the only requisite being a letter addressed to the Bureau by the executive head of a law enforcement agency, indicating his desire to attend the Academy or to designate a member of his department to attend. I would like to assure you that I shall be very much pleased to receive such an application from you. In view of the fact that applications are considered in the order of their receipt, you may desire to file yours at an early date.

5-26-38.

The fundamental purpose of the FBI National Police Academy is the training of law enforcement officers in modern methods of law enforcement and in training methods so that upon their return to their respective communities, they may be enabled to conduct courses of training for the benefit of other members of their organizations. Such training for a member of your department, I am sure, would provide you with a definite means of affording continuous instruction of a progressive nature for the entire department.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

John Edgar Hoover,
Director.

My dear Chief:

Reference is made to your letter dated June 20, 1938, in which you refer to the assistance given by Special Agent L.V. Boardman, of this Bureau, in connection with the opening of your recent police training school.

I want to congratulate you on the fact that you provided this opportunity for instructing representatives of your own department and members of neighboring and cooperating law enforcement agencies in your state. I was particularly pleased to observe that Special Agent Boardman was able to be of assistance to you and I assure you that it will be my pleasure to cooperate to the fullest extent at all times.

I want to thank you further for your offer to cooperate. Since Special Agent in Charge A. C. Rutzen is presently in Washington your message for him is being conveyed in accordance with your request.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for the splendid assistance rendered The Mansfield Police Training School.

Special Agent Lee Boardman is to be commended on the very efficient manner in which he instructed the members of this school in Fingerprint Classification and Identification. He did a fine job in the short time he was here.

The class consisted of all the members of the Mansfield Police Deptl (28 men) 2 members of The Sandusky O. Police Dept. and about 8 men from The Ohio State Highway Patrol. They all wish to extend their thanks for the opportunity to learn Fingerprints, I feel it will be very beneficial to them.

Re: CHIEF M. K. BATES,
Mansfield, Ohio.

Dear Sir:

Special Agent C. A. Cannon has informed me of the following comment which was made by Sergeant M. A. LOMK of the Ohio State Highway Patrol who attended the school recently conducted by Chief M. K. BATES of the Mansfield Police Department.

Sergeant LOMK stated that about ten men from the highway patrol attended the three-day course which was presided over by a Bureau representative, although he himself was not present. Sergeant LOMK stated that all of the men who attended were well pleased with the instructions received relative to fingerprints; that there was present one man who was an expert on fingerprints whose purpose in attending was to learn the method used by the Bureau in teaching fingerprints. Sergeant LOMK stated that the patrolmen who attended the school stated that the Bureau representative, "Sure knew his stuff and could put it across."

I thought perhaps you might be interested in this comment relative to the Bureau representative, who is not known to me, who conducted the school at Mansfield.

SAC Newman advises that this agent has a good knowledge of the Bureau's work; presents a good appearance; is impressive in his contacts and his work has been very satisfactory. He has been away from the district on special assignment much of the time and considerable of his time has been spent in delivering lectures before police training schools. From all indications, his lectures have been very well received and he is well qualified for work of this nature. He has shown initiative, good judgment, resourcefulness but it is felt that he could show a little more enthusiasm about his work and attack his assignments with a little more vigor. He is well versed in the use of firearms; he makes a good showing in firearms training and is considered to be well qualified for dangerous assignments; his report work is good; he dictates well; he has given every indication of having a good understanding of the duties of his position. He types satisfactorily and is rated as a good automobile driver. The SAC has had no opportunity to observe him as a witness and a letter is being written.

On May 4, 1938, SAC Brantley advised the Bureau that this agent created an unfavorable impression because of his use of profanity during his lecture before police training schools. The Director advised that this was terrible and must be stopped and on May 7, 1938, Mr. H. H. Clegg telephonically advised Mr. Boardman of this report and instructed him to discontinue this practice at once.

On March 1, 1938, Mr. Eugene Connor, Commissioner of Public Safety, Birmingham, Alabama, highly commended this agent for his charming personality and the indelible impression he had left in the police department at Birmingham.

On January 5, 1938, Mr. Walter H. Bennett of the Ford Motor Company of Dearborn, Michigan, highly commended this agent for his assistance during the disappearance of Mr. Bennett's daughter. This agent failed to qualify with all firearms during the last two quarters of 1937.

REMARKS:

(Under this heading shall be set forth a digest of criticisms and conditions of significance which will reflect deficiencies, meritorious features, and special qualifications or disqualifications.)

This Agent has a good knowledge of the Bureau's work. He presents a good appearance, is impressive in his contacts and, in my estimation, his work has been very satisfactory.

Agent Boardman has been away from this district on special assignment much of the time since the submission of the last rating. Considerable of his time has been spent in delivering lectures before police training schools. From all indications, his lectures have been very well received and he is particularly well qualified for work of this nature.

Although I have not had occasion to observe the work of this Agent for any appreciable periods of time, he has shown initiative, good judgment and resourcefulness in the work which he has completed while working in this district. I have felt that he could be a little more enthusiastic about his work and attack his assignments with a little more vigor.

This Agent is well versed in the use of firearms. I observe that he made a very good showing in firearms training and consider him well qualified for raid work of any kind.

Agent Boardman's report work is good. He dictates well and has given every indication that he has a very good understanding of the duties of his position. He has no knowledge of stenography or accounting. He is able to type satisfactorily. I rate him as a good automobile driver.

I have not had an opportunity to observe this Agent as a witness.

Have the contents of this report under the heading "Remarks" been read in full to the employee to whom they relate, and has the employee been informed as to the status reflected on the reverse side of this report? Yes

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We are now drawing near the close of our police school, and in checking back over the number of speakers and lecturers who have appeared before this school, we could not help but recognize the wonderful assistance which has been given us by you and your organization. It was your efforts in the training of police officers at the National Police Academy that our police school has been made possible.

We cannot overlook the fact, either, of the presence of Special Agent L. V. Boardman, who was assigned to lecture to our school on June 20th, 21st and 22nd. Mr. Boardman knows his subjects well and puts them over in splendid shape; he received the compliments of the entire class.

Also, we cannot overlook the presence of Mr. Ground, of the Fingerprint Division, who was subpoenaed here to appear in one of our state cases for this department, and we took advantage of his presence here to the effect that he very graciously complied with our request to lecture to our class on "fingerprints".

Again we thank you for the presence of both these men in our school, and hope that someday in the future we may be able to repay you and your organization for our splendid cooperation.

July 25, 1938.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

During the week of July 11th to 16th inclusive, the Iowa Peace Officers short course was held at the University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa, and the results we obtained from this school were very encouraging. There were 253 people registered there during the week.

This is the second year this school has been conducted and those of us who have a part in promoting this school are really overwhelmed at the attendance and the manner in which the school was handled.

One of the most outstanding things in the school was the lectures given by one of your instructors, Mr. L. V. Boardman. In all my experiences I have never heard a man so effective in putting the matters across to the individual officers as he did. The boys constantly kept talking about the instructions they received from him. It was tremendously hot and the men suffered intensely from the heat, but they still wanted more from Boardman. He seemed to have the technic of talking to these officers in a way that was very impressive and in a way that was understandable to them all.

I could continue to write several paragraphs on our appreciation of Mr. Boardman's lectures, but I just felt that you would like to know of the good things that is being done under your supervision in the F.B.I. I can assure you that the peace officers of Iowa are thoroughly sold on Mr. Boardman and your organization for your help in this school.

With best regards, I beg to remain

Very truly yours

My dear Chief:

I am in receipt of your letter of July 25, 1938, in which you inform me of your observations concerning the Iowa Peace Officers' short course which was held at the University of Iowa recently.

I am glad that you wrote to me and very much pleased that you found the instruction given by Special Agent L. V. Boardman to be interesting. It was with a great deal of pleasure that I was able to make Mr. Boardman available to deliver the lectures before the officers at Iowa City and I want to assure you that I shall be pleased to continue to render all possible cooperation in connection with these training matters.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Although Professor Rollin Perkins is officially in charge of the Iowa Peace Officers Short Course which was held here during the week closing July 16, I have cooperated with him in this activity and feel that it is appropriate for me to write to tell you of the unusually excellent work which was done here on Monday and Tuesday by Mr. L. V. Boardman, of your Detroit office. I heard from a great many officers in attendance unanimous and highly commendatory remarks on his work, both in reference to the substance of his discussions and with regard to the manner in which they were presented. Without in any way disparaging the unusually successful work done here last year by your Mr. Kohn, I think I can say that the general opinion was that Mr. Boardman had, if anything, lifted this part of the program at least a slight notch above the previous level. I suspect this was due, not to greater mastery of the subject matter (although he knew his materials), but primarily to the fact that he was more deliberate in presentation, had the faculty of getting the men to ask questions, and seemed to be able to talk more on their level.

We appreciate very greatly the splendid cooperation which we have received from yourself and your subordinates and hope that we may continue to be favored with similar assistance in the future. You may be interested to know that our enrollment for the week rose from 162 last year to 260 this year. I suspect we will run over the 200 mark in 1939.

Dear Sir:

Re: L. V. BOARDMAN, Special Agent,
Special Efficiency Report.

I beg to submit the following comments concerning Special Agent L. V. BOARDMAN, who arrived at Kansas City on August 5, 1938, and who had been under my supervision since my arrival here on August 22, 1938. Agent BOARDMAN is the designated No. 1 Agent at this office.

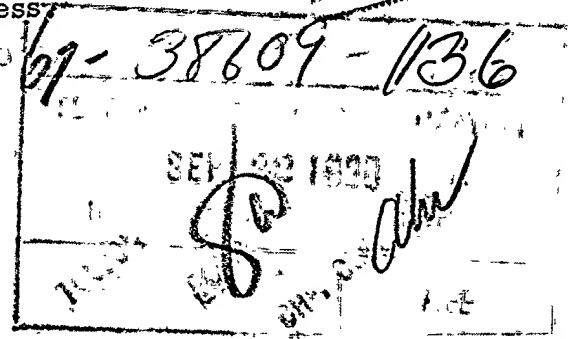

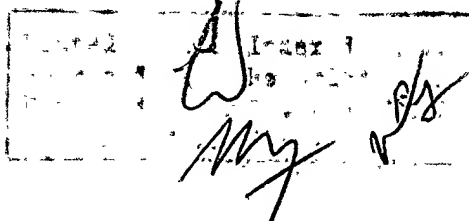

BOARDMAN makes a good appearance; is always carefully groomed and has a pleasing personality. I consider him a good investigator. He handles any assignments given him with promptness and dispatch and is considered a good dictator.

During my absence from the city, he has handled the duties of Acting Agent in Charge in a satisfactory manner. He always has the work up to date and is not afraid to use his own initiative and judgment. I consider his work in this respect very good, particularly as he has not had any previous experience as a No. 1 man and also because of the fact that the speaking engagements which he has been making throughout the country have necessarily hindered him from gaining as much experience on desk work and in actual investigation as another Agent with the same amount of experience in the Bureau.

This Agent handles a typewriter satisfactorily, is a good automobile driver and is well qualified in the use of all firearms. I believe that he has the necessary courage and judgment to be assigned to cases involving danger, and I believe that he could be relied upon to take charge of a raid on a dangerous assignment.

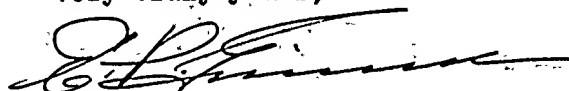

I have not had occasion to observe him testify, but I believe that he would make a creditable witness. XEROX Agent BOARDMAN has indicated to me since being under my supervision that he is possessed of executive ability and with more experience will make a good executive and administrator.

Dear Sir:

Re: J. C. MERTZ, Special Agent

I desire to call the attention of the Bureau to two memorandums dated September 14, 1938, submitted by Special Agent J. C. MERTZ, who is resident Agent at Wichita, Kansas, in connection with certain things that took place while I was away from the city and while Special Agent L. V. BOARDMAN was Acting in Charge. Copies of both of these memoranda are being submitted.

It will be noted in one memorandum that Agent MERTZ refers to MR. BOARDMAN'S telephonic inquiry, "Where the hell are you?" I spoke to Agent BOARDMAN concerning this, and he stated that he did not particularly recall saying this, but that he will be extremely careful in the future to avoid any language of this nature to any Agents. It will be noted that Agent MERTZ in addition to taking offense at the above, to which I believe he was entitled to take offense, that he strongly criticizes the office for sending him a serial for expedite investigation at Fort Riley, Kansas.

It will be noted in paragraph two of this same memorandum that MERTZ states he had wired the Kansas City Office on September 13th that he was spending the night at the O'Brien Hotel at Russell, Kansas, but that in spite of these wires, the Kansas City Office sent him a Special Delivery letter requesting expedite investigation at Fort Riley. He further calls attention to the fact that Fort Riley is closer to Kansas City, Missouri, than to either Wichita or Russell, Kansas.

It is true that this letter was sent to him. The same was sent by me prior to my departure from Kansas City on a trip, and I particularly sent it to MERTZ as he had very little work in Wichita, and Agent NICHOLSON had been transferred from Topeka, and we did not at that time have a resident Agent at Topeka. I, therefore, desired MERTZ to handle practically all work in the State of Kansas until I had another Agent assigned to Topeka. For this reason, I sent him the letter at Fort Riley to cover the lead when he returned from Russell, Kansas.

It will be further observed that MERTZ states very impertinently in paragraph three that the Kansas City office should have been aware at the time the letter was mailed that he would not get it immediately and should have wired him at Russell, Kansas.

A wire was not sent Agent MERTZ at Russell, Kansas, as Russell is west of Wichita and is nowhere near Fort Riley. I merely desired him to handle the Fort Riley lead when he returned from his trip to Russell, Kansas. It will also be noted in paragraph four that MERTZ explains his failure to wire the office that he had changed his plans to go to Junction City. MERTZ had wired on his departure from Wichita on September 14th that he was proceeding to Salina and Junction City, Kansas. He did not proceed to Junction City and did not wire the Office to this effect. Special Agent BOARDMAN attempted to communicate with him at Junction City and also at Salina, but found that he had returned to Wichita, and then made the remark in the first paragraph of the memorandum to MERTZ. It will be observed that MERTZ states in paragraph five "I direct attention to the fact that a minimum amount of alertness on the part of the Kansas City Office would have brought the special instructions to my attention in sufficient time to have avoided all possibility of embarrassment."

When MERTZ reported to the Office on September 16th for firearms training, I told him in no uncertain terms that I did not like the tone of his memorandums in the slightest and reminded him that he was still a part of the Kansas City Office and was not a separate and distinct part of the Bureau simply because he had been designated resident Agent at Wichita. I also called to his attention the fact that he has never almost without exception wired the office of his departure from Wichita until a few minutes before he actually leaves Wichita; therefore, he has departed from Wichita usually about one hour before we received advice of this in the Kansas City Office. I instructed him in the future to wire in sufficient time so that we would be informed of his departure, and to also send an itinerary into the office when he was about to proceed on a road trip so that we would have some idea as to where his intended trip would take him. There is no reason whatsoever that he cannot inform the office on the preceding night as to where he expects to depart the following morning, and he has been instructed in the future to do this and to plan his road trips and departures in sufficient time, when possible to keep the Office informed.

I also called Agent MERTZ'S attention to the fact in respect to the trip to Fort Riley that the office had no idea that he was proceeding from Russell, Kansas, north to the vicinity of Fort Riley, and, therefore, the office could not possibly have anticipated his going near Fort Riley.

I also wish to direct the attention of the Bureau to the other memorandum beginning "I make reference to the attached routing slip." The routing slip to which he referred was sent to MERTZ by Agent BOARDMAN to direct attention to a Uniform Crime contact with the Sheriff's office at Scott City, Kansas, which lead MERTZ had had since April 22, 1938. It will be noted that MERTZ states that he "failed to see the logic" in continuing to pester a resident Agent with routing slips on these matters. I informed him in this connection that the office would gladly receive any suggestions which employees desired to submit at any time, but that I did not want to receive so-called suggestions which were worded in a manner which would indicate that the Agent apparently feels that he has been elevated to a position of Inspector of the office, and that as a resident Agent he is really a separate entity and not a part of the Kansas City office at all. I informed MERTZ that the routing slip in this case was apparently sent by MR. BOARDMAN to check up on whether he actually had this extremely delinquent lead, as in many instances the file might reflect that the Agent has the lead charged to him, but the Agent might, in fact, not have the lead and, therefore, it was quite simple for an office to send a routing slip to Agent to check on this, and that this would be done in the future; and that it was not desired to pester a resident Agent, but was considered an administrative step in the operation of an office.

I informed MERTZ that in my opinion, the tone of his memoranda seemed to indicate quite strongly that he believed he was getting too big for a job as Special Agent, and that there was absolutely no excuse for the impertinency reflected in these memoranda. MERTZ'S only excuse was that he apparently was hasty in typing the memoranda. He was instructed in the future to spend his time typing reports at night instead of using time during working hours to type his reports, and, hereafter, pay more attention to handling the work which was assigned him in Kansas than endeavoring to run the Kansas City Office.

Very truly yours,

E. P. GUINANE,
Special Agent in Charge.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE SPECIAL AGENT IN CHARGE

The following is submitted in reply to Mr. Boardman's inquiry, "Where the hell are you?", directed to me when I telephoned to the Kansas City office from Wichita, Kansas at 5:15 p.m. on Sept. 14, 1938. Mr. Boardman's remark was occasioned by the fact that he wired me special instructions to proceed to Fort Riley, Kansas to conduct investigation on an applicant case, 67-1048, & I did not receive the instructions at Junction City, Kansas for the reason that my plans were changed and I wired that I was returning to Wichita instead of proceeding to Junction City, Kansas.

In explanation of the above it is stated that I wired the Kansas City office at about 8:30 a.m. on Sept. 13, 1938 to the effect that I was proceeding to Pratt, and LaCrosse, Kansas. At about 2:00 p.m. on Sept. 13, 1938 I wired the Kansas City office from LaCrosse, Kansas to the effect that I was proceeding to Ellis and Russell, Kansas. At about 6:30 p.m. on Sept. 13, 1938 I wired the Kansas City office to the effect that I was spending the night at the O'Brien Hotel at Russell, Kansas. In spite of the above wires indicating that I was in northwest Kansas between 150 and 200 miles from Wichita, the Kansas City office directed to me at Wichita, Kansas a letter, special delivery, postmarked at Kansas City at 5:00 p.m. on September 13, 1938, containing Serial #4 of 67-1048, which contained an expedite lead at Fort Riley, Kansas. Fort Riley, Kansas is closer to Kansas City, Mo. than it is to either Wichita or Russell, Kansas.

The Kansas City office should have been aware at the time it was mailed that I would not get the special delivery letter directed to me at Wichita, Kansas. However, the request to cover the expedite lead at Fort Riley was not wired to me at Russell, Kansas.

At about 9:00 a.m. on Sept. 14, 1938 I wired to the Kansas City office to the effect that I was proceeding to Salina and Junction City, Kansas. Of course the Kansas City office was aware at that time that there was an expedite lead to be covered at Fort Riley; however, no instructions to that effect were wired me at Salina, Kansas. Upon arriving at Salina, Kansas, the County Attorney referred to me a new case which caused me to be delayed at Salina for about two and one half hours in excess of the time I had expected to spend at that point. I, therefore, found it expedient to return to Wichita in order to arrange for my departure to Kansas City on Sept. 15, 1938, for monthly shooting, rather than to continue on to Junction City in accordance with my original plans. Therefore, shortly prior to my departure from Salina I wired to the Kansas City office at about 1:30 p.m. that I was returning to Wichita.

Mr. Boardman advised me that I should have telephoned to the Sheriff at Junction City prior to my departure from Calina, Kansas. Possibly I should have done so, however, I direct attention to the fact that a minimum amount of alertness on the part of the Kansas City office would have brought the special instructions to my attention in sufficient time to have avoided all possibility of embarrassment.

Because of the great amount of travel occasioned by a few widely scattered leads in the state of Kansas, it has been my practice, heretofore, to cover as large a territory as possible in the shortest possible time in an effort to get the work done. As a part of this practice I have found it advisable to wire a proposed itinerary to the Kansas City office rather than wire at each individual stop. In order to avoid as nearly as possible a repetition of the above situation on my part, hereafter I will wire only my immediate destination upon leaving any town.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ J. C. Kertz

RE: 33-19 & 33-44
Uniform Crime Reports
Sheriff's Office
Scott City, Kansas & Coldwater, Kansas

I make reference to the attached routing slip sent to me by Mr. Boardman. I am fully aware, as indicated by him, that this serial has been charged to me since 4/22/38, and that it must be covered on my next trip to that vicinity. However, I direct your attention to the fact that I have not been within fifty miles or more of Scott City, Kansas since 4/22/38 for the reason that there have been no leads in that locality, and that I have complied with existing Bureau instructions in not covering this lead. In the event your desire me to go to Scott City expressly for the purpose of covering this lead, please instruct me to do so; otherwise, I fail to see the logic in continuing to pester a resident agent with routing slips on these matters until there is some indication that he is derelict in not covering them. There is a good possibility that there will be no occasion for an Agent to go to Scott City for the next year.

The same remarks apply to the routing slip received by me on 33-19, which relates to a crime report contact at Coldwater, Kansas.

The above is submitted in reply to your query, "How about it?", and expresses my opinion without restriction.

Respectfully,

Dear Sir:

There is enclosed a communication addressed to Special Agent John C. Mertz suspending him without pay from 9:00 A. M. September 26, 1938 until 9:00 A. M. October 26, 1938, in view of his very arbitrary attitude in submitting memoranda to you under date of September 14th concerning certain instructions which had been issued to him by the Acting Special Agent in Charge of the Kansas City Office. Agent Mertz is also being removed as Resident Agent at Wichita, Kansas, his headquarters being fixed at Kansas City, Missouri.

In reviewing your communication of September 21, 1938 it is found that no recommendation was made by you concerning any administrative action to be taken. It is believed that it should have been clear to you that this Agent, in view of his attitude as reflected in his memoranda, copies of which were submitted with your communication of September 21st, was such that under no consideration should he be continued in the capacity of Resident Agent. Upon the termination of his suspension his work should be carefully supervised by you and the Bureau further advised of his attitude.

It is also desired that you inform Special Agent L. V. Boardman that the Bureau does not believe it necessary to make use of profanity when contacting a fellow employee and any recurrence will not be tolerated.

You should secure all Government property which is now in the possession of Agent Mertz and retain same until he returns to duty.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Boardman:

Reference is made to your letter dated November 3, 1938, wherein you suggest that there be placed in the law enforcement agency files of field offices the names of those officers in such departments who have attended training schools before which representatives of the Bureau have lectured.

The Bureau does not desire to make this suggestion a requirement in view of the fact that the burden accompanying such requirement would not be offset by the prospective value which might be received. When Special Agents call on police departments for assistance or for cooperation, they should call on the Chief of Police and the chief of the particular section or division interested in the Bureau's problem rather than upon the individual patrolmen or detectives who have attended some school operated with varying degrees of efficiency and not under the exclusive control of representatives of the Bureau.

I do appreciate, however, your thoughtfulness in submitting this suggestion.

Sincerely yours,

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTORRE: RECOMMENDATIONS FOR INSTRUCTOR IN HAITI

In looking over the list of those who have some knowledge, in many instances very slight, however, of the French language which I am informed is the usual language spoken in Haiti the following names were observed of those who might be given some consideration:

- | | | |
|------------------|---|--|
| 1. W.H.D. Lester | - | doubtful availability |
| 2. N.H. McCabe | - | only fair as an instructor |
| 3. I.W. Conrad | - | would probably be very good, except that he does not have a great deal of experience in law enforcement outside the Laboratory |
| 4. R.E. Newby | - | as an instructor, hardly fair |
| 5. S.J. Drayton | - | as an instructor, fair |
| 6. R. Chambers | - | as an instructor, fair |

My recommendations, however, both from a standpoint of efficiency as instructors and also from the standpoint of possible availability are as follows:

Ranks as to efficiency

1. H.H. Reinecke
2. L.V. Boardman
3. M.W. Acers
4. J.F. Sears
5. R. Wyly

Rank as to possible availability

Respectfully,

RE: NUMBER ONE MAN

Dear Mr. Guinane:

Reference is made to your personal and confidential communication to me dated December 5, 1938, relative to the designation of Special Agent L. V. Boardman as Number One Man of the Kansas City Office.

It is noted that during Agent Boardman's assignment as Number One Man and when acting in charge in your absence, his work has been entirely satisfactory, but he has not had the opportunity to get a great deal of supervisory experience in your absence from the city.

It is further noted that it is your recommendation that Special Agent M. B. Rhodes be designated as Number One Man instead of Special Agent Boardman.

This is to advise you it is the Bureau's desire that Special Agent Boardman be continued in the capacity of Number One Man of your office. It is desired that he get administrative experience and you should use every opportunity to permit Agent Boardman to secure the necessary experience.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

Re: NUMBER ONE MAN

Special Agent L. T. Fournier is the designated Number One man at this office. Since my arrival here in August, it has been necessary to have other Agents act in the Number One capacity during my absence, due to the fact that Agent Fournier is absent from the city more than he is present here, because of lectures in connection with police training schools throughout the country.

In the short periods that Fournier has acted in my absence, his work has been entirely satisfactory, but he has not had the opportunity to get a great deal of supervisory experience because of his other duties.

Because of his absence from the city so much, it has not been possible for Mr. DALLMAN to follow the important cases, and the routine of the office in Kansas City, which makes it difficult for him when called upon to act in my absence. I like to route any serials arriving at the office on cases to the Number One man which in my opinion I believe he should have knowledge of so that he will be familiar with these cases in my absence. This has not been possible because of his absence from the office on prearranged trips.

I do not believe this condition does justice to Agent Fournier if he is to be charged with the duties and knowledge of a Number One man, and I do not believe it does justice to this office or to the other Agents who have to be called in to act in my absence.

Special Agent H. H. Evans has been detailed by me to act in my absence during most of my trips out of Kansas City. He has handled these duties satisfactorily and has shown good Judgment, initiative and industry.

I, therefore, respectfully recommend to the Bureau that another Number One man be designated, and if the Bureau desires a recommendation from me, I would recommend that it be Special Agent M. B. REEDS of this office.

Very truly yours,

Re: SUGGESTION

Dear Sir:

1565 SDR/KSR

Reference is made to Bureau Bulletin 1113, Section A, which relates to individual files on Police Departments.

At many of the Police Training Schools being conducted by members of the FBI National Police Academy, with the assistance of Bureau instructors, invitations are extended to officers from other law enforcement agencies in the surrounding area, and many of the representatives of these agencies are in attendance throughout the duration of the school. I believe it would be of value for the Special Agent in Charge covering the Division in which the school is held, to place a memorandum in each law enforcement file which is represented at the school.

The memorandum should include the name of the officer, any observations which the Bureau instructor has concerning that officer, and the general nature of the instructions afforded him as a member of that school. Such a memorandum would constitute a permanent record in the Field Division to the effect that the administrative head of the organization or the individual officer in attendance is progressive, that the officer is probably friendly with the Bureau as a result of his attendance at the school, and that he might be a good contact for the Field Division because of his training at this school.

I believe that the Bureau is making its most effective personal contacts with the law enforcement agencies through the method of these Police Training Schools, and that a record should be kept of these valuable contacts in each Field Division.

It is, therefore, suggested that the Special Agent in Charge while attending the schools in his Division be instructed to secure the necessary data for a memorandum on each agency represented by an officer at the school. Of course, a memorandum would be placed in the files of the agency sponsoring or promoting the school. In the event the Special Agent in Charge is not present during the course of this school, the Bureau's instructor should secure and forward the necessary information to the Field Division.

The character and fitness investigation in regard to this Agent reflects that during his high school and college career he was an average student with the exception of one year of college work, during which he made slightly above average grades. No derogatory information was reflected in the investigation.

In a letter dated October 21, 1934, at the completion of the training school, SAC Keith stated that during the course of the training school Boardman was attentive, alert, and displayed an abundance of energy. He has a nice personal appearance and personality, is tactful and amenable to discipline. He exhibited a slight degree of over-confidence and some lack of judgment at the beginning of the training school but due to the various things called to his attention and the discipline maintained, he displayed quite an improvement before its conclusion. He stated that he believed that Boardman will develop into a good field agent but is rather doubtful as to the likelihood of his developing as an administrative employee.

SAC Purvis, in his thirty day report dated November 7, 1934, states that Boardman has a very good personal appearance, makes a good first impression, is very business-like in his manner, has been assigned to War Risk Insurance cases exclusively and is able to review the long briefs and to segregate the unnecessary from the essential facts and his reports are well organized making few errors for one of his length of service. He states that he believes this Agent to be one of the outstanding among the new Agents in the Chicago Office and believes he is progressing in a very satisfactory manner. b6

During an inspection in the Chicago Office in November, 1934, by Mr. Egan, Mr. Purvis states that Boardman is a young man of good personal appearance and impresses one as being very substantial. He is now assigned to War Risk Insurance cases exclusively and has shown a grasp of this type of work, indicating that he will develop into an average Agent if he would do as well on general assignments as he does on War Risk Insurance cases. He is interested in his work and applies himself diligently. He believes he is developing in a satisfactory manner. Mr. Egan states, "When I went out in the Agents' room to call this Agent in for an examination he was dictating to a stenographer, [redacted] I asked him if he could leave his work for a few minutes and come in and talk with me. He told me he was getting out an expedite report on a War Risk Insurance case. This was about 4:30 in the afternoon. I told him to lay aside the report for a few moments and he could come back to it. He was in the room with me for approximately thirty or thirty-five minutes. I then watched him when he went back to his desk and he dictated to the stenographer for about four or five minutes and spent four or five minutes in conversation with her and Special Agents around his desk. It was then noted that the stenographer went home immediately and did not type the report that night. This Agent in my opinion will need careful and close supervision for some time to come and it is felt that his development will be slow. He was observed on one or two other occasions dictating after his examination on the Manual of Rules and Regulations and Instructions, and he appeared to lose some time in assembling his work for dictation, which would waste a stenographer's time."

In a report dated March 31, 1935, SAC Ladd reports that Boardman presents a good personal appearance, has a good personality, is very quiet and business-like in his demeanor, conscientious, willingly devotes overtime to his duties, dictation is good, reports are usually fair, requiring only average supervision and that his status is good. He states that Boardman may be developed into a valuable man for use on dangerous assignments. During an inspection of the Chicago Office in June 1935, by Mr. Egan, SAC Purvis stated that Boardman is a young man of very good personal appearance, possesses a good personality, has a good working knowledge of the work of the Bureau and applies himself diligently and was recently used on the No. 2 desk and in that capacity functioned quite well for one of his experience. He considered his status as good. Mr. Egan states that this Agent makes a very good impression, has a good personal appearance and approach, is interested and willing. He considered his status as fair but believes he will develop with proper supervision.

Following an inspection of the Los Angeles Office in September 1935, by Mr. Egan and Mr. Whitley, SAC Dunn states that Boardman had rendered satisfactory services, is well informed with respect to the Bureau's practices and methods and has made satisfactory development, exercises good judgment, is attentive to his duties, develops his cases logically, works steadily, but not too rapidly. He appeared to a considerable degree to lack confidence in his own judgment, and made very few decisions on his own initiative, but is improving, and states he regards him as a satisfactory and valuable employee. Mr. Egan stated this Agent presents a fair appearance, appears to be willing but not aggressive, lacking in assurance and almost an average investigator.

In a memorandum for Mr. Tolson dated October 30, 1935, by the Director, Mr. Hoover stated that he had occasion to talk to Boardman and did not reach the same conclusion that the Inspector did, namely, that he was lacking in aggressiveness and initiative although there is no doubt that he may need additional seasoning and experience, but manifested the attitude of wanting to learn.

By a report dated September 30, 1935, SAC Dunn states this Agent presents a very good personal appearance, has a good personality, works hard, has a good knowledge of the work, is satisfactory for handling an assignment and all in all is a competent, satisfactory Special Agent.

December 1, 1938

In a memorandum for the Director dated November 6, 1935, by Mr. Tolson he states that he had occasion to talk with Mr. Boardman, reaching the same conclusion that was reached by the Director and stated Boardman impressed him as being a very conscientious and desirable type of employee having a good personal appearance and believes he will develop further in the service.

In a memorandum for the Director dated November 5, 1935, Mr. H. H. Clegg states that SA Boardman attended the Retraining School for a period of four weeks beginning October 7, 1935 and that Boardman, in his opinion, was one of the outstanding men in the class, that he had initiative, intelligence, enthusiasm and intense interest and believes this Agent is ripe for a trial in some position of a supervisory nature. Accordingly Boardman was transferred to the Laboratory as an assistant supervisor.

In a memorandum for Mr. Edwards dated January 27, 1936, by Mr. Coffey, he stated that Boardman had evidenced a great deal of interest in the work performed in the Laboratory although he was lacking in a technical and scientific background which was a handicap and indicated a desirable tendency to exact prompt and complete performance of assignments and to follow up assignments to personnel, but he exhibited a tendency to be impatient with the shortcomings of other employees assigned to the Laboratory, but it is believed that he may overcome this.

In a report dated March 31, 1936, Mr. Edwards states that Boardman in spite of his lack of training and experience in scientific work, has developed in a very satisfactory manner as a supervisor in the Laboratory and Single Fingerprint Section. He considers that Boardman has a very promising future in an administrative capacity, as he has good judgment, is forceful, presents a very good personal appearance and exhibits a very satisfactory attitude. His only criticism of Boardman is an impatient attitude in the handling of personnel but he has accepted criticism in this respect in the proper spirit and he believes this tendency will disappear.

In a memorandum for the Director dated July 17, 1936, Mr. Lester states that although he did not hear Boardman talk before the Special Agents in Charge Conference, he does not think he would make a successful speaker. He is rather colorless and lacks "punch", and recommends that he be given no speaking assignments at the present time.

In a memorandum for Mr. Tolson dated August 26, 1936, by Mr. Glavin, in regard to the Agents' Insurance Fund, it is noted that Boardman is listed among those who do not desire to participate.

At the supervisors Conference on September 10, 1936, Boardman was given an examination grade of 73, receiving a rating of Excellent in regard to his Notebook Grade on one lecture and Good on another.

In a letter dated October 29, 1936, from SAC Conroy, he stated that following the instruction given by Boardman at the police school conducted at Columbus, Georgia, from September 22 to September 26, 1936, he made inquiries concerning same and ascertained that Boardman left a very favorable impression.

By a report dated November 30, 1936, SAC DiLillo states Boardman made a favorable impression as Resident Agent at Huntington, West Virginia, that his investigations have been conducted efficiently and have required only limited supervision; that he has had no opportunity in the Pittsburgh Division to conduct investigations of cases requiring a great deal of judgment, tact, and initiative, that he is well acquainted with the work of the Bureau, dictates well, is a fair typist, and his rough drafts do not require many changes. He believes he would give a good account of himself in a dangerous situation. He is a careful automobile driver, has exhibited no indication of executive ability. His work is satisfactory.

His file at this point reflects that letters have been received commending Boardman for certain appearances before civic groups.

During February, 1937, Boardman received a rating of Very Good in connection with the automobile driving tests.

By a report dated May 21, 1937, SAC Untreiner reports that Boardman handles his work in a good manner, his reports were well typed and required little supervision. He is of neat appearance, of mild manner and appears to lack drive and force. He is occasionally slow in submitting reports and stated he had received many compliments on his speaking ability.

By a report dated June 2, 1937, SAC DiLillo states that Boardman performed his duties as Resident Agent at Huntington, West Virginia, very satisfactorily, is familiar with the rules and regulations of the Bureau and has applied them to the cases investigated by him.

Boardman makes a good appearance, enlists and maintains the cooperation of peace officers, is a hard worker, is well qualified in delivering addresses before civic organizations, loyal to the Bureau, has given a good account of himself in dangerous situations, dictates well; his services have been very satisfactory, and he may possess executive ability.

By a report dated June 18, 1937, SAC Reynolds states that Boardman is conscientious, a willing worker and has put in a great deal of overtime, is a fair typist and a good automobile driver; he considers this individual a good Agent and his work has been satisfactory.

A memorandum for Mr. Tolson dated July 20, 1937, signed by the Director states that Mr. Boardman makes a very favorable personal appearance, seems to be enthusiastic about his work, is particularly desirous of overcoming such shortcomings as have been reflected in his file in the past and seems to be entirely sincere in seeking advice relative to these matters and methods and measures he should take to overcome them, and that if he is as sincere as he expresses himself to be he will soon overcome these shortcomings and be a valuable man with some executive possibilities. He states that he has acquired a greater degree of aggressiveness and forcefulness than he has had in the past.

In a memorandum for the Director dated July 19, 1937, Mr. Tolson stated that he talked with Boardman and was favorably impressed by him. During the interview Mr. Boardman stated that he regretted that he had not participated in the agents' fund; that he felt for some time that he would like to join. Subsequent to this interview Boardman joined the Insurance Fund.

In a letter dated August 16, 1937, SAC Reynolds states that Boardman is capable of handling all types of firearms, has a better than average knowledge of the technical equipment; that the Agent's easy manner may leave the impression that he is lacking in aggressiveness and vigor, however, it is his observation that he is not lacking in either of these qualities and he is better than the average Agent.

- In a memorandum for the Director dated August 13, 1937, by Mr. Hince, he states that following a retraining school, it is his opinion that this Agent has a good personality, nice appearance and was an outstanding man in his school, was particularly effective in crime scene work and the leadership he displayed was far superior to that of any of the others designated to handle supervisory positions in the theoretical problems. He made one of the best speeches before the class. Throughout the school, he evidenced an apparent desire to leave the impression of high interest on his part. He was apparently sincere in his efforts to show both the ability, which he does possess, and his willingness, and he rates him as Good.

By letter dated September 29, 1937, SAC Newman states that Boardman has a good appearance, understands his work, is not an outstanding Agent but is an average one. He is not particularly speedy but brings his work to a logical conclusion with comparatively little wasted effort. Dictation and his reports were good, made a splendid showing in firearms training. He considers him a good man to use on raids.

During an inspection of the Detroit Office on November 4, 1937, by Mr. Egan, he states that Boardman presents a good appearance, seems willing and interested, and would class him as an average Agent.

In a memorandum for the Director dated January 25, 1938, Mr. Clegg recommended that Mr. Boardman attend the Fingerprint School to start January 31, 1938, in view of the fact that Boardman has proved himself a very good instructor.

In a memorandum for the Director dated February 19, 1938, Mr. Hince in reporting the rating of the men who attended the two weeks' Fingerprint and Laboratory Instructors' School, rated Boardman number 2 in a class of 14.

December 1, 1938

In a personal and confidential letter to the Director from SAC Brantley, dated May 4, 1938, he advises that Boardman in lecturing at the Police School held at Minneapolis, Minnesota, is reported to have used considerable profanity to the annoyance of the professors in the University of Minnesota who attended as well as the police officers. At the bottom of this letter is found the following notation, "This is terrible and must be stopped at once. Call Boardman by phone. H."

In a memorandum for the Director dated May 7, 1938, Mr. Clegg advised that he had called Boardman and informed him that the Bureau objected to the use of profanity by him, that it was a terrible reflection upon the Bureau and must be stopped at once and by a separate memorandum states that although Boardman did not admit using profanity his comments were paramount to an admission that he did use profanity in his lectures.

In a letter dated May 11, 1938, Mr. J. C. Newman was advised to have Boardman be afforded a Wassermann and Kahn test inasmuch as he was present during a surveillance at the home of a man whom it was later discovered suffered from a venereal disease. This was in connection with the Birdwid case.

By a letter dated June 2, 1938, from SAC Bugas, it is noted that Boardman was given the Wassermann test and the report was negative.

By a letter dated May 10, 1938, SAC Newman recommended that the Bureau give consideration to increasing the salary of Agent Boardman. This letter bore the notation, "To be considered in connection with efficiency ratings. T."

In a report dated May 1, 1938, SAC Newman states this Agent has a good knowledge of the Bureau's work, presents a good appearance, is impressive in his contacts, his work has been very satisfactory. He has been away from the district on special assignments much of the time and considerable of his time has been spent in delivering lectures before police training schools. From all indications his lectures have been very well received and he is well qualified for work of this nature. He has shown initiative, good judgment, resourcefulness, but it is felt that he could show a little more enthusiasm about his work and attack his assignments with a little more vigor. He is well versed in the use of firearms; he makes a good showing in firearms training and is considered to be well qualified for dangerous assignments; his report work is good; he dictates well; he has given every indication of having a good understanding of the duties of his position. He types satisfactorily and is rated as a good automobile driver. He stated he had had no opportunity as yet to observe him as a witness.

On January 5, 1938, Mr. Harry H. Bennett of the Ford Motor Company at Dearborn, Michigan, highly commended this Agent for his assistance during the disappearance of Mr. Bennett's daughter. This Agent failed to qualify with all firearms during the last two quarters of 1937.

In a letter dated September 20, 1938, SAC Guinane states that Boardman

Memo. For Mr. Tolson

makes a good appearance, is always carefully groomed and has a pleasing personality; handles his assignments promptly and is a good dictator and handles the duties of Acting Agent in Charge in a satisfactory manner. He is not afraid to use his own initiative and judgment; handles a typewriter satisfactorily, is a good automobile driver and is well qualified in the use of firearms, and could be relied upon to take charge of a raid on a dangerous assignment, but has not had the occasion as yet to observe him testify but believes he would make a creditable witness and has indicated that he is possessed of executive ability and with more experience will make a good executive and administrator.

In a letter dated September 21, 1938, SAC Guinane reports that on September 14, 1938, Boardman was acting in his absence and that Agent J. C. Mertz reports that in communicating with Boardman, Boardman used profanity in questioning him as to his location. Mr. Guinane advises that Boardman states that he does not recall saying this and that he will be careful in the future to avoid using any profanity in addressing any Agent.

Special Agent L. V. BOARDMAN, who is in attendance at the kidnap school, has suggested that a comprehensive memorandum be submitted to the field concerning the policies of the Bureau with respect to training. He states that many times he is asked questions concerning such policies which he is unable to properly answer. He believes it would be very helpful in the future if a rather comprehensive statement could be made to the field relative to prospective trends in police training and the aims of the Bureau in this field. He is inclined to believe that some SACs are not thoroughly alert to reporting to the Bureau police training projects in their districts or to taking advantage of opportunities to participate in such work.

Mr. Boardman also suggests that each year those field employees who participate in police training be brought to Washington for re-training since Bureau representatives are sometimes unable to thoroughly discuss up to date teaching and scientific methods developed by the Bureau.

It is suggested that this memorandum be routed to Mr. Clegg so that consideration may be given to these suggestions. I also suggest that Mr. Clegg submit a list of all field employees who are qualified for police training work.

SAC Guinane reports this Agent presents a very good personal appearance, has a forceful personality, a good knowledge of his work, but is limited as he has been used instructing police schools around the country and which necessarily limits the amount of experience gained since he has been in the service. He is possessed of good judgment, uses logical reasoning, is loyal. He is No. 1 Man of the office, performs such duties satisfactorily, has been handling detailed investigations. He is very thorough, meticulous, operates a typewriter satisfactorily, is one of the best dictators in the office, a good automobile driver, well qualified in the use of firearms and in firearms technique and has a very good knowledge of technical equipment, possesses cool judgment, could be used as a raid leader on dangerous assignments. He has made several speeches and congratulatory letters have been received and many letters have been received indicating that he has performed his duties as an instructor in police schools very satisfactorily. He possesses considerable executive and administrative ability, is qualified to handle an office capably, but should have more experience in actual field work and administrative details before being given this responsibility. He is a good all around Agent.

This Agent was advised by Bureau letter on May 9, 1938 of the receipt of information that he used profanity during the course of lectures before law enforcement groups, and he was on that basis informed that the use of profanity is something that must be discontinued at once.

In September, 1938, SAC Guinane presented a very favorable Special Efficiency Report on this Agent.

On September 24, 1938, the SAC of the Kansas City Office was advised by letter in connection with the suspension of another Agent that Agent Boardman should be informed the Bureau does not believe it necessary to make use of profanity when contacting a fellow employee and any recurrence will not be tolerated.

On December 7, 1938, this Agent was thanked by Bureau letter for a suggestion made by him.

At the conclusion of a Kidnap Squad School ending December 10, 1938, Mr. Clegg submitted a favorable report stating that this Agent has definite possibilities as an executive and is an excellent Special Agent.

This Agent's file contains a number of commendatory letters in connection with his appearance as an instructor before law enforcement school groups.

REMARKS:

(Under this heading shall be set forth a digest of criticisms and conditions of significance which will reflect deficiencies, meritorious features, and special qualifications or disqualifications.)

Agent BOARDMAN makes a very good personal appearance, is always groomed neatly and is possessed of a forceful personality. His knowledge of the work is good, but is limited somewhat by the fact that he has been used instructing police schools throughout the country which necessarily limits the amount of experience gained since he has been in service. He is possessed of good judgment and uses force and logical reasoning in his investigations. I think, unquestionably, that he is very loyal to the Bureau.

He is the designated No. 1 man at this office and performs his duties in a satisfactory manner. He has been handling detailed investigations, such as the MATNAP case, in this office and is very thorough and meticulous in his work.

He operates a typewriter satisfactorily, is considered one of the best dictators in the office, is a good automobile driver and is well qualified in the use of firearms. He is well versed in firearms technique and has a very good knowledge of most of the technical apparatus assigned to the field office.

He is possessed of that cool judgment which I believe could be used to good advantage as a raid leader on dangerous assignments. I have not observed him testify, but I am positive that he would make a credible witness because of his general makeup and his clear manner of speaking. His special qualifications consist of a great deal of experience as instructor in police schools and his file contains many letters indicating he has performed satisfactorily in this regard. He has also made several speeches in this territory in my absence and congratulatory letters have been received on these talks.

This Agent is possessed of considerable executive and administrative ability. I believe that he would be qualified to handle an office capably, but should have more experience in actual field work and administrative details of an office before being given this responsibility.

I consider him an all around good Agent.

Have the contents of this report under the heading "Remarks" been read in full to the employee to whom they relate, and has the employee been informed as to the status reflected on the reverse side of this report? Yes.

I have read this report.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

In talking with SAC Brantley, he mentioned that Special Agent ~~Boardman~~ the No. 1 Man of the Kansas City Office, is absent a great deal of the time in connection with his instruction work before law-enforcement groups. He stated that recently Mr. Boardman has been away about two-thirds of the time and, consequently, he thought it was unfair to the Bureau and to Mr. Boardman to continue him as No. 1 Man. He has suggested that Special Agent Z. J. VanLandingham, now at the Kansas City Division, be designated No. 1 Man in Mr. Boardman's stead.

Respectfully,

Re: Special Agent L. V. BOARDMAN

Dear Sir:

As the Bureau knows, Special Agent L. V. BOARDMAN recently lectured at the Shreveport, Louisiana Police Department training school for a number of days. I heard Mr. BOARDMAN lecture the first day he was there and am in position, of my own knowledge, to make some pertinent observations regarding the ability of this agent in this regard.

Agent BOARDMAN has a particularly nice, attractive personality, and even the first day his relationship with the members of the Police Department was put on a friendly, personal basis which earned for him the immediate respect and admiration of all of the persons attending the school. He handled himself in an excellent manner while lecturing before the classes; the lectures which I heard were extremely well prepared and delivered in an interesting as well as a clear and instructive manner. He commanded the continued and earnest interest and attention of all those present.

I was in Shreveport on August 29th for the purpose of lecturing before this department, and there came in contact with practically all members of the force. Without exception they praised the ability and character of Mr. BOARDMAN.

I wanted the Bureau to have these reactions of mine for its information and inclusion in its files relative to Agent BOARDMAN.

Very truly yours,

Mr. L. V. Boardman, Special Agent, called to see me on September 29th. He states that he has been put to considerable extra expense in connection with his appearances for lecture purposes before law-enforcement groups in various parts of the country. He is very much interested in police instruction but pointed out that, of course, his expenses are much higher than those of an agent who confines his activities to a field office district.

I told Mr. Boardman that I was glad that he had mentioned this to us and that it would be kept in mind in connection with any increases. I note he was last promoted on July 1st at which time he received a $200 increase. He is presently receiving $4200 in Grade Caf 11. I would like to suggest a $200 increase in compensation for him at this time.

Respectfully

Dear Sir:

RE: SPECIAL AGENT L. V. BOARDMAN

During the past few weeks I have had occasion to contact Mr. BERT L. ANDREWS of the St. Joseph, Missouri, Police Department, as well as other members of that organization; Chief of Police SAM KNIGHT, Coffeyville, Kansas, Police Department; and Mr. JOE L. HENBEST, County Attorney at Columbus, Kansas; as well as other law enforcement officers in southwest Kansas, all of whom spoke in the very highest terms of the ability of Mr. BOARDMAN as an instructor, and the fact that he has a splendid personality, and otherwise commented favorably concerning him.

I attended the first few sessions of the St. Joseph, Missouri, Police Training School, and had occasion to observe Mr. BOARDMAN, and I am pleased to inform you that I share the opinions expressed by the gentlemen mentioned above.

I thought that the Bureau would be pleased to receive information of this kind concerning its employees.

Very truly yours,

* * * * *

The plant protection program will of course necessitate considerable investigative and instructive work. I believe that this project presents one of the finest opportunities for the creation of good will that has yet been afforded to the Bureau. I believe that some instruction should be given to a selected group of men upon the subject of plant protection and that thereafter these men should be sent to key industrial cities where conferences of a confidential nature might be arranged with a number of the leading industrialists whose plants have been selected by the War and Navy Munitions Board for the manufacture of industrial products considered as war materials. I suggest therefore that the names of the following men be considered for special training in plant protection work. In selecting these men I have given consideration not only to their inherent ability as investigators but also in their probable ability to make very favorable impressions with the people with whom the plant protection program will bring us in contact.

|| L. V. Boardman ||
John E. Lunsford

It will be necessary at a later date to train additional men in this type of work. I believe however that the men mentioned above present definite possibilities at this time. A number of the men named above have not as yet attended any Espionage Training School and when they are brought into Washington I believe that we should combine the regular Espionage Retraining School instruction with instruction in plant protection.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Re: L. V. Boardman, Special Agent
Administrative School

This Special Agent has spent quite a bit of his time during recent months instructing in police schools and he has also been Number One Man in the Kansas City Office. He has been recommended as a firearms instructor and is qualified to handle firearms as a Special Agent in Charge.

I am of the opinion that Mr. Boardman is qualified to perform the duties of a Special Agent in Charge. He might find some difficulty in handling personnel, but I believe his experience in training policemen and the fact that he has made a success of this work would lead to the belief that he could handle personnel in the Bureau.

In the event Mr. Boardman were made a Special Agent in Charge, it would rather seriously interfere with the present program of police training since he has been doing quite a large amount of this work; yet I do not believe he should be penalized if he is unable to obtain a Special Agent's in Charge salary in the type of work which he has been handling in such a satisfactory manner. I believe he has the appearance, personality, mental qualifications, and knowledge to justify belief that he could become a satisfactory Special Agent in Charge.

Respectfully,

H. H. Clegg

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

RE: L. V. BOARDMAN
Special Agent

I spoke to this Agent today. He has balance, plenty of poise, and has been doing very good work. I am of the opinion that he is ready for administrative duties. I suggested to him that if and when he received any such responsibility, I hoped it would not de-humanize him. My only fear would be along that line.

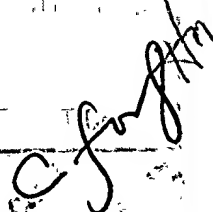

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

RE: L. V. BOARDMAN

I am transmitting herewith the personnel file of L. V. BOARDMAN who has recently been designated as Agent in Charge of the Milwaukee Field Division.

As the Bureau is aware, Mr. BOARDMAN has not been in Kansas City a great deal since my return here in July of this year. Practically his entire time has been devoted to participating in training programs throughout the country. For these reasons I am not rendering any efficiency report concerning him.

New Head G-Man Here Plays Down 'Lurid' Aspect

Thirty year old Lee V. Boardman came to town Saturday to take charge of the Milwaukee office of the federal bureau of investigation.

The son of a high school principal at Eveleth, Minn., Boardman appears to be a quiet, studious chap but he has had more than one taste of gunfire since he joined the G-men in 1934, shortly after graduating from the University of Minnesota law school. His first assignment was to Chicago, shortly after the G-men had killed John Dillinger there. Boardman got in on the cleanup of the notorious Barker-Karpis gang, which was responsible for the kidnaping of Edward G. Bremer, wealthy St. Paul (Minn.) banker, and other crimes. But Boardman preferred to chat about the less spectacular side of the bureau's work.

Lee V. Boardman

Not So Bad as in Movies

"We're not so bad as we're painted in some of the movies," he said. "Our life is not that lurid."

Boardman for the last two years has been working in the Kansas City (Mo.) area, acting as an instructor at police training schools and aiding in setting up such schools. That, he explained, is in furtherance of the bureau's program of assisting police training, which begins with the national police academy maintained by the bureau at Washington, D. C.

Milwaukee, of course, has always been far ahead of most other cities in police training," Boardman added. "That accounts for its excellent record in law enforcement."

After 11 months in Chicago, Boardman served three months in the bureau's office at Los Angeles, Calif., and then was assigned to Washington as administrative assistant to the director of the bureau's technical laboratory. He remained there until he returned to the field work two years ago.

"No Witch Hunting"

"The character of our work changes somewhat with the time," he said. In addition to our lar work, under a presidential proclamation, we now have charge of investigating espionage, sabotage and subversive activities, working in co-operation with the army and navy intelligence officers. Citizens are urged to report such cases to us. However, there will be no witch hunting. We want to discourage private citizens from making investigations themselves. They should leave such work to those experienced in it."

Boardman succeeds B. F. Fitzsimmons, who was transferred recently to a new office at Phoenix, Ariz. Boardman is married and is the father of a girl, 8.

Re: ACCOUNTING COURSE

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated August 17, 1939, addressed to all field offices, instructing that all Special Agents in Charge shall be required to complete the accounting course by December 31, 1939.

This is to advise that I have thus far submitted the first six accounting lessons. The Bureau is aware that on August 17, 1939, I had a Special Agent status and was engaged on special assignment as a police training instructor, and that under these conditions I was not required to complete the accounting course until July 31, 1940.

On receipt of reference letter I immediately requested that the accounting courses be furnished me, and thereafter I commenced working on the accounting problems, with the result that six were completed by me as of December 31, 1939.

As the Bureau is aware, I was designated as Special Agent in Charge of the Milwaukee Office on December 8, 1939, and of course, in view of my changed status, the due date for the accounting course was advanced to December 31, 1939. Since my appointment as Special Agent in Charge of the Milwaukee Field Office, I have expended a considerable amount of overtime in endeavoring to fulfill properly the duties delegated to me. What little spare time I have had I have continued to devote to the accounting course

I am not unmindful of the Bureau's instructions as contained in reference letter, and I have expended every effort to comply with instructions contained therein. In spite of these

Dear Sir:

With reference to your letter dated January 15, 1940, concerning your failure to complete the Bureau's accounting course, it is realized your status until recently was such that you were not required to complete the course until July 31, 1940.

It has been noted as of January 14, 1940, you submitted a total of six lessons. It is mandatory that Special Agents in Charge having supervision over the work of accountants have a sufficient working knowledge of accounting principles in order to intelligently discuss with accountants the results of their investigations. Under the circumstances I will expect you to make every effort to complete this course at the earliest possible date, submitting lessons at regular intervals.

Director

Dear Sir:

I read with considerable interest and pride a copy of your remarks which were delivered by you at the annual dinner of the National Academy of Sciences, in response to their awarding to you the Public Welfare Medal. It was gratifying to learn that so distinguished an organization has recognized your outstanding accomplishments in the field of law enforcement. This is merely one of numerous instances which has caused me to feel grateful that I am able to be associated with you in the nationally important undertaking in which this Bureau is engaged.

Since the publication of the scurrilous and unwarranted attacks on you and the Bureau, emanating from members of the Communist party, I have had occasion to appear before numerous clubs and societies throughout the State of Wisconsin. I am pleased to inform you that an unusually large number of individuals have approached me on each of these occasions to inform that they had the utmost confidence in your leadership of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and they expressed determination that an organization so essential to the well being of the United States would not be disrupted by the efforts of un-American groups.

With best wishes for your continued success and well being, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Previous to his arrival I issued a memorandum to him regarding certain matters which should be corrected, however, I think for the amount of time he has spent at the office since taking charge he has done an exceptionally good job and I feel that he will develop rapidly. He has a good appearance. He is sincere, conscientious and is well liked by the Police Department at Milwaukee.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

During the course of a telephone conversation with Mr. Hince, SAC L. V. Boardman stated that Chief of Police Joseph Kluchesky of Milwaukee had requested permission to attend firearms training with Special Agents of the Milwaukee Division. In line with the usual policy, SAC Boardman had invited Captain Hubert Dax, NPA, of the Milwaukee Police Department to attend. Of course, no invitation was extended to Kluchesky by Boardman, but Kluchesky took the initiative and requested permission to attend. Boardman stated that he understood that the Bureau's rules permit only NPA graduates to attend firearms training periods. However, Boardman stated that Klucheksky was so cooperative and such a key man in the Bureau's work in Wisconsin that he desired not to offend Kluchesky in any way. Boardman stated he had informed Kluchesky as diplomatically as possible that the Bureau's regulations permitted only NPA graduates to attend.

Mr. Hince recommended to Mr. Boardman that he make arrangements whereby Mr. Kluchesky could be afforded an opportunity to fire the Bureau's weapons subsequent to the completion of the training of the Special Agents and NPA graduates. This would have the effect of giving Kluchesky special attention and at the same time conform to the Bureau's established policy of permitting the heads of the departments from which NPA men have come to participate under special supervision and not to participate with Agents or NPA graduates on account of safety factors.

Respectfully,

H. H. CLEGG

I think this has been handled atrociously. Of course Kluchesky should be permitted to join with us. While he is not a graduate he is a lecturer at the Academy. We strain at a knot & swallow a camel.

Dear Mr. Boardman:

I have been informed of your telephone conversation with Mr. Hince concerning the request made by Chief of Police JOSEPH KLUCHESKY of the Milwaukee Police Department to attend a firearms training period at the Milwaukee Division.

I have noted that you have indicated an understanding that the Bureau's rules permit only graduates of the FBI National Police Academy to attend firearms training periods. I feel that your handling of this matter was entirely unsatisfactory and that Chief KLUCHESKY should have been informed immediately that he would be welcome at a firearms training period. Of course KLUCHESKY is not a graduate of the FBI National Police Academy but he is not only the head of a police organization which has been represented in the Academy, but he is also a member of the visiting faculty staff of the Academy. This is obviously a situation which common sense and good judgment would require an immediate and friendly response to Chief KLUCHESKY's request.

As you were informed by Mr. Hince telephonically, arrangements should be made with Chief KLUCHESKY so that he can be afforded an opportunity to fire the Bureau's weapons. In addition, please be informed that there will be no objection whatsoever to having Chief KLUCHESKY join with the Special Agents and graduates of the FBI National Police Academy in any and all firearms training periods whenever he desires to attend.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover

Dear Sir:

I was very much surprised to learn from Mr. Cockett that you had not become acquainted with the editorial staff of the Milwaukee Journal. I was disappointed in receiving this information inasmuch as you have been in Milwaukee since December 8, 1939, and have had ample opportunity to at least have met the ranking officials at the Milwaukee Journal.

It is incumbent upon each Special Agent in Charge of the Bureau to maintain the proper contacts which would protect the Bureau's general welfare in his district.

LELAND V. BOARDMAN

I am the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice, has been designated by the President to take charge of investigative work in matters relating to espionage, sabotage and violations of the neutrality regulations. This Bureau is also charged with the duty of investigating other matters bearing upon the maintenance of the internal security of the United States. The duties thus imposed upon this Bureau constitute a vital function in the national defense program of this country.

Leland V. Boardman is a trained Special Agent and has been continuously employed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation since July 30, 1934. He cannot be replaced satisfactorily because of the shortage of persons with his qualifications and experience in such activity, and his removal for induction would cause material loss of effectiveness in the conduct of the national defense work of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

O I saw Special Agent in Charge L. V. Boardman of the Milwaukee Office on April 18th. Mr. Boardman takes a favorable impression and seems to be interested in his work and to be fully cognizant of the responsibilities incident to the current emergency. He, of course, had excellent coverage in the Allis-Chalmers situation and I complimented him upon this matter and urged that he be certain to continue it.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated April 16, 1941, calling to my attention the fact that I have completed only eight lessons of the required thirty-six of the Bureau's accounting course, and requesting advice as to when I contemplate resuming the submission of these lessons.

Please be advised that in order to properly administer the affairs of this office, I have found it necessary to be at the office every night in the week until ten or eleven o'clock, Saturday and Sunday excluded. I am here on Saturdays until 6:00 PM, and generally spend several hours at the office on Sunday. I have reserved Saturday evenings and Sunday evenings for my family.

In order to submit accounting lessons, I would therefore necessarily have to spend time previously devoted to office work.

Unless instructed to the contrary, I shall henceforth plan to spend two or three evenings each week doing accounting lessons.

I talked to Inspector Gurnea concerning SAC Boardman. He stated that when he first made a spot check of the Milwaukee Division, Mr. Boardman, like other Special Agents in Charge, at that time was not fully acquainted with the way the Bureau desired National Defense matters to be handled. Mr. Gurnea states that Boardman has good contacts, has secured excellent police cooperation and he feels he is well qualified to assume the position of Agent in Charge of the Cleveland Division.

In view of this and my further discussion with you, I have issued appropriate instructions transferring Mr. Boardman from Milwaukee to Cleveland, Assistant SAC Vincent from Los Angeles to Milwaukee as Special Agent in Charge, and Special Agent Frederick A. Fletcher from Number One Man at Honolulu to Number Two Man at Los Angeles.

Inspector Gurnea spoke very favorably of Fletcher whom he recently saw in Honolulu. He believes he has very good prospects of developing to the point where he can handle a Field Division.

Handsome, Hard-Working-- That's New Chief G-Man

By RAY DE CRANE

Mr. Boardman... new head
G-man

Handsome, affable Leland V. Boardman came to town today, the new boss of the Cleveland office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, with the promise of a knockout wallop for fifth columnists and saboteurs.

Mr. Boardman, in replacing Lloyd F. Richmond who resigned from the service effective June 15, comes from Milwaukee, Wis., where he headed a bureau th past 18 months. He's been a G-man since 1934.

"I believe there is a definite threat in this country from fifth columnists and saboteurs," he said. "I'm going to devote all my efforts to combating and knocking them out of existence."

Work of the FBI today, he said, is mainly occupied under the national defense program and fighting subversive activities. His first big job will be planning the sessions of an FBI conference with plant managers and public officials here during the next two weeks, acquainting them with the entire defense picture.

Mr. Boardman worked a few weeks in Cleveland during 1937 on the Bird brothers case. His first assignment with the FBI was in the Chicago office and he was almost immediately put to work on the Bremer kidnapping case.

Like all good G-Men he was shifted about and since then has worked in Los Angeles and Washington and has spent well over three years traveling through 34 states assisting in organizing police training schools.

Mr. Boardman believes he's going to like Cleveland. Married, he has a daughter, Margaret Lee, 9. He was graduated from the University of Minnesota and holds a law degree. He is 32.

Boardman, FBI Leader Here, Sent to Cleveland

Lee V. Boardman, agent in charge of the Milwaukee field office of the federal bureau of investigation,

Lee V. Boardman

Thursday was ordered transferred to Cleveland, Ohio. He will leave the city Saturday. Boardman will be in charge of the large FBI office at Cleveland. His place here will be taken temporarily by T. G. Melvin, a special agent who has worked in the Milwaukee office for many years. One of Melvin's first duties will be to supervise the moving Monday of the FBI office from the Bankers building to new quarters on the seventh floor of the federal building.

Boardman, 32, was born in Eveleth, Minn. He joined the federal bureau shortly after his graduation from the law school of the University of Minnesota in 1934.

His first assignment was to Chicago, where he got in on the cleanup of the notorious Barker-Karpis gang, which had been responsible for the kidnaping of Edward G. Bremer, a wealthy St. Paul (Minn.) banker, and other crimes. The Milwaukee field office was the first office he headed.

Boardman organized three sessions of the FBI police training schools, which were held throughout Wisconsin, and organized and directed the quarterly conferences on national defense, which the FBI sponsors. The conferences were held in five cities. The last of them occurred this week.

In preparing to leave, Boardman praised the co-operation he had received from Wisconsin law enforcement officials.

"Police Chief Joseph T. Kluchesky and the members of the Milwaukee police force, especially, were prompt and efficient in their actions," he said.

Dear Sir:

PRELIMINARY REPORT
Cleveland, Ohio

As the Bureau has been advised from time to time, the conditions at this office upon my arrival here were the worst that I have ever had an opportunity to review. It appeared that everything was wrong, that the former agents-in-charge had entirely lost interest in the Bureau's work and exercised no supervision whatever over the personnel.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR.

L. V. Boardman

RELATIVE STANDING OF THE SPECIAL AGENTS IN CHARGE

As requested I have endeavored to group the various Special Agents in Charge according to their relative standing and ability, considering their investigative and executive possibilities. In the various groups I have endeavored to give each a numerical relative standing, however in many instances there is very little choice as between them based upon my knowledge and opinion of them.

As to the employees who would be of the calibre to handle the entire New York situation, Mr. Nathan would present the only possibility. As to Mr. Nathan, however, I believe he would be eliminated by reason of his age and the difficult job necessary from a physical stand point as well as the other problems. This also determined the placing of him third on the list.

My listing is attached herewith.

Respectfully submitted,

While talking to Special Agent V. W. Hughes, who is in attendance at the present In-service training school, he stated that the Cleveland office has improved at least 100% since his assignment there. He was transferred to Cleveland in May, 1941, when former SAC Lloyd Richmond was there.

He states that most of the improvement is due, of course, to an increased number of Agents but that much credit should be given to SAC Boardman for getting the office in shape.

Dear Sir:

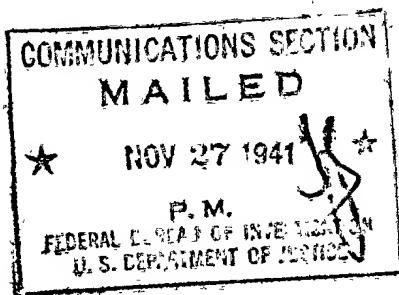

I am in receipt of your letter of November 6, 1941, with which you transmitted memoranda submitted by Special Agents Faziola and A. P. Gungor concerning the arrest in a Bureau automobile on August 19, 1941, near Bracksville, Ohio, on a speeding charge.

I note that this information was first brought to the attention of the Cleveland office in a memorandum submitted by Mr. Faziola dated September 3, 1941, and that you did not report it to your Washington headquarters until your letter of November 6, 1941. I am of the opinion this matter should have been promptly reported to the Bureau by you for appropriate action. Although it was necessary to secure more details from the two Agents involved, it does not appear to me there was any necessity for a three weeks' delay in securing this information nor was there any need for your retaining it apparently in the Cleveland office over a month before submitting it to the Bureau.

In the future, it is desired that such matters on the part of personnel assigned to your division be followed closely and the Bureau furnished with the full facts as promptly as possible.

Very truly yours, been decisive in your advising the press of the facts in the case. Ivan "Rahen" Phillips was a notorious bank robber who had stated that he would not be taken alive; he had been sentenced to life imprisonment, had escaped from a state institution, was armed and attempting to evade arrest at the time the Agents in a final effort to prevent his escaping were compelled to resort to the use of firearms. It is certainly the Bureau would not be subject to any criticism for its action in this case. Nevertheless, by the woefully inadequate manner in which you handled the press contacts prior to the time that the Bureau issued specific and emphatic instructions to you in this regard, the Bureau might have been, through your inadequacy, subject to severe criticism.

Very truly yours,

Personal Attention

Dear Sir:

Having been advised of the manner in which you handled the initial inquiry from a representative of a Cleveland newspaper relative to the shooting of Ivan Graham Phillips, Phillips bank robber, in Cleveland on Sunday morning, February 22nd, I must express to you my extreme displeasure at the woefully inadequate manner in which you handled this matter. Although Phillips had been shot by Bureau Agents while attempting to evade arrest and although he was armed with a pistol from which the identifying marks had been removed, you failed to bring these facts out in advising a press representative of the facts in the case. When the Bureau checked this matter with you at noon on February 22nd, it was ascertained that you had made no statement concerning the cause of or the facts and circumstances surrounding the shooting. You advised the Bureau telephonically that you had not made any statement concerning the reason for the shooting, had made no attempt to justify the shooting, had not advised the press representative that the subject had attempted to resist arrest, or had not advised the inquiring newspaperman that the subject was armed. Obviously the omission of these details would have normally resulted in the newspaperman obtaining answers to these questions from other less reliable sources, with the result that the Bureau might have been placed in a most embarrassing situation because the actual facts had not been made known to the press by you.

I have repeatedly endeavored to point out to you the serious nature of the charge that there should be no more to this kind of press in matters where it is necessary for Agents to resort to the use of firearms. It is imperative that you properly handle this matter in its initial stages and result in no further publicity. The Bureau only became aware of the shooting occurred on Sunday morning and at a time when no newspapers would be going to press for any time. There was no reason why you should have

THE DIRECTORRe: IVAN GRAHAM PHILLIPS;
Fugitive - BANK ROBBERY

I called CAG Boardman at Cleveland and inquired concerning the reaction of the press to the shooting of the subject in this case. Mr. Boardman stated that no newspapers have been published since the time of the shooting, but that the Cleveland Plain Dealer will issue an evening edition later today. He further advised that he had received an inquiry from the Cleveland Plain Dealer although he had not heard from the other two papers in town. The gist of Mr. Boardman's statement in response to the inquiry of the Plain Dealer was that Phillips, the subject, was wanted by the Bureau for bank robbery, that an indictment was outstanding, that Phillips had been sentenced to the State Penitentiary for life, that he had been transferred to the State Hospital and that he had escaped from the Hospital. Mr. Boardman made no statement concerning the cause of, or the facts and circumstances surrounding, the shooting.

Mr. Boardman stated that the Plain Dealer reporter had come to the house where the shooting took place about forty-five minutes after the shooting at which time Mr. Boardman informed him that he was too busy to make any statement but that he would be glad to talk with him later. When the reporter subsequently called Mr. Boardman at the Cleveland Office he was furnished the background of the subject although Mr. Boardman did not make any statement concerning the reason for the shooting. The press representative specifically inquired if there was any data in addition to the background information which could be furnished and Mr. Boardman told him there was nothing further at that time.

I told Mr. Boardman that he had withheld the fundamental facts from the press and that the Bureau would be subject to censure and criticism for so doing. Mr. Boardman indicated that he had not justified the shooting in any way in his statement to the reporter and that he did not advise the newspaperman that the subject had resisted arrest but that he did not believe any unfavorable publicity would result. I told him that the fundamental purpose of making a statement to the press in a matter of this kind is to justify the shooting to the public and pointed out that he had shot a man and had so advised the press without furnishing any reason therefor, that the reporter, since he could not obtain full facts from Mr. Boardman, probably would inquire elsewhere, possibly of someone who was with the subject at the time of the shooting, and obtain a distorted version of the facts as a result of which unfavorable publicity would ensue. I told him that he had completely missed this opportunity to place the Bureau's side of the story before the public. I told Mr. Boardman that we could not properly supplement the statement previously made to the Plain Dealer and inquired whether there were any other papers to whom the story could be given. He indicated that the other two newspapers do not go to press until tomorrow and that he had not received any inquiry from either of them.

I inquired of Mr. Boardman as to whether the reporter knew that the subject was armed at the time of his arrest, and he stated that although the subject had a revolver in a satchel under his arm at the time he attempted to escape through a window he did not tell the newspaperman that Phillips was armed nor did he believe that the reporter had an opportunity to ascertain this fact when he first called at the house where the shooting occurred. I told Mr. Boardman that I was most concerned about the manner in which he had handled this matter, that the subject's being armed at the time of the shooting was a very important fact which should have been given to the reporter, that it is his responsibility to properly handle such matters with the press and that withholding such information from the press might well result in criticism and possibly investigation of the manner in which the Bureau apprehended this subject by the Civil Liberties Union and similar groups and individuals.

I told him that certainly there should be no mystery concerning the incident and that he should not be evasive in making a statement concerning it, that it should have been made very clear to the newspaperman that the subject resisted arrest, that he was carrying a .33 caliber revolver when the Agents identified themselves as Federal officers and informed the subject he was under arrest and that a statement could be made to conform to the actual facts indicating that the subject continued to flee after he was ordered to halt, that he made a threatening gesture and that it was necessary to shoot him. Mr. Boardman indicated that he ordinarily maintains contact with the Plain Dealer through an individual named Sanford, and I told him he should contact Sanford, clear up the mystery and make the facts known.

Mr. Boardman indicated that the wounded person had been identified before the raid as the subject of the Bureau's investigation by Agent Campbell of the Cincinnati Office who had previously seen Phillips. I told him that if press inquiries were received concerning the method of identification, he should state that an Agent in the arresting party had previously seen the subject and had positively identified him. Fingerprints will be obtained at the hospital as soon as it is possible to do so.

1:40 P.M.

Mr. Boardman subsequently called and advised that he had furnished the facts relative to the subject's apprehension to the Plain Dealer through Sanford and that in accord with his usual policy he had likewise furnished the facts to the other two newspapers. I again emphasized the necessity for making the facts as previously outlined very clear to the press. Mr. Boardman stated that the subject has previously indicated that he would never be taken alive and that he reportedly carried two guns with him at all times, although only one was found last night, and these facts were given to the press representatives. He further advised that the gun which was found was contained in a suitcase which the subject was carrying under his arm when he went through the window, and I told him he should not emphasize in any manner the location of the gun but could merely state that the subject was armed at the time of his apprehension. Mr. Boardman indicated that he would display the loaded gun to the newspapermen and point out the fact that the serial number had been obliterated.

Respectfully,

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Special Agent in Charge Boardman advised me by telephone on Monday that Mr. Elliott Ness has spoken to him about the appointment of a Chief Investigator for the States Attorney's office in Pennsylvania at a salary of $5,000 per annum, and that Mr. Ness asked him whether he could recommend anyone for this position. Mr. Boardman states, further, that Mr. Ness advised him that the Union Carbide Company is seeking a man to place in charge of their plant protection program and inquired whether Mr. Boardman would be interested in this position. Boardman told him he would not be.

Subsequently I had occasion to speak to Mr. Ike Stewart, of the Union Carbide Company. He had previously asked me whether we knew anything about Thomas Clothey, Assistant to Elliott Ness. He made this inquiry in connection with the desire of the Union Carbide Company to hire a plant protection officer and I discouraged favorable action with respect to Clothey.

Mr. Boardman indicated that Elliott Ness has a brother in the Union Carbide Company. If he has Stewart does not know about it. It appears to me that in some manner the fact that an inquiry was made of the FBI with respect to Ness' first assistant might have become known to Ness. I explained this matter to Mr. Stewart. He stated he was going to look into it immediately; that he could hardly believe that anyone in his organization would make any such comment, but he wanted to check on it.

Saturday of this week is the Attorney General's birthday although he expects to be at the United States Attorneys' Conference.

United States Attorney KENNEDY, Brooklyn was very cordial and enthusiastic about the work of the FBI on the Ducase. The judge who tried the case has written a very commendatory letter to the Director. Agent Friedemann was a real star performer.

United States Attorney MILLER, Northern Ohio advised that BOARDMAN was doing an excellent job. The office was clicking, and the whole office was doing a splendid job.

Assistant United States Attorney [redacted], West Virginia advised that a West Virginia judge had stated that BOARDMAN made the best reports he ever saw prepared by an investigator when BOARDMAN was assigned to West Virginia.

noted
United States Attorney BUTLER, Connecticut said he was getting splendid cooperation. There is a special case, the subject of which has an Italian-sounding name. TOM DODDS is acting as Special Assistant, and Agent MEUNIER is working on the case. They are doing a good job, he states, and he feels that the case is likely to be spectacular, and many imminent possibilities of a spectacular nature appear likely. It might be well that this case be checked and identified so that anything unusual can be brought to the Bureau's attention.

Mr. ROWE was the first on the program. He talked briefly and very modestly. He inquired as to whether the United States Attorneys desired to have someone designated in his office to represent the United States Attorneys in presenting matters to the departmental officials.

Mr. LINTON COLLINS followed. The meeting had started about thirty minutes late. He stated there were only 12,000 out of about 18,000,000 registrants who would come under the conscientious objector class. He advised the United States Attorneys to refer conscientious objector cases promptly to the FBI so that if there was a delay the responsibility would not be on the United States Attorney. This is significant.

To - Director

There was rather widespread disagreement with the policy of the Department in not giving discretion to United States Attorneys in prosecuting conscientious objector cases. Outstanding among those who expressed views contrary to the view of the Department were United States Attorneys KENNEDY, Brooklyn, PHILLIPS, New Jersey, BRANDON, Massachusetts, and former United States Attorney LAMAR HARDY, New York.

United States Attorney CORREA, Southern District of New York gave a luncheon in an adjacent office on the 28th floor for the entire assembly. He was introduced by LAMAR HARDY as the youngest United States Attorney in the nation and yet possessed with calm and poise. In fact HARDY made a rather flowery introduction. CORREA extended the invitation to all the conferees to attend the luncheon.

United States Attorney GROBE, Western New York advised that Number One Man SCHLENKER of the Buffalo Office worked late every night until one or two o'clock, and he believed SCHLENKER has an inside office. He stated that when he catches the bus in the morning he looks very sleepy and if something isn't done to relieve SCHLENKER, he is going to die. I explained to him the Director's instructions about recreation and vacation and further that it was SCHLENKER's own choice rather than instructions which caused him to work so long although his choice was based upon the heavy volume of work. GROBE stated that SCHLENKER appeared to be running the office. He stated that this may in fact be unfair but whenever he calls for PIPER, PIPER is "in conference". He stated PIPER in fact may be working just as hard as SCHLENKER, but SCHLENKER needed some relief. I called Mr. HARBO about this, and asked that he submit a special memorandum as to his recommendations based upon his inspection last week.

I called Piper - He will submit explanation today.

To - Director

New York, New York
May 7, 1942

United States Attorney GROBE stated the agents were all doing a "bangup" good job. He had nothing but praise for them.

LAMAR HARDY, former United States Attorney, now of the Selective Service Hearing Board, stated that without previous conference he and the two other members of the hearing board today had informed LINTON COLLINS that it was miraculous that all the FBI reports were unbiased, factual and complete in detail. No doubt, he stated, the agents frequently felt like "knocking somebody's block off", but this was never reflected in reports. I told him that Mr. HOOVER personally instructed the agents to show this attitude, and he desired that his report be made known to Mr. HOOVER.

Mr. HARDY further stated that reports are at times rather lengthy and I explained the necessity of including not only evidence and information of value to the United States Attorney and the Hearing Boards but also explained that enough background information must be given to permit agents in other divisions to continue the investigation logically and thoroughly. He stated the job was being done both logically and thoroughly.

United States Attorney HUTCHESON, Eastern Virginia stated that both officers in his district are doing good jobs. He stated he hasn't seen a great deal of BOBBITT, but everything was O.K. The division of the work in the district, in answer to a question, he stated, was less convenient, but obviously necessary.

United States Attorney BRANDON of Boston stated there was as much as two or three days delay on certain types of cases which required action within seven days, and the volume of work was explained to him and he was not critical of the delay.

First Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] of Maine, advised that former Agent [redacted] now with CONWAY, and working under AMEN, was his brother. He indicated he had always admired the FBI and the Bureau's work.

To - Director

New York, New York
May 7, 1942

United States Attorney McNAMARA of Vermont advised that CORNELIUS was very much on the alert and seemed to be very intelligent and handsome.

Special Agent in Charge CONROY has been able to attend all sessions today and advises he has found no criticism and nothing worthy of report.

Mr. BERGE stated in his address that the FBI had done marvelous work in the investigation of Sedition cases.

Respectfully,

H. H. CLEGG

Dear Sir:

There are enclosed letters directed to Special Agents [redacted], James J. Kelly and [redacted] advising them of the administrative action taken because of their failure to function properly in handling complaints received in your office but coming under the jurisdiction of the Secret Service. Special Agent Jesse C. Parks, Jr. is being demoted to Grade CAF 11, $4400 per annum, placed on probation, and removed as Number One Man. Special Agent James J. Kelly is being demoted to Grade CAF 9, $3300 per annum, placed on probation and removed as Number Three Man. Special Agent Paul V. Hagan is being suspended without pay from 9:00 A. M. August 12, 1942 to the close of business August 21st and placed on probation.

It is understood that you had no personal knowledge of the delinquencies involved in any of these cases until the Secret Service contacted you on July 13th and it is believed that such a situation is in itself indicative of improper supervision of the office on your part. A Special Agent in Charge should be cognizant of the activities of all of the employees coming under his jurisdiction and lack of such knowledge reflects very definitely upon the proper supervision of the office. You have previously been advised in Bureau conferences of the necessity of close cooperation with other investigative agencies and it is felt that had your office been properly supervised such a situation would not have arisen. Further, it is noted that upon learning of the situation you failed to take any strict administrative action or advise the Bureau of these delinquencies. Your negligence and improper administration of the office are considered inexcusable and in view thereof, you are advised that you are being placed on probation.

Very truly yours,

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

Re: Derelictions in the Cleveland
Office

FACTS

The Cleveland Office of the U. S. Secret Service complained through its Washington headquarters of a lack of cooperation on the part of our Cleveland Office in handling complaints within Secret Service jurisdiction.

1. Former Special Agent [redacted] on February 9, 1942, received a complaint that Alfred John Guttman stated he would like to kill President Roosevelt. Not until February 19, 1942, did [redacted] dictate a memorandum and letters to local police requesting investigation of the complaint. Number One Man [redacted] initialed these serials for the file on the same day and a verifying report by the Cleveland Police Department dated March 3. On June 8, Number Three Man J. J. Kelly initialed for the file a deferred status letter improperly classifying Guttman's threat as "derogatory remarks." On July 6, he initialed for filing a second verifying report from the police. Kelly also initialed the report to the Bureau dated July 13. Not until July 30 when contacted by them was this information furnished to the Secret Service by Cleveland.

b6

2. Reports were received under dates of January 14, 1942 and February 10, 1942, alleging William Thomas Kramer was pro-Nazi, cursed the President, and said he would shoot the President if he had a gun and the opportunity. Number Three Man J. J. Kelly handled the reports. A Bureau report was not dictated until June 9 and not sent until June 30. The facts were never given the Secret Service but on July 27 the Secret Service advised the U. S. Attorney had authorized prosecution for the threats and inquired if this would interfere with our investigation.

3. On the morning of June 30, 1942, Number One Man [redacted] instructed Special Agent [redacted] to immediately handle a complaint just received telephonically that one Clarence Adkins had ordered photographic prints of some wires possibly of espionage value and a photograph of five war bonds. Agent [redacted] immediately determined there was no violation of ours and despite the fact the photographing of war bonds is a Federal violation told the complainant the prints could be delivered if Adkins called at noon on June 30 as expected. [] did not advise the office or dictate a memorandum until at least the next day, July 1. It was not transcribed until July 7. When another agent saw this memorandum he suggested that [] prepare a letter to the Secret Service which was dated July 9 and indicated Adkins "intended to call for the photographs on June 30, 1942." Number Three Man J. J. Kelly approved this letter.

AGENTS INVOLVED

1. Number One Man [] initialed the serials in the Guttman case for the file, apparently improperly evaluating them as worthless. He failed to have the Secret Service advised. He failed to follow up the Adkins' case after assigning it to []. His supervision in both instances was miserable.

[] entered on duty February 6, 1939, and since December 1, 1941 has been in CAF-12, $4600. He has been assigned since November 28, 1939 to the Cleveland Office, serving as a Resident Agent, Number Two Man, and since December 26, 1941, Number One Man. His record has been good and he has not been involved in any disciplinary action. SAC Boardman in March, 1942, gave him an excellent rating, reporting he had sound judgment, was versed in policy and procedures, stable, handled a large volume accurately, was a capable speaker and firearms instructor, was a good Number One Man and had good prospects for development in an executive capacity.

Recommendation: Mr. Harbo recommends a letter of reprimand. I recommend a 3-day suspension for his failure to comply with regulations in advising the Secret Service and that he be told a similar dereliction will result in his replacement as a Number One Man.

I recommend $200 demotion and probation and removal as No 1 man

2. Number Three Man J. J. Kelly initialed for filing two reports and a deferred status letter in the Guttman case, the letter calling the remarks "derogatory" rather than threats. He failed to have the Secret Service advised. In the Kramer case he handled all the reports and although the original information was received January 14, no report was typed until June 30. He failed to notify Secret Service. In the Adkins' case he approved the letter of July 9 to Secret Service regarding Adkins' intention to call for the war bond photographs on June 30. His supervision and judgment in all three cases was miserable and he did not comply with regulations.

Kelly entered on duty on March 3, 1941 and was assigned to Cleveland on November 13, 1941 and as Number Three Man on April 20, 1942. He is in CAF-10, $3500. His record has been good and upon the inspection in February Mr. Egan thought he had some executive and administrative ability. In March SAC Boardman rated him as very good, reported he knew investigative procedures, was industrious, his volume was average and he had administrative possibilities.

Recommendation: Mr. Harbo recommends a letter of censure.

I recommend in addition a 3-day suspension for his failure to comply with regulations and removal as Number Three Man for his lack of judgment and inattention to detail.

I recommend $200 demotion, probation and removal as No 3 man.

3. Special Agent [] handled the Adkins' complaint. He advised the complainant it was O.K. to deliver war bond photographs despite this being a Federal violation. He did not advise the office to permit preventive action by the Secret Service. He did not submit a memorandum until after the date of the delivery and did not expedite its transcription. He did not take steps to advise Secret Service until eight days later and then only on another agent's suggestion. This letter clearly indicated in its wording that the war bond photographs were to have been delivered nine days earlier and that we had prior knowledge.

[] is in CAF-9, $3200, and was a clerk in the Philadelphia Office from December 11, 1935 until he was dismissed with prejudice on August 26, 1940 for going to sleep on a midnight shift. He re-entered as a clerk at the Seat of Government on October 14, 1940, and as an agent on November 24, 1941. Cleveland is his first office and a transfer to New York City was cancelled in June due to the expected birth of a baby in July. SAC Boardman in March rated him as a good agent with a good attitude, thorough, requiring less than average supervision, sound judgment, aggressive, who was developing better than average.

Recommendation: Mr. Harbo recommends a strong letter of censure or a suspension. I recommend a 3-day suspension and that he be placed upon probation.

I recommend ten (10) days' suspension & probation

4. SAC Boardman had no personal knowledge of any of these cases until the Secret Service contacted him on July 13. He then checked into the matter, apologized for the delay and dictated a memorandum to all employees instructing prompt handling of all such matters. He had previously in Supervisors Conferences and Quarterly Conferences advised of the necessity of close cooperation with other investigative agencies. His entire office, however, in these situations fumbled the ball and failed to keep him advised of the situation. He also failed to take any strict administrative action or advise the Bureau of these derelictions.

Recommendation: I recommend a strong letter of censure to SAC Boardman.

I recommend that Boardman be placed on probation 8/10

Respectfully,

R. C. Hendon

In accordance with your instructions, the inspection assignment of SAG L. V. Boardman to handle the inspection of the Detroit office has been cancelled by the attached teletype. I suggest giving the assignment of inspecting the Detroit office to SAG J. E. Thornton who has been doing an above average job on this work.

With reference to the Director's instructions that the Grand Rapids office be re-inspected at an early date, I suggest that SAG Thornton be given this assignment also. Now that he has completed the inspections at Milwaukee and Grand Rapids, he has Baltimore and Detroit pending. He should then be able to handle Grand Rapids again.

The attached letter assigns SAG Thornton to make inspections of the Detroit and Grand Rapids offices, if you approve.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

On August 26, 1942, I went over with Mr. Boardman the gross inefficiency of his office in holding in its files for a period of six or more months several cases involving threats against the person of the President. I pointed out to Mr. Boardman that the failure of his office to properly handle this material had resulted in great embarrassment to the Bureau through both the Treasury and the White House. I pointed out to him that there could be no alibi or explanation of such conduct since the responsibility was his, Boardman's, and his alone.

I went over with Mr. Boardman the recent action of a clerical employee of his office in sending to the Chief of Police at Canton, Ohio a copy of a letter addressed to the Bureau concerning irregularities in the Canton, Ohio Police Department. I pointed out to Boardman that here again there could be no alibi or passing of the buck to a minor clerk but that the responsibility was Boardman's to train his clerical employees, to issue instructions and to see that they were carried out. Boardman attempted to pass these matters off as being stupid acts on the part of minor employees but admitted that he had not issued appropriate instructions concerning the matter or properly trained the people handling them. I told Boardman that the Director could not and would not tolerate any additional administrative delinquencies on his part.

I told Boardman that he was not only on probation but that he was in a very precarious situation in so far as his status as Agent in Charge was concerned and that any further administrative shortcomings of his office would result in his immediate removal as Agent in Charge.

Dear Mr. Boardman:

The Bureau is in receipt of the report of the physical examination afforded you at the United States Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Maryland, on August 19, 1942.

This report reflects the following physical defects:

Slightly flat feet.
Sebaceous cysts of scrotum.

The Board of Examining Physicians recommends vaccination for smallpox, inoculation for typhoid, inoculation for tetanus, and surgical removal of cysts under local anesthetic.

It reports that you capable of performing strenuous physical exertion, and have no physical defects that would interfere with your participation in raids or other work involving the practical use of firearms.

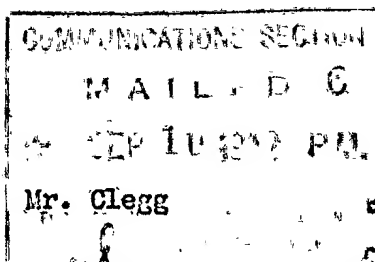

It is suggested that you consult your personal physician relative to the surgical removal of the sebaceous cysts and advise the Bureau in this regard.

For your information, it was determined during this examination that your blood is International Type "A".

Dear Sir:

Confirming the discussion had with you on August 26, 1942, Mr. Tamm, I desire to express to you my complete dissatisfaction with your inefficient and unsatisfactory handling of various administrative aspects of the Cleveland office. The failure of subordinate employees of your office to properly handle several cases reported to your office involving threats against the person of the President has resulted in great embarrassment to the Bureau. It is, of course, your individual responsibility as Special Agent in Charge of the Cleveland district to see that matters of this kind are promptly and properly handled.

Your failure to issue appropriate instructions and to see that these instructions were properly carried out is further manifested in the recent situation in which the copy of a confidential letter to the Bureau was mailed by a clerical employee to the Chief of Police at Canton, Ohio, despite the fact that this letter contained information which obviously should not have been furnished to that Chief of Police. Again, the responsibility is yours to see that such things do not happen.

It is needless for me to outline the embarrassment and how it may come to the Bureau if the Special Agents in Charge do not properly administer their individual offices. In accord with the statements made to you by Mr. Tamm, it will be necessary for me to remove you from the status of Special Agent in Charge if further administrative delinquencies occur in your district.

REMARKS: Interviewing Official - Mr. Clegg

At the time of my interview with Mr. Boardman, the inspection report had not been prepared covering a recent inspection of the Cleveland Office. He stated that from his conversations with Mr. Harbo, the Inspector, he believes his office was in rather good condition. At least, this is his conclusion from the conversations. He stated he thoroughly understood all the criticisms made and had no questions or problems as a result of the inspection which he desired to elaborate upon or to obtain further advice about.

Boardman stated that he was on probation; that his office had been careless in handling a complaint from the Secret Service and that he had had an Agent fired too in the last week for misconduct; that there was a total of three things which had happened that were bad and he was rather depressed because "when it rained it poured." He stated he was going back and do his very best to correct conditions and get the office and the personnel in the condition and attitude which the Bureau desired. He felt that he was qualified to do the job.

Mr. Boardman stated that the In-Service School which he had attended was good, well organized and that the instructors were prompt and with the possibility of one exception, a substitute, the performances were all of a splendid type. He particularly commended the firearms training at Quantico and the neatness and orderliness of the Quantico establishment.

Boardman makes a good appearance. He has a reasonably good personality. He knows how to run an office. The fact that he is on probation shows that he does let things get out of hand occasionally and there are lapses in his administration of his division. Because he is presently on probation, he cannot be characterized in the status of good, but I believe he has qualifications and ability which, if applied, would enable him to become a good SAC.

Very truly yours,

H. H. Clegg

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Re: Basis for Recommending SACs' Being Placed on Probation as a Result of Inspections

The inspection of a field office and the operations and administration of the office are divided into five usual groupings:
(1) Physical Condition and Maintenance; (2) Investigative Operations;
(3) Administrative Operations; (4) Personnel Supervision and (5) Contacts.

The basis which I have been employing in recommending that Special Agents in Charge be placed on probation rests on the over-all picture of the general administration and operations of the office as shown by the report of the Inspector. As a guide in this connection, if as many as two of the above five classifications are reported in a status less than good, this would indicate the likelihood that a recommendation for probation would be made.

For example, the inspection of the Oklahoma City Office by SAC Kitchin reports the Physical Condition and Maintenance good, Investigative Operations fair, Administrative Operations fair, Personnel Supervision fair and Contacts good. Because there were three of the five classifications not up to a status of good, it was recommended that Mr. Banister be placed on probation, and this was done.

At the Washington Field Office, the Inspector reported the Administrative Operations to be poor and the other four classifications were fair, and SA McKee was placed on probation.

The inspection of the Pittsburgh Office by Mr. Seana reported the Physical Condition and Maintenance fair, Investigative Operations fair, Administrative Operations fair, Personnel Supervision good and Contacts excellent. A recommendation has been made that SAC Thornton be placed on probation.

During my absence, Mr. Hince briefed the inspection of the Indianapolis Office, and the Physical Condition and Maintenance, Investigative Operations and Administrative Operations were reported as fair, Personnel Supervision was good, and Contacts were good. Mr. Hince advises that in view of the fact that Mr. Brantley a few weeks previously had called at the Indianapolis Office and discovered a difficult situation which had been left for SAC Lopez to handle, the bad space situation and the bad situation affecting police cases, and since Lopez had been in that district for only 60 days and still had the status of Acting SAC, he felt that adequate time had not been given Lopez to demonstrate his ability and no recommendation for probationary status was made since he had inherited many of the delinquencies. Although a clerical employee had been late 13 times, this was over a period of four months, including a period during which Mr. Lopez was not at Indianapolis. I have also been advised that SAC Lopez discovered the existing large delinquencies in the administration of police cases and immediately made a recommendation to the Bureau for the assignment for a temporary period of two Special Agents to supervise police cases so as to bring these out of a delinquent status. This recommendation of Mr. Lopez was approved by the Bureau and the delinquency has been reduced since the time that the office was inspected.

Concerning the fact that 25% of the Agents of the Milwaukee Office failed the manual examinations, the Inspector nevertheless reported that in the Milwaukee Office the Contacts were excellent, Personnel Supervision good, Administrative Operations Good, Investigative Operations good and Physical Condition and Maintenance was fair.

Some consideration has been given to the facts that Special Agents in Charge were being used on inspections; that their ratings were not necessarily uniform and that the emphases during the course of the inspection were not always identical on the various phases of the field office work.

Except in the case of seriously aggravating or definite mitigating circumstances when the inspections are conducted with uniform thoroughness, I believe it to be a good automatic basis to recommend probation when as many as two of the five classifications of supervision are below a status of good. This, of course, is to be modified whenever any one of the situations in a field office becomes so deplorable as to justify the placing on probation of an SAC because of a specific act or series of acts even under the same classification.

It is noted, for example, that SACs Moss, Abbaticchio and Boardman are also on probation but the probation was not the result of a field office inspection but because of incidents arising which justified the action taken.

SAC Kuhn of Memphis is on probation because more than one of the classifications of the work of the SAC were less than good and a recommendation has been made that SACs Scheidt at Charlotte and Thornton at Pittsburgh be placed on probation for the same reasons.

Respectfully,

H. H. Clegg

As to Indianapolis, I can't imagine anything worse than allowing gross tardiness + 25% failure in apt. train. There can be no rule of thumb measure but each situation must be individually judged. We must tighten up - we have been too easy. N.

How could personnel supervision be 25% failures in manual exams?

RE: BUCKEYE STATE SHERIFFS.
CONVENTION
COLUMBUS, OHIO
December 2, 1942

SAC Boardman called from Cleveland at 1:15 today advising that he had just returned to work after a rather serious seige of illness. Boardman has had influenza and pneumonia and as a result his hearing has been badly impaired. He said he felt very wobbly and was afraid he might look foolish if he went down to Columbus next Wednesday to attend this Convention particularly since his hearing is so bad.

I told him that the Bureau would not expect him to go under the circumstances and that unless he felt his condition had improved to the extent that he could creditably represent the Bureau for him to by all means stay on in Cleveland and to get himself back in good condition. Boardman advised his doctor told him it would be necessary to keep draining his ears every day for some time to come and that under the circumstances he would remain in Cleveland. I told him this would be perfectly satisfactory.

As you recall SAC Suran of Cincinnati and Mr. J. K. Mumford of the Bureau will also attend the Convention.

Respectfully,

J. J. McGuire

Re: Cleveland Office

SAC Guerin telephoned from Cleveland yesterday afternoon concerning his check into the situation existing there and the allegations made against SAC Boardman. There was no indication whatsoever as to the source of the anonymous letter received by the Bureau. Guerin advised he has interviewed a number of the agent and clerical personnel in the Cleveland Office and that all of the difficulty seems to center in the stenographic pool comprised of 18 stenographers. Ten of these stenographers said everything was OK while the other eight had a gripe of one kind or another. They indicated that the employees are resentful of overtime, disliked tabulating the pages typed and the amount of time spent on dictation and clerical work and generally have the feeling that they are under pressure, are on a production quota and cannot relax and that everything they do is being watched and weighed.

They claim that Boardman is sarcastic, not humane, very stern, walks about the office in a dictatorial manner and has no appreciation or sympathy for their problems. One girl indicated the office runs smoother when he is not there and another stated he doesn't get all the facts before he criticizes employees. They are particularly resentful of his opening a clerical conference in the middle of October with the statement, "Effective immediately there will be two hours overtime." The records show the girls have been putting in approximately one hour and twenty minutes overtime during August and September and they feel he arbitrarily increased this without reason. Guerin said they didn't object to the overtime but to the manner in which Boardman handled the proposition.

Guerin states that the agents like Boardman and feel that he has done a good job at the office which was in bad shape when he took it over. They hint that they knew some of the stenographers were dissatisfied.

Boardman has been ill at home with a bad case of flu for a week and is going to be there for another week. Guerin states that Boardman is not in shape to be questioned concerning these matters and I told him not to do so. Guerin thinks the situation can be cleared up by a little salesmanship on the part of Boardman. He should open up a little bit and be more cordial and friendly with his employees. He says that he could not say that Boardman was all in the wrong without talking to him and that he had a couple more inquiries to make. I told Merin he could proceed to New Orleans as soon as he had completed these inquiries and that a complete report of the results should be furnished to the Bureau air mail immediately with any recommendations which he was in a position to make.

Dear Sir:

The Bureau has reviewed the findings of Mr. Guerin during his recent inquiries at the Cleveland office. You are advised that a number of stenographers in the Cleveland office commented critically concerning your attitude toward the employees. This attitude was described as "sarcastic, stern, brusque and unfriendly" and as making the employees want to fight back when you talked to them, as putting the stenographers on the defensive, as answering questions vaguely and as making their suggestions appear foolish. They feel that you have no humane interest, that you make the employees uncomfortable in your presence, that you are "one who jumps on you with both feet," that you criticized unnecessarily a new agent who was late to a conference but who had been sent out by another supervisor which was the reason for his tardy arrival, that you did not appreciate or understand the problems of employees and that you had an officious manner and are tactless.

In this regard, although the majority of the employees had no criticism to make, the Bureau feels that there is an inadequacy in the personnel relationship when a substantial number of any one group of employees have the feeling as indicated. The Bureau, therefore, desires that you undertake to correct any attitude, even though unintentional, which creates such impressions and it has been suggested that you adopt a more friendly attitude, that you might mingle with the employees more frequently and visit about the office in various sections on three or four occasions each day, at which time you might convey an impression of friendly interest. The Bureau feels that, in spite of a lack of desire on your part to create any unfriendly attitude, there may be some basis for misunderstanding your feelings and your attitude, and it is suggested that you attempt to rectify this condition by appropriate authoritative in your attitude and in your relationships with the personnel. Of course, the Bureau desires that the proper type of discipline be maintained at all times and this is essential. Perhaps in the recreational program with the employees you can come to know them better and they can get better acquainted with you. Efforts toward this end will probably be found profitable.

The following Agents in Charge have received two days' instruction at regular schools for Inspector's assistants:

A. C. Schlenker

R. E. Smith
J. J. Starke
D. L. Traynor
C. E. Weeks

It is to be noted that at the SAC Conferences held in April of 1944 a portion of the instruction was set aside for inspection procedures and the Inspector's Manual. However, only about one hour was devoted to this phase of the instruction. During the course of the two-day individual conferences for SACs in the fall of 1944, the SACs were afforded general instruction concerning inspection procedures and observations concerning inspections of their own and other offices. None of this instruction was sufficiently detailed as to qualify those in attendance to handle all phases of an inspection, as was done in the two-day school for Inspector's assistants.

~~PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL~~

Attention: Assistant Director
H. H. Clegg

Dear Sir:

In accordance with the telephonic request of Assistant Director H. H. CLEGG on November 30, 1942, I am hereinafter recording my observations concerning the subject matter of the recent inspection in the Cleveland Field Division by Special Agent in Charge R. A. GUERIN.

It has been my policy during the period of time I have been a Special Agent in Charge to encourage employees to bring their personnel problems to me. I have endeavored to acquaint the employees with this policy through frequent verbal advice to that effect and also by continuously keeping the doors to my office open for the express purpose of encouraging free ingress to my office. I daily confer with the employees on both personnel matters and administrative matters and know definitely that it is possible for employees to see me at any time I am in the office unless, of course, I am immediately engaged with another employee or outsider.

It has further been my policy to afford appropriate attention to the problems of the employees and advise them in accordance with established Bureau policy and procedure. I have not attempted to curry their favor nor have I at any time induced them to feel that my office should be a place for them to engage in idle gossip or conversation, but as above indicated, I have definitely encouraged the employees to bring their personnel problems to me and I feel they are so doing.

It would appear that some comment was made to the effect that there were certain overtime requirements in this office. On one occasion I specifically instructed all stenographers to perform two hours per day overtime until further notice. They were advised at this time concerning the reason for the request. Actually this requirement was made effective on Wednesday, October 21, 1942, and continued in effect until Saturday, October 24, 1942. The reason for the requirement was that there was an unnecessary amount of delinquency and it was my firm conviction that the persons responsible for the delinquency had not made proper effort to remove the delinquency. To the best of my recollection, the delinquency as of October 21, 1942 was close to 500 pages, whereas this delinquency was reduced to a little over 100 pages by noon on Saturday, October 24, 1942, which was a positive indication that the delinquency was not warranted.

I had on several prior occasions advised the stenographers that I preferred each stenographer to "work out her own salvation", namely, to organize and handle her work so that it would not be in an unnecessarily delinquent status. I also pointed out that should the stenographers refuse to accept this responsibility there would be no other alternative than for me to specifically require a stipulated amount of overtime to be performed in the event any of the stenographers became delinquent. The stenographers, therefore, were fully cognizant of my views prior to the announced requirement of two hours per day overtime for the purpose of removing the delinquent condition of the work.

On the Saturday morning in question, I informed the stenographers that the two hour per day requirement of overtime was being lifted in view of the alleviated delinquent status of the work. I pointed out, however, that I fully anticipated that those stenographers who continued to have delinquent work on their books would perform at least two hours per day overtime until such time as their work was in a current status.

I have always insisted that the assignment of the work be equitably distributed in order that no one employee would be required to assume a disproportionate share of the work. Aside from the above, there have never been any specific overtime requirements in the Cleveland Field Division as regards any of the employees.

With reference to daily record requirements for stenographers, I wish to advise that I insist that the stenographic force daily fill out Form FD-76, known as "Stenographers Daily Report". Other than this approved Bureau form, there are no requirements concerning daily reports. I wish to point out that at the end of each month, I have compiled for me the average number of pages per day typed by each stenographer, together with a computation of the clerical work performed each day during the month. This statistical report permits me at efficiency rating time to judge on a comparative basis the volume of work performed by each stenographer. It also permits me from the personnel standpoint to discuss with individual employees their shortcomings and their need for improvement along specific lines. When such a report is properly utilized, I think it can be made very helpful to not only the Agent in Charge but to the stenographic employee concerned and can provide an incentive for the stenographer to increase her capabilities.

There is not nor has there been at any time any certain requirement as to the number of pages a stenographer must type each day. In fact, I have repeatedly informed the stenographers that they should not be page-conscious but instead should concentrate their attention on increasing their ability to take shorthand and to type, which increased efficiency would automatically increase their page average.

In conclusion I wish to assure the Bureau that though I believe in having strict discipline in an office, I most certainly encourage employees to discuss their problems with me and I endeavor to lend them a friendly and attentive ear.

Very truly yours,

Leland V. Boardman

efficiency is not based solely on the quantity of their production. Their attitude, the quality of their work, their application, their energy and other factors enumerated in the Manual of Rules and Regulations are taken into consideration in determining the efficiency of an employee.

You indicate that some of the employees had not been applying themselves in such a manner as to obtain adequate production, for which reason you ordered a general overtime of two hours. Although the facts are not clear as to whether the delinquency was distributed among various employees, as there were some who had not been performing their proper share of the work, the Bureau feels you might have dealt with this problem on a more individual basis rather than issue blanket orders. The Bureau has no standards of overtime. Unfortunately, certain overtime requirements do exist due to the very nature of the Bureau's work but the Bureau does desire that this overtime be equitably distributed among the various clerical employees, as well as among the Special Agents, as a special group. This is a problem of the administrator of an office and in issuing orders it is believed that a more wholesome and agreeable compliance can be obtained if adequate explanations are given when the orders are of an unusual nature.

This whole problem seems to be one developing from a misunderstanding, a lack of clarity in instructions and a lack of proper personnel relationships which the Bureau believes you can correct by adopting approved methods to this end. Please give this matter your very studious and careful attention with a view to bringing about this improvement in the conditions in your office promptly.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated January 5, 1943, requesting advice as to whether I have consulted my personal physician relative to the surgical removal of a sebaceous cyst.

At the time this cyst was pointed out to me, the Naval doctor advised that it could not create any physical impairment that it was more in the nature of a nuisance than anything that could subsequently cause physical impairment. He suggested that I take steps to have this cyst removed but did not imply that it was imperative. I therefore have taken no action concerning this matter and do not contemplate any action in the future for the above reasons stated unless it becomes essential to my continued good health.

Re: PERSONNEL SITUATION,
○ CLEVELAND FIELD DIVISION.

Dear Sir:

I am attaching hereto a memorandum prepared by me on the basis of my inquiries and observations at the Cleveland Field Division on November 12, 13, and 14, 1942. It will be recalled that these inquiries were instituted because of the receipt of a letter at the Bureau commenting upon the autocratic attitude and crude demeanor of the Agent in Charge, the dissension that exists in the office, and the inability of the employees to perform in a capable manner because of the nervous tension.

During the time of my presence in Cleveland, Mr. BOARDMAN, the Special Agent in Charge, was confined to his home because of illness, and I learned that his confinement would carry over for at least another week. I talked to him on one occasion by telephone, but obviously he was ill and not in a position to studiously or carefully answer any questions directed to him. I refrained from discussing the results of my observations with him because I do not believe he was in a position at the time to review the entire matter, and to give sufficient study and attention to the situation in order to permit him to furnish intelligent and logical replies.

The Bureau may, therefore, desire to direct a communication to Mr. BOARDMAN, or to have him personally appear at Washington, for a review of the comments set forth in the attached memorandum. My procedure in this connection was discussed with Mr. HENDON of the Bureau prior to my departure from the Cleveland Field Division.

Very truly yours,

R. A. Guerin,
Special Agent in Charge.

MEMORANDUM TO THE DIRECTOR:

CHARGES

An anonymous letter was forwarded to the Bureau, postmarked Cleveland, October 5, 1942, wherein it was stated that Mr. L. V. BOARDMAN, the Special Agent in Charge of the Cleveland Field Division, is a slave-driver and that his autocratic attitude and crude demeanor toward the employees at all times is anything but conducive to high quality work. It was also charged that the atmosphere of the office is so electrified with dissension that the nervous tension would prevent anyone, no matter how capable he might be, from doing his best.

It was pointed out in the letter that the employees of the Cleveland Office are loyal, patriotic, and anxious to do whatever is necessary to win the war, but believed it to be most disconcerting to work hard and long with never a kind word or any evidence of appreciation.

STATEMENTS SUPPORTING ABOVE CHARGES

Information Relating to Special Agent in Charge:

It is practically certain that the dissension and objections which may exist originate in the stenographic section of the Cleveland Field Division. Of eighteen stenographers interviewed, eight made various statements commenting adversely on the attitude of the Agent in Charge, the work required of the stenographers, and in general, expressed dissatisfaction. The other ten stenographers interviewed stated in general that they were pleased, had no complaints to register, and favorably commented upon the treatment accorded them by the Special Agent in Charge and the other supervisory officials of the office.

The complaints seemed to narrow down to the attitude of the Agent in Charge in dealing with the stenographers, the number of pages that each stenographer is expected to type daily, and the overtime that has been requested of them. Each of these items will be discussed herein from the stenographers' point of view, based upon their observations as submitted at the time the inquiries were made of them.

With reference to the Special Agent in Charge himself, it was pointed out that he has fine administrative ability, but has little humane interest. One employee stated that she is very uncomfortable when the Special Agent in Charge is in her presence, and that she would not go to him with any of her problems. It was also indicated that the Special Agent in Charge is rather sarcastic in his statements and in his instructions to the employees; that he is stern and sometimes very brusque. They claim he is not the friendly type, and that it would be impossible for them to be free or open with him.

At a clerical conference the Agent in Charge argued down a stenographer's point of view and made her feel as though the point she had raised was rather foolish. One girl disclosed that at some of the conferences his answers are vague and do not settle the questions in the minds of the girls. They also disclosed that his way of addressing the girls immediately puts them on the defensive, and makes them feel as though they want to fight back. One stenographer advised that it is very difficult to explain anything to him, and that he does not appreciate or try to understand the problems of the employees.

It was also indicated that the officious manner adopted by the Agent in Charge as he walks about the office gives the impression that he is trying to show he is the one in charge, and as a result the employees tighten up as he appears. One stenographer stated that even an agent when dictating will sort of freeze up when the Special Agent in Charge walks into a room.

The claim was made that he is definitely tactless in handling people, and that the office operates in a smoother manner when he is away. One stenographer stated that the Special Agent in Charge fails to get all the facts before he makes his comments, referring to an open reprimand issued by the Agent in Charge to a new agent who was late in appearing at a new agents' conference. The facts in this case were the new agent was sent out on an assignment by one of the supervisory officials, and consequently was unable to appear at the new agents' conference promptly on time. She added that he "jumps in with both feet".

They mentioned that he is a "cold" type, and not one to whom an employee could confide or discuss personal problems. It was mentioned that Special Agent [redacted] who was formerly No. 1 Man at the Cleveland Office, was sort of a balancing effect in temperaments, inasmuch as he was pleasant, cheerful, likeable, and at the same time sound, logical and intelligent. It should be pointed out that practically everybody interviewed during the course of this matter favorably commented on Agent [redacted]. The girls trusted him to an extreme, and as a matter of fact, discussed practically all their problems with him.

Information as to Production of Stenographers:

Each stenographer in the Cleveland Field Division is required daily to report to a designated stenographer the number of pages she has typed that day, together with information as to the amount of dictation she has taken, and the clerical work performed by her. The record of pages typed is made on a slip of paper immediately after each page is completed. This information is compiled for the purpose of determining the number of pages produced each day by the respective stenographers, for the purpose of recording at the end of appropriate periods the average production of each stenographer. The number of pending days work for each stenographer is computed on the basis of 28 pages for one day, and the stenographers feel that they are expected to turn out 28 pages daily. If their average is below this figure, or if they leave without a representative number of pages having been typed for the day they have somewhat of a guilty feeling.

On this basis, the stenographers stated, if they do not feel well, or have reason for not being up to par, they will be obliged to work twice as hard the next day to raise their average. One girl comparatively new at the office, departed recently in a rather upset condition because her particular average for the day was low and she was of the impression that it would reflect against her. Some of the stenographers interviewed claimed that the number of pages completed by a girl does not necessarily reflect her true ability, as there is a wide variance in the type of work being handled by them. They did mention, however, that this type of work would, on an average, be equitably distributed among all of them. One girl plainly stated that she works too hard and too long. It was stated that the number of pages expected of each employee is no real, great effort, and the girls appreciate any honest competition, but feel as though they are required to maintain this average, regardless of how they feel on certain days. The knowledge that they are thus required to complete so many pages, places them under a certain tension, which necessarily is reflected in the caliber of work produced by them.

Information as to Overtime:

In connection with the subject of overtime, some of the stenographers commented that they do not want to be told that it is absolutely necessary for them to work overtime hours, and that they did not react favorably to such compulsory statements. They claim that they ordinarily work overtime in the regular course of business, and that they honestly feel that the amount of such overtime being performed by them is in line with the volume of work they have on their books.

At a conference called by the Special Agent in Charge on October 19, 1942, for all of the stenographers, he opened the conference with the statement, "Effective immediately two hours overtime daily will be necessary". This requirement was put into effect by the Agent in Charge to clear up delinquencies on the books of the stenographers, and was maintained in effect by him for a period of four or five days. At the conclusion of that time a one-hour overtime daily requirement was put into effect. Some of the girls have stated that the two-hour overtime requirement applied to everybody, although there were not more than six or eight stenographers at that particular time who had the delinquent items referred to above on their books. In this connection, some of the stenographers referred to the rather brusque and tactless manner in which the Agent in Charge opened this particular conference.

It might be noted at this point that the records of the Bureau and the Cleveland Field Division reflect the following average daily overtime being performed by the stenographers of the Cleveland Field Division in the month in question:

|-----------|--------|---------|
| July | | 46 min. |
| August | 1 hour | 15 " |
| September | 1 " | 21 " |
| October | 1 " | 24 " |

In other words, the average overtime for the month of October, when the above requirement was put into effect, exceeded by only three minutes the average overtime performed during the preceding month.

General:

In general, the girls in this particular category stated that they do not feel at ease, and on the other hand, work under pressure. They claim they have the feeling that they are being watched, and that they are being instructed in every little detail. Some of the stenographers indicate that they just cannot relax under such conditions.

The knowledge as to the conditions cited above is in possession of practically all of the stenographic employees, and although some of them stated they have no personal knowledge, nor are they personally affected, they are aware of such comments and feelings being manifested by the other stenographers. They have heard it discussed in the wash room, at lunch, and at other times that stenographers get together.

As one girl indicated, "I have worked for bigger bears than he and consequently his attitude does not affect me". The others commented along similar lines to the effect that his brusqueness did not bother them, but that they could see how others more sensitive could be affected.

The stenographers whose statements are referred to in the comments expressed above, are as follows:

|--------------------|-------------------|
| DOROTHY ANDERSON | VIRGINIA HOOVER |
| MURIEL BLAKELEY | FRANCES LARSEN |
| NORMA DOELLINGER | MARGUERITE MASON |
| ELIZABETH DUGGLEBY | BETTY J. SHERIDAN |

STATEMENTS REFUTING CHARGES

On the other hand, many of the stenographers pointed out that the Special Agent in Charge is business-like, pleasant, is never rude, and is likewise never too busy to discuss any personal or official problems with any employee. They indicated that although he is a busy man, he is always agreeable and willing to help in any possible way. As one stenographer indicated, this is a war time period and the employees of the office should realize the burden under which the Special Agent in Charge is required to operate. It was also stated that although many of these comments have been expressed throughout the office over a period of time, nobody can definitely define the pressure which is alleged to exist.

Another stenographer explained that the Special Agent in Charge is fair and firm in all of his dealings with the employees, and is the best Agent in Charge who ever handled the Cleveland Field Division. She added that there is no undercurrent, nor is there any dissension among the employees.

A large cross-section of the agents attached to the office disclosed that the Special Agent in Charge has done a splendid job in administering the functions of the Cleveland Field Division. The office is running smoothly, and he has reorganized it and set it up on an efficient basis. He is an individual who commands respect, will welcome suggestions from fellow employees, and although strict and firm, he is well liked by the agents. He has had a tough job to do and has been successful in his efforts. Another agent explained that he treats old and new agents alike, and has put the office in the best shape it has been in for years. It was indicated that he has complete control of the personnel, and that they have no hesitancy in coming in to see him at any time, regardless of the problems on their minds.

It was explained also by many of the stenographers that some of the girls perhaps do not like to be told that their work is not average, or up to the par of some of the better employees. Consequently, their reaction to unfavorable or adverse comment on the part of the Special Agent in Charge is that he is exerting pressure on them. It was also indicated that many of the stenographers now attached to the Cleveland Field Division are from other sections of the country, and may not be able to adapt themselves to the new environment. In the same connection, many of them are holding their first business positions and may not be able to adjust themselves to Bureau procedure.

The stenographers who favorably commented upon the Special Agent in Charge, and indicated that there was no unfavorable situation existing in the office, are listed as follows:

b6

It is also to be noted that of the twenty-two agents interviewed in connection with this matter, none adversely commented upon the Special Agent in Charge, his conduct or administration of the office, nor did they indicate there was any pressure or tension in the office as far as they were concerned.

6.

Information was also obtained that some time ago at a conference the Special Agent in Charge referred to an incident involving the morals of certain female employees in another field office, and cautioned the employees in his office against such dereliction on their part. Some of the stenographers resented such statements, and pointed out that the girls of the office had been thoroughly investigated at the time they were hired, and felt that any expressions of caution concerning such matters were in bad taste.

Another matter which caused some comment in the office was the requirement that all employees work Armistice Day, November 11, 1942. These instructions were issued by Special Agent [redacted] the Number 1 Man, in view of the illness of Mr. BOARDMAN.

Many of the clerical employees working in the Chief Clerk's Office were interviewed, but none of them appeared to be affected by any so-called pressure or tension, and everyone interviewed, without exception, claimed that he or she is personally satisfied with the manner in which the office is administered, and also is in accord with the way they are treated by the Special Agent in Charge.

CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

From all the interviews conducted, it is believed that there is no one employee, either of the investigative or clerical personnel, who may be considered poisonous or a bad influence about the office. There is no one person who is maliciously spreading gossip or trying to create unrest among the other employees. Some of the stenographers undoubtedly differ in their personalities, as many are more sensitive than others, and consequently, their reactions to the attitude of the Special Agent in Charge will likewise be reflected in different ways. It is also believed that there is no situation now existing in the office with regard to the feelings of the stenographic personnel that cannot be remedied. The statements were made that perhaps some of the employees who were disturbed were from other sections of the country, but upon reviewing the names of the employees who commented one way or another it is apparent that they are from all sections, even including those from the city of Cleveland.

In the same connection, there is basis for the belief that perhaps the Special Agent in Charge might adopt a more friendly attitude with his employees, mingle more with them, share their troubles and invite a discussion of their personal problems with him. As was indicated above, the presence of Special Agent [redacted] the former Number 1 Man, acted as a balancing effect in temperament, inasmuch as he was pleasant, cheerful, and receptive to the problems and complaints of the employees. The Special Agent in Charge might possibly be more explanatory and not so short and curt in his answers as indicated.

It is also believed that if the Agent in Charge would not act too pompous or too authoritative about the office he could still retain the respect of the employees, and at the same time secure more of their goodwill. There does not appear to be any question as to his ability to administer the affairs of the office, but at the same time, he appears to "rub the fur" the wrong way with reference to some of the employees.

The Special Agent in Charge should be informed as to the statements made concerning his attitude, and an explanation secured from him concerning these allegations. He should also be advised concerning the comments and feelings of the stenographers with reference to the number of pages being produced daily, and instructed to inform the stenographers that there is not a specific requirement, although each girl is supposed to perform her work as a competent Bureau employee.

The matter of overtime might be better explained at the time an increase or recommendation for such action is advisable.

The holding of a conference with the clerical employees by the Special Agent in Charge after he is informed concerning these matters would be most desirable, in order to effect a smoother and more pleasant operation of his office. It is not believed that the Agent in Charge, by following such a procedure, will in any way be catering to the whims of certain employees, nor will he lose face, but on the other hand, he will be able to reach an understanding with the employees, which should be amicable, beneficial and profitable, not only to himself as the Special Agent in Charge of the office, but also to the Bureau.

It is therefore recommended that Mr. BOARDMAN be called to Washington to have this matter discussed and reviewed with him, or in lieu thereof, a communication should be forwarded to him to secure his replies to the allegations and supporting statements received in connection therewith.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. Guerin

My dear Sir:

Recently your special investigator, Mr. Harbo was in our office for a personal investigation regarding some inefficiency which has existed for some time. He asked each of us individually and all of us in a group to analyze the trouble to him but in doing this he obviously overlooked the fact that none of us would care to jeopardize our position and really explain what was causing the discord.

The crux of the matter Mr. Hoover, is that our Agent, Mr. Leland V. Boardman is a slave-driver and his autocratic attitude and his crude demeanor towards us at all times is anything but conducive to really high quality work. The atmosphere of our office is so electrified with dissension that the nervous tension would prevent anyone, no matter how capable he might be, from doing his best.

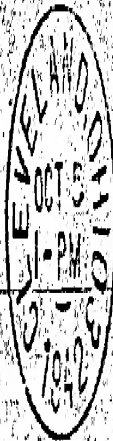

After many years of service I am at a loss to understand how a man of your caliber and high qualities could expect an F.B.I. employee to work from 50 to 60 hours a week and often be called on Sunday to work all day with never any extra salary for over-time and this is true not only in my office but in all F.B.I. offices. However, this would be overlooked cheerfully by our group if the spirit of those in charge was a little different. I can tell you sincerely that every employee in the Cleveland Office is both loyal, patriotic and more than eager to do whatever is necessary to win this war, but it is most disconcerting to work so long and so hard with never a kind word or any evidence of appreciation.

I have no hesitancy in writing this to you, even tho I recognize that your duties are heavy and the demands on your time are practically unlimited. Wasn't it Mr. Lincoln who said if one wanted a wrong righted, go to the highest man in charge? In this instance Mr. Hoover, it happens to be you!

Sincerely yours,

An anonymous letter addressed to the Bureau, apparently by a stenographer in that office, indicated that SAC L. V. Boardman is a slave-driver, has an autocratic attitude and a crude demeanor, resulting in dissension and nervous tension which prevents employees from doing their best. The anonymous letter complained of excessive overtime without extra salary and affirmed the loyalty and patriotism of the employees.

SAC R. A. Guerin proceeded to Cleveland following the Inspector's Conference in Washington to inquire into this matter. Mr. Guerin reports as follows:

Twenty-two Special Agents were interviewed. None adversely commented upon the Special Agent in Charge, his conduct or administration, nor did they indicate any pressure or tension but instead they described Boardman as doing a splendid job in administering the functions of the office. They advised that the office was running smoothly. They stated that he had reorganized it and set it up on an efficient basis. He commanded respect, welcomed suggestions and, although firm and strict, was well liked by agents. They felt that he has a tough job to do and has been successful in his efforts. It was indicated that the office was in the best shape that it has been in for years. He was described as having complete control over the personnel and the agents had no hesitancy in going to see him in regard to their problems.

Many of the clerical employees in the Chief Clerk's Office were interviewed. None of them appeared to be affected by so-called pressure or tension. They all claimed to be personally satisfied and in accord with the way they are being treated by the Special Agent in Charge.

Eighteen stenographers were interviewed. Ten of them commented favorably with reference to the SAC; advised that there was no unfavorable situation existing in the office. Some of them indicated that some of the stenographers do not like being told that their work is not average or as good as the work of better employees and they interpret unfavorable comment as "pressure." They also indicated that some of the stenographers are from other sections of the country and have been unable to adapt themselves to the new environment; that some of them are holding their first business positions.

Eight of the stenographers commented adversely concerning the SAC. They expressed dissatisfaction with Mr. Boardman's attitude, which they described as sarcastic, stern, brusque, unfriendly, as making them want to fight back when he talks to them, as putting the stenographers on the defensive, as answering questions vaguely and as making their suggestions appear foolish. They also commented adversely concerning Boardman's administrative ability, advising he had no humane interest and made the employees uncomfortable in his presence. They advised they would not go near him with their problems. In one instance he jumped on a new agent who was late to a conference but who had been sent out by another supervisor. Boardman was also described as "one who jumped on you with both feet." Other comments were that Boardman didn't appreciate and understand the problems of the employees. He has an officious manner and is tactless. When he comes into a room where the agents are dictating, the agents even "freeze up," and the office runs more smoothly when he is away.

The above facts were made known to Mr. Boardman by telephone and he was told to write his explanation. He advised over the telephone that he considered the allegations incorrect and that there might have been some misinterpretation of his attitude but, at least, his feeling in the matter was far from that indicated by the eight stenographers. He also advised, by letter, that he had endeavored to encourage employees to bring their personnel problems to him; that he continually keeps the doors to his office open for the purpose of encouraging ingress to his office; and that he daily confers with various employees on personnel and administrative matters and knows it is possible for employees to see him at any time unless otherwise engaged. He advises that it has been his policy to afford appropriate attention to the problems of the employees and advise them in accordance with established Bureau policy and procedure. He has not attempted to curry their favor nor has he at any time induced them to feel that his office should be a place for them to engage in idle gossip or conversation, but definitely he has encouraged the employees to bring their personnel problems to him and he feels they are doing so.

ADVERSE COMMENTS CONCERNING REQUIRED PRODUCTION OF STENOGRAPHIC WORK:

Mr. Guerin reports that each stenographer is required daily to report the number of pages she has typed, the amount of dictation taken and the amount of clerical work performed. This information is compiled so as to determine the number of pages produced each day for the purpose of recording over various periods the average production of each stenographer. The average per diem production is computed and they have a guilty feeling if their individual average is below the office average. One girl was said to have departed from the office recently in an upset condition because her average for the day was low and she thought her average would reflect against her. She was comparatively new at the Cleveland office. Some of the stenographers stated, however, that there was a wide variance in the type of work that was being handled, but that the work on an average over a standard period of time would be equitably distributed. One girl stated she worked too hard and too long; that the number of pages expected of her caused her to feel that they were required to maintain this average each day regardless of how they might feel and this created tension which was reflected in the caliber of the work produced. If a stenographer falls below the average on one day she feels that she must work harder the next day to raise her average. Mr. Guerin explained by phone that there is no required average announced for the stenographers, although the average is being recorded.

Mr. Boardman advises concerning the required production schedule that there is not and has not been any specific requirement as to the number of pages a stenographer must type each day. The stenographers' daily report form is filled out. This is an approved Bureau form and there are no other requirements concerning these reports. At the end of each month he compiles the average number of pages typed by each stenographer, together with a computation of the clerical work performed each day during the month. This enables him to prepare proper efficiency ratings, to judge the stenographers on a comparative basis and provides a basis for his discussion of shortcomings with individual employees. He claims to have informed the stenographers that they should not be page-conscious but instead should concentrate their attention on increasing their ability, which would automatically take care of the page average.

UNFAVORABLE COMMENTS CONCERNING REQUIRED OVERTIME:

Some of the stenographers advised that they do not desire to be told that it is necessary for them to work overtime and they do not react favorably to requirements of this sort. It was reported that on October 19, 1942, SAC Boardman advised at a conference of clerical employees that "Effective immediately, two hours overtime daily will be necessary." This was put into effect to clear up delinquencies and was maintained for four or five days. This was followed by a requirement for one hour overtime. They complained that the two hour overtime for this period applied to everybody although there were not more than six or eight stenographers who had considerable delinquencies on their books. Some of the stenographers complained that in making the announcement for the overtime, the SAC was brusque and tactless.

During October, the record shows that one hour and 24 minutes was performed by the stenographers as average daily overtime in the Cleveland office. This was only 3 minutes higher than the average for September. The average for August was one hour and 15 minutes and for July, 46 minutes.

Boardman advises that he specifically instructed all stenographers on one occasion to perform two hours per day overtime until further notice. He claims he told them the reason for this request; that the request was made on October 21, 1942, and continued in effect until Saturday, October 24, 1942; that at that time 500 pages were delinquent and this was reduced to a delinquency of approximately 100 pages by Saturday, October 24th, which he states is a positive indication that the delinquency was not warranted. He claims that the overtime was occasioned by an unnecessary amount of delinquency and it was his firm conviction that the persons responsible for the delinquency had not made a proper effort to remove this delinquency. He claims that his views were made known to the stenographers who had refused to accept the responsibility of volunteering the required overtime. He claims that the overtime changed on Saturday, October 24th, in view of the "alleviated delinquent status of the work" but he pointed out that those who were still delinquent would have to perform two hours a day overtime until their work was current. This, he stated, was in order to obtain an equitable distribution of the work and to keep employees from having to assume a disproportionate share of the work. Aside from this one instance, he claims there have never been any specific overtime requirements in the Cleveland office.

Mr. Boardman advises that he believes in having strict discipline in an office but he most certainly encourages his employees to discuss their problems with him and he endeavors to lend a friendly and attentive ear.

CONCLUSIONS:

1. Mr. Guerin concludes that SAC Boardman might adopt a more friendly attitude, might mingle with the employees more, share their troubles and invite a discussion of their personal problems. He indicates Boardman should give explanations rather than be short and curt in his answers.

Although there were no complaints made by the agents or by the clerical employees and no complaints made by 10 of the 18 stenographers interviewed, in view of the fact that there were 8 stenographers who evidenced an improper attitude toward Boardman, Mr. Guerin feels it is quite likely that Boardman is at least partially to blame and that the attached letter should be written to him, suggesting that he be more careful in his attitude and in his personnel relationships.

2. Although there is no specific requirement for production of stenographers, there does not appear to be any harm in maintaining the stenographic reports and in computing the production of the employees on a monthly basis. Boardman should, however, call to the attention of the employees what is being done with these reports and the fact that their rating is not based exclusively on quantity of production.

3. There seems to be some doubt that Boardman should have required all the stenographers to perform two hours overtime when he felt that some of them were delinquent because of a lack of satisfactory productiveness and application.

It is recommended that the attached letter be sent to Boardman, in which he is instructed to deal with these problems individually as the facts might justify.

Respectfully,

H. H. Clegg

Pursuant to your request I telephoned Mr. Connelley at Chicago and inquired concerning his opinion of Assistant SAC Belmont. Connelley said that based upon his observations both at New York City and Chicago he thought Belmont did not have the capacity to handle the Chicago Office. He said as a matter of fact he thought that he could only handle a very small office if any at all. He said he based his opinion on his observation of Belmont's general knowledge, the handling of personnel, judgment and ability to analyze a situation in addition to other qualities. Connelley felt that he was OK as an assistant but that he did not have a very high ceiling.

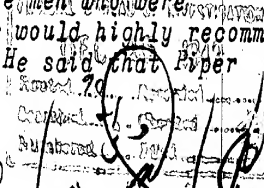

I later inquired of him as to whom he might recommend to run the Chicago Office. He said certainly there was no one in Chicago now who could handle it and he was most sceptical about anyone in the field who could possibly be spared. He said he would go over the list and when he called back he recommended in order SACs Conroy, Hood, Pieper, McKee, Donegan and Brantley. He said he understood that probably none of these men could be relieved of their present assignments and he would thereafter recommend in order SACs Bugas, Thornton, Sears, Drayton, Soucy and Boardman. I specifically inquired of him what he thought of SAC Piper at Buffalo. He said he had had but two or three contacts with Piper and did not know him very well but from those contacts he felt Piper was probably just average. He further stated that he felt the Chicago Office was run down, that the fullest possibilities were not being realized there and that the office needed someone who was strong enough to rejuvenate the whole situation.

I also called SAC Conroy who stated that Belmont definitely was not of the caliber to run the Chicago Office. He said Belmont did not have the maturity of judgment and just was not heavy enough to operate a big office. He said Belmont apparently was carrying on all right as Assistant at Chicago and might get along in a small office. He too pointed out that Chicago has lapsed into a second rate office which it should not be and that with a strong man in control it could soon be built up into a key office.

Conroy said that he felt of all of the men who were possibly available to take over Chicago he would highly recommend SAC Kenneth Piper of the Buffalo Office. He said that Piper is a work horse, he has ideas, is aggressive and seemed to have real ability. He stated Piper was certainly head and shoulders above Belmont. I told Conroy to get in his preliminary report on the Chicago inspection immediately and to particularly comment concerning Belmont's ability.

Respectfully,

R. C. Hendon

I have designated
Drayton as SAC at Chicago.

Dear Sir:

I am becoming most concerned over the fact that you have failed in an ever increasing number of instances to acknowledge or comply with instructions contained in my letters and teletypes to you. Since no organization, most certainly one engaged in counter-intelligence and law enforcement, can operate with any degree of efficiency without correlated supervision, I cannot help but fear the Bureau's high standard of efficiency will come to an end if this trend is permitted to continue.

As you have no doubt noted in recent months, it has been necessary for me and those who assist me here at the Seat of Government to leave more and more to your discretion the following of the individual cases in your division. This has, of course, been due to the tremendous increase in the demands made upon the Bureau because of the war. At the present time and for some months past I have not directed to you any so-called routine follow-ups. Only in those instances in which the White House or some other executive branch of the government with responsibilities for the proper conduct of the war has a special interest or in which I have a special interest because of some well founded reasons, do I write to you or follow you otherwise to expedite your handling or to request information or other out-of-the-ordinary action.

Mr. Tolson I know you share my pride in the Federal Bureau of Investigation and these things with which it is synonymous or you would not have attained the position you now hold. This trend of which I speak which you have permitted to develop in your office is in my opinion an insidious thing which, if not stopped may undermine the very foundation of our success.

Mr. Clegg
Mr. Glavin
Mr. Ladd
Mr. Nichols I have called to your attention in the past various specific derelictions and have urged you to have profited as a result. I therefore know I shall not have to take occasion to speak to you again about ignoring my instructions and failing to acknowledge my communications.

Dear Sir:

On March 13 you telephonically contacted Supervisor Welch of the Bureau, concerning the case of Antanas Smetona, Internal Security - G, and requesting advice as to whether it would be satisfactory for the surveillance to be discontinued.

The Bureau is of the opinion that this matter could have been handled appropriately by teletype or by an air mail letter, rather than by a long distance telephone call. As I have indicated, it is imperative that the use of long distance telephone facilities be drastically curtailed and limited to only important matters justifying the use of the long distance telephone.

It is noted that the practice has developed whereby an official in the field will telephone to Washington on a particular matter, and subsequently will request to be transferred to other officials to discuss matters with them. Please see that in the future the use of long distance telephone facilities between your office and the Seat of Government, to other field divisions and within the Cleveland Field Division is reduced to an absolute minimum.

Dear Mr Hoover:

I have been for some time trying to write you a personal note to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation for the excellent cooperation which I have received from your Bureau, in connection with fingerprints, particularly Special Agent, L.V. Boardman.

In 1938, I attended the "Peace Officer's short Course", at the University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa. At this time I was interested in fingerprint classification, and I had the occassion to converse with Mr Boardman in regards to finger printing. Mr Boardman, took a personal interest, and advised me to write to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for all information and data on fingerprints. Upon returning to Davenport, I immediately followed the advise of Mr Boardman, and obtained splendid results.

I would like to have you know that this is my first Official act as Superintendent, Bureau of Identification, Police Department, Davenport, Iowa. The cooperation and help which I have received from the FBI made it possible for me to successfully pass the Civil Service examination, and receive this promotion, as of this date.

Again let me express my sincere thanks for the courtesies extended, and I can assure you that whenever the help of this Bureau is needed or wanted you will find it ready and willing to be at your service.

With the kindest and personal regards, I am

INSPECTOR GUERIN: Special Agent in Charge BOARDMAN is a man of considerable experience in the Bureau. He has the necessary and essential ability to administer the operations of a field office of the Bureau. He makes a good impression on the public, based upon the observations of those contacted during the period of the inspection. He is rather cold at times and it is difficult to really know him, but the comments received from employees indicate that he has "mellowed" considerably and is getting closer to the employees. He is familiar with what has to be done in the office and is constantly following the administrative features of the office. He works a large volume of overtime and has paid particular attention to the development of new special agents. He is firm and sometimes deeply impressed with his own convictions, but is considered fair and impartial by the employees. He keeps abreast of Bureau policy and procedure and is definitely a loyal and dependable employee of the Bureau. He is a capable Special Agent in Charge.

Since entering on duty with the Bureau, Mr. Boardman has served in the Chicago, Los Angeles, Pittsburgh, and Detroit Field Divisions, was assigned to the Technical Laboratory at the Seat of Government, and as Resident Agent at Huntington, West Virginia. On 8-5-38 he was designated #1 Man of the Kansas City Office, during which assignment he was successfully utilized as an Instructor in connection with training school courses for police. On 12-8-39 he was assigned as Acting Special Agent in Charge of the Milwaukee Field Office, subsequently being designated as Special Agent in Charge of that office on 11-18-40. On 6-1-41 he was transferred as Special Agent in Charge to Cleveland, where he is presently assigned in this same capacity.

EARLY RECORD:

Early reports submitted on Mr. Boardman reflected that he seemed to lack assurance, aggressiveness, drive, force, confidence in his own judgment, and made few decisions on his own initiative. It was further stated that he exhibited impatience with the shortcomings of other employees; that he would need careful supervision and that his development would be slow; however, it was stated that he presented a very good personal appearance, possessed a good personality, was conscientious, willing, interested in his work, had a good knowledge of the Bureau's work, was suitable for use on dangerous assignments, and conducted his investigations logically and efficiently. Later reports reflected that he was not lacking in force and aggressiveness, was not afraid to use his own initiative and judgment; that he had functioned quite satisfactorily as a police training instructor, and with more experience and training he would make a good executive and administrator.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

In January of 1938, Mr. Harry H. Bennett of the Ford Motor Company highly commended this Agent for the assistance he rendered during the time Mr. Bennett's daughter was missing. In December of 1938, while acting as Agent in Charge of the Kansas City Office in the absence of SAC Guinane, he was criticized by the Bureau for using profanity in contacting a fellow employee. In June of 1939, Mr. Hince reported that this Agent was among the three or four top performers in the Instructors' School; that he had appearance, poise, fluency, and a good knowledge of the Bureau's work; that he would be suitable as an instructor in any type of police school covering all types of investigative and administrative subjects. In October, 1939, he was commended for his efforts in helping to make the Reunion and Retraining Course of the FBI National Police Academy Associates successful.

RECORD AS SAC AT MILWAUKEE:

In April of 1940, he was criticized for not immediately acceding to the request of Joseph Kluchsky of the Milwaukee Police Department that he be permitted to attend a firearms training session with Bureau Agents and NPA graduates. In May of 1940, the Director expressed his surprise and disappointment at Mr. Boardman's failure to become acquainted with the editorial staff of the Milwaukee Journal, although Mr. Boardman had been in Milwaukee since December, 1939. On 4-18-41, the Director commented on seeing SAC Boardman and stated he made a favorable impression, seemed to be interested in his work and to be fully cognizant of the responsibilities incident to the current emergency.

RECORD AS SAC AT CLEVELAND:

In November, 1941, Mr. Boardman was censured for his failure to closely follow and promptly notify the Bureau concerning a matter involving Agents J. Faziola and A. P. Gunsser who were arrested for speeding while driving a Bureau auto. In February, 1942, he was criticized for the manner in which he handled the initial inquiry from a representative of a Cleveland newspaper relative to the shooting of Ivan Graham Phillips, bank robber. In August of 1942, Mr. Boardman was criticized for his improper administration of the Cleveland Office which was reflected in the matter involving the necessity of taking disciplinary action against Agents J. C. Parks, J. J. Kelly and Paul V. Hagan, in view of their handling of a complaint concerning a matter which should have been referred to the Secret Service authorities. Also in August, 1942, he was criticized for his failure to issue appropriate instructions to personnel under his supervision which was reflected in the instance of a clerical employee forwarding to the Chief of Police at Canton, Ohio, a copy of a letter addressed to the Bureau which contained information concerning irregularities in the Canton, Ohio, Police Department.

On 8-13-42 SAC Boardman was placed on probation as a result of his poor handling of administrative matters in the Cleveland Field Division inasmuch as a review of the files reflected that several complaints which should have been referred to the Secret Service authorities had been mishandled. Also in August, 1942, he was commended by the Director for the part he played in arranging a program that was broadcast over the radio. During the August, 1942, inspection of the Cleveland Field Division, Mr. Harbo stated that SAC Boardman had done a good job of organizing and administering the work of the Cleveland Office; that he made good contacts and had generally done a good job as Special Agent in Charge at Cleveland.

In December of 1942, SAC Boardman was notified that the Bureau had reviewed the findings of Mr. Guerin during his inquiries at the Cleveland Office relative to an anonymous complaint that had been received by the Bureau. Mr. Boardman was informed that critical comments had been made concerning his attitude; that he had been variously described as being sarcastic, stern, brusque and unfriendly. He was requested to assume a more friendly attitude and to correct the lack of proper personnel relationship which apparently existed in the Cleveland Office.

In the January, 1943, inspection report of the Cleveland Field Division, Mr. Harbo stated that SAC Boardman was rather cold at times and it was difficult to really know him but that he had mellowed considerably and was getting closer to his employees; that he had the necessary and essential ability to administer the operations of a field office; that he made a good impression on the public, performed a large amount of overtime, was firm, definitely loyal and dependable, and was a capable Special Agent in Charge. In March of 1943, SAC Boardman was notified that the long-distance telephone facilities had been unnecessarily utilized in communicating with the Bureau concerning a matter which could have been handled appropriately by teletype or by air-mail letter. In May, 1943, SAC Boardman informed the Bureau of the development of personal differences and friction between Special Agents Harold V. Carey and Houston H. Slate, who are both assigned on a highly confidential technical surveillance. SAC Boardman has been requested to obtain statements from these Agents and upon receipt of these statements a brief of the matter will be submitted for your consideration.

WEAK POINTS:

It has been reported that SAC Boardman was at times rather cold and difficult to really know, and that in some instances his manner has appeared to reflect an unfriendly and brusque attitude.

STRONG POINTS:

It has been reported that Mr. Boardman presented an excellent appearance, performed a large amount of overtime work, and was definitely dependable and loyal to the Bureau.

LAST INSPECTION:

The Cleveland Field Office was last inspected by Mr. Guerin from January 14-29, 1943. For the Director's information, the various functions of the office were rated at that time by the Inspector and subsequently revised by the Training and Inspection Division as follows:

| INSPECTOR'S RATINGS | | TRAINING AND INSPECTION DIV. RATINGS |
|------------------------------------|--------|---|
| Physical Condition and Maintenance | - GOOD | - FAIR |
| Administrative Operations | - GOOD | - FAIR |
| Investigative Operations | - GOOD | - FAIR |
| Personnel Supervision | - GOOD | |

-4-

As a result of the inspection, Mr. Guerin expressed the opinion that SAC Boardman should be removed from a probationary status but the Training and Inspection Division did not concur with the Inspector's recommendation and believed that SAC Boardman should be continued in a probationary status.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

On May 27th I saw Special Agent in Charge Leland V. Boardman of the Cleveland Field Division. I discussed with Mr. Boardman generally the conditions of his office and he stated there had been a material improvement in the same. I told him that there would be an early inspection of the Cleveland Division so that the probationary status might be removed in his case and so that we might be assured he had complied with instructions. He indicated they had been complied with.

I think there should be an early inspection to be certain that Mr. Boardman is qualified to operate a Field Division.

Very truly yours

SPECIAL AGENTS

This position has been designated as a key position by the Review Committee of the War Manpower Commission.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has been designated as the sole civilian government investigative agency having jurisdiction over the investigation of matters pertaining to national defense such as espionage, sabotage, registration of agents of foreign principals, sedition, treason, and the like, and further, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has sole investigative jurisdiction in a great number of other Federal statutes which embrace bank robbery, kidnaping, extortion, white slave traffic, National Motor Vehicle Theft Act, and numerous others. The investigative work in connection with the above violations is performed by the Special Agent personnel of this Bureau, who are recruited from applicants between the ages of twenty-three and forty. They must be graduates of a law school or an accounting school with the necessary accounting experience, or graduates of a university with extensive investigative experience, or with linguistic qualifications, or have basic educational training and possess satisfactory prior law enforcement experience which will enable them to satisfactorily perform the duties imposed upon them. For certain of the scientific investigative work, Special Agents are secured who primarily are qualified in the sciences, such as ballistics, chemical analysis, spectography, cryptography, mineralogy, metallography, toxicology, and other like sciences. Applicants for appointment to the position of Special Agent must meet the physical standards and requirements for this position, which are exceedingly high. They must have vision of no less than 20/40 in one eye, 20/50 uncorrected, both eyes to be corrected to 20/20. They must have no color deficiency whatever.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation undergo a rigorous training program. All newly appointed Special Agents in the Federal Bureau of Investigation attend training classes for a period of sixteen weeks; the hours of training are from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. daily, which course of study is equivalent to two full years of college study. During this period of training, they are thoroughly instructed in the basic rules and regulations and jurisdictions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. They must satisfactorily pass numerous written examinations during their period of training. If a trainee fails to pass any of these examinations, he is dropped from the school.

The duties of a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are most arduous. They must be available at a moment's notice to go to any part of the United States or to any assignment outside the United States. The hours of duty for these employees are such that they must be in excellent physical health. The average work week for a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation is no less than seventy hours. The work of a Special Agent, regardless of his particular qualification, is such that he cannot lead a sedentary or well regulated life. Due to the small number of Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation presently handling the work under the jurisdiction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation within and without the continental United States, it is necessary that the entire staff be highly mobile.

Special Agents are required to be able to conduct investigations in more than 100 types of cases, including espionage, sabotage, subversive activities, frauds against the government, kidnaping, extortion, bank robbery, White Slave

Traffic Act, etc. They are trained in and required to maintain constant skill in the use of highly technical equipment, technical processes, such as those necessary for the development of latent fingerprints, concealed or obliterated numbers upon firearms, to understand the use of code messages, to conduct physical surveillances of subjects of espionage and similar cases, sometimes for periods of many months, and when necessary, to assume a necessary character to enable them to fit in an undercover capacity into the activities and operations of groups such as foreign agents, who are engaged in thwarting the war effort:

The arduousness and importance of the work of Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation was readily recognized by the military and naval leaders. The Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, for the Secretary of the Navy, requested Special Agent employees of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to submit their resignations from reserve commissions held by them in the naval services because it had been determined that those Special Agents could better serve their country in their present assignments than if they were to be called into active naval service. The Secretary of War, in 1942, addressed personal communications to 168 Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation who at that time held reserve commissions in the Army. The Secretary of War at that time advised the Special Agents that their employment in the FBI is of such vital importance to the national defense as to necessitate their remaining at their posts of duty despite the fact that they held reserve commissions in the United States Army, and the request was made that these Agents, through the proper channels, submit their resignations from their commissions.

General Lewis B. Hershey of the Selective Service System pointed out in his Directive to all Local Boards of December 29, 1941, that Special Agent positions of the FBI were most important and essential to the national health, safety, and interests, and that the national defense functions of the FBI should not be impaired by the removal of trained personnel from critical positions in the Bureau.

The position of Special Agent has always been considered the most critical of all positions in the FBI, since, with the tremendous bulk of work placed upon us due to the war emergency, it is essential that a trained qualified staff be available for the handling of this work. If the Federal Bureau of Investigation cannot continue to retain its personnel in this critical position, aid and comfort would most certainly be given to the enemy and others whose interests are inimical to the best interests of the country today. Up to the present time the full complement of Special Agent personnel has not been secured and every effort is being made to secure the necessary additional Special Agent personnel.

I, J. Edgar Hoover, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and that the foregoing statements are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 27th day of August 1945

RE: IN-SERVICE TRAINING COURSE

SPECIAL AGENT IN CHARGE - LELAND V. BOARDMAN
EOD -7-30-34
GRADE - CAF 13
SALARY - $5600
ASSIGNED TO - Cleveland

This Special Agent in Charge attended the In-Service Training Course as indicated above, during which period he was not afforded a physical examination.

This Special Agent in Charge attained the following grades:

|--------------------------|------|
| Hip Shooting | 96 |
| Practical Pistol Course | 95 |
| Shotgun | 100 |
| .30 Rifle | 86 |
| Machine Gun | 90 |
| General Firearms Ability | Good |

REMARKS: Interviewing Official - L. A. Hince

"I do not see much change in Boardman's qualifications. He has, of course, been operating a much larger office than his first office, Milwaukee. He seems to have a very good understanding of the Bureau's rules and regulations and I believe he is familiar with the Bureau's procedures and policies. There is a certain characteristic in Boardman's make-up that gives me the impression that he is a quibbler. I think he is inclined to pay so much attention to details that he may at times lose sight of some very obvious objectives. I think he is a little better than average as Agent in Charge."

Status - Good."

Dear Sir:

I am presently scheduled for In-Service Training beginning May 3, 1943.

I have been advised by Assistant United States Attorney JEROME N. CURTIS that the Federal Grand Jury will probably not return indictments in the case entitled JOHN WILLIAM BROTTISH; ET AL; NATIONAL BRONZE ALUMINUM FOUNDRY COMPANY, CLEVELAND, OHIO, MANUFACTURE OF DEFECTIVE PARTS, SABOTAGE, by April 30, 1943, as originally planned. Mr. CURTIS pointed out that the preparation of the indictments has taken more time than originally anticipated. He now believes the indictments will have been prepared by the United States Attorney's Office by the middle of the week commencing April 26, 1943, after which time they will immediately be transmitted to the Department for suggestions and approval.

Mr. CURTIS believes that the indictments probably will not be returned by the Department until sometime during the week commencing May 3, 1943, and for this reason it is not anticipated that any indictments will be returned in the aforementioned case by the Federal Grand Jury until the latter part of the week of May 3, 1943.

In view of the importance of this case and further as there are continuously arising new problems in connection with the handling of this case, I feel it is desirable for me to be present in Cleveland until the indictments have been returned and a definite date set for the trial of this case. I also wish to point out that it is contemplated that the Quarterly Police Conferences for the Second Quarter 1943 will be held on May 19, 20 and 21 at Toledo, Lima and Mansfield, respectively, and on May 25, 26 and 27 at Cleveland, Youngstown and Canton, respectively.

Were I to proceed to Washington for In-Service Training on May 10, 1943, in the event the indictments had been returned in the National Bronze case, I, of course, would not be able to personally preside over the police conferences scheduled for May 19, 20 and 21.

In view of the above circumstances, I will appreciate the Bureau's advice as to whether or not my In-Service Training should be postponed until Monday, May 31, 1943, or thereafter.

Very truly yours,

Leland V. Boardman

Appeal Procedure

Any person entitled to do so may take an appeal to the board of appeal within 10 days after the above date of mailing of Notice of Classification to registrant in either of the following ways:

- (1) By filing with the local board a written notice of appeal. Such notice need not be in any particular form but must state the name of the registrant and the name and identity of the person appealing so as to show the right of appeal.
- (2) By signing the "Appeal to Board of Appeal" on the Selective Service Questionnaire (Form 40).

When an appeal is taken from the classification or reclassification of a registrant and when such appeal is upon the ground that the registrant should have been deferred by reason of his occupation, the appeal shall be transferred to the board of appeal having jurisdiction over the area in which the registrant is employed, provided all of the following conditions are met (but not otherwise):

- (1) The first person to appeal from such classification or reclassification files with his appeal a written request for such transfer;
- (2) The written request states in what respect an occupational question is involved; and
- (3) The written request states the name of the registrant's employer and the street address, county, and State where the registrant is employed.

The person appealing may attach to his notice of appeal or to the Selective Service Questionnaire (Form 40) a statement specifying the respects in which he believes the local board erred, may direct attention to any information in the registrant's file which he believes the local board has failed to consider or give sufficient weight, and may set out in full any information which was offered to the local board and which the local board failed or refused to include in the registrant's file.

Appeal to the President from classification by the board of appeal may be taken at any time within 10 days after the date of mailing of notice to registrant, provided the registrant was classified by the board of appeal in either Class I-A, Class I-A-O, or Class IV-E and one or more members of the board of appeal dissented from such classification. Otherwise, the decision of the board of appeal is final except when an appeal is taken to the President either by the State Director of Selective Service or the Director of Selective Service on the ground that he deems it to be in the national interest or necessary to avoid an injustice.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

September 8, 1943

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

On September 1 and 2, 1943, I made a test check of the operations of the Cleveland office. b6

It may be noted that Mr. Gurnea had completed an inspection of the office about August 24th and had left a lengthy memorandum for Mr. Boardman, a copy of which memorandum is attached hereto, for reference purposes.

L.Y.
Mr. Boardman was out of the city on police conferences and was accompanied by Special Agent [redacted] The Assistant Agent in charge [redacted] had left Cleveland under transfer and Agent Mayngzy, the new Assistant Agent in Charge, had only been in Cleveland a Day on my arrival.

The most serious derelictions in the office are the inadequate supervision and improper handling of the police cases. There are in excess of 700 police cases pending and a careful review was made of 70 cases chosen at random from the cases assigned to the various police departments. As a result of this review, a memorandum was written to Mr. Boardman in which it was necessary to comment upon fifteen cases which were incorrectly carried in the assignment card boxes and which were improperly carried upon the monthly administrative report which is prepared from these assignment cards. The majority of these cases were already closed, some having been closed for several months, but were still carried in the assignment cards. Two cases were carried as assigned to the Cleveland Police Department when actually they should have been carried as unassigned, since the Cleveland Police Department had not been requested to conduct an investigation but merely to post a wanted notice in their files. A fugitive case in which a single lead, necessitating not more than a half hour's work, had been assigned to the Cleveland Police Department for a period of more than six months.

The Akron, Ohio Police Department has 102 cases assigned to it, many of which have been assigned for a period of more than a year, without any action whatsoever being taken by the Akron Police Department. Despite this fact, the Supervisors of the Cleveland office are apparently just automatically continuing to assign cases to the Akron Police Department although the volume of work from that Department has been reduced almost to a trickle. Some of these cases are the result of complaints made to the Cleveland office concerning national defense matters as early as April, 1941. The Akron Police Department is handling some cases but obviously not enough. Sac Boardman was instructed by memorandum to assign a squad of five or six Agents to Akron to clean up these leads and then to take similar action in the other towns in his district where leads have been outstanding and no action taken upon them by police departments for a period of six months or more.

Upon the basis of the review of 70 cases and the derelictions found therein, it must be presumed that similar errors exist through the balance of the police cases and consequently the administrative report of the Cleveland office must be inaccurate, since cases are carried as pending, which are and have been closed for several months, and other cases are carried as police cases when in fact they should be carried as Agents' cases. This matter was taken up in detail with Mr. Maynor and he was instructed to bring my observations and instructions to Mr. Boardman's attention immediately upon his return. Copies of my memorandum of September 1st were of course furnished to Mr. Maynor for Mr. Boardman's attention.

Without making a day to day check of the record, I am convinced that the Agents of the Cleveland office are spending entirely too much time in the office. On the two days that I was in Cleveland I made counts from time to time of the men in the office and the average was from twenty-eight to thirty (the Cleveland office has about 130 Agents). According to Mr. Gurnea's report, the Agents of the Cleveland office average two hours and fifty-seven minutes a day in the office. I told Mr. Maynor, (and instructed him to tell Mr. Boardman) that this was entirely too high a figure and must be reduced.

A spot check of the desks and file cabinets did not disclose any condition requiring correction. I told Mr. Maynor, however, that the office apparently needed a good overall dusting and scrubbing and told him to have Mr. Boardman arrange to have this done. Like all industrial cities, the atmosphere in Cleveland is heavily dust laden and the matter of keeping an office clean is a constant daily problem.

The space of the Cleveland office is entirely adequate and the office contains a wide, inside corridor which can be utilized when it becomes necessary for file cabinets, etc., to take care of several years' expansion of files.

An examination of the vault, supply rooms, bulky exhibits, etc. indicated that they were all properly maintained.

I told Mr. Maynor that I thought the tempo of the office was a very moderate one and told him to tell Mr. Boardman that I thought he should try to speed up the general tempo of the office since it seemed to me that the clerks, stenographers and other employees were very casual in the way they appeared to be wandering around the office a considerable part of the time.

Respectfully,

Edward A. Tamm

Addendum:

During the course of an examination of the office I observed in a clothes-closet type of room containing a washbowl five or six cigarette butts considerably smeared with lipstick. I instructed Mr. Maynor to advise Boardman that he should take very decisive steps to make certain that female stenographers and clerks were not smoking at their desks. Later the same day a telegram arrived from the Bureau suspending a female clerical employee of the Cleveland office for throwing a lighted match into a wastepaper basket. I told Maynor that I thought there was probably some laxity in the enforcement of the no-smoking rule for women employees in the office proper and that this matter should receive very careful attention.

DECLASSIFIED BY 1565 SDP/KSL

Dear Sir:

I have received a report from Mr. E. A. Tamm concerning the conditions which he found in the Cleveland Office on the occasion of his visit on September 1 and 2, 1943. Inasmuch as Mr. Tamm left for your attention a memorandum specifying numerous delinquencies which he discovered, you are already aware of the conditions found. Accordingly, I assume that you have already taken steps to correct the delinquencies. In any event, I desire to be informed promptly when they have been corrected.

The most serious delinquencies in the office were the inadequate supervision and improper handling of police cases. More than 700 cases were found to be pending and a careful check of 70 cases chosen at random resulted in the finding that 15 cases were incorrectly carried in the assignment card boxes and on the monthly administrative report. The majority of these cases were carried as assigned to the Cleveland Police Department when actually they should have been carried as unassigned. A fugitive case in which a single lead existed, necessitating not more than a half hour's work, had been assigned to the Cleveland Police Department for more than six months. The Akron, Ohio Police Department had 102 cases assigned to it, many of which have been assigned for a period of more than a year, without any action whatsoever being taken by the Akron Police Department. In spite of this, your office apparently is automatically continuing to assign cases to the Akron Police Department although the volume of work from the Department is negligible. Mr. Tamm informs me that although he did not make a day to day check of the record, he became convinced that too much time was being spent in the office by Special Agents. I desire that you give this personal and vigorous attention.

In observing the activities of the employees of your office, Mr. Tamm noted that the clerical employees, stenographers and other were apparently very casual in the way they were wandering around the office a considerable part of the time. Obviously, the tempo of your office is extremely moderate and is in immediate need of improvement.

Letter to Mr. L. V. Boardman

During the course of an examination of the office, Mr. Tamm observed in a clothes-closet-type of room containing a washbowl five or six cigarette butts considerably smeared with lipstick. On the same day Mr. Tamm noted that a telegram arrived from Washinton suspending a female clerical employee of the Cleveland Office for throwing a lighted match into a wastepaper basket. I want you to make absolutely certain that there is no further laxity in your supervision of the activities of the female employees of the Cleveland Office in this respect.

When all delinquencies indicated herein and in the memorandum addressed to you by Mr. Tamm on September 1, 1943 have been corrected, you should inform the Bureau promptly.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Boardman:

From a review of Bureau records for the month of September, it is noted that Special Agent D. L. Allen submitted his expense account for the month of July in the amount of $39.60, on September 17, 1943.

In view of previous Bureau correspondence concerning the delinquent submission of expense accounts, the Bureau is at a loss to understand the negligence displayed by this Agent in submitting his expense account in this delinquent fashion.

It is desired that you forward to the Bureau a memorandum prepared by Agent Allen explaining his delinquency and that you advise all Special Agents of your office that such delinquencies cannot be tolerated.

Dear Mr. Boardman:

The Bureau has received the detailed report from Mr. Harbo concerning a recent re-check inspection of the Cleveland Office made in November, 1943.

As a result of the information set forth in the report, the Bureau desires that you endeavor to reduce the delinquencies, particularly that phase occasioned by the opening of a number of plant informant cases, at the earliest possible date.

The Bureau also believes that whenever there are a number of cases, such as bank robbery cases, pending in your office and the Agent handling such cases must, of necessity, devote his attention to other types of work for an extended period, arrangements should be made to avoid cases of the importance of bank robberies from becoming delinquent. It was observed that 5 of the 14 bank robbery cases had become delinquent and were in that status as of the date of the inspection, although Mr. Harbo reported that all of these would be in a current status by December 4.

The Bureau desires that you continue to improve the situation in your office with respect to the handling of police cases and urges upon you the importance of increasing both the quality and the quantity of all types of confidential informants.

As a result of the findings of the Inspector, this is to advise you that I find a great deal of pleasure in removing your probationary status as of this date.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR:

L. C. SAC Boardman telephoned last night from Cleveland. He has an eye condition which is going to cause him to go to the hospital for observation this week.. He believes no operation will be necessary.

He has three Quarterly Police Conferences scheduled for this week; one at Cleveland, which he will hold; one at Youngstown and one at Canton, which he will be unable to hold. He asked for authority for Assistant Special Agent in Charge Maynor to hold these conferences. I told him he could either hold them with Maynor in charge, if he so recommended, or postpone them, whichever he decided was best. He then indicated that Maynor would hold the conferences.

L. V. Boardman

THE DIRECTOR:

RE: SUMMARY OF SPOT INSPECTION OF THE CLEVELAND OFFICE.
INSPECTION MADE BY INSPECTOR HARBO
AND MR. SANTOIANA. NOVEMBER, 1943.

Special Agent in Charge Boardman of the Cleveland Office is on probation. This inspection concerned itself particularly with delinquencies discovered during the inspection made in August by Mr. Gurnea and observations made by Mr. E. A. Tamm in September, 1943.

PHYSICAL CONDITION AND MAINTENANCE

The condition of the entire office was found to be excellent. The specific items noted by Mr. Gurnea previously were specifically checked and were found to have been corrected. All the available automobiles previously found delinquent by Mr. Gurnea were found to have been put into good condition. The autos were clean and neat and but one auto was found without a spare tire. This had been previously noted and an order had been filed to replace the spare tire which had become no longer useable.

PENDING WORK

For the period February to July, the number of pending cases averaged 4,000. This figure had reached 4,950 by the end of November. The increase was due to the opening of approximately 1,000 plant informant cases which had not previously been recorded and the opening of several hundred Communist cases on individuals known to be members of the Communist Party. Selective Service cases had decreased from 1,079 in August to 765 in November. The number of cases of all types closed in August was 1087 and in November 1225. The number of Agents' days' pending work in August and in November was substantially the same.

Of the total pending cases as of November, 1943, 2714 were Security cases, 1878 were General Investigative cases and 765 were Selective Service cases.

The delinquency in August was 61.4%; in September, 45.4%; in October, 49.1%; and due to the fact that 633 plant informant cases for the first time were being reported as delinquent, the figure had increased to 66.0% at the end of November. However, the Selective Service delinquency had decreased from 60.4% at the end of August to 41.3% at the end of November. The Security Cases showed a delinquency reduction from 57.7% in August to 52.0% in November; in police cases from 90.2% in August to 87.1% in November.

Stenographic, typing and clerical work was in a satisfactory condition.

INVESTIGATIVE OPERATIONS

239 cases were examined and as a result 5 delinquent cases were discovered. There were also 5 clerical errors discovered. The 5 delinquent cases were Bank Robbery cases and these had gotten into a delinquent status due to an Agent attending In-Service School and working for several weeks on a White Slave Traffic Act case. They had received the attention of the Special Agent in Charge who believed it was inadvisable to reassign the cases, all of which would be in a current status by December 4, 1943.

There were 43 pending sabotage cases, which were reviewed and found to be in satisfactory condition. All Selective Service cases reviewed were found to be current and receiving appropriate attention.

The specific cases called to Mr. Boardman's attention by Mr. E. A. Tamm on September 1, 1943 were examined and of the 31 cases, all of them had received appropriate attention and all but 4 had been closed and these 4 had been assigned to Agents. All the cases assigned to the Akron, Ohio Police Department were reviewed and found to be in proper condition. The supervisors were found to be handling police reports satisfactorily.

ADMINISTRATIVE OPERATIONS

The confidential informant files were in proper condition and notations reflected recent contacts. There were 21 general informants; 30 National Defense informants, including 16 Communist, 3 German, 1 Japanese, 4 Negro and 6 miscellaneous.

The contact file had been increased since August from 9 to the present total of 23. The stop and wanted notice files were now in proper condition. The Form #3 Register cards are now being filed properly.

PERSONNEL MATTERS

The morale appeared to be good. The tempo of the office employees impressed the Inspector as good. Agents' overtime for October averaged 2 hours and 25 minutes; stenographic overtime averaged 36 minutes per day, and clerical overtime averaged 28 minutes per day.

Mr. Harbo agreed with Mr. Boardman's previous request that 20 additional agents should be assigned to the Cleveland Office. Since that date, November 6, the Bureau has transferred a number of Agents to Cleveland and when all of them arrive, adequate personnel will then be available to handle the investigations.

CONTACTS

The contacts of the office and relations with law enforcement agencies were reported as good.

STATUS OF THE OFFICE

The Inspector reported the following as reflecting the status of the office during this re-check inspection:

|---|-----------|
| Physical Condition and Maintenance..... | Excellent |
| Investigative Operations..... | Good |
| Administrative Operations..... | Very Good |
| Personnel Supervision..... | Very Good |
| Contacts,..... | Good |

The Inspector expressed the belief that the Agent in Charge and the field office supervisory staff are qualified for the positions which they hold.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Inspector recommended that Special Agent in Charge Boardman be removed from probation and the facts of this inspection appear to justify this conclusion in which I concur.

If this is approved, there is attached hereto a letter addressed to Mr. Boardman advising that his probationary status has been removed. Also there is attached hereto a memorandum to the Assistant Directors advising them similarly.

It was with a feeling of sorrow that I read of your transfer from Cleveland to Seattle recently in the papers. It will be the loss to Cleveland and your many friends here, but the gain to Seattle and the friends you will make there.

While you and the FBI never advertise and the public knows but little of your great work, I, as a member of the Alien Enemy Board in this District did know some of the many things you were doing. We have tried over 130 cases which were prepared by your office. Every one of them were well prepared and at every one of them some of your men were at the hearing to present them in a fine, impartial manner. German and Italian sabotage in this District were nil due to the efforts of the FBI. I am sure sabotage will be nil if we ever have to protect ourselves from Communism because of the FBI preparation. I hope I may see you before you leave but in any event I wish you all God Speed.

Mr. Boardman is a Special Agent in Charge and as such holds a key position as designated by the Review Committee of the War Manpower Commission within the meaning of Executive Order 9309. The performance of his duties is essential and critical to the execution of the work assigned by law and Executive Directive to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

To the Federal Bureau of Investigation is assigned the responsibility of investigating all acts of espionage, sabotage and all actions tending to undermine the internal security of the nation. We must also investigate and enforce all those federal statutes assigned to the investigative jurisdiction of this Bureau such as: bank robbery, kidnaping, interference with the interstate transportation of goods, National Stolen Property Act, White Slave Traffic Act, etc., the enforcement of which is necessary to the preservation of the national health, safety and interest.

SPECIAL AGENTS

This position has been designated as a key position by the Review Committee of the War Manpower Commission.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has been designated as the sole civilian government investigative agency having jurisdiction over the investigation of matters pertaining to national defense such as espionage, sabotage, registration of agents of foreign principals, sedition, treason, and the like, and further, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has sole investigative jurisdiction in a great number of other Federal statutes which embrace bank robbery, kidnaping, extortion, white slave traffic, National Motor Vehicle Theft Act, and numerous others. The investigative work in connection with the above violations is performed by the Special Agent personnel of this Bureau, who are recruited from applicants between the ages of twenty-five and forty. They must be graduates of a law school or an accounting school with the necessary accounting experience, or graduates of a university with extensive investigative experience, or with linguistic qualifications, or have basic educational training and possess satisfactory prior law enforcement experience which will enable them to satisfactorily perform the duties imposed upon them. For certain of the scientific investigative work, Special Agents are secured who primarily are qualified in the sciences, such as ballistics, chemical analysis, spectography, cryptography, mineralogy, metallography, toxicology, and other like sciences. Applicants for appointment to the position of Special Agent must meet the physical standards and requirements for this position, which are exceedingly high. They must have vision of no less than 20/40 in one eye, 20/50 uncorrected, both eyes to be corrected to 20/20. They must have no color deficiency whatever.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation undergo a rigorous training program. All newly appointed Special Agents in the Federal Bureau of Investigation attend training classes for a period of sixteen weeks; the hours of training are from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. daily, which course of study is equivalent to two full years of college study. During this period of training, they are thoroughly instructed in the basic rules and regulations and jurisdictions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. They must satisfactorily pass numerous written examinations during their period of training. If a trainee fails to pass any of these examinations, he is dropped from the school.

The duties of a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are most arduous. They must be available at a moment's notice to go to any part of the United States or to any assignment outside the United States. The hours of duty for these employees are such that they must be in excellent physical health. The average work week for a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation is no less than seventy hours. The work of a Special Agent, regardless of his particular qualification, is such that he cannot lead a sedentary or well regulated life. Due to the small number of Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation presently handling the work under the jurisdiction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation within and without the continental United States, it is necessary that the entire staff be highly mobile.

Special Agents are required to be able to conduct investigations in more than 100 types of cases, including espionage, sabotage, subversive activities, frauds against the government, kidnaping, extortion, bank robbery, White Slave

Traffic Act, etc. They are trained in and required to maintain constant skill in the use of highly technical equipment, technical processes, such as those necessary for the development of latent fingerprints, concealed or obliterated numbers upon firearms, to understand the use of code messages, to conduct physical surveillances of subjects of espionage and similar cases, sometimes for periods of many months, and when necessary, to assume a necessary character to enable them to fit in an undercover capacity into the activities and operations of groups such as foreign agents, who are engaged in thwarting the war effort.

The arduousness and importance of the work of Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation was readily recognized by the military and naval leaders. The Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, for the Secretary of the Navy, requested Special Agent employees of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to submit their resignations from reserve commissions held by them in the naval services because it had been determined that those Special Agents could better serve their country in their present assignments than if they were to be called into active naval service. The Secretary of War, in 1942, addressed personal communications to 168 Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation who at that time held reserve commissions in the Army. The Secretary of War at that time advised the Special Agents that their employment in the FBI is of such vital importance to the national defense as to necessitate their remaining at their posts of duty despite the fact that they held reserve commissions in the United States Army, and the request was made that these Agents, through the proper channels, submit their resignations from their commissions.

General Lewis B. Hershey of the Selective Service System pointed out in his Directive to all Local Boards of December 29, 1941, that Special Agent positions of the FBI were most important and essential to the national health, safety, and interests, and that the national defense functions of the FBI should not be impaired by the removal of trained personnel from critical positions in the Bureau.

The position of Special Agent has always been considered the most critical of all positions in the FBI, since, with the tremendous bulk of work placed upon us due to the war emergency, it is essential that a trained qualified staff be available for the handling of this work. If the Federal Bureau of Investigation cannot continue to retain its personnel in this critical position, aid and comfort would most certainly be given to the enemy and others whose interests are inimical to the best interests of the country today.

I, J. Edgar Hoover, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and that the foregoing statements are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 17th day of March 1944

Dear Mr. Boardman:

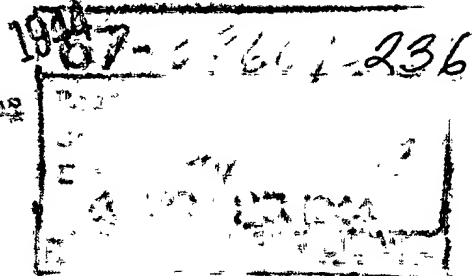

I was very sorry that I was unable to arrange to have a personal talk with you when you were in Washington last week attending the Special Agents in Charge Conference. By reason of the graduation ceremonies of the National Police Academy, coupled with the fact that I had to leave town immediately following those ceremonies, I was unable to see individually all of the Special Agents in Charge who were here.

I had looked forward to being able to have a talk with each Special Agent in Charge, but due to those conditions beyond my control I didn't get around to talking with you, and I wanted you to know the reason why.

SUGGESTION: SAC Boardman

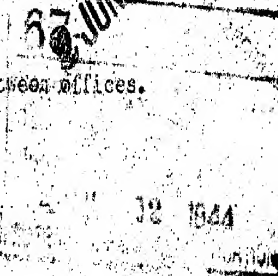

I suggest with reference to the office hours that each SAC be permitted to recommend to the Bureau the office hours which should be observed in his particular field office. In arriving at his recommendation for the field office hours, he will consider the peculiar problems in his locality which would warrant having office hours different from the hours that might be recognized to be desirable in some other field division.

ADVANTAGES:

1. It will permit the SAC to best utilize the time of his Agent personnel considering the peculiar problems presented in his field division.
2. Travel conditions in particular territories; that is, the commuting service back and forth.
3. In the metropolitan areas office hours do not begin until around nine or ten in the morning, and if arriving at nine rather than 8:30 a.m., travel conditions are better for the employees.
4. Utilizes the investigative time of the Agents in certain territories where they cannot begin actual investigations until later in the morning.
5. It would take a good proportion of the office transportation out of the congested industrial period.

DISADVANTAGES:

1. The most possible change leeway would be a minimum of one-half hour, and that does not make any advantage which would outweigh the disadvantages of change of general hours throughout the field.
2. It might create in the minds of the public an unfair opinion of just how we are operating, and someone would want to extend the time of starting until such a time in the morning that we would be criticized.
3. Detracts from uniformity.
4. Disadvantages of communication between offices.
5. Confusion.

RE: ALIEN ENEMY REGISTRATION PROGRAM

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated June 20, 1944 outlining a suggestion concerning the handling of miscellaneous correspondence in connection with the alien enemy registration program.

In response to the three questions enumerated therein, my answers are as follows:

(1) An alien enemy folder is prepared for the purpose of filing the incoming communication and any other communications received relating to the individual in question immediately upon the receipt of the incoming communication.

(2) When it is ascertained that the individual is not an enemy alien that correspondence is placed in Seattle file #39-19, which is a general file relating to miscellaneous alien registration correspondence.

(3) All such cases which are maintained in an appropriately labeled drawer in conjunction with the alien registration files are followed by a general thirty-day tickler.

I find that we are at the moment maintaining 41 such individual folders. I see no reason why all this correspondence could not be maintained in one general folder instead of individual folders until such time as the status of the correspondence is ascertained. Thereafter, of course, the correspondence would be placed in the aforementioned file 39-19 or in the alien registration folder in accordance with prior Bureau instructions.

I offer a constructive criticism generally concerning the handling of these matters; namely, correspondence directed to field offices, including the Seattle Office, is not handled as promptly as it should be, with the result that many of these alien enemies, particularly Japanese, enter a field division and leave the field division before the office covering the place of entry succeeds in obtaining the application from the preceding field division. The result is considerable confusion, and the folder in some instances hardly ever catches up with the moving alien enemy. A general observation to the field pointing out the necessity for expediting such correspondence would undoubtedly be helpful in correcting this criticism.

I therefore feel that the suggestion outlined in referenced Bureau communication would save time and is practical in its application to the problem.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

It was deeply gratifying to me to receive my Ten Year Service Award key.

When I first entered the service I contemplated that I would obtain three or four years of valuable experience with the FBI and thereafter return to the private practice of law. Before much time had elapsed I realized that this profession constituted an excellent means of rendering a great service to my country. With the passage of time I find that I have been able daily to confront my conscience with the realization that in this service I have an opportunity of being happy and at the same time knowing that I am a part of the greatest law enforcement organization in the world. Believe me, it has been an honor and a source of deep gratification to me to have shared with you during these past ten years the satisfaction that a tremendous task is being capably handled.

RE: J. LUTHER GLASS
Special Agent

Dear Sir:

The Bureau has reviewed the results of its exhaustive inquiry into the work of the captioned Special Agent as a result of the FAIR rating submitted on him by you under date of July 20, 1944. Based upon the information developed, it is felt you were inexcusably delinquent in a number of ways in your handling of this Agent's case.

Specifically, you failed to advise the Bureau in detail of this Agent's deficiencies prior to the time the special efficiency report was requested and it is felt that your explanatory statement to the effect you desired to personally observe him for an additional period of time is not sufficient. Furthermore, you failed to advise Agent Glass of his unsatisfactory work upon his return from Spokane to Seattle and otherwise failed to directly bring his delinquencies to his attention. You should have discovered earlier that this Agent was failing to submit daily reports in numerous instances and should have insured that there was no confusion as to the supervisor responsible for this Agent's work. You were wrong in permitting Agent Glass to obtain the impression that the special efficiency report on him was submitted only because the Bureau had requested it. Finally, it is felt you should have been more specific in your comments relative to the firearms record in the special report on Agent Glass.

The foregoing factors all reflect very seriously upon your administration of the Seattle Office. The Bureau desires that you take whatever steps are necessary to prevent similar occurrences in the future.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

On October 5th I saw Special Agent in Charge DELAND F. BOARDMAN of the Seattle Office. Mr. Boardman makes a generally good personal appearance. I discussed with Mr. Boardman certain difficulties recently arising in connection with the case of Special Agent Glass in which Mr. Boardman did not exercise the proper administrative attitude. I have gathered from the reports in the Glass case that Mr. Boardman was not on top of the situation as promptly as he should have been and was not as frank in his discussions with Mr. Glass as it is desirable for an Agent in Charge to be.

I think Mr. Boardman thoroughly understands the Bureau's policies and desires, but probably is reluctant to carry them out aggressively at times.

SUBJECT:

LELAND V. BOARDMAN

Special Agent in Charge

Seattle Field Division

SAC Boardman is to report to the Seat of Government for a two day conference on October 4, 1944. There is attached hereto a permanent brief of his file.

Mr. Boardman entered on duty on 7/30/34, served as an Agent throughout the country and as a supervisor in the Technical Laboratory at the Seat of Government, and as Special Agent in Charge at Milwaukee, Cleveland, and since 3/3/44 as Special Agent in Charge at Seattle.

Mr. Boardman's record as an Agent was above average and his services as a police instructor were particularly outstanding. His file reflects numerous letters of commendation as a result of his appearances before police schools.

While SAC at Milwaukee from 12/8/39 until 6/1/41, Mr. Boardman administered the affairs of that office satisfactorily. He was criticized on one occasion for not inviting Joseph Kluchesky of the Milwaukee Police Department to participate in firearms.

In February, 1942, while at Cleveland, the Bureau criticized Mr. Boardman for the manner in which he handled an inquiry from a newspaper subsequent to the shooting of a bank robber, Ivan Graham Phillips, and in August, 1942, he was placed on probation for the lax manner in which his office handled complaints involving threats on the life of President Roosevelt, which should have been referred to the Secret Service. In December, 1942, the Bureau received an anonymous communication from a stenographer in the Cleveland Office complaining about the manner in which Mr. Boardman supervised personnel and stating that he was sarcastic, stern, brusque and unfriendly. Mr. Guerin investigated this matter and as a result the Bureau wrote Mr. Boardman suggesting that he adopt a more friendly attitude toward his personnel.

In December, 1943, Mr. E. A. Tamm made a spot check of the Cleveland Office and ascertained the greatest delinquency there was in the handling of police cases. Subsequent to a re-check inspection at Cleveland in December, 1943, by Mr. Harbo, the Bureau removed Mr. Boardman from probation. On July 26, 1944, the Bureau awarded Mr. Boardman his Ten Year Key.

He was designated Special Agent in Charge at Seattle effective 3/3/44 and since that time his office has not been inspected.

File

In response to the Bureau letter of July 22, 1944, requesting a special efficiency rating on the weakest Agents in his office, Mr. Boardman complied, submitting the necessary rating, however, Special Agent J. Luther Glass, on whom he submitted a Fair rating, took issue with this report so that the Bureau sent Mr. Hendon to Seattle in September, 1944, to investigate this matter. Mr. Hendon ascertained that SAC Boardman failed to advise the Bureau in detail of this Agent's deficiencies prior to the time the special report was requested and it was also ascertained that he failed to bring this Agent's unsatisfactory work to his attention. The tickler copy of the communication which has been prepared to Mr. Boardman in this matter is attached hereto.

STATEMENT OF SPECIAL AGENT J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

Mr. Hendon: Mr. Glass, in view of the special efficiency rating submitted by SAC Boardman rating you as "fair" on July 29, 1944, and your comments indicating disagreement therewith, I have made a complete review of all cases assigned to you during the period November 1, 1943 to August 31, 1944. I have also checked your daily reports and #3 registers in order to appraise your value as accurately as possible. As a result there are certain questions which I want to ask you. Please take whatever time is necessary to fully answer each inquiry and be certain that you understand each question. Is that clear?

Mr. Glass: Yes, sir.

Mr. Hendon: Mr. Glass, a check of the daily reports and #3 register cards submitted by you from November 1, 1943 through August 31, 1944 reveals that neither a #3 card nor a daily report was submitted on the following dates: December, 1943: 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 27, 28, 29, 30; January, 1944: 20, 21, 22; February, 1944: 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 14, 17, 18, 24, 25, 26, 28, 29; March, 1944: 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 14, 20, 21, 22, 23, 25, 28, 29; April, 1944: 3, 4, 5, 6; May, 1944: 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 24, 29; June, 1944: 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7.

A check of the leave records and such periods of time as you were out of the Seattle territory fails to account for any of the above dates, and it is not possible to account for your whereabouts or activities through appropriate records for this time. What explanation do you have for these delinquencies?

Mr. Glass: On every day that I have appeared in the Seattle Field Division since arrival here on official business it is my opinion that I have used the appropriate #3 card to show my presence in this office. Likewise, while in the Spokane resident agency, as far as I can now remember, all days were accounted for by daily reports with the exception of a period from the latter part of May until June 7, 1944, for which I have already stated I did not submit reports. I brought with me information upon which to base those daily reports upon arrival here and thought that those reports had been submitted, but apparently I did not do that since I became involved in other work immediately upon arrival in the Seattle Office, and since the information on which these reports might have been made was destroyed after dictating the cases.

TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

Mr. Hendon: I would like to point out to you that a complete check fails to locate either a daily report or a #3 register for the dates mentioned above, and the same check did verify that you had not submitted daily reports on the dates in the latter part of May and early part of June, which you admitted.

Mr. Glass: In reply I simply state that the period covering the memorandum in which I admit that I probably did not submit daily reports was brought to my attention by one of the supervisors in this office quite some time ago, but no mention has ever been made of any other delinquency in this regard, and this is the first time that it has been brought to my attention.

Mr. Hendon: You understand the definite rule and regulation which requires that when out of the headquarters city a daily report of your activities should be submitted promptly at the close of the day?

Mr. Glass: Yes, sir.

Mr. Hendon: What explanation do you have for failure to comply with this regulation as to the days in May and June upon which you admit such reports were not sent in?

Mr. Glass: I have never understood that a daily report had to be submitted on the day the work was done. It is my understanding that a daily report has to be submitted covering all work done outside of the field division, but it has never been my understanding that the report has to be submitted before going to bed on the day on which the work is done.

Mr. Hendon: Just what is your understanding as to when a daily report for a particular day should be submitted?

Mr. Glass: Before the section you have just read me from the Manual was read, I was of the opinion that if a report was submitted at a reasonable time covering each day away from the main office that that would suffice.

Mr. Hendon: You understand now, do you, that the Manual of Rules and Regulations requires that daily reports be submitted daily?

Mr. Glass: Yes, sir.

Mr. Hendon: Do you understand that you have not complied with this regulation?

Mr. Glass: Yes, sir, I do.

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

9/19/44

Mr. Hendon: With further reference to the days for which no daily report or #3 card can be located for you, a check of the periods for which made in the reports in cases assigned to you over the entire period fails to reflect any of the following dates in such periods for which made: December, 1943 - 23, 24, 25; January, 1944 - 20, 21, 22; February, 1944 - 12, 14, 29; March, 1944 - 3, 4, 6, 8, 9, 14, 22, 25; April, 1944 - 3, 4, 5, 6; May, 1944 - 18, 20, 21, 24; June, 1944 - 1, 3, 6, 7. What explanation can you give me as to this?

Mr. Glass: As a general rule I always try when conducting an investigation and interview to include at the top of the interview the date upon which the interview is conducted, but in dictating cases I find that sometimes I have overlooked doing this, in which event I can only put down as a matter of certainty the dates which appear on the notes. However, I will state that all the time spent in the Spokane resident agency was spent in an official way conducting official investigations except for the time which I have claimed annual leave.

Mr. Hendon: Has there been any instance in which you were absent from work upon which you have not submitted either an annual leave or a sick leave slip?

Mr. Glass: I am certain there has not been.

Mr. Hendon: With reference to this same matter, I have checked the cases assigned to you in which there has been reflected in the periods for which made certain of the dates for which #3 cards or daily reports can not be located. I now desire to review with you each of these cases and to receive certain explanations.

File #25-7487
LARS REED OLSON - FUGITIVE
SELECTIVE SERVICE

A report of delinquency was received in this case from the U. S. Attorney on November 26, 1943 and the case was assigned to you on November 30, 1943. The first report submitted by you was a closing report on February 19, 1944, in which the period for which made showed December 20, 23, 1943 and February 5, 1944. It will be recalled that there was no daily report or #3 card for either December 20 or 23, 1943. This report indicates that on the first date you obtained authority from the U. S. Attorney for the filing of a complaint, which was filed on the following day. The report, which, as indicated, is the only report you have ever made in this case, fails to reveal any other substantive information except that the subject was apprehended at Portland and that the U. S. Commissioner by letter dated January 11, 1944 advised the U. S. Attorney, and furnished this office a copy,

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

9/19/44

Mr. Hendon: that the complaint had been dismissed on that date.

I do not understand what work you could have possibly performed in this case on either December 28, 1943 or February 5, 1944, and I would like to have from you any justification for including those dates. I would also like an explanation as to your delay in closing this case, since the complaint was dismissed on January 11, 1944 and report was not submitted until February 19, 1944.

Mr. Glass: The only thing I recall about this case is the name of the subject. Frequently in handling Selective Service cases after a man has been processed one or two checks have to be made with either the U. S. Attorney's office, the Commissioner's office, or the U. S. Marshal's office, or in some cases the Clerk of the U. S. Court, in order to determine what actually did happen to the man. I can not recall, however, why those investigative dates were included after the complaint was apparently dismissed unless it was for one of these several reasons.

Mr. Hendon: It seems obvious that no work was performed on February 5, 1944.

Mr. Glass: Sometimes a date is included where a file is reviewed in the office prior to dictating a report.

Mr. Hendon: Can you cite any provision or authority for so including such a date in the period for which made?

Mr. Glass: No, sir, I can not cite any authority. I can only state that from a reasonable standpoint if a report had to be written and no investigation done at all, simply a review of the file and a report written, the only date that could possibly go in the period would be the date on which said file was reviewed.

Mr. Hendon: Your attention is specifically called to the provision in the National Defense Manual under Section 12 covering Selective Service, wherein it is stated that if a report is submitted solely upon the basis of a file review only the date of the review is to be reflected. Where the period includes any investigative activity, the dates upon which such activity occurred should be included in the period for which made, and the date upon which the file was reviewed in order to permit you to marshal your facts for dictation is not to be included in the period for which made. Under this rule and regulation the period for which made included in instant report is not accurate and can not be justified. Is this clear?

Mr. Glass: I understand that now.

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

9/19/44

Mr. Hendon: Prior to this time were you familiar with the above provision of the National Defense Manual?

Mr. Glass: I think so generally.

Mr. Hendon: Referring back to my previous question, do you have any explanation for the delay in closing this case?

Mr. Glass: No, sir, I do not.

Mr. Hendon: 26-1595
DANIEL JAMES MILLER;
ROBERT JOHN NESS;
1936 Chevrolet Sedan, Motor #5703567.
NATIONAL MOTOR VEHICLE THEFT ACT.

This case was opened on October 2, 1943 upon the basis of a teletype received from the Portland Office to the effect that the subjects were in custody in Oregon and had admitted the theft in Montana of an automobile and its transportation and abandonment at Spokane, where a second vehicle was stolen and abandoned on a ferry crossing into Oregon. The case was assigned to you on October 5, 1943. You failed to submit a report until April 25, 1944, in which you reflected the following dates in the period for which made: October 2, 1943; December 20, 21, 23, 29, 1943; March 11, 23, 1944. Among these dates are included December 20, 21, 23, 29, 1943 and March 23, 1944, upon which a #3 register card or daily report for you can not be located. This report contains absolutely no substance, being a page and a half in length, reflecting that the automobile was recovered by the Spokane County Sheriff's Office on September 16, 1943, and that the facts of the case were presented to the U. S. Attorney on October 2, 1943, and prosecution was declined. Mention is further made that by letter dated March 23, 1944 the Montana Highway Patrol had furnished the motor number and ownership of the car.

It is inconceivable to me how you could have performed any investigative activity in this case on the numerous dates shown and not have reflected more substance in the report, and I would like any explanation you care to make. Further, I would like to have an explanation as to the inexcusable delay in handling this matter, which, when handled, was most carelessly done.

Mr. Glass: I specifically remember this case. I recall that the car as recovered by the Sheriff's Office in Spokane, Washington was released before they received either the license number or the motor number, but the deputy sheriff said he had obtained these and he kept telling me to come back the next day and he would give me the information. I recall

Mr. BOARDMAN:

That is a fact.

Mr. HENDON:

Why then did you state to him or at least give him the impression that you had prepared the rating at the request of the Bureau?

Mr. BOARDMAN:

I would have had no particular reason for so doing.

Mr. HENDON:

Was it not your proper responsibility to indicate to him that the rating was being submitted solely because of the unsatisfactory nature of his work?

Mr. BOARDMAN:

I very definitely pointed out to him that the fair rating emanated as a result of my observation of his work so that he could have had no possible doubt as to why the rating was being submitted.

Mr. HENDON:

This agent advises that you specifically told him that "The Bureau has requested a special efficiency report on you and there it is." As I understand it you do not recall specifically stating that the Bureau requested a special efficiency rating, but that you feel it is likely that you might have so stated.

Mr. BOARDMAN:

It is possible.

Mr. HENDON:

Do you have any explanation as to why you did not make it clear that the rating was being submitted on him upon your own initiative and responsibility?

Mr. BOARDMAN:

I did not think it was pertinent at whose request the rating had been submitted. The pertinent situation was that his work was fair and that he was being given such a rating.

If the inference were to be drawn that I did not have the courage of my convictions in submitting a fair rating on this agent I wish to state that that is an entirely erroneous impression.

I am not able to recall any reason that I might have had for making such a statement. My best thought is that I probably had no particular reason for making such a statement inasmuch as my thoughts were concentrated on giving this agent a fair rating and preparing myself to give him the specific reasons why he was being afforded a fair rating.

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

9/19/44

- Mr. Glass: making several trips to the Sheriff's Office, and it seems to me it was in December of 1943 that this occurred. They never were able to give either the license number or the motor number and finally admitted that if they took down this information it had been destroyed, and this was only obtained after writing, I think, to letters to either Idaho or Montana, I have forgotten which.
- Mr. Hendon: Your attention is called to the fact that the license number of this car, contrary to your statement, was in the possession of this office on October 2, 1943.
- Mr. Glass: Then it was the motor number that I was trying to obtain in order to close this case. I remember that it was either the motor number or the license number.
- Mr. Hendon: The motor number was obtained through correspondence with the Motor Vehicle Department in Montana and not from the Sheriff's Office in Spokane, and there would seem to be no justification for the waste of your time in an effort to obtain same through going back to that office day after day over such a long period of time.
- Mr. Glass: One of these officers, whose name I do not recall, was insistent upon the fact that he made a note of this and kept insisting that I drop back the next day, which required only a few minutes of time - to drop by to see if he had found the note from which the number could be obtained.
- Mr. Hendon: Are you of the opinion that this was exercising good judgment and efficiently utilizing your time as an agent?
- Mr. Glass: I can not answer either yes or no to that question for the simple reason that aside from obtaining the number which I was seeking, I was also trying to continue the good will which this office has in the Sheriff's Office at Spokane, since the officer was insistent that I should return - that he knew he had taken down the number.

This case was assigned to you on November 17, 1943 and re-assigned to Special Agent Ray Lamb on July 14, 1944. Although assigned to you at the time and for a period of eight months you failed to submit any report, and a report under date of April 18, 1944 was submitted by Special Agent Vernon D. Jensen (which should have been submitted by you had you been following the case), which does reflect that on

9/19/44

Kr. Hendon: December 20, 1943, one of the dates upon which no daily report was submitted by you, you presented the facts in the case to the U. S. Attorney at Spokane. This was the only work on that date which could be accounted for in your cases.

In regard to this case your attention is called to the fact that confidential information was received under date of December 8, 1943 and routed to you that the subject was employed at the Sacramento Electric Company in Sacramento, California. You failed to take any action upon this serial until July 12, 1944, or six months later. Had you acted on this information promptly the fugitive, who is still at large, would have been immediately located, since the report of Special Agent [redacted] dated at San Francisco on September 3, 1944, reflects that from such employment the fugitive was traced to a San Francisco hotel, where he resided until June 11, 1944. I would like an explanation as to why action was not taken upon the confidential information when received by you.

Kr. Glass: At the time this case was probably assigned to me my case load would run over 100 cases, and before I got rid of the large volume of this case load I spent approximately thirty days on one of the largest bank robbery cases in this nation and helped see it to a successful conclusion. In approximately April, 1944, when Special Agent Jensen came to the Spokane resident agency, he gradually took over my cases, which gave me some opportunity with a reduced case load to investigate other cases.

Kr. Hendon: The fact that you handled a bank robbery case after January 20, 1944 is no excuse for the delay in taking prompt action in this case in the early part of December, 1943.

STEVE RANDALL, FUGITIVE

This case was assigned to you on November 6, 1943 and finally made unassigned on July 11, 1944. Although assigned to you at the time, a report covering investigation in Spokane was submitted by Special Agent James T. O'Brien on December 17, 1943. Information was received by teletype from Dutte on December 23, 1943 that an individual believed to be this subject was employed at the Spokane Air Depot. No action was taken on this until May 28, 1944, as shown in your report of July 10, 1944.

I would like an explanation as to the delay in handling this specific lead, as well as the delay in handling this entire case. It is observed

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

9/19/44

Mr. Hendon: in this regard that on May 24, 1944 by memorandum the SAC called this delinquency to your attention, pointing out that routing slips had been sent to you on February 22, 1944 and April 19, 1944. There is indication in this file that the subject had been employed by the Union Pacific Railroad at Spokane and it was not reflected that that organization has ever been contacted. The period reflected in your report of July 10, 1944 is December 30, 1943 and May 23, 1944, the first date being one upon which no daily report or #3 register can be found. From this report no work is reflected for that date, and I can not understand why it is included as a period. Your attention is further called to the fact that May 23, 1944, on which your report indicates you located LOYAL ERNEST PARKINS, formerly believed to be identical with the subject, was a Sunday. As a matter of fact, according to your daily report he was located and interviewed on December 31, 1943. It is obvious that you were extremely dilatory both in handling this case and in the preparation of your report.

Mr. Glass: I recall the instant case somewhat. I recall that Agent Chappell was with me on the date that this individual was located, and it does appear to me at this time that it was around December of 1943 that we located this individual at the Spokane Army Air Depot and took him to the draft board for the purpose of elimination. I can not understand now how any such mistake was made in including a Sunday in May, five months later, when this individual was located. I have no further explanation to make in the matter.

Mr. Hendon: 25-7146
ALVIN ARTHUR HALL, FUGITIVE

This case was assigned to you on October 13, 1943. A routing slip was sent you on January 5, 1944, February 9, 1944, and a memorandum on April 4, 1944 called your attention to the fact that the case was more than 180 days delinquent without an investigative report. A report was finally submitted by SA Vernon D. Jensen under date of June 3, 1944 covering investigation at Spokane, although the case was at that time still assigned to you. I would like an explanation as to your delay in handling the case.

Included in the period of Jensen's report is December 21, 1943, for which no daily report or #3 card can be located for you, although a form memorandum indicates that on that date you filed a complaint in this case, this being the only work which can be found for such date in your cases. You finally submitted a closing report on July 8, 1944 reflecting that the complaint had been dismissed and showing in the period June 12 and July 5, 1944. It does not appear that you

INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

Mr. Hendon: performed investigative work on either date, and your attention is again called to the provisions covering this matter in the National Defense Manual.

Mr. Glass: I can not remember very much about this case at the present time. It is probably one of those cases in which the subject could not be located, a complaint was filed and warrant was returned non est, and since there were more pressing matters to be taken care of very little was done about the matter. As to the dates of June and July of this year in the last report submitted, I do recall that in one of the cases I dictated on since returning to this office I had one of the agents in Spokane check the records of either the U. S. Attorney's office or the U. S. Commissioner's office in order to ascertain when the complaint against this subject was dismissed. I think that is why these dates are included in the period, although I am not positive that it is this case that I have in mind.

Mr. Hendon: Mr. Glass, even if it were, you are in serious error because had another agent performed such work he by name should have been credited in the report therewith.

This case was assigned to you on November 8, 1943. You submitted an RUC report after five months on 4/3/44 reflecting in the period for which made 12/9, 10, 11, 21/43 and 2/18/44. This report states that "the writer" made various investigations at Spokane, and the remainder of the report incorporates investigation performed by Special Agent Arthur C. Wittenburg at Seattle on 12/10 and 11/43. The work which you reported as your own was actually performed by Special Agent James T. O'Brien as indicated in his memorandum of 12/21/43, serial 6 in this file; and it appears that you performed no work whatsoever in the case. I would like an explanation as to, first, the delay in handling this matter at Spokane, and, secondly, why you credited to yourself the work performed by another agent. Your attention is also called to the fact that 12/21/43 and 2/18/44, both dates reflected in this period, are dates on which #3 cards or daily reports can not be located for you.

Mr. Glass: I can not at this time give any reason for the delay in this case, but I do recall that all the investigation which is set out in the memorandum as having been conducted by Special Agent [redacted] was rechecked, each one of these addresses, by me. As I recall the matter now, some sort of routing slip was sent to me at the office

Mr. Glass: advising that all these places and addresses should be rechecked in an effort to obtain a Social Security number, as I remember it, for this subject. That is why, as I recall, the investigation went into the report as mine rather than that of Agent O'Brien.

Mr. Hendon: You were in error in either not incorporating in the period for which made the date on which such a recheck was conducted by you, or in failing to submit a daily report on 2/18/44, which is the only possible date upon which such re-investigation could have been conducted as shown in the period. Either error is inexcusable.

Mr. Hendon:

This case was assigned to you on October 5, 1943. The only report submitted by you was on April 4, 1944, which closed the case. This report shows the following dates in the period for which made: December 16, 18, 22, 27, 1943; February 17 and March 11, 1944. The report consists of slightly over one page and reflects no substantive investigation conducted by you, merely indicating the filing of a complaint, the apprehension and rejection for military service at Pocatello, Idaho, and the presentation to the Grand Jury on February 17, 1944, with the return of a no bill.

I am unable to understand why all of the dates reflected should appear in the period for which made, since obviously it was impossible for you to have conducted investigation on these dates. Your attention is further called to the fact that while your daily report for December 9, 1943 reflects a contact in this case, that date is not reflected in the period for which made. On December 18, shown in the period, you were in Seattle, while this case was one pending at Spokane. There is neither a number 3 card nor a daily report for December 22 and 27, 1943 or February 17, 1944, shown in the period, and your daily report for March 11, 1944 fails to show any work on this case. I would like an explanation for these inexcusable errors. In addition, I would like an explanation as to why the submission of the closing report in this case was delayed to April 4, 1944, since it could have been closed out on February 17, 1944, when the no true bill was returned.

Mr. Glass:

I don't recall the case and therefore I know of no explanation that could be made.

A report was not submitted until April 5, 1944, and that by Special Agent Vernon D. Jensen, although this case was assigned to you. Included in the period for which made are the dates December 8 and 9, 1943, for which No. 3 cards or daily reports cannot be found for you. The only work performed by you in this case, however, on those dates was a contact with the U. S. Attorney and the filing of a complaint, as reflected in your memorandum received in this office on February 10, 1944. I would like an explanation for the delay in submitting the RUC report and as to why, although the case was assigned to you, it was necessary for another agent to finally handle the matter, which consisted actually of checking the file.

Mr. Hendon: This case was assigned to you on September 7, 1943 and re-assigned to Agent Stephens on August 4, 1944. A report was not submitted by you until August 2, 1944, which reflected the following dates in the period for which made: November 13, 30, 1943; December 18, 1943; January 11, 1944; February 10, 26, 1944; April 7, 1944; June 2, 1944; and July 14, 1944. This report reflects investigative activity of Special Agents [redacted] Douglas G. Allen and Maynard W. Hill. The only work you apparently performed in the case was a check of several places with negative results on June 2, 1944. From the report, it appears impossible that you did any work in the case on any of the other dates reflected in the period. In this regard, no daily reports or No. 3 cards can be found for you on February 10 and 26 or June 2, 1944. I would like any explanation you care to make and, in addition, any comments you have relative to the unnecessary delay in submitting a report.

Mr. Glass: I think this report is a report written largely from a review of the file, incorporating several inserts of work done by other agents, and in the period for which made was included the investigative time spent by other agents, as well as that of myself.

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

This is a date upon which neither a No. 3 card nor a daily report can be located for you. Your daily report for February 22, 1944, however, shows that it was on that date that you conducted the investigation reflected in this report. I would like any explanation you have as to your error in this regard.

Mr. Hendon: This case was assigned to you on January 18, 1944. This is a date for which no daily report or No. 3 card can be located for you. A report was not submitted in this case until April 26, 1944, and that by Special Agent Edward Brekke. I would like an explanation for the delay in reporting the work performed by you on February 25, 1944.

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

9/19/44

Mr. Hendon: This case was assigned to you on February 8, 1944. The first report submitted thereafter was by Special Agent Vernon D. Jensen under date of April 5, 1944, reflecting in the period for which made February 4, 7, 11, 18, 26; and March 1, 11, 1944, covering investigation at Spokane, where you were stationed. I would like an explanation as to why it was necessary for another agent to submit this very routine report in a case assigned to you. It is also pointed out that the date of February 26, 1944 is one on which a daily report or a No. 3 card cannot be found for you, and this report indicates the only work performed in the case on that date was a check of the records of the Clerk of the Court by you. A closing report was finally submitted by you on July 7, 1944, which indicated that the complaint was dismissed on March 18, 1944. I would like an explanation as to the delay of almost four months in the closing of this case. Your report reflects as the period for which made April 20, 1944, while as a matter of fact your daily report shows that you handled the matter, which consisted merely of a check of the U.S. Attorney's Office, on April 18, 1944 and not on April 20, 1944. I would like any explanation that you might have as to this error.

Mr. Glass: As I recall the case, it appears to be one which Agent Jensen was directed to take over when he came to Spokane. It was my opinion that since all serials had been turned over to Agent Jensen, that the case had been re-assigned to him, but upon my return to Seattle, when I was closing out my cases I found that the case was still assigned to me and wrote a closing report.

Mr. Hendon: Had you been handling your work satisfactorily and following your cases, this could have been closed out without the expenditure of any time, back in March, and no question of re-assignment would have arisen.

Mr. Hendon: This case was assigned to you on October 9, 1943. The Bureau under date of February 8, 1944 requested a report reflecting the investigation conducted in this office. The San Francisco Office teletyped for a report under date of February 29, 1944. A report was finally submitted by you, RUCing the case on March 21, 1944, showing in the period for which made the dates of October 11, 13, 1943 and March 7, 1944. The latter date is one upon which no daily report or No. 3 card can be located for you, and from the report it appears definite that no work was performed by you on that date. The delay in submitting this report, necessitating the follow-ups cited, is inexcusable and I would like any explanation you might care to make.

Mr. Glass: I know of no explanation that can be given except for the fact that that is a period which includes in it approximately thirty days spent on 91-419.

Mr. Hendon: The bank robbery case cited by you was not opened until January 20, 1944. The last work performed by you in this case was on October 13, 1943. In the intervening time most certainly a report could have and should have been submitted. The approximately four and one-half months' delay required San Francisco, as office of origin, to maintain this fugitive case in a pending status, thus causing a delinquency in the San Francisco Office. Reports reflecting the apprehension of fugitives must be submitted promptly.

Mr. Hendon: This case was assigned to you on January 22, 1944. The only work was to interview one individual at Spokane for possible information as to the whereabouts of the subject. You did not submit a report until April 3, 1944, reflecting the date of March 20, 1944 as the period for which made. This is a date for which no No. 3 card or daily report can be located for you, and this is the only report in which such date is reflected by you as a period on which any actual work was performed. I would like any explanation you care to make for the delay in handling and reporting this case.

Mr. Glass: I have no explanation which can be made at this time.

Mr. Hendon: This case was assigned to you on January 18, 1944. A report was not submitted by you until July 24, 1944, reflecting in the period for which made the dates of March 13, 16, 20, 21; April 12; and July 21, 1944. There is no No. 3 card or daily report for March 20 or 21, 1944, two dates reflected in this period. On March 16, 1944, reflected in the period, you were in Seattle, while all of this work was pending at Spokane, and the same is true of April 12 and July 21, 1944. Your daily report for March 27, 1944, reflects an interview in this case, and this date is not shown in the period for which made. I would like an explanation, first as to these numerous errors, and second as to the inexcusable delay in submission of a report in this case.

Mr. Glass: I don't know of any explanation at this time.

Mr. Hendon: This case was assigned to you on October 13, 1943. A report closing the case was submitted by you on August 1, 1944, reflecting in the period for which made the dates of March 23; May 19; and July 18, 1944. This report reflects investigative activity of Special Agents [redacted] and W. Scott Clark, and it appears that you performed no actual investigative activity. The date of May 19, 1944, is one upon which no daily report or No. 3 card can be located for you. The investigation performed in the case by Agent Clark was on March 28, while the investigative date for agent [redacted] is not reflected. It appears, however, that you conducted no investigation in the case on May 19, 1944, and at least that date or the date of July 18, 1944, should not be included in the period. I would like any explanation you have to make in this regard and, in addition, I would like to know why a closing report was not submitted until August 1, 1944, although the same could have been closed any time after June 9, 1944, upon the authority of the U. S. Attorney, which was reflected in the file.

Mr. Glass: The date of July 18 probably went in the period as the date when

Mr. Hendon: This case was assigned to you on March 11, 1944 and the report of Special Agent (A) [redacted] dated at Seattle July 3, 1944 reflects a contact by you with the Selective Service Board at Cheney, Washington on March 23, 1944. This is a date for which no daily report or No. 3 card can be located. Any other work performed by you for that date cannot be accounted for in view of the absence of a daily report.

Mr. Glass: I recall very distinctly checking the record in this case at the Draft Board in Cheney, Washington. I do not recall the date, but I recall making this trip along with other work assigned to me at that time.

Mr. Hendon: This case was assigned to you on January 18, 1944 and was re-assigned to Special Agent Lamb on July 6, 1944. You finally submitted a report on April 7, 1944, reflecting as the period for which made the dates of June 15 and October 23, 1943 and March 23, 1944. You apparently submitted this report on the basis of a file review and incorporated investigation conducted on June 15, 1943 by Special Agent James T. O'Brien. The date of March 23, 1944 reflected in the period is one upon which no daily report or No. 3 card can be located for you. I would like to have any explanation you may care to make in this regard and, in addition, an explanation as to the delay in the submission of the report. I would also like to point out that a lead was received on May 9, 1944 in this case to discuss the matter with the U. S. Attorney, since the subject is over 44 years of age, is an alien, and is probably employed in a vital defense industry. This lead still remains uncovered.

Mr. Glass: I did not arrive in the Spokane resident agency until September 8, 1943. Therefore, any investigation conducted in June had to be conducted by some other agent. On May 9, 1944, I was on annual leave in Virginia and did not return to the Spokane resident agency until May 17, 1944 and left for Seattle on June 8, 1944.

Mr. Hendon: You are of course not accountable for any delay in handling this case prior to the time it was assigned to you on January 18, 1944. You have offered no explanation, however, for your delay in submitting a report from that date until April 7, 1944, or for not handling the lead while still at Spokane after May 9, 1944.

Mr. Hendon: This case was assigned to you on December 7, 1943. A report was never submitted by you, but the case was finally closed by the report of Supervisor [redacted], dated March 29, 1944. There seems to be no excuse for the failure to handle this matter, which consisted of a discussion of the case with the U. S. Attorney at Spokane, finally handled by correspondence, with a great deal of delay, from the Seattle Office.

Mr. Glass: I recall this case and I recall that it was one in which prosecution had been declined by the U. S. Attorney and a letter was written by this office, citing certain provisions from the U. S. Department of Justice to U. S. Attorneys, in an attempt, apparently, to get the U.S. Attorney's Office at Spokane to change its mind to allow investigation of cases where the subjects were over 44 years of age, and since this matter was taken up directly by the office with the U.S. Attorney, I took no further action in the case until the matter was finally settled by the two offices.

Mr. Hendon: The case, however, was assigned to you throughout all this period and could have been closed by you when the matter was finally settled, which the file reflects occurred in early February, 1944.

No actual investigative activity by you is reflected and the latter two dates cannot be accounted for. It is also observed that your report sets out no leads of any kind looking to the location of this fugitive. Your attention is also called to the fact that this fugitive is presently over 38 years of age. In addition, the report of Special Agent George K. Hansen, dated at Seattle March 11, 1943, reflects information that this subject has a wooden leg and there is other information in the file indicating that he was suffering severely from arthritis. Although this case was assigned to you for a period of eight months, you took no steps to definitely check out the man's physical condition, nor did you bring the information presently in the file with reference to this to the attention of the Selective Service Board. Had this been done, much investigative effort looking to the location of the fugitive might have been avoided through a re-classification and removal of the delinquency. Do you have any explanation as to this failure?

Mr. Glass: No, sir.

Mr. Hendon: This case was assigned to you on November 26, 1943 and remained so assigned until re-assigned to Special Agent Lamb on July 12, 1944. You have as yet failed to submit any report in the case. You did submit a memorandum for the file on July 12, 1944, reflecting interviews on May 29, 1944. This is a date upon which neither a daily report nor a No. 3 card can be located for you, and I am unable to understand your delay in reporting the results of the inquiries made. Do you have any explanation?

Mr. Glass: I have no explanation to make as to why the case was not followed more closely up until May 29, 1944, when interviews were conducted, except for the reason I have given many times before that other matters were being taken care of. I returned to the Seattle Office on June 8, 1944, and I dictated on this case, as well as on all other Selective Service cases, as soon as I had an opportunity to after returning to this office. I would like to say further at this point that it was during this time from June 8, 1944 to approximately July 26, 1944 that my duties required me to work on three different squads in the Seattle Field Division.

Mr. Hendon: This case was assigned to you on January 18, 1944. A report was not submitted until July 10, 1944 closing the case and reflecting in the period for which made the dates of March 31, 1943, September 2, 1943, May 29, 1944 and July 5, 1944. Of these dates May 29, 1944 is one upon which no daily report or No. 3 card can be located for you, and this routine report, reflecting only a review of the file by you, fails to reflect any work performed on that date. You were advised by memorandum on April 4, 1944 that this case at that point was 255 days delinquent. The matter could have been closed out by a report submitted even before the date of its assignment to you and there seems to be no excuse for your own delay of seven months in submitting same.

Mr. Glass: I do not think it is fair to charge me with a delinquency in a case which could have and should have been closed long before the case was over assigned to me. At least three months before I ever reported for duty to the Spokane resident agency this case could have been closed.

Mr. Hendon: There is no question but what this case could have been closed prior to the date of its assignment to you on January 18, 1944. The delinquency in that regard, however, is no excuse whatsoever for your delay of seven months in finally bringing the thing to a conclusion. As a matter of fact, the prior delinquency should have led you to an immediate handling of the matter, instead of the inexcusable delay on your part of seven months which does exist.

Mr. Hendon: This case was opened and assigned to you on October 5, 1943. By routing slip of December 31, 1943 you were requested to expedite a report. By memorandum of April 4, 1944 it was pointed out to you that a report had not yet been submitted in this case. A report was finally submitted by Special Agent Vernon L. the period for which made the dates of June 5 and July 18, 1944. The first date is one on which a No. 3 card or daily report cannot be found for you, and your report fails to reflect any investigative activity on that date. At the time this case was closed by you, leads were outstanding for investigation at Salt Lake City, which was finally conducted with a waste of time on July 23, 29, 31 and August 3, 1944. Had you properly advised auxiliary offices that the investigation was closed, a great amount of investigative effort on the part of the Salt Lake City Office would have been avoided. I would like to have an explanation from you as to these failures and also as to your delay in reporting the matter, since the complaint was dismissed on July 3, 1944 and the case could have been closed and auxiliary offices advised at that time.

Mr. Glass: I can give no explanation as to why a report was not written by me prior to April, 1944, at which time all serials in the matter were turned over to Agent Jensen. I assumed that the handling of the case would be through him from that time on, but after returning to Seattle I found that the case was still assigned to me but could not be closed, as this complaint was not dismissed until approximately one month after I left the Spokane resident agency.

Mr. Hendon: The fact still remains that you failed to advise an auxiliary office of the closing of the case.

This case was assigned to you on 12/7/43. Your daily report for 11/2/43 reflects that you located and interviewed MRS. ADDIE B. BULLIS, 2311 North Green Street, Spokane. This was reported by SA [redacted] on 11/5/43 but does not reflect a direct interview with Mrs. Bullis, but instead that you were advised of the information at the U. S. Marshal's office. I would like an explanation as to this inconsistency.

A report covering investigation at Spokane was submitted by SA George H. Asdell on 1/11/44. I would like an explanation as to why it was necessary for another agent to cover this investigation when the case was assigned to you.

The first and only report submitted by you in this case was dated 2/15/44, and finally a closing report was submitted under date of 4/4/44. This report reflected in the period for which made the dates of 2/23 and 3/11/44. It is not apparent from the substance of this report as to what work could have been performed by you on either day, and I would like any explanation you care to make. In addition, I would like an explanation as to why this case was not closed until 4/4/44, when it could have been closed any time after 2/23/44.

Mr. Glass: I recall this case very well. I remember that the U. S. Marshal informed me that the mother-in-law of this subject probably would be able to tell us where subject was located in California; that I went with the Marshal to the mother-in-law's home and interviewed her. At that time the case was not assigned to me. I returned to the office in Spokane and notified the supervisor either by Western Union or by telephone as to the information I had received, since the case was not assigned to me, and that information was sent to California by teletype. Later on Agent Asdell was sent to the Spokane resident agency with no cases assigned to him but with instructions to assist with my case load in that office, at which time certain serials were turned over to him to investigate. This case was assigned to you on 10/29/43, and you submitted a report under date of 11/10/43 RUCing the matter to the office of origin. Your daily report for 11/1/43 reflects an attempt to locate SAM ENSOR at Mondovi, Washington from 4:25 to 5:15 PM just prior to your return to Spokane for dinner. Inasmuch as your report fails to reflect any contact with this individual, I would like any explanation as to the necessity for spending the amount of time in an effort to locate him, which finally was never done.

Mr. Glass: I recall this case as being an investigation concerning a subject's religion, as to whether or not that would make him a conscientious objector, and I do recall making considerable investigation trying to locate acquaintances of subject who had known him in an attempt to determine whether he conscientiously held those views prior to the passage of the Selective Service Act. I am firmly of the opinion that no time was wasted in this case at any time.

Mr. Hendon: I am of the opinion that proper utilization of time would not have demanded almost an hour in an effort to locate an individual unsuccessfully. If it was worth the expenditure of that amount of time at the outset, the case should not have been RUC'd by you until the man was located and any possible information he had obtained.

Mr. Glass: additional information that this woman, the mother-in-law of the subject, could again tell us where subject was located, at which time I went to her place and advised her that we had knowledge of the fact that she knew where her son-in-law was located and was shielding him from the law, and advised her that it would be to the best interest of her son-in-law, as well as herself, if she told us where we might locate this subject. The following day subject returned to the home of his mother-in-law, at which time he was advised by her that an agent had been out to see her, and he reported to the U. S. Marshal's office, at which time, as I recall now, a complaint was filed and this subject was interviewed by me. In his statement he admitted that he had willfully evaded the draft during all this time, the case was tried in court, and the subject was convicted. This case was assigned to you on 10/14/43. You submitted a closing report on 1/10/44 reflecting in the period for which made the dates of 11/2, 3 and 12/11/43. This report reflects that on 11/3/43 you contacted the U. S. Attorney and interviewed the subject. Your daily report for 11/3/43 fails to reflect any work whatsoever on this case, whereas your daily report for 11/2/43 reflects a contact with the U. S. Attorney but does not reflect the interview with the subject. Also, your daily report for 12/11/44 fails to reflect any activity on this case. I would like an explanation as to the inconsistencies in this regard.

It is also observed that on your report of 11/2/43 you made the following final notation: "Office work (damn, oh damn)!" I would like any explanation you care to make as to an impertinent notation such as this on an official government record.

Mr. Glass: I can not explain the apparent inconsistency between the daily reports and the report as finally submitted. The mistake might have been caused by trying to place periods from memory. The remarks referred to made at the bottom of the daily report I do not recall, but in all probability it was done because I was very tired and worried about the volume of work and the amount of office work that had to be done at that time.

Your daily report for 12/9/43 reflects the presentation of facts to the U. S. Attorney and the filing of a complaint in this case. It is observed that this date is not included in the period for which made and the date of 12/10/43 included in the period is not shown on your daily report for that date. In addition, although all this investigation was in Spokane, Washington, you show the date of 1/6/44 in the period for which made, at which time you were actually in Seattle, Washington. I would like an explanation for these inconsistencies.

It is also pointed out that in this report you set out a lead for the Boston Field Division to interview a MRS. PAQUETTE at North Oxford, Massachusetts, which lead had been covered as reflected in the file by the report of SA Phillip M. Breed dated at Boston 2/11/44. I would like an explanation as to this error, which caused unnecessary administrative handling both here and at Boston.

Mr. Glass: As I recall the matter now, this person may have been interviewed but had not been interviewed for the purpose for which said lead was set out. The apparent inconsistencies are something that I have no knowledge of or no explanation of at this late date.

Mr. Hendon: The lead set out in your report for Boston was for the exact information which had been covered in the report of Agent Breed. Had you had in mind the obtaining of additional information it should have been so reflected in your lead, and when the Boston Office advised by letter that the lead was not being covered appropriate advice for the coverage should have been sent back to that office.

Mr. Hendon: SA Lamb on 7/15/44. Advice was received from the Selective Service Board under date of 11/26/43 that the delinquent was at that time employed by the Asbury Transportation Company, 4908 South Alameda Street, Los Angeles, California. Although this serial was routed to you and initialed by you, you failed to take any action on same, and, as a matter of fact, action was not taken until 5/15/44 when another agent dictated a letter to the Los Angeles Office requesting the lead be covered. As a direct result of this lead the fugitive was apprehended. Had action been taken at an earlier date much investigative activity in several different field offices would have been eliminated. Although the case was assigned to you, the first report was submitted under date of 4/5/44 by SA Richard E. Stephens. Based upon memorandum submitted by you it was indicated that a complaint was authorized in the case on 12/10/43 and filed on 12/11/43. Your daily report for 12/9/43, however, indicates that the action was taken on that date, and no activity in this case is reflected for 12/10/44. I would like an explanation for the serious delay in taking action on information showing the whereabouts of this individual, and also the inconsistencies between this file and your daily reports.

Mr. Glass: I could not at this time give any explanation for any inconsistencies in the matter. However, I do recall that when another agent from this office was in Spokane I was directed to turn over to him several cases, and that all serials, together with the assignment cards, were turned over to this agent. I thought the matter had been handled and had no reason to think the case was still assigned to me. Information was later furnished, I think from California, that this subject had been picked up. At that time, without even an assignment card in the case, I had the matter checked in the office, at which time it was found that this subject was a fugitive and that the matter was finally brought to a head.

Mr. Hendon: None of this shows an excuse for the delay in taking action looking to the location of this subject. The information as to his whereabouts was received on 11/29/43 and routed to you, and you were at least still handling the case in the middle of December, when a complaint was authorized and filed by you. In the interim, or immediately at that time, you should have taken action to see that the man was taken into custody upon the basis of the information in your possession. Your failure to do so, as previously pointed out, led to a great deal of unnecessary investigation and delay in the induction of a fugitive.

This case was assigned to you on 11/12/43 and was finally closed by the report of supervisor [] dated 1/15/44. Although assigned to you for two months you apparently did not follow the case or report same. Your daily report for 12/9/43 reflects that you did consult the U. S. Attorney and file a complaint on that date; however, the file reflects that this authority was obtained on 12/10/43 and the complaint filed on 12/11/43. Your daily report for 12/10/43 does not reflect such activity, and on the daily report for 12/11/43 you again indicate consultation with the U. S. Attorney but reflect the wrong file number for this case. I would like an explanation as to these errors.

Mr. Glass: I remember nothing about the matter and certainly could give no explanation a year later. However, the closing of the case by supervisor [] was a practice that was sometimes done where it was simply a matter of taking a small amount of information in the file and putting it into a report.

Mr. Hendon: 100-3965
JAPANESE EMPLOYEES
THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY CO.

Your daily report for 4/18/44 reflects that from 2:00 to 3:00 PM you contacted George Sexsmith of the Spokane Police Department relative to KINIA FUJITA, from 3:00 to 3:45 with Ellis Green at the Sheriff's Office, an interview with the subject at the Sheriff's Office from 3:45 to 5:00, and a consultation with the U. S. Attorney from 5:00 to 5:30. The only reference to this individual in this office is in the above-entitled file, which fails to reflect any work or activity on your part, although your daily report reflects 3½ hours of such work. Do you have any explanation for this apparent discrepancy?

Mr. Glass: I recall that either the U. S. Attorney or one of the Assistant U. S. Attorneys came down to our office and reported the case of this Japanese, who was arrested in a raid by the Police Department and was turned over to the Sheriff's Office. The U. S. Attorney had certain records in his office concerning this individual, and he wanted an agent to go and obtain this information from the subject. I now recall going first to the Police Department, where I was told the subject was located, but upon talking to Detective Sexsmith was sent to the Spokane County Sheriff's Office, where I found the information and turned it over to the U. S. Attorney's office. It was simply a matter of getting

Mr. Glass: certain questions answered that the U. S. Attorney was interested in at that time relative to this subject's presence in Spokane or whether he had violated certain travel regulations.

Mr. Hendon: Why did you not properly report your investigative activities?

Mr. Glass: Simply because I thought it was a matter which only the U. S. Attorney was interested in and the matter was cleared that very day.

Mr. Hendon: I would like to point out to you that if this matter was within the investigative jurisdiction of this Bureau it should have been appropriately reported after your inquiries were made. If the matter was not within the investigative jurisdiction of the FBI the inquiry should not have been made originally despite any request from the U. S. Attorney's office, since that office is not the administrator of this Bureau.

ALEX ROBERT LITZENBERGER
SELECTIVE SERVICE

This case was assigned to you on 9/29/43 and reassigned to SA Lamb on 7/28/44. Although assigned to you at the time, the first report submitted was by SA Richard E. Stephens covering investigation at Spokane under date of 1/25/44. Your daily report of 5/30/44 reflects activity in this case from 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM consisting of attempts to locate Litzenberger, a Mrs. Litzenberger, and an attempt to see Mrs. Nettie Kauffeldt, and a check of the records at the Spokane Police Department which in itself took 1½ hours. Your daily report for 5/31/44 reflects another attempt from 9:45 to 11:00 AM to contact Mrs. Litzenberger and an interview from 11:00 to 11:30 AM with Mrs. Kauffeldt. None of this investigative activity is as yet reported in this file, although your attention is called to the fact that under date of 4/5/44 by memorandum Agent Jensen indicated that he had already interviewed Mrs. Kauffeldt. The lead to interview Mrs. Litzenberger still remains uncovered.

I would like an explanation as to your delay in handling this case, your failure to report investigative activity thus far handled by you, and your duplication of interview with Mrs. Kauffeldt.

Mr. Glass: I recall very distinctly conducting this investigation. This daily report sets forth in a perfectly accurate way, as far as I can recall now, the exact time spent on this case. I recall that I was never able to locate Mrs. Litzenberger, the divorced wife of subject. I

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS TO

Mr. Glass: was of the impression that this information had been reported, although I am conscious of the fact now that all this investigation resulted in completely negative results. The purpose of the interview with Mrs. Kauffeldt, as I recall now, was to talk to her again, since I was led to believe that she was a friend of the subject and also a former landlady of the subject. I was of the further opinion that this subject might return to Spokane since I was led to believe that he was still in love with his wife; that his wife divorced him; and that he would still try to contact her or friends of hers.

Mr. Hendon: Information in the file indicates that the subject had a room for one month in 1941 with Mrs. Kauffeldt. Since she had been interviewed 28 days prior to your reinterview, it seems most questionable that the time necessary was worth the effort. Even though your other inquiries in this case were negative they should have been reflected in the file.

A review of your #3 register cards for the months of June, July and August, 1944, since you have returned to Seattle headquarters, reflects that on 7 days in the month of June when you were not assigned to surveillances or night duty you spent only a total of 24 hours and 40 minutes out of the office. In July for a total of 17 days, eliminating the special duty work, you spent but 31 hours and 15 minutes out of the office. For the month of August you spent on 17 days, 36 hours and 35 minutes out of the office. The percentage of time spent in the office, particularly during the months of June and July, 1944, is excessively high, and I would like any observations or comments you have to make in this regard.

Mr. Glass: Since my return to the Seattle Office from Spokane, most of the time that I have not been conducting outside work has been spent in the office preparing and dictating on cases, reviewing files on the Communist squad, attending Communist squad meetings. Practically all my work now requires that I stay in the office and review files to write reports in key figure cases. Most of the time in June and July spent in the office was done in an attempt to get rid of this hangover of Selective Service cases brought in from the Spokane resident agency.

Mr. Hendon: With reference to your last statement concerning the time necessary to close up the hangover Selective Service cases, why was it not possible for you to submit the necessary reports, utilizing the time you were assigned to night duty on June 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17, 1944?

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS TO

Mr. Glas: Let me state at this point in the record that during the week I served on night duty I frequently stood on my feet from 12 midnight until 5:00 AM pulling files for agents, ticklers for the supervisors, and filing away files in four or five different rooms. On three or four nights during this week I did not stop to eat my lunch until after 5 o'clock in the morning. The other time was spent doing work which is assigned to the night agent. Let me state further at this point that I was not used to sleeping in the daytime, and during this week on three or four days I was able to get only about three to four hours sleep and was almost a nervous wreck by the end of this week's assignment due to lack of sleep, the change of hours, and other worries which I had at the time concerning my brothers. There was no time at any time from 12 midnight until 8:00 AM that I had which I could have spent on these cases.

Mr. Hendon: Previously in this statement you have excused delinquencies upon the basis of the case load which you were carrying during the period. I have reviewed each case assigned to you during the period from 11/1/43 through 8/31/44, and have determined that your case load was not excessive at any time had you handled matters as required. During this entire period you were assigned but 153 cases, although your case load at one time totalled 79, this being on 1/1/44. 63 of these cases, however, had been carried over by you from the months of November, December, and previous assignments. Very few new cases were assigned to you during the course of any subsequent month, and your case load, which got down to 39 as of 6/1/44, was made up principally of carry-over cases. With 153 cases assigned to you over a 10-months period, this means that your average case load per month, had you been closing cases expeditiously, would have been 15.3. A tabulation of the complete number of interviews conducted by you in the 153 cases assigned, including contacts with U. S. Attorneys, filing of complaints, and similar activity, was 196. For a ten-month period this means that you averaged 19.6 interviews or contacts per month. In addition, however, there were two instances in which neighborhood investigations were conducted, and during this period it is realized that you worked on a bank robbery case. A spot check of your daily reports reveals that most of your work was being performed on cases assigned to you, and, taking everything into consideration, your work load was not great. A check of the disposition of the cases assigned to you reveals that 40 were RUC'd, 34 were closed, 34 were reassigned, 23 were administratively closed, 16 were closed by reports of other agents, and 6 are unaccounted for, making a total of the 153 cases assigned to you for the period. Of these cases, in 51 you did absolutely nothing, and in at least 49 no actual investigative work was

Mr. Hendon: performed but merely short reports based upon a file review, the filing of a complaint, or the checking of a docket were submitted by you. This leaves a maximum of 53 cases in ten months where any kind of investigative work was done, and in many of these only one or two cursory interviews were necessary on your part. Out of the 53 cases approximately 14 could be called completed investigations.

In a review of each of the 153 cases innumerable errors of delay, form, and substantive failures were observed in addition to those which have already been dictated on in specific case files in this statement. From this situation it appears that your work has been in a most unsatisfactory category and that the volume of completed work has been small.

Mr. Glass: In reply I would like to state that it is my candid opinion that no set of figures, however arranged, would be able to in any way describe my stay and my work in the Spokane resident agency. Soon after arrival there I found myself carrying a load of cases close to, if not exceeding, 100. Some time after this it is apparent that this case load was reduced somewhat, but during the 10-month period referred to above I would like to point out that during that time I spent approximately 30 days on a bank robbery case, during which time I checked approximately 126 hotels in Spokane, Washington myself, which apparently is not set out as interviews conducted. Also during this time I was at retraining and on annual leave for approximately another month, namely, from 4/21 until 5/17/44. Then from 6/3/44 until the latter part of July, 1944 my time was divided between the Selective Service squad, trying to close cases, working on surveillances, on both the Communist squad and the general squad, and in two instances I was called down by the No. 1 desk and sent out on an investigation which required approximately 3 days for the two cases, one of these cases requiring me to appear before the grand jury, where I wasted nearly a day after being summoned to testify before this grand jury. I should also like to point out that Selective Service cases are the type of cases that can not be closed like national defense cases. There are only three or four recognized and approved methods of closing these cases, and until one of those is arrived at the case has to remain in a pending status or be placed in a pending inactive status when leads have been exhausted.

Mr. Hendon: Taking all the above into consideration, it is pointed out that there is no adequate explanation for the failure to submit daily reports and #3 register cards as required. There is no adequate explanation for innumerable discrepancies between daily reports and periods for which made in investigative reports. There is no adequate explanation for the extreme delinquency in the handling of cases assigned to you,

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

9/19/44

Mr. Hendon: and an actual review of these cases definitely reflects that had you handled them as required they would have been closed out and your case load consequently kept at a low level. There is no adequate explanation for the apparent small volume of work actually turned out during your stay in the Spokane resident agency. Also, there has been no adequate explanation for substantive errors and failure to follow cases assigned to you. Some of these have been specifically cited and are merely examples of a similar condition existing in the other files which have been reviewed.

Mr. Glass: There is one thing further I would like to point out at this time. During the fall of 1943 and the winter of 1944 frequently I had to spend an entire morning consulting the U.S. Attorney and filing complaints in cases originating in the Walla Walla and Yakima territories, which were not assigned to me. This extra work frequently took until noon and my case load had to remain untouched during this time.

Mr. Hendon: As previously indicated, a check of your daily reports reflects that a comparatively small volume of such work was handled.

Mr. Glass, you indicated to me that upon one occasion when SAC Fletcher was in charge of this office he spent an entire day with you at the Spokane resident agency, assisting you in lining up and getting rid of some of your cases. Do you recall approximately when this was?

Mr. Glass: The occasion which I mentioned was not so much a matter of lining up and getting rid of cases, as a matter of helping me to set up a filing system which would help me to handle the volume of cases I had at that time. I am under the impression at this time that it occurred approximately in January, 1944.

Mr. Hendon: What led to his giving you this assistance?

Mr. Glass: I don't know if I can answer that. Agent Foley worked out a rather complicated system, having several card boxes for complaints filed, complaints dismissed, pending cases, closed cases and numerous other things, and for a while I tried to carry on Foley's system, but we decided to make it less complicated and Mr. Fletcher worked out for me a system of large manila envelopes, putting all serials in each case in an envelope and filing these cases numerically. I think at the same time we worked out a system of both numerical and alphabetical arrangement for handling that volume of cases.

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

9/19/44

Mr. Hendon: In our previous oral discussion I understood from you that Mr. Fletcher spent this day because you were bogged down and in need of assistance. Is this true?

Mr. Glass: Well, I could neither answer yes nor no. I appreciated very much the help he gave me. It was very helpful to me. There was some confusion with the system I had, and the one he worked out for me worked much better afterwards.

Mr. Hendon: Was his assistance given you at your request or on his own initiative?

Mr. Glass: As I recall, Mr. Fletcher was there for a speaking engagement at 8:00 o'clock that night, which necessitated his having to spend an entire day over there with practically nothing to do, and he asked me if there was any assistance he could give me and I mentioned I was having trouble with my filing system. He said, "Maybe I can help you," and when we got into the thing we decided to make a complete change-over, and that change took almost a whole day to perfect.

Mr. Hendon: Please answer my previous question. Was the assistance given you at your request or on his own initiative?

Mr. Glass: It was given at my request.

Mr. Hendon: Did you have a feeling at this time that your work was not progressing satisfactorily?

Mr. Glass: Yes, sir.

Mr. Hendon: In your letter of September 9, 1944 to the Director, you indicated that when you came back to Seattle from Spokane you had about fifty Selective Service cases to dispose of. Is this your present recollection?

Mr. Glass: Yes, sir.

Mr. Hendon: In this regard I would like to point out that I have checked the cases assigned to you as of June 1 and they totalled 39, 34 of which had been carried over from previous months, and only 5 of which had been assigned to you during the month of April. Do you have any additional observation in this regard?

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

9/19/44

Mr. Glass: I can simply state now that I had the serials for each case in separate envelopes and the envelopes, as I remember them, totalled approximately fifty.

Mr. Hendon: As indicated, an exact tabulation of your case assignments revealed 39. You stated further in your letter of September 9, 1944 that upon your arrival in Seattle you were put on the Communist squad and before you could clean up the Selective Service work you were put on night duty in the office. A check of the No. 3 register verifies that you were on night duty for seven days from June 11 through June 17, 1944. It is further indicated that after night duty you were loaned by the Communist squad to the general squad for a surveillance. A check of the No. 3 cards reveals that you were on surveillance duty on the following dates: June 21, 26, 28, 29 and 30, 1944. In addition, on June 27, 1944 you attended firearms training. Thus, in June you were on surveillance six days and on firearms one day. Since you got back to Seattle on June 8, you had seven working days in addition to those upon which you were on night duty or surveillance. On these seven days you were in the office at all times with the exception of 24 hours and 7 minutes. I would like to know why during this time you did not completely clear up the cases which you had brought back with you from Spokane.

Mr. Glass: With the other things that I did in the Seattle Office, I did not have sufficient time to close these cases during that period. This period in the office also included one meeting each week with the Communist squad, which ran from one to two hours each.

Mr. Hendon: A check of the No. 3 register for the month of July reflects that you were on surveillance on the following dates: July 3, 4, 7, 12, 13, 19, 20, 21 and on July 25 you attended firearms. The remainder of the month, or for 17 days, you were in the office, except for 31 hours and 15 minutes. Thus, for June and July you had 24 days free of night duty, surveillances or firearms during which time you were out of the office but 55 hours and 22 minutes, or the equivalent of 7 days. This leaves 17 whole days of time spent in the office. How did you utilize this time?

Mr. Glass: All the time spent in the office, as I recall now, was spent on preparation and dictation of the 25 cases, as well as other cases assigned to me before I was here and after arrival in the Seattle Office, together with other work which naturally and normally had to be performed, such as attendance at Communist squad meetings, and I think I also spent about one day making a check of the key anything or there was nothing for you to do except to have the case taken from you and re-assigned upon your return to Seattle. One case is still pending and properly assigned to you at this time. Do you have any comments in this regard?

TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

9/19/44

Mr. Glass: No, sir.

Mr. Hendon: Why did you not make arrangements with your supervisor to have the 16 cases referred to immediately above re-assigned by indicating to him that you had done no work thereupon or there was no work to do?

Mr. Glass: Upon returning to this office, as time permitted I took the cases one by one and either dictated a closing report, pending report, letter or memorandum, or upon review of the file attached a note thereto, requesting that the case be re-assigned.

Mr. Hendon: As previously indicated, during the month of June you had seven days to expend on office work and during July 17 days to expend on office work. My review of the 39 cases definitely reflects that their simpleness and the small volume of work existing for you to do in these cases should have permitted you to clear them up in the seven days you had free in June, with plenty of time to spare. Do you have any explanation to make in regard to your failure to expeditiously clear up the work and properly utilize your time on these delinquent matters?

Mr. Glass: No, sir, I do not think these cases could have been closed in the seven days in June, because I used the time as best I could to close these cases. Frequently I would review a case and before I could dictate on it I would be either sent on a surveillance or put on something else which required me to review the case again before I could dictate on the matter. The assignments given to me created such a confusion in my mind that I never felt I could settle down on anything and be free to work as I wanted to.

Mr. Hendon: Mr. Glass, as a result of my personal review of those cases, I am of the definite opinion that you grossly failed to organize your work in this regard or to utilize your time to any advantage. I am of the definite opinion that the result, both during the months of June and July, insofar as the time spent in the office is concerned, was a gross waste of effort, and that if you had handled your file reviews and dictation in the manner to be expected of any agent in this service you could have cleared the cases up very promptly and been available for additional assignments during the sixty-day period.

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

9/19/44

Mr. Glass: I am equally and definitely of the opinion that no time was wasted except time wasted caused by the confusion resulting in shifting me continually from one squad to another so that I could not settle down and do my work as I wanted to.

Mr. Hendon: This is no adequate answer. It is necessary for any agent to handle varying types of assignments. You had definite assignments for surveillances and definite assignment for night duty, and with the exception of time spent on the three additional cases in Seattle, your time was your own. Had you organized your effort properly there should have been no confusion and no difficulty.

Is there anything else you care to add to this statement?

Mr. Glass: I would like to add this. I spent four months in the San Francisco Office under Mr. Pieper, under whom I received two efficiency reports with which no complaint could be made, either by me or by the Bureau. During that time I was used, even though a new agent, on 10 or 12 or 15 days of raids on the Japs and the Germans. Upon arrival in the Seattle Office in May, 1942 I spent approximately four months with a fairly heavy case load in and around the Seattle territory, and no complaint was ever made of my work. Then I was assigned to road territory, where I spent approximately one year in the Longview-Vancouver territory. During that time I handled the cases assigned to me in such a way that no complaint was made of any of the investigations conducted at any time. It was only after being made resident agent at Spokane, Washington that the case load was too heavy and many other things interfered so that I began to have difficulty getting my work done in a way that was suitable to myself, to say nothing of the Bureau.

I am thoroughly convinced, and I think that all the agents of this office who know or have known me during my two years and four months in this office know, that I have tried to conduct my cases in a proper manner, and that they have the same regard for me that they have for the other agents in this office. I could not refrain from stating that I think I have been singled out, the reason I am not able to state.

Mr. Hendon: Just what do you mean by the statement that you have been singled out?

Mr. Glass: By that statement I mean simply this. I have been in this Bureau almost three years. I received two special efficiency reports under SAC Pieper to which no one could object. I worked in this office four months in the spring and summer of 1942, to which no objection was raised. I spent one year on the road in the Vancouver, Washington territory, to which no objection was raised, and it was only after being brought back from the Spokane resident agency that I was called into the SAC's office and told, "The Bureau has requested a special efficiency report on you and there it is." I had never before been called in on any matter, and it appears to me at this time that it was after an examination of my work box on July 26, 1944, a condition was found which I myself knew was improper but at the same time I felt that I had not had sufficient time and freedom so that this situation could have been other than unsatisfactory at that time.

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

I am of the very definite opinion that if a delinquency anywhere near the seriousness which has been pointed out to me during this inspection existed, that it should have been brought to my attention before any special efficiency report was written on me. That's why I considered it an underhand method to write this special efficiency report before it was brought to my attention in any manner, and also I resented the fact that I was told, "The Bureau has requested a special efficiency report on you and there it is."

Mr. Hendon: Mr. Glass, you have indicated that in January and during other periods when assigned to Spokane, that you realized your work was not progressing satisfactorily and that you were not satisfied with it. Is this not true?

Mr. Glass: Yes, sir.

Mr. Hendon: Is it not true that you were sent many routing slips and memoranda from this office, calling your attention to delays in the handling of your cases?

Mr. Glass: Yes, sir.

Mr. Hendon: Did you not realize from this that you were not taking action as expeditiously as necessary?

Mr. Glass: No, sir.

Mr. Hendon: Do I understand from this answer that you looked upon the routing slips and memoranda merely as a routine proposition?

STATEMENT OF SA J. LUTHER GLASS
TO INSPECTOR ROBERT C. HENDON

9/19/44

Mr. Glass: I looked upon the sending of the routing slips as a required function of a supervisor, which was to bring these matters to my attention, and as soon as other matters afforded me time, I should comply with the reasons for sending such routing slips.

Mr. Hendon: Is it not true that in many instances it was necessary to send you several follow-ups before matters were handled?

Mr. Glass: That's true and had always been true of the agent handling the Selective Service in that office.

Mr. Hendon: After your return to Seattle was it not called to your attention that there was delay in your cleaning up the Spokane work?

Mr. Glass: On one occasion supervisor [] called me on the interoffice telephone and told me that I ought to get those reports in as soon as possible. I told him at that time that I would. On another occasion, while I was on surveillance at Renton, Washington, when I had called into the office and asked if there were any messages, supervisor [] told me that I should take off two or three days in order to try to get these Selective Service cases cleared up. These constitute the only times that anyone in this office brought it to my attention that those cases should be cleared up.

Mr. Hendon: Is it true that you previously indicated that you realized on July 26, 1944 that your work was in an unsatisfactory condition?

Mr. Glass: Yes, sir.

Mr. Hendon: In view of all of the above, was it not clear to you that your work was not up to the necessary Bureau standards?

Mr. Glass: It was.

Mr. Hendon: Do you realize as a result of our discussion and the errors of form and substance which have been pointed out to you that your work has not been satisfactory, whatever be the causes, over a long period of time.

Mr. Glass: As I have stated before, I realized that the work was not satisfactory. It was not satisfactory to me. It caused me considerable worry throughout many months of this time. Let me state further that I have known that this was a bad situation for a long time, but

TO INSPECTOR ROBERT G. HENDON

9/19/44

I have never been able to see how it could be otherwise. I do not believe that any other agent in this office with my years of experience in the Bureau would have conducted it in a better fashion had he had the case load I had, had he had his time devoted to other things on so many occasions and to such lengths, and also had the personal worries that I had to confront all during this period. The agents associated with me, all of them in the Spokane resident agency, knew that I was carrying a heavy load and also appreciated the fact that I had worries which probably no other agent in the Bureau has. I seriously doubt if there is another agent in the Bureau whose family is scattered to the four corners of the earth like my family has been scattered as a result of this war.

Mr. Hendon: Have you been permitted to make full and complete answers to each of the questions asked you?

Mr. Glass: Yes, sir.

STATEMENT -- Special Agent in Charge LELAND V. BOARDMAN to Inspector R. C. HENDON

RE: J. LUTHER GLASS, Special Agent - Assigned Seattle

Mr. HENDON: When did you assume charge of the Seattle Office?

Mr. BOARDMAN: March 3, 1944.

Mr. HENDON: Special Agent J. LUTHER GLASS was assigned to the Resident Agency at Spokane in September, 1943 and was assigned to that point until brought back to Seattle in June, 1944. What specifically lead you to change his headquarters?

Mr. BOARDMAN: During supervisory conference discussions of the work of the respective resident agents Special Agent J. LUTHER GLASS was pointed out as being an agent that had difficulty in handling an average case load. His field supervisor pointed out that the reports when finally submitted were generally adequate, but they were usually submitted in a very delinquent status and after more than an average amount of follow-up had been necessary. It was suggested that if this agent's work were delinquent to a greater degree than the average work of the resident agents that the field supervisors cease assigning him work for a period of time to permit him to catch up on the more delinquent work. As subsequent discussions concerning this same agent did not reflect adequate improvement I recommended to the Bureau that his headquarters be changed to Seattle in order that he could be afforded closer supervision.

Mr. HENDON: After he reported to the Seattle office his records indicate that he was utilized on night duty and on technical surveillances a good portion of the time in June, July and August. At any time during this period did agent GLASS indicate to you a need for freedom from such assignments in order to complete the reports on the cases still assigned to him from the Spokane area?

Mr. BOARDMAN: He did not.

Mr. HENDON: Under date of July 29 you submitted a special efficiency report rating Agent GLASS in the "fair" category. What prompted this special rating?

Mr. BOARDMAN: For some period after Agent GLASS's transfer he failed to submit investigative reports reflecting the results of investigation conducted while at Spokane. As he had been afforded more than an adequate opportunity to have dictated the results of this investigation I felt that he was no longer entitled to a rating of "Good" and rated him "Fair".

Mr. HENDON: Was or was not this rating submitted after a specific request from the Bureau for efficiency reports on the poor agents in this office?

Mr. BOARDMAN: It was.

Mr. HENDON: Why, if this man's work was not satisfactory, did you not submit such a rating prior to a special request from the Bureau?

Mr. BOARDMAN: The conditions giving rise to the change in this man's status were approximately synonymous to the Bureau's request. A special rating would have been initiated by myself had not the Bureau's request come at approximately the same time.

Mr. HENDON: Prior to this time had you called the delinquencies of this agent to his specific attention?

Mr. BOARDMAN: No.

Mr. HENDON: To your knowledge were his delinquencies called to his attention by any of your supervisory staff?

Mr. BOARDMAN: Yes, at my express direction both field supervisors H. H. McKEE and [redacted] did so.

Mr. HENDON: When was this?

Mr. BOARDMAN: At approximately the time he returned from Spokane it was pointed out to him by Special Agent McKEE that he should clean up his work as quickly as possible in order that he could proceed on Communist investigative matters. Subsequent thereto I inquired of Field Supervisor [redacted] as to whether or not Agent GLASS had completed all of his pending matters at Spokane, and on being advised that he had not I pointed out to Supervisor [] that this should be done at once. Finally when I ascertained that he still had not completed all of his work I instructed Field Supervisor H.H. McKEE to immediately examine the road work box of this agent noting any delinquencies contained therein and to report the results to me.

b6

Mr. HENDON:

Why was he not specifically told when moved back from Spokane that this was being done due to the unsatisfactory progress of his work?

Mr. BOARDMAN:

I desired to personally have an opportunity to observe this agent before talking to him generally of his below average work.

Mr. HENDER:

In fairness to the agent do you not think that it would have been more proper to have specifically told him that his work was not up to standard which lead to the transfer?

Mr. BOARDMAN:

Yes, he would have been more definitely aware of the reasons for the transfer had this procedure been followed.

Mr. HENDON:

I have called attention to the fact that during the months of December, 1943 and January, February, March, April, May, and June, 1944 this agent failed to submit numerous daily reports or No. 3 register cards with the result that it is impossible to check back on much of his work. Why was not this delinquency on the agent's part discovered by you and steps taken to correct it?

Mr. BOARDMAN:

I did discover in considering this agent's delinquencies to permit the submission of a rating dated July 29th that certain daily reports during the period of May and June, 1944 had not been submitted and the agent was immediately notified and requested to submit these daily reports. After Agent [] had called to this agent's attention on two separate occasions his failure to comply with these instructions and after I had personally twice instructed him to submit a memorandum on his failure to turn in the required reports he finally complied on September 13, 1944.

Mr. HENDON:

In the special efficiency report of Agent GLASS which was submitted as of July 29, 1944 you state "His firearms record is average for an agent of his experience." What was the basis of this statement?

Mr. BOARDMAN:

The basis for this statement was the observation of the administrative firearms agents and my own observation.

Mr. HENDON:

A reference to the firearms record of Agent GLASS reflects the following scores during the firearms periods for the year 1944:

| | H.S. | PPC | S.G. | .30 | M.G. |
|----------|------|-----|------|-----|------|
| April | | | 100 | 84 | |
| In-Serv. | | | | | |
| April | 96 | 92 | 90 | 76 | 100 |
| June | 93 | 91 | 100 | | 80 |
| July | E | 88 | | 79 | 90 |
| Aug. | E | 93 | 90 | | 90 |

In view of the uniformly high scores which this agent has made I do not understand his rating as average in firearms and would like a further explanation from you including an explanation of what you specifically mean by stating the rating was based upon the "observation" of the firearms men and you.

Mr. BOARDMAN:

As the Bureau is aware administrative firearms men handle firearms training in the field divisions. These administrative firearms men observe the respective capabilities of an agent to handle firearms. As I do not see a particular agent each month, not being on the firearms range each of the three days that training is given during the particular month, I must necessarily consult the administrative firearms supervisors in determining the efficiency of a particular agent. I did this so far as Agent GLASS is concerned. I have observed Agent GLASS on the firearms range. With reference to the Inspector's question as to the basis for my observation that his firearms ability is average for one of his experience I wish to state that I agree that his scores are higher than the average for one of his experience. Neither myself nor the firearms supervisors consulted, however, have been impressed that he has a better than average range demeanor, knowledge of handling of the weapons or ability to conduct himself generally in this field of endeavor. In stating that Agent GLASS was average in firearms ability several factors other than marksmanship ability were taken into consideration, i.e. knowledge of safety rules and regulations, demeanor on the range, and knowledge of proper methods of handling the weapons, mental alertness, and ability to make quick decisions.

Mr. HENDON:

Did you at the time of preparing the efficiency report consult his firearms record card?

Mr. BOARDMAN:

I did.

Mr. HENDON:

It has been ascertained that as of June 1, 1944 Agent GLASS had assigned to him thirty-nine (39) cases, this being just prior to reporting back to Seattle from the Spokane Resident Agency. A check of these 39 cases reveals that in 16 thereof he had never done any work or there was nothing for him to do at the time. Although he reported back to Seattle on June 8 these cases were not taken from him and reassigned until the latter part of July and early part of August. I would like an explanation as to why these cases were not immediately reassigned upon his leaving the Spokane area.

Mr. BOARDMAN:

At the time Agent GLASS was recommended for transfer back to Seattle it was determined at a supervisory conference that this agent should be placed on Communist investigative work in the event he were returned to Seattle. It was pointed out by me at the supervisory conference that this agent should not be assigned any additional work; that he should be required to clean up his work at Spokane and return to Seattle as soon as possible after the Bureau had actually transferred him. I agree with the Inspector that this agent should have been relieved of those cases that required no investigative effort or reports from him.

b6

Mr. HENDON:

Who in this office had the initial responsibility for seeing that the cases were reassigned from him?

Mr. BOARDMAN:

Field Supervisor [] was charged with the responsibility of this agent inasmuch as Agent GLASS was assigned primarily to Selective Service during the period of time GLASS was in Spokane.

Mr. HENDON:

During any discussions which you had with Supervisor DUNDY in reference to GLASS cleaning up his Spokane work after his return to Seattle did you inquire of him or instruct him in reference to the reassignment of these cases?

b6

Mr. BOARDMAN: I inquired of Agent [] on two separate occasions the status of GLASS' work for the express purpose of determining whether he had cleaned up his work. GLASS' negligence in complying with [] instructions in this respect led to the submission of the July 27 rating.

Mr. HENDON: It is understood after you assumed charge of this office you changed the administrative set-up and instituted a system whereby the field supervisors were responsible not only for the investigative activities of the Special Agent personnel, but also their administrative activities. Under this reorganization, to whom was Agent GLASS assigned?

Mr. BOARDMAN: Field Supervisor []

b6

Mr. HENDON: Was Supervisor [] advised of this assignment?

Mr. BOARDMAN: I have no positive recollection at this time the manner in which he was advised. I have for approximately the past three years followed the administrative procedure which I instituted almost immediately after my arrival in this Division. The procedure is that the Field Supervisors in addition to supervising the investigative work of Agents are expected to review the daily reports and the Number 3 register of those Agents assigned to their squads to permit them to gain a complete perspective of the Agents' work. I specifically recall that in the conference where I designated the desks as being Desk #1, AGAS CURTIS, Desk #2, W. C. RYAN, Desk #3, [] and Desk #4, [] that the Agent roster was reviewed for the purpose of ascertaining to what type of assignments each Agent was assigned. Based on the information furnished by the supervisory staff, we arrived at a determination as to what desk an Agent in question would be assigned. It is my recollection that during the course of this discussion, Agent GLASS being engaged on Selective Service work, was assigned to Field Supervisor [] desk.

Mr. HENDON: Why was not this confirmed by written record?

Mr. BOARDMAN: The desk break-up was reduced to writing. The assignment of Agents was not reduced to writing at that time nor at any time since due to the fact that assignments of Agents are continually shifting. The manner in which these assignments are handled

Mr. Hendon: In regard to your statement concerning the other cases assigned to you after your arrival at Seattle, it is pointed out that with the exception of one sabotage case assigned to you on June 12, which was closed as of July 3, 1944 and which required investigative activity on your part for two days, a total of 17 100 cases were assigned to you during the month of June, and all after June 20. Each of these cases was closed administratively during the month of July without your having performed any work whatsoever on them. One case was assigned to you on July 21, 1944 which required but six interviews and was closed by you on August 3, 1944. A third case was assigned to you, requiring investigative activity on your part on June 19 and 20. It therefore appears that you had very little additional work above that which you brought with you from Spokane, which required office activity. As a matter of fact, is it not true that you had but these three additional cases mentioned?

Mr. Glass: That is true, sir, with the exception of the Communist cases, on which I did very little, if any, outside investigation, but during that period I reviewed practically all of these files, together with a lot of general Communist work, in order to learn something about the Communist set-up. A lot of file review was done on the 100-2303 file in order to become oriented into the work of the Communist squad.

Mr. Hendon: Nevertheless you stated that you did not have time to clear up the Spokane cases. Is it not true that you were free, with perhaps some slight exceptions during the entire period of time spent in the office during the months of June and July to expend your effort on the Spokane cases?

Mr. Glass: Yes, that is true.

Mr. Hendon: Mr. Glass, I have reviewed each of the 39 cases brought back with you from Spokane, and I have reviewed all the work performed by you on these 39 cases since your return to Seattle. You submitted 16 reports ranging from one-half page to four pages and totaling 36½ pages. You submitted four memoranda totaling two pages and wrote two letters totaling 1½ pages. Therefore your total output was 40 pages. In 16 instances only a most simple review of the file was required for the preparation of the report. In 11 cases there was delay on your part in submitting the report, this delay going back as far as October, 1943. In other words, in 11 of these cases the reports should have been submitted long before your return to Seattle. In 16 of the 39 cases you had never done

Mr. HENDON: Is there any other statement that you care to make?

Mr. BOARDMAN: No.

STATEMENT of Field Supervisor []
to Inspector ROBERT C. HENDON

Mr. HENDON: Mr. [] what is your capacity in the Seattle Field Division?

Mr. []: I am Field Supervisor presently in charge of Selective Service, Bureau applicant, and Servicemen's Dependents Allowance Act investigations.

Mr. HENDON: How long have you served in this position?

Mr. []: Approximately two years.

Mr. HENDON: During this period of time Special Agent J. LUTHER GLASS has been a resident Agent at Spokane, Washington. During his assignment there was he under your general supervision?

Mr. []: His Selective Service work was, and his primary assignment at Spokane was on Selective Service cases.

Mr. HENDON: Did you generally have responsibility, therefore, in connection with his activities?

b6

Mr. []: During the administration of SAC FLETCHER I had the responsibility of the supervision of Agent GLASS's investigative activities but had no responsibility as to administrative matters. In other words I did not have responsibility for the review of his daily reports and matters of that type. Insofar as the responsibility during SAC BOARDMAN's administration is concerned after he assumed office in the Seattle Field Division in March, 1944 I will state the facts as recalled by me.

Mr. BOARDMAN soon after taking charge of the office instituted a change in the administrative set-up insofar as primary supervisory responsibility is concerned. He explained that agents for administrative purposes were to be assigned to the supervisors' desks in the office; agents working on Selective Service primarily would be assigned to the Selective Service or No. 4 desk. At about the same time, however, plans were discussed with reference to the future assignments of agents. At this time Agent CLASS was tentatively assigned for future investigative work to the General Squad. The Chief Clerk was furnished a record whereby she might route administrative as well as investigative matters to the proper desks. On this list Agent CLASS's name appears under the heading "General Assignment", indicating that administrative matters concerning Agent CLASS should be routed over the No. 1 desk, that is the desk of the Assistant Special Agent in Charge. It is not clear in my mind that it was intended that the No. 4 or Selective Service desk should supervise the administrative matters regarding Agent CLASS. It is, of course, logical in view of the organization explained and with the few months experience since I can readily understand that during the interim prior to CLASS's actual assignment to general investigative matters at Seattle his administrative matters should have been routed over the No. 4 desk.

Mr. HENDON:

Did you take any steps to clarify in your mind the confusion which apparently existed as to your responsibility in regard to Agent CLASS?

Mr. []

My recollection of that is this. From the time the new organization was instituted I was thinking of the situation as it was contemplated in the new assignment schedule. In the case of another agent who was to continue as theretofore in a road work territory I did at a later time specifically ask at a supervisors conference whether his work should be assigned for administrative purposes to the No. 4 desk. This is the case of Special Agent RICHARD E. STERNES and the answer in that case was that his administrative matters should receive attention of my desk. That matter was not elaborated upon at that time insofar as Agent CLASS was concerned.

Mr. HENDON:

b6

The records indicate that daily reports submitted by Agent CLASS shortly after the changed system of administrative responsibility were routed by the Chief Clerk's Office to the Assistant Special Agent in Charge who in turn sent them to you. Did not this raise the question as to your responsibility for his administrative matters and should it not have lead you to get the possible confusion straightened out?

Mr. []

That is a conclusion which you or the Bureau perhaps can make much better than I, and with my present experience I would not hesitate to say definitely that those circumstances would now raise in my mind the question of responsibility for GLASS's administrative work.

Mr. HENDON: Irrespective of your responsibility over the administrative matters did you retain the responsibility for his investigative activities until his return to Seattle?

Mr. [] Yes, insofar as my classifications were concerned.

Mr. HENDON: After his return from Spokane on June 8 did you still have the responsibility for his handling and disposal of cases which had been assigned to him at Spokane?

Mr. [] Yes.

b6

Mr. HENDON: It is observed that the annual efficiency rating submitted on Agent GLASS as of March 31, 1944 was prepared by you. In this report you rated GLASS as good. Upon what did you base this rating?

Mr. [] Primarily upon the reports contained in the personnel file for the preceding year.

Mr. HENDON: Did you take into consideration your personal knowledge and observation of his work passing over your desk?

Mr. [] I did.

b6

Mr. HENDON: Do you consider this work to be in a good status?

Mr. [] I would not have rated it good, however, I had been instructed in connection with preparing the annual efficiency reports, which were the first such reports dictated by me upon other agents (and the instructions from the Bureau specified) that the rating should be a cumulation of the estimates made of the agent for the entire year. The ratings previously contained in the file, covering as they did substantially the entire year, could not result in other than a good rating on the annual efficiency report. I mentioned this problem specifically to one of the other supervisors, stating my view that it would be necessary to rate the agent as good notwithstanding the remarks in the report which were not favorable.

Mr. HENDON: That was your personal estimate of his status at that time based upon his work?

Mr. []: It is hard to disassociate from my mind at this time the additional information that now is known concerning the agent's record. I believe, however, that my rating on March 31, 1944 based exclusively upon my experience with the agent would have been fair.

b6

Mr. HENDON: What delinquencies would have lead you to this rating?

Mr. []: The low volume of production, and the agent's failure to follow through and to accord timely attention to his cases.

Mr. HENDON: Did you at the time advise Agent GLASS that his work was not satisfactory?

Mr. []: I recall no instance in which I stated to GLASS that his work generally was unsatisfactory. In specific cases in a considerable number of instances by routing slips and memoranda it was called to Agent GLASS's attention that proper action was not being taken to complete his investigations.

Mr. HENDON: Did you call to the attention of either SAC HILTON or SAC DONALDAN at any time the unsatisfactory condition of Agent GLASS's work?

Mr. []: Yes, I called it to the attention of each Special Agent in Charge.

Mr. HENDON: When was this done?

b6

Mr. []: I called it to the attention of Special Agent in Charge HILTON at a supervisors conference. I believe the period was about two months before he left this division. I told him that GLASS just did not seem to get his work completed. I was sending frequent reminders of the necessity for continuing his investigative work. I called it to the attention of Special Agents in Charge DONALDAN also at a supervisors conference during his early assignment at the Seattle Field Division when the conference was discussing the new assignments of agents. Mr. DONALDAN and I concurred that it would be advisable to return Agent GLASS for assignment at Seattle.

Mr. HENSON: Did you review with Agent GLASS the cases assigned to him at any time?

Mr. []: I believe not.

Mr. HENSON: Why was this not done?

Mr. []: The frequent routing slips to Agent GLASS had called to his attention in specific cases the need for additional attention. I realize now under our present administrative procedure that a review of all cases at one time is desired and necessary. At the time prior to March 1, 1944 it was not made clear to me that I as supervisor of Selective Service should review this agent's cases with him.

Mr. HENSON: The routing slips and memoranda to which you refer dealt substantially with time delinquencies in handling cases. Did you at any time call to the attention of Agent GLASS or to the attention of the Special Agent in Charge substantive delinquencies in his investigation?

Mr. []: I believe I did call to Agent GLASS's attention such instances. I do not recall specific instances. It has always been my custom to call to the agent's attention either orally or by notation on dictation the error requiring correction as reflected in reports submitted.

Mr. HENSON: Did you at any time have any discussion with Agent GLASS as to the reasons for his transfer back to Seattle from Spokane after the return of Agent GLASS to Seattle.

Mr. []: No.

Mr. HENSON: Did you do anything to expedite his submission of reports and the cleaning up of his hang-over work.

Mr. []: I did.

b6

Mr. HENSON: What specifically did you do?

Mr. []: Soon after his return to Seattle I called to his attention the necessity for dictating all completed work and disposing of all assignments connected with the Spokane Resident Agency. Some days later I discussed the matter with Field Supervisor H. H. McKEE and was advised by him that arrangements would be made for GLASS to work continuously on his dictation. I advised GLASS accordingly and told him that he should immediately dictate and continue the dictation until completed.

b6

Mr. HENDON: Did you call to the attention of the Special Agent in Charge Agent GLASS's delay in this regard?

Mr. []: I do not recall that I did so.

Mr. HENDON: Did you review the cases assigned to GLASS at this point?

Mr. []: No. I did not.

Mr. HENDON: Your attention is called to the fact that Agent GLASS had assigned to him at the time he returned to Seattle the total of thirty-nine (39) cases. In 16 of these 39 cases he had never done anything or there was nothing to do except have the cases taken from him and reassigned. These reassignments were not made, however, until the latter part of July and in some instances the early part of August. What explanation do you have for this administrative failure?

Mr. []: On the first occasion of contacting Agent GLASS following his return to Seattle I instructed that he should immediately return to no assignment cards in any cases which could be unassigned or reassigned at any time not depending upon his dictation.

b6

Mr. HENDON: Did you follow him on this matter?

Mr. []: No, I did not.

Mr. HENDON: Why not?

Mr. []: I depended upon him to follow instructions which he had been given.

Mr. HENDON: I have completely reviewed each case assigned to Agent GLASS during the period from November 1, 1943 to August 31, 1944 and have ascertained that only a total of 153 cases, practically all of which were Selective Service matters, were assigned to him. The reports submitted in these cases reflect but 196 interviews or contacts, which is an average of 19.6 interviews per month or less than one per day. In 51 of these cases absolutely nothing was done by CLASS and in at least 49 other cases no actual investigative work was performed, but he merely submitted short reports based on a file review, the filing of a complaint or a check of the docket. This leaves a maximum of 53 cases in ten months in which any kind of investigative work was done, and in many of those cases only one or two cursory interviews were required. Out of 53 cases approximately 14 could be called completed investigations. In other words his total volume of work was extremely unsatisfactory and should have been apparent to you as his reports crossed your desk. Do you have any observation in this regard?

Mr. []

Agent CLASS was not assigned exclusively to the investigation of matters coming over my desk. His primary assignment was Detective Service. Inasmuch as cases other than those supervised by my desk were supervised on other desks in the office I did not have a complete picture of the work conducted by this agent.

Mr. LENDON:

b6
A check of the daily reports submitted by Agent CLASS against the periods for which made in his reports reveals innumerable discrepancies. From a review of these investigative reports it is apparent that in innumerable instances no work could possibly have been performed by Agent CLASS on the dates reflected in the periods for which made. This was a general condition. In other words even though the substance in the report reflected nothing more than the filing of a complaint and material based upon a file review the period for which made has carried five and six different dates. What explanation do you have for not noting these discrepancies and taking action for their correction?

Mr. []:

I recall taking note of some such instances. In none of these, however, could I conclude from the report alone that no investigative attention had been given to the case on each of the dates included in the period. I took no action to verify the investigative period.

Mr. LENDON:

Do you now understand that it was your responsibility as a supervisor to call this to the attention of the Special Agent in Charge or to check the dates shown in the periods for which made since you admit you were on notice as to possible errors against the agent's daily reports and No. 3 register cards.

b6

Mr. []

If the circumstances brought to my mind a possible error I certainly was on notice to check daily reports and other information to verify the investigative period and to bring the discrepancies to the attention of the Special Agent in Charge. I did not mean to indicate above, however, that I questioned the accuracy of the investigative period. I only noted isolated instances of what appeared to be unusual investigative periods, but the thought did not at that time occur to me that the agent had misrepresented them and I assumed that he was accurate even though the period did seem unusual.

Mr. BELSON:

This condition was so general in the reports submitted by Agent GLASS I am of the definite opinion that you should have been put on notice to check the matter completely. You had that responsibility. Further, in a review of these cases it was observed that habitually where a complaint had been issued for a Selective Service delinquent and the man was taken into custody by the Marshal, Agent GLASS failed to ever interview the subject to determine the degree of wilfulness. Do you have any explanation for not taking steps to correct this failure on his part?

Mr. []

Yes. Prior to my attendance at the Selective Service Supervisors Conference at the Bureau during the month of July this year it was the practice of this office in investigation of Selective Service cases to omit interviewing the subject in the event the appropriate U.S. Attorney had already instructed that the subject be held for induction and that he be released in case of rejection because he would not be prosecuted. This practice was based upon the logic that the interviews served no purpose since the U. S. Attorney had already foreclosed the possibility of prosecution. I knew insofar as the U. S. Attorney's office at Spokane, Washington was concerned that the usual decision of the U. S. Attorney was that the subject be held for induction and that prosecution would not be entertained in the event he was taken to the induction station. Consistent with the practice of this office it was not unusual that in case after case agent GLASS in his report failed to indicate that the subject was interviewed. The procedure has been completely changed at the present time and subjects are regularly interviewed.

Mr. HENDON:

A review of these cases assigned to Agent GLASS reveal them to be in a generally deplorable condition from the substantive as well as the form standpoint. I at this time desire to point out to you typical errors and to receive from you an explanation as to why these cases were not more closely supervised by you.

SELFISH SERVICE

b6
This case was assigned to Agent GLASS on November 7, 1943 and reassigned to Special Agent RAY LAMB on July 14, 1944. For a period of eight months Agent GLASS failed to submit a report in this case. Confidential information was received under date of December 8, 1943 indicating that the subject was employed at the Sacramento Electric Company in Sacramento, California. No action was taken by Agent GLASS upon this serial until July 12, 1944 or six months later. Had this information been acted upon promptly the fugitive who is still at large would have been immediately located as reflected by the report of Special Agent [redacted] dated at San Francisco September 15, 1944, which shows that from the above employment the fugitive was traced to a San Francisco Hotel where he resided until June 11, 1944. I would like an explanation as to why the information was not acted upon and appropriately followed up.

Mr. [redacted]:

The memorandum of confidential information referred to was immediately routed by me to GLASS with the suggestion that a complaint, if not already filed, should be filed. Undoubtedly I had in mind that process should be issued before the San Francisco Division was requested to conduct its investigation. The complaint was actually filed on December 21, 1943. Routing slips were directed by me to GLASS on January 17 and February 15, 1944. There appears definitely to have been an omission in not following up on this lead. My only explanation can be that to follow up with GLASS or to take action to direct a lead to the San Francisco Division would obviously require that the supervisor have knowledge of all the details of each investigation on his desk. I realize that it does not excuse a supervisor that he fails to have such knowledge. At the time this lead was received, however, there were probably about 800 to 1,000 cases being supervised on my desk.

Mr. HENDON: 25-4058 SAMUEL MORRIS ZANE - FUGITIVE

b6
This case was assigned to Agent CLASS from November 4, 1943 until finally unassigned on July 24, 1944. A great deal of investigation has been carried on by this and auxiliary offices looking to the whereabouts of the fugitive subject. The report of Agent CLASS dated July 24, 1944 sets forth no leads. Your attention is called to the fact that this fugitive is presently over thirty-eight years of age. In addition the report of SA GEORGE K. HANSEN dated at Seattle March 11, 1943 reflects information that this subject has a wooden leg and there is other information in the file indicating that he was suffering severely from arthritis. Although this information has been in the possession of this office for a long period of time no steps have been taken to definitely check out the man's physical condition or to bring this condition to the attention of the Selective Service Board. Had this been done much investigative effort looking to the location of subject might have been avoided and the delinquency removed. This action should now be taken, and I would like an explanation as to your failure to do so previously.

Mr. [] Undoubtedly steps indicated by you should have been taken, and there was an omission on the part of the supervisor that it was not so directed. This omission was undoubtedly the result of the supervisor's failure to check the file as closely as he should have. Corrective action is being taken immediately.

Mr. HENDON: 25-5133 LEO JOSEPH TAYLOR

b6
This case was opened at Seattle on March 16, 1943, assigned to Agent CHAPPELL March, 18, 1943, to Agent FOLEY May 19, 1943, unassigned November 16, 1943, and assigned to Agent CLASS on January 18, 1944 and finally closed by him through his report of July 10, 1944. It appears from this file that this case could have been closed upon receipt of a letter from the U. S. Attorney on June 16, 1943 indicating that since the delinquent was forty years of age and could not then be inducted this office was being notified that no further investigation was necessary.

Mr. [] This case should have been closed upon receipt of advice from the U. S. Attorney in his letter dated June 16, 1943 that no further investigation was necessary. The fact that it was not

With reference to those reports not submitted by him prior to May I have no excuse to offer except to state that the policy of the office is that the daily reports are to be periodically inspected for the specific purpose of determining that they are there. It is apparent that there was a failure in this instance.

Mr. HENDON:

I have reviewed all of the daily reports submitted by this agent and all of the 153 cases assigned to him during the period November 1, 1943 to August 31, 1944. A review of these cases reveals innumerable errors and discrepancies in the periods for which made, innumerable and inexcusable delays in the handling and bringing to a conclusion his cases and serious substantive failures in acting upon information which might lead to the apprehension of Selective Service fugitives and in the prevention of unnecessary work on the part of this and auxiliary offices. In addition a check of all of the periods made in the investigative reports submitted in his cases reveals many dates, which I have pointed out to you, upon which a No. 3 card or a daily report was not submitted and when also such dates are not reflected in any investigative report. Frankly, this agent's work is more unsatisfactory from both the substantive and form standpoint than any agent's work I have ever checked. I would like any explanation you care to make as to why the condition of this work was not discovered by you and your supervisory staff at an earlier date.

Mr. BOARDMAN:

The record will reflect that from the time I personally observed the actions and work of this agent that his status from an efficiency standpoint changed. It is apparent that he was never entitled to a "Good" rating.

Mr. HENDON:

At the time you discussed the special efficiency rating of July 29, 1944 with Agent GLASS did you or did you not state to him that the Bureau had requested a special efficiency report on him?

Mr. BOARDMAN:

I don't recall the exact terminology, but it is not unlikely that I indicated that the Bureau had requested that a special efficiency rating be submitted.

Mr. HENDON:

Is it not a fact that the Bureau had not specifically requested an efficiency rating on this agent?

is to advise the Field Supervisors to bring their Agent lists with them and note the changes of assignment on the personnel list as they are changed from time to time at the Supervisors' conference.

b6

Mr. HENDON:

The fact remains that there was evidently confusion as to just who should supervisor administratively the work of Agent GLASS. Your records reveal daily reports submitted were routed by the chief clerk's office to the Assistant SAC who in turn routed them to Supervisor [redacted]. When someone else acted in the absence of the ASAC the reports were initialed on that desk rather than sent to Supervisor [redacted] with the result that no one was actually checking and supervising daily reports being submitted by this Agent. Steps should have been taken to insure against this type of confusion.

Mr. BOARDMAN:

During the aforementioned conferences it was specifically pointed out to the Supervisors that they would be responsible for the submission of daily reports and the Number 3 register for those Agents assigned to them so there could have been no question in the Supervisor's mind concerning his responsibility from an administrative standpoint. It is evident, as Inspector HENDON has pointed out, that confusion existed in the chief clerk's office as to where these daily reports should be routed. There was no confusion in the mind of ASAC CURRIE who routed them to [redacted]. There apparently was confusion in the mind of [redacted]. The question was never brought to my attention for the purpose of determining whether this Agent should be supervised by ASAC CURRIE or Field Supervisor [redacted].

b6

Mr. HENDON:

Under this administrative set-up, who was responsible for reviewing cases with Agent GLASS?

Mr. BOARDMAN:

The Field Supervisor to whom the Agent was assigned -- [redacted]

b6

Mr. HENDON:

Who had the responsibility for calling substantive delinquencies in the investigations to the attention of Agent GLASS?

Mr. BOARDMAN:

[redacted]

Mr. HENDON:

Did you ever instruct him as to what was expected of him in this regard.

Mr. BOARDMAN:

Yes.

25-7073 LAWRENCE GEORGE HALL - FUGITIVE
SELECTIVE SERVICE

This case was opened and assigned to Agent GLASS on October 5, 1943. A closing report was submitted by that agent on July 23, 1944 reflecting that the complaint had been dismissed by the U. S. Commissioner at Spokane on July 3, 1944, this office receiving advice by letter dated July 1, 1944 from the U. S. Attorney that the Commissioner had been so authorized. At the time leads were outstanding for the Salt Lake City Office and for the San Francisco Office, both of which conducted investigation subsequent to the date of the dismissal of the complaint. I would like an explanation as to why the auxiliary offices were not advised relative to the dismissal promptly and also why even with the submission of the closing report such advice was not furnished since at that time the rather extensive investigation conducted by the Salt Lake Office could have been avoided, it having been conducted on July 23, 29, 31 and August 3, 1944.

Mr. []

No excuse for failure to notify the auxiliary offices in this case.

Mr. HENDON:

25-4059 LEO JOSEPH LaPORTE, wa. - FUGITIVE
SELECTIVE SERVICE

The report of Special Agent J. LUTHER GLASS dated at Seattle April 4, 1944 sets out a lead for the Boston Office to interview a Mrs. PAQUETTE. This lead had been covered by the report of Special Agent PHILIP M. FREED dated at Boston February 11, 1944. The error in restating this unnecessary lead, of course, caused unnecessary administrative work both in the Boston and the Seattle offices. It should have been observed at the time you approved the outgoing report and the lead eliminated.

Mr. []

I failed to review the file in this case sufficiently to discover that the same lead previously had been covered.

Mr. HENDON:

25-7105 JOHN HENRY WALLNER
SELECTIVE SERVICE

This case was assigned to Agent GLASS on October 7, 1943 and and finally reassigned to Agent RAY LAMB on July 15, 1944. Advice was received from Selective Service Board under date of November 26, 1943 that the delinquent was at that time employed by the Ashbury Transportation Company, 4900 South Alameda Street, Los Angeles, California. No action was taken on this information until May 15, 1944 when a letter was finally dictated to the Los Angeles office requesting that the lead be covered. As a direct result of this lead the fugitive was apprehended. Had action been taken in November much activity in several different field offices would have been eliminated and the induction or process of the delinquent immediately achieved.

Mr. []

The advice from the Board that the subject purportedly was employed in Los Angeles was immediately routed to Agent CLAGG. The supervisor has no excuse for not ascertaining that the lead received proper attention.

b6

Mr. HENDON:

25-3411 DUANE ROBERT LINDBERG
SELECTIVE SERVICE

This case, Butte origin, was received in this office on November 6, 1943 and reopened on December 23, 1943, and the whereabouts of this subject is presently unknown. The report of SA [] dated at Seattle February 22, 1944 reflects an interview with Mrs. LESLIE G. LINDBERG at Tyler, Washington, who stated that the subject had been employed by her husband prior to April 16, 1943 and that his clothes and shoes still remained at the farm. This office received a letter dated at Thompson Falls, Montana February 21, 1944 signed by the subject asking that his logging shoes be sent c.o.d. to Thompson Falls, Montana, but not to send the rest of the clothes since he would be around to pick them up. It is pointed out that the subject is delinquent with the Draft Board at Thompson Falls. This letter signed by the subject was received in an envelope postmarked at Tyler February 25, 1944 and carried a notation "Dear Sir, Please don't say who sent this in and oblige", without any signature. This was initialed by you for the file, and it bore the notation "Anonymous". No action was taken, and it is apparent that had action been taken the Butte office might have been able to locate this subject.

Mr. []

The last advice received from the Butte Division indicating the subject was delinquent was dated December 21, 1943. Apparently my thought at this time was that the subject born [] located in the very town where his Board is located he must at that time have been in touch with that Board. I concur that such judgment was incorrect and the Butte Division will be notified immediately.

Mr. HENDON:

It is pointed out again that the above cases are typical examples of some of the substantive delinquencies which exist in the remaining cases which were assigned to Special Agent CLASS. As a result of the very deplorable condition of his Selective Service work I am of the opinion that you are not sufficiently aggressive in demanding action be taken more promptly, and secondly, that there has been insufficient close supervision of both the substantive and administrative sides of this work. Is there anything else you care to add?

Mr. []

No.

CONCERNING INEFFICIENCY OF AGENT GLASS AND FAILURE TO TAKE PROPER ACTION
CONCERNING IT ON PART OF SAC BOARDMAN, SA SUPERVISOR [REDACTED] AND SAC FLETCHER

INTRODUCTORY

SAC Boardman in response to the general Bureau letter requesting special efficiency reports on weak agents submitted a special efficiency report on Agent Glass dated July 29, 1944, in which he rated him ~~FAIR~~ and pointed out his deficiencies, primarily indicating that this Agent completely lacked ability to organize and properly follow to a logical conclusion his investigative assignments. The Bureau by letter of August 17, 1944, requested additional details from SAC Boardman and instructed him to permit Agent Glass to thoroughly review the additional explanation being submitted and make any comments he might desire. SAC Boardman did this and advised the Bureau that Agent Glass wrote as follows on the SAC's letter of explanation: "I have read this letter which appears to be an attempt to justify an unjustifiable and unwarranted special efficiency report - more to follow". The entire matter was then reviewed by the Bureau and it was recommended Agent Glass be transferred to Kansas City and placed on probation for 60 days. Before this action was taken the Bureau received a personal letter to the Director from Agent Glass dated September 9, 1944, in which he takes issue with some of the deficiencies pointed out by his SAC and among other things stated "He considers this an underhanded, unwarranted, unjustifiable, and unprovoked attack on me and my record in this Bureau" and further pointed out his references as an applicant included Federal Judge Alfred D. Barksdale of Virginia, U. S. Senator Carter Glass and Congressman Clifton A. Woodrum and stated that he feels that he has not let these gentlemen down in the manner in which he performed his work. b6

Mr. R. H. Hendon personally made a complete and exhaustive inquiry into this Agent's case at Seattle and on the basis of his conclusions recommended that Agent Glass' resignation be requested, and that SAC Boardman be censured, Supervisor [REDACTED] be placed on probation and SAC Fletcher be censured, all for their failure to take certain action with respect to this Agent's deficiencies.

In addition, it might be noted that on August 22, 1944, Congressman Woodrum telephonically contacted Assistant Director Nichols and advised that Agent Glass had written to him regarding this matter, expressing the feeling that SAC Boardman has a personal feeling against Glass and had recently sent in a bad report on him. Mr. Nichols explained Glass' case to Congressman Woodrum and upon inquiry advised his office that Agent Glass would not be dismissed if he demonstrated his fitness to assume the duties of Special Agent and the Congressman's Office stated they would communicate with Glass and tell him that it was up to him to demonstrate to the SAC that he was wrong in the efficiency rating.

DETAILS

INFORMATION CONCERNING SPECIAL EFFICIENCY RATING ON AGENT GLASS

The special efficiency rating of July 29, 1944, which rated Agent Glass FAIR pointed out that he completely lacked an ability to organize and properly follow to a logical conclusion his investigative assignments. In support of this SAC Boardman cited numerous specific instances involving excessive delay in completing investigations and submitting reports, confusion in the Agent's mind as to the status of his cases, non compliance with numerous routing slips and memoranda, and in general a one track mind.

Agent Glass initialed this report but transmitted a memorandum to the Director dated July 29, 1944 in which he stated that he felt he had been overloaded with cases while resident agent in Spokane, Washington, that he had been concerned about the fact that 6 brothers are in the armed forces and in addition his mother is dead and further that he had worked on numerous surveillances and spent a week on the night shift in Seattle.

SAC Boardman submitted a reply letter of July 31, 1944, to refute this memorandum pointing out that Agent Glass' case load was not burdensome and was average for that Field Division and that working on the night shift and on surveillances did not have any relevancy to the deficiencies of this Agent.

The Bureau requested SAC Boardman to submit additional information including advice as to the number of cases assigned to Agent Glass, as to why Agent Glass' deficiencies had not heretofore been reported to the Bureau by special report inasmuch as Agent Glass had been returned from the resident agency to Seattle as a result of SAC Boardman's request of April 27, 1944, indicating that his work needed closer supervision, also information as to what administrative steps had been taken at the Seattle Office concerning these delinquencies and whether they had ever been called to Agent Glass' attention prior to the special report. The SAC was instructed to discuss these derelictions with Agent Glass and afford him the opportunity of responding in writing.

The results of this additional inquiry by SAC Boardman, together with the details of Mr. Hendon's inquiry and Agent Glass' answer will be summarized below.

INFORMATION DEVELOPED BY ADDITIONAL INQUIRY

1. Agent Glass' case load was found to be below average.

Mr. Hendon ascertained that for the 10 months period from 11/1/43 to 9/1/44, Agent Glass was assigned a total of 153 cases, an average of 15.3 cases per month which he stated was a below average case load. His highest single case load was on 1/1/44, when he had 79 cases but 68 of these had been carried over from the preceding month.

2. Agent Glass' volume of work produced was far below average.

Mr. Hendon ascertained that of the total of 153 cases assigned, 40 were RUC'd, 34 closed, 34 reassigned, 23 administratively closed, 16 closed by reports of other Agents and 6 unaccounted for. The Agent carried over a large number of cases from previous months because of delay in handling his work. He conducted a total of 196 interviews or contacts during the entire 10 months period as ascertained by checking the reports submitted which is but 19 interviews per month. In addition a spot check of his daily reports indicated he did some work on cases not assigned to him, but the vast majority was on cases assigned to him and further he worked on a major bank robbery case for a period of two months subsequent to 1/20/44. In 51 cases he performed absolutely no work, in 49 others he conducted no investigation but merely submitted short reports after a file review, check of the docket, etc., thus leaving 53 cases in the 10 months period where no investigative work was done and most of these cases required only one or two cursory interviews.

3. Agent Glass was guilty of great delay in submitting his reports.

Mr. Hendon ascertained and the Agent's file also bears out the fact that he was returned to Seattle and removed from the Resident Agency because of excessive delay in submitting reports. However, after returning to Seattle he delayed excessively in cleaning up the work which had remained assigned to him. He returned to Seattle on 6/8/44, and as of 6/1/44, he had only 39 cases assigned, 34 having been carried over from previous months and only 5 had been assigned in May. ^{Sixteen} of these required only a simple file review, 11 reflected a delay as far back as October 1943, on his part and merely required submitting what he had finally done, and others required only that they be reassigned because he had never done anything and there was nothing to be done on them by him. Mr. Hendon estimated that a good Agent could have cleaned up this work in one or two days and Agent Glass should have been able to clean it all up in June whereas at the time of Mr. Hendon's check he had merely submitted 16 reports and 4 memoranda totalling 40 pages in those months since his return to Seattle.

Furthermore during June 1944, Agent Glass had 7 free working days to devote to these cases and spent all but 24 hours and 40 minutes in the office and during July he had 17 free days and spent all but 31 hours and 15 minutes in the office. The other time which was not free was devoted to surveillances, night duty or firearms.

Agent Glass contended that he had insufficient time to dispose of these cases upon returning to Seattle and stated he had about 50 assigned to him when he came to Seattle. However, the foregoing results of Mr. Hendon's inquiries appear to completely refute these excuses.

4. Agent Glass wasted time and exhibited poor judgment in his interviews.

Mr. Hendon ascertained that in one case he wasted 50 minutes looking for an individual when it was questionable whether he had any information of value and the Agent finally closed the case without the interview and in another case he kept going back to a Deputy Sheriff "to keep good will" although it was obvious that the Deputy Sheriff could not furnish the motor vehicle numbers which were desired and in another case he duplicated another Agent's interview within a month.

5. Agent Glass had innumerable discrepancies between his daily reports and investigative reports and failed to submit daily reports or to make out #3 register cards on many occasions.

Mr. Hendon ascertained through a check of his daily reports and #3 cards from December 1943 until July 1944, that he failed to submit these on many days in each month which makes it impossible to check many of the dates on which he was supposed to perform work and Mr. Hendon does not think he was dishonest but merely lacked ability and exercised no care in the organization and performance of his investigative activities.

Agent Glass was unable to explain the discrepancies between daily reports and investigative report periods and had no explanation for failing to submit daily reports and #3 cards.

6. Agent Glass indicated careless indifference in preparing daily reports.

Mr. Hendon observed on his daily report of 11/2/43, the notation "Office Work (damn, oh damn)".

Agent Glass stated that probably he put that there because he was very tired and worried about the volume of work and paper work required.

7. Agent Glass had numerous substantive errors in his investigations of a most serious type.

Mr. Hendon ascertained that in one case he failed to act upon information in his possession which would have immediately located a fugitive which was not located for several months thereafter. In other Selective Service cases Mr. Hendon cited examples where he did not take proper action. Mr. Hendon stated that hardly a case checked up was free of substantive or form errors and concluded that Agent Glass' work was in the most unsatisfactory condition from every standpoint of any Agents work he has reviewed.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS OF AGENT GLASS

Agent Glass claimed that his delinquencies were never brought to his attention prior to the special efficiency rating of 7/29/44. However, Mr. Hendon pointed out that this Agent admitted that former SAC Fletcher of Seattle helped him organize his work during an entire day during June 1944; that he knew then and the other times while at Spokane that his work was not progressing satisfactorily; that he knew his work was in an unsatisfactory condition when checked by SAC Boardman on July 26, 1944; that he admitted receiving many routing slips and memoranda calling attention to delays and merely looking upon these as routine; that Supervisor Bundy twice urged him to clean up his work after his return from Spokane, and that in general he knew his work was in a bad condition for a long time.

Agent Glass gave as an excuse personal worries because of his mother being dead and having six brothers in the armed forces. However, his mother was dead at the time he filed his application. He felt he had been singled out and felt that SAC Boardman had been underhanded in submitting a special efficiency report before bringing it to his attention previously. However, he initialed the report and had ample opportunity to review it.

CONCERNING SAC BOARDMAN

SAC Boardman assumed charge at Seattle on 3/3/44. As a result of reports from Supervisor [] SAC Boardman secured the return of Agent Glass to Seattle in June 1944. He requested the Bureau to change his headquarters by letter of 4/27/44 in which he stated that he wanted to more closely supervise his work but that his work had been generally satisfactory and the Bureau approved this on 5/8/44.

Mr. Hendon felt that SAC Boardman had been derelict in the following instances in respect to Agent Glass:

1. He failed to submit a special efficiency rating advising the Bureau of this Agent's deficiencies prior to the time the Bureau requested a rating on weak Agents.

SAC Boardman in answer stated that he first desired to personally observe the Agent. In addition SAC Boardman advised that it was not until the latter part of July 1944, when he concluded that Agent Glass was no longer entitled to the rating of Good, and this was based upon information received from his supervisor on July 24, 1944, and a check of Agent Glass' workbox and that he would have independently advised the Bureau had not the Bureau's request for a report come in at this time. However, it is noted that SAC Boardman advised at the time he decided to have Agent Glass return to Seattle that he knew he was not performing his work properly and he instructed Supervisor Bundy to temporarily refrain from assigning new work to Agent Glass so he could get caught up.

2. He failed to advise Agent Glass of his unsatisfactory work upon his return from Spokane to Seattle and otherwise failed to directly bring other delinquencies to his attention.

SAC Boardman in answer stated he first desired to personally observe the Agent.

3. He should have discovered earlier that Agent Glass was failing to submit daily reports in numerous instances, and should have insured that there was no confusion as to the supervisor responsible for Agent Glass.

SAC Boardman in answer pointed out that in March 1944, he changed the administrative set-up to hold the supervisor responsible for the Agent both from an investigative and administrative standpoint and in Agent Glass' case it was Supervisor Bundy. However, SAC Boardman did not confirm these oral instructions by written instructions and as a result certain confusion existed and the daily reports were sometimes routed to the desk of the ASAC and in his absence were initialled on that desk instead of being forwarded to the Supervisor. The failure to submit daily reports should have been discovered on office inspections.

4. He was wrong in giving Agent Glass the impression that the special efficiency report on him was submitted only because the Bureau had requested it.

SAC Boardman does not deny that he told Agent Glass the report had been requested by the Bureau and it appears definite that he did but he stated that he did not so desire to shirk responsibility or place the burden on the Bureau. Mr. Hendon feels that there was an unfortunate looseness in Mr. Boardman's language which caused a misunderstanding in the mind of Agent Glass as to why the report had come about and caused Agent Glass to accuse SAC Boardman of being underhanded.

5. He should have been more specific in his comments relative to the firearms record in the special report on Glass. In this connection SAC Boardman had stated that his firearms record is average for an Agent of his experience whereas Glass called attention to the fact that he bettered the SAC's 93 in the F.P.C. in August and his firearms scores on all weapons according to Mr. Hendon were consistently better than average.

SAC Boardman states that although he did not mention it in the report he based the rating on all factors which relate to the use of firearms which was proper according to Mr. Hendon but he should have been more specific in the report.

CONCERNING SUPERVISOR [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] is supervisor of Selective Service and most of Agent Glass' work as Resident Agent was supervised by him. Until SAC Boardman took over the office in March 1944, Supervisor [REDACTED] sole responsibility was limited to Agent Glass' investigative activities, whereas afterwards he was charged with responsibility for both administrative and investigative activities of the Agents under his supervision.

1. Supervisor [REDACTED] was at fault in not clarifying the confusion in his mind as to his supervisory responsibility. In this connection Supervisor [REDACTED] stated that when SAC Boardman changed the administrative set-up [REDACTED] was not quite clear in his mind as to what his responsibility was regarding Agent Glass and he took no steps to assume charge of the administrative supervision of Glass.

2. Supervisor [REDACTED] failed to note the delinquencies in Agent Glass' submission of daily reports and did not check for discrepancies between the daily reports and investigative periods in Agent Glass' investigative reports. This appears due to the confusion existing in Supervisor Bundy's mind.

3. Supervisor [REDACTED] was at fault in not seeing to it that either he or someone advised Agent Glass specifically of his unsatisfactory work. Bundy prepared the annual report on Glass in March 1944, rating him GOOD but knew that the work was only fair for the period around March and yet did not tell Glass that his work was generally unsatisfactory.

4. Supervisor [REDACTED] was at fault in not reviewing Agent Glass' cases with him. He had this responsibility after SAC Boardman changed the set-up but apparently did not do it because of confusion.

5. Supervisor [REDACTED] lacked aggressiveness in pointing out substantive delinquencies to Agent Glass, failed to follow up in reassigning his cases and failed to realize the extent of the deplorable condition of Glass' work over a long period of time. He did instruct Glass after his arrival in Seattle to dispose of his Spokane cases but did not keep following closely on this to prevent this delay and although at the outset he instructed Agent Glass to turn over any cases needing reassigned, he failed to follow on this.

6. Supervisor [REDACTED] is at fault for failing to detect the substantive errors in Agent Glass' Selective Service investigations which were previously pointed out, and in addition was at fault in one instance for initialing an anonymous letter for the file which Mr. Hendon stated was obviously received from an individual previously interviewed in the case which contained information as to the possible whereabouts of the subject and no action has been taken to date.

INFORMATION CONCERNING SAC FLETCHER FORMERLY IN CHARGE AT SEATTLE

Mr. Fletcher was SAC at Seattle until March 1944.

1. Mr. Hendon feels that he should have discovered the unsatisfactory condition of Glass' work and not taking steps to call delinquencies to the Agent's attention, should have discovered that Glass was not submitting daily reports and was at fault for general inadequate supervision of this Agent even after Supervisor [] had told him he was not getting along very well.

There is probably no question on the basis of the information developed by Mr. Hendon that SAC Fletcher was deficient in these respects. However, he has not yet been offered an opportunity to answer these charges and it is doubtful whether he will be able to submit an adequate answer inasmuch as he is no longer at Seattle and will have to rely solely upon his memory.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF MR. HENDON

Based upon the foregoing information Mr. Hendon made the following recommendations:

1. That the resignation of Agent Glass be requested immediately.
2. That SAC Boardman be severely censured. In this connection Mr. Hendon stated he seriously considered recommending the SAC be placed on probation but felt that he at least found out that Glass' work was unsatisfactory a short time after his arrival at Seattle.
3. That Supervisor [] be placed on probation.
4. That SAC Fletcher be censured.

Dear Sir:

Information has just come to the Bureau's attention that under date of November 29, 1943 when you were Special Agent in Charge at Cleveland, you received a communication from the United States Attorney complaining that our Agents at Toledo, Ohio, were entering the office of the United States Attorney after it had been closed for the evening and were using the typewriters without permission. This letter further indicated that a file had disappeared and that suspicion was being cast upon those who had master keys for doors in the New Federal Building at Toledo.

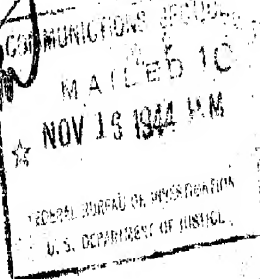

The records of the Cleveland Office of the Bureau fail to indicate that this complaint was ever brought to the attention of the Bureau. Instead it appears that Assistant Special Agent in Charge Harry G. Maynor contacted two Assistant United States Attorneys at Toledo and the matter was dropped when they declined to furnish any names or specific instances.

Most certainly this complaint should have been brought to the Bureau's attention at the time. I am personally interested in current relations between our offices and any United States Attorney. In view of the bearing which this complaint and its innuendoes had upon the activities of our personnel, I certainly should have been advised immediately. I hope that in the future you will exercise better judgment in informing the Bureau of such matters.

Very truly yours,

Inspector HARBO:

In view of the conditions in the Seattle Office which resulted in ratings of fair on investigative operations and personnel supervision, I have recommended that Mr. BOARDMAN be placed on probation as SAC. It is my impression that Mr. BOARDMAN is a strict administrator but that he had failed over a period of several months to detect certain shortcomings in the functioning of the office. In all fairness to him, it should be noted that he had started checking on such items as missing daily reports in July and that he had completed a survey of this subject on all Agents prior to the initiation of this inspection. I believe that after a slow start in the Seattle Office he is now aware of the deficiencies in the office and will do a good job of administration in the future. His personality possibly is not the type which causes personnel to immediately like him, but he has improved in this respect during the past two years, and it is my observation that he has developed a more friendly manner upon meeting personnel. He is aware of this problem and I discussed it with him, pointing out the need for a friendly, pleasant manner, at the same time maintaining strict discipline. I found that Mr. BOARDMAN during the month or two preceding the inspection had been devoting a great deal of time to the supervision of individual Agents and the training and development of the supervisors in his office. I believe that his office should be reinspected in three or four months to determine whether conditions are such as to justify removing him from probation as SAC.

Re: KENNETH WHEELER BROWN
Special Agent

1565 SDP/KSR

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter dated December 1, 1944, in which, among other things, you explain why the efficiency report submitted on Special Agent Kenneth Wheeler Brown as of October 28, 1944, was not prepared and discussed with this Agent prior to his departure on transfer from Seattle on October 23, 1944.

The Bureau has reviewed your explanation and does not consider it to be entirely satisfactory, since it appears that the efficiency report could have been made up and gone over with Agent Brown between October 21, the date you learned this Agent was scheduled to proceed to Denver and October 23, the date of the Agent's departure from Seattle.

You are instructed that in the future all efficiency reports should be discussed with the Agents prior to their departure on transfer. It is hoped that it will not be necessary to call such a matter to your attention again.

SAC BOARDMAN does not possess the type of personality which employees immediately like, but with two or three exceptions there were no unfavorable comments concerning him by the personnel of the office. I do not believe the comments were well founded. He has improved along the line of developing a more friendly manner during the past two years. He generally is a strict administrator; he failed for several months to detect certain deficiencies, but he now is aware of the deficiencies in the office, and I think he will remedy them promptly and thereafter continue to do a good job.

Mr. L. V. Boardman

The Inspector states that there is a need for more real informants in the general criminal field. You should give this matter your personal and continued attention. Your contact file can be measurably improved.

With respect to the consolidation of the files and indices in the Mattson kidnaping case, which was discussed with you by the Inspector, such a consolidation should be made only upon specific Bureau authorization. In the event you feel that such a consolidation can be effected at some future date, you should communicate with the Bureau in detail, setting forth all pertinent facts, and include a specific recommendation.

It is assumed that the special indices maintained as an investigative aid in Communist investigations are used as an adjunct to the subversive charts.

A spot check of voucher files and agents' expense accounts disclosed that in some instances agents did not submit daily reports for days for which per diem charges were made.

The entire inspection report corroborates the Inspector's statement that there is a very definite need for improved inspection service in the Seattle office on the part of the SAC and the supervisory staff. It has been noted that you established such a system in July and that you had discovered the failure on the part of Special Agents John C. Doig and Russell C. Eberstein to submit a rather substantial number of daily reports over a period of several months prior to the beginning of the inspection. At the same time, you became Special Agent in Charge of the Seattle office on March 3, 1944, and the Bureau very definitely feels you should have discovered the fact that these agents were not submitting daily reports prior to the fifth month of your tenure of office, although it is a fact that you were absent from the office for some time shortly after assignment to Seattle handling contact work, law enforcement conferences and attending a conference of Special Agents in Charge at Bureau headquarters. The Inspector states you should have become aware of the deficiencies in the office earlier than you did, and the Bureau concurs.

While failures on manual examinations have practically ceased to exist throughout the field, 5 of the agents in the Seattle office failed to attain passing grades. Four of 21 stenographers failed the shorthand test. Were the training and review courses in the Seattle office effective, I cannot help but feel that these failures would not have occurred. A lack of supervision was reflected by your failure and the failure of other supervisors to maintain error folders in accordance with specific Bureau instructions dated March 5, 1943.

The inability of a number of agents to dictate properly is a further indication of a need for immediate attention. A review of the stenographers' daily reports disclosed 13 instances where agents dictated at the rate of 5 pages per hour or less. Some agents furnished reasonable explanations, but in other instances there was no explanation. On one occasion the No. 1 register was initialed for the file without any inquiry concerning entries which reflected

Dear Sir:

There is attached a copy of a summary of Inspector Harbo's inspection report on the Seattle office. You are aware, I am sure, that the conditions reflected by the inspection are not in keeping with Bureau standards.

It is observed that of 1,399 active cases, 565 or 40% were delinquent. In addition, the backlog of suspects under investigation in the Seattle district in the Mattson kidnaping case totaled 350. Pending stenographic work was excessively delinquent and yet the Inspector states that the stenographic and clerical personnel is adequate. It would appear, therefore, that improved administration would enable you to reduce this delinquency.

Substantive errors disclosed by a review of 333 pending cases totaled 33. The improper handling of several specific Selective Service cases is a matter of concern to the Bureau. The Inspector states that a number of Selective Service cases had been placed in a pending inactive status before all investigative leads had been thoroughly covered and that one Selective Service case was closed in July, 1944, without designating copies for an auxiliary office with outstanding leads, with the result that these leads were later handled and reported by the auxiliary office, thereby performing needless work. In another Selective Service case there was failure to promptly notify an auxiliary office of information in possession of the Seattle office regarding the place of employment of the subject in the territory of the auxiliary office. Although this latter delinquency occurred in November of 1943 and is not chargeable to you as Special Agent in Charge, it is being called to your attention to emphasize the need for general tightening up in the supervision of Selective Service cases. According to the Inspector, in one Selective Service case there was a delay of several weeks in acting on information furnished by the Local Draft Board through the United States Attorney's office. The information received was that the subject was in his home town. It is observed that the subject was taken into custody by agents of the Seattle office, but at the same time the Inspector points out that the delay resulted in criticism of the FBI. Three general criminal cases were reported as being investigated in a dilatory fashion. One of these was an Immigration case wherein the subject was an Identification Order fugitive.

that two employees had used one hour and fifty minutes for lunch. In a second instance the register failed to reflect the time the employee returned from lunch.

You are, of course, aware of the Judge Lewis B. Schwellenbach situation and certain critical comments concerning the Bureau which he has made in open court. You should be alert to any future actions along this line on his part, and should keep the Bureau fully and promptly informed.

It is desired that appropriate training, tests, and then re-examinations be afforded the four stenographers who failed to make passing grades on the Inspector's test in shorthand, and the grades furnished to the Bureau.

You should make an audit of daily reports, form No. 3 register cards, and leave slips to see whether all required reports were submitted during November. The results of your inquiry should be included in the letter to the Bureau advising that all delinquencies have been corrected. I should also like to be informed in your letter specifically what action you have taken with respect to the establishment and use of agents' error folders.

In view of the conditions found, I have no alternative but to place you on probation. Assistant Special Agent in Charge Daniel Currie is also being placed on probation by separate communication. The Bureau assumes that you will go over with Mr. Currie in detail the delinquencies set forth in the attached summary report and instant letter.

When all delinquencies have been corrected, you should inform the Bureau by letter so that an early recheck inspection of the Seattle office can be made in the near future to ascertain the adequacy of the corrective steps taken, and whether this probationary status can be removed at an early date.

Dear Sir:

We have just completed a two-day firearms instruction class at Fort Lewis, Washington, for 48 members of the Tacoma Police Department and 6 members of outside departments, under the Supervision of Detective C. O. Rolfsen, graduate of the 27th Session of the National Police Academy. I am taking this opportunity to thank you and your Bureau for your whole-hearted support and assistance in the conduction of this School.

Mr. L. V. Boardman, Special Agent in Charge, Seattle Office, was more than cooperative in his assistance. I especially want to compliment Agent [] for his demonstrations in firearms. He was enthusiastically received by all those in attendance and no doubt will be the topic of conversation among the Officers for weeks to come.

We have formulative plans in the making for a Police School later in the year. It is my earnest desire to have Mr. Campbell back as an instructor in this School if possible. We are also planning the construction of a police firearms range, both inside and out, patterned somewhat on your range at Washington, D. C., and Quantico, Virginia. Detective Rolfsen was very enthusiastic regarding them.

Since his return from your School he has inaugurated a new visible-check file from information received while in Washington, D. C.

In closing I again want to thank you for your cooperation and assistance. I am at your continued service.

Very truly yours,

Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency,
State of Washington
Juvenile Delinquency
Research Matter

L. V. Boardman

Reference is made to your letter of March 19, 1945 in the above entitled matter.

The following information has been collected as an adjunct to other investigations and interviews conducted by agents of this office concerning the recent death of one JOHN EMBERG in the King County Jail, Seattle, and the resultant publicity and activity on the part of County and State authorities.

I DEATH OF JOHN EMBERG

The following is a summary of the report made by ROBERT STEWART, U. S. Probation Officer, Seattle, to Federal Judge LLOYD BLACK concerning the death of EMBERG. It is also based on statements of the principals of the murder and on oral statements made to Special Agents ROBERT G. LAWRENCE and SAMUEL B. MURPHY of this office by HARLAN CALLAHAN, Sheriff, King County, and ROY CASEY, Investigator, Federal Bureau of Prisons.

On January 16, 1945 JOHN EMBERG, age 16, was killed in Tank 5C of the Juvenile Ward of the King County Jail, after having been beaten by one [redacted] assisted by three other boys. [redacted]

[redacted] EMBERG had been released from the hospital ward of the King County Jail on January 16, 1945, where he had been confined due to a heartache and had formerly been confined in Tank 4C of the Juvenile Ward of the King County Jail.

When EMBERG was returned from the hospital ward to Tank 5C he had on his person $2.00, which was taken away from him by two of the boys in the juvenile tank. At approximately 5:00 p.m., January 16, 1945, [redacted] was confined to Tank 5C by the Juvenile Ward and had started to eat when he saw JOHN EMBERG. Apparently [redacted] felt that EMBERG owed him $1.00 and as soon as he saw EMBERG he made two of the other boys hold the EMBERG boy's arms down by his side, and started hitting EMBERG with his fists. Eventually through the beating EMBERG received from [redacted] he fell to the floor. When he got up [redacted] stopped hitting him and told him to go in and take a shower, which EMBERG did. When EMBERG came out of the shower [redacted] again went over to him and made EMBERG put his hands by his side and started hitting EMBERG, telling him that he would keep on hitting him if he did not keep his hands down.

Letter to Director

Re: Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency,
State of Washington, Juvenile Delinquency, Research Matter

b6
When EMBERG again went into the shower [] hit him and knocked him down and he was unconscious for a few minutes. When EMBERG regained consciousness he came out of the shower and [] again made the boys hold him down and started hitting him on the arms. [] then started hitting him on the chest and a couple of the boys made [] get off EMBERG when the latter started to cough. All the time that he was hitting EMBERG the second time he had on a pair of gloves and was holding the handle to a shower in one of his hands, which was apparently his right hand. The second time that EMBERG started to cough he turned blue in the face and [] started giving him artificial respiration until [] made him stop. While EMBERG was held on the floor with [] sitting on his chest and hitting him as hard as he could, there was another boy sitting on his feet burning his feet with matches.

As soon as the boy passed out the second time and [] had made [] stop giving artificial respiration, he was taken into the shower and placed on a bench. EMBERG was taken into the shower by [] and [] and at that time they didn't know he was dead, thinking that he was just knocked out, and tried putting water on his face in a cup. It was soon discovered that the boy had died. After this discovery everyone at the suggestion of [] was to indicate that they knew nothing about it. [] threatened that he would beat anyone who told and that they would suffer the same fate as EMBERG. Immediately following this incident two younger boys were beaten by [] until they agreed to perform acts of perversion on other juvenile inmates.

It was brought out during the coroner's inquest that many acts of sexual perversion were committed in the juvenile tanks, along with physical torture. The individuals who were subjected to torture and forced to commit acts of perversion were for the most part the dead boy, JOHN EMBERG, and one [] a federal prisoner, held in the juvenile tank after having been sentenced on December 27, 1944 to a term of eighteen months at the Federal Correctional Institution, Englewood, Colorado, for a violation of the National Motor Vehicle Theft Act. The main recipient of acts of perversion was a Negro boy named [].

On several occasions these boys were committed to the jail hospital as a result of injuries suffered in the tank, and were not questioned, although in the testimony of the jailers before the coroner's jury the jailers stated they felt that sexual perversion was going on.

Re: Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency,
State of Washington, Juvenile Delinquency, Research Matter

For the Bureau's information concerning the nature and type of the activities in this juvenile tank, there is enclosed under opaque cover two copies each of two statements of LEWIS JAMES BLACK, Jr., referred to above, made to the Sheriff's Office following EIDERG's death. These are believed to be representative and accurate statements in view of similar statements taken from other members of the juvenile tank.

II BACKGROUNDS OF PRINCIPALS

b6

The following background information on the principals involved in the instant offense was obtained by Special Agent SAMUEL B. MURPHY of this office from the records of the Juvenile Court in Seattle, and are being set out in some detail because of their significance.

A. [redacted] with alias [redacted] (head of the Kangaroo Court, Juvenile Tank); born [redacted] and has lived in Seattle since October 7, 1942.

1) Family.

Mother, [redacted] is presently separated from Ralph's father, RUECELL MARTIAN. This is [redacted] third marriage and both Leslie Ort, Ralph's stepfather, and [redacted] his mother, work. His mother is employed as a riveter at Boeing's and earns approximately $100.00 per month. He has no brothers or sisters. He is listed as a member of the St. James School Junior Safety Patrol and the record indicates he spent four years in the Cub Scouts. He is a member of the Catholic Church.

2) Juvenile and Criminal Record.

2-14-42 committed to Washington State Training School, Chehalis, for truancy from Port Angeles.

10-7-43 released from Chehalis and employed at odd jobs until 6-26-43 arrested Seattle Police Department, car theft.

6-29-43 returned to Chehalis Training School.

b6

5-13-44 Seattle Police Department, car theft and possession of side arm. The record of the Juvenile Court indicates at this point that [redacted] and another boy had been released by them previously, picked up in Butte, Montana, for burglary and sent back to Seattle by bus. On this occasion [redacted] stated she was unable to control the boy and requested an opportunity for him to enlist in the U. S. Navy.

Letter to Director

April 14, 1945

Re: Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency,
State of Washington, Juvenile Delinquency, Research Matter

The record indicates further that the Chehalis Training School indicated to King County authorities at this time that [REDACTED] had made a "good adjustment" while at the training school.

5-23-44, [REDACTED] completes enlistment with Navy.

11-16-44 arrested Seattle Police Department, charge burglary.

11-24-44 Juvenile Court declines further jurisdiction of [REDACTED]

b6

A police report on burglaries committed by [REDACTED] indicated that at this time he no longer resided at home and had participated in a series of burglaries with other juveniles on the night of November 12, 1944.

RICHARD MAHONEY, Chief Investigator, Prosecuting Attorney's Office, King County, has advised that [REDACTED] is a typical product of the Chehalis Training School, viz. brutal and perverted. He stated that this boy was head of the kangaroo court in the juvenile tank and was the most powerful physically. In this connection Mahoney stated by way of interest that he had yet to talk to a former inmate of Chehalis Training School who had not engaged in perversion practices there. It will be noted that this boy was characterized by ROY CASEY of the Bureau of Prisons as the real ringleader of the gang in the juvenile tank.

B. [REDACTED] Leavenworth, Kansas.

1) Family.

b6

Parents, GEORGE THOMAS, age 50, 4413 Airport Way, Seattle, father. The juvenile records indicate GEORGE THOMAS to be an erratic and of a subnormal mentality. He is characterized as seizing on any excuse to prove that his son should not be confined. All through the juvenile case history of [REDACTED] the father has emphasized an alleged condition of [REDACTED] heart caused by rheumatic fever. These parents of [REDACTED] are very closely associated with the parents of [REDACTED] whose history is also set out herein. GEORGE THOMAS, the father, presently earns $300.00 per month at the Seattle-Tacoma Shipyards. On March 9, 1942 he was out of work and was receiving relief assistance.

The mother is now out of work due to an injury and receives $50.00 per month from the State Industrial Insurance Fund. Normally she earns about $160.00 per month, making the total family income approximately $500.00 per month.

Mother, LILLIAN THOMAS, age 44, 4413 Airport Way, Seattle. On first contacting Lillian Thomas concerning her son on March 9, 1942, the juvenile authorities characterized this woman's attitude as "excellent". On December 26, 1944 her attitude concerning her son's delinquency, as well as her husband's, is characterized as "bad", for the same reasons as furnished above on the father's case. The following comments are noted: "Her attitude is one of evasiveness and excuses. ..." "The inability of the parents to handle this boy is very noticeable. They are not very intelligent themselves. ...". Both parents are American, both of the Catholic Faith.

2) Arrest Record.

8-15-39, Seattle Police Department, [redacted] with another boy selling wood fibre flowers and liberty magazines on street. The police report indicates a license for the [redacted] to sell the above had been procured by his father.

March, 1942, Seattle Police Department, theft of $4.22 and "beating up" another child.

December, 1944, car theft, Seattle.

December, 1944, car theft, Clark County.

January, 1945, car theft, Mukilteo, Washington.

January 12, 1945, committed to State Training School, Chehalis.

January 16, 1945, transferred from King County Hospital to King County Jail to await transfer to Chehalis.

b6

3) Analysis by Juvenile Authorities.

The following statements concerning [redacted] appear in his juvenile file:

Letter to Director

April 14, 1945

Re: Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency,
State of Washington, Juvenile Delinquency, Research Matter.

b6

December 26, 1944. "... [] is simply an irresponsible youth who is a potential danger signal. Everything this boy does is from an irresponsible standpoint, with no thought at all of the future, and resting secure in his belief that someone, his parents or others, will get him out of the trouble. Mentally the boy is subnormal. He is an adjustment class pupil. He cannot seem to accept the conventional standard of living or conduct. ... This boy has not been in school since May, 1943. He at that time was enrolled in the 6A grade. He has a work permit to remain out of school which expired in September, 1943. ... Neither has he worked to any degree. He did work for one month at the Seattle Brass Company and about the same length of time at the Atlas Concrete Company. He worked at Boeing Aircraft Company eleven days and at the Associated Shipyards one day. He is not now employed".

".... There is potential danger that [] will, one of these days, commit some overact which will commit him to a penal institution".

b6

It will be here noted that there has been no way to ascertain whether notations in [] record, such as the above, were made by the juvenile authorities on the date indicated or following the death of Emborg.

4) Mental Ability.

[] was examined in January, 1941, and attained the ratings of CA 12.8, MA 10.8, IQ 64. He is actually a 5th grade pupil at the age of 16. He is characterized as not interested in school. "There is no such thing as making him learn anything because he simply is not interested enough to put forth the necessary effort".

5) Health

The boy and his parents all through his history with the Juvenile authorities have used an alleged bad heart condition resulting from rheumatic fever as a lever to secure his release from confinements. There is reflected in his file a difference of medical opinion as to the degree of incapacitating this disease has caused. There is no medical opinion contained in this file against having him confined in a jail or other institution.

Letter to Director

April 14, 1945

Re: Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency,
State of Washington, Juvenile Delinquency, Research Matter.

6) Attitude.

b6 During his present confinement [] has been characterized as belligerent and nonchalant. While in the King County Hospital he threatened to strike one of the nurses and a doctor and on the return to the jail on January 16, 1945, the day of the murder, he stated he would "kill anyone who laid a finger on him".

He has a sister, a younger brother and a nephew, all living in the same household at home.

Concerning [], Richard Mahoney, mentioned above, furnished the following information, in addition to that set out above. He characterizes [] as being a strong boy physically. He stated that his father was an illiterate mountaineer, formerly a carnival worker. His brother and mother were characterized as being simple minded. Mahoney stated the home atmosphere was dirty, slovenly and degrading.

c. []

b6

This boy's history is being included because the investigation by the King County Sheriff's Office indicates he was one of the ringleaders in the juvenile tank, and is presently charged in the King County Superior Court with sodomy. He is a close friend of [] older brother is now in the Washington State Penitentiary at Monroe for burglary and is the husband of [].

1) Family.

b6 Father, Charles Everett has been characterized by Richard Mahoney, previously mentioned, as an illiterate junk dealer, formerly a carnival worker. He is stated to be a shrewd person, essentially an "outlaw", who has taught his sons to be criminals and has been active in combatting any rehabilitation efforts. Mahoney indicated that the father of [] put up a $3500.00 bond on [] at Stockton, California, and forfeited the bond to come to Seattle. The older brother is characterized by Mahoney as a confirmed criminal, specializing in burglary and arson, probably a pyromaniac. The older brother is now at Monroe Reformatory for violation of parole. Mahoney characterized [] as loose morally, as having sexual relations with [] prior to marriage, as being a chronic liar. [] is stated to be loose, dirty and slovenly and to have had numerous sexual relations with city policemen.

The Juvenile Court records indicate that [redacted] admits monthly wages as an auto salesman of $200.00. Actually there is good reason to believe his real income is far greater. The case history on this family in the Juvenile Court records indicate the father has continually defended his children and is antagonistic toward any move by the Juvenile Court or other authorities as reflected by the following:

September 20, 1943. "...The father appeared to be quite a blustering person, extremely defensive of his son and somewhat resistive to the idea of police interference."

October 24, 1944. "... The parents appeared at the office blustering and vociferous as usual, demanding the boy's release because there is no evidence against him..."

These records reflect the parents have resisted every effort for outside supervision over the boy and have hired legal aid wherever feasible to resist such supervision. The family background is described by the Juvenile Court records on October 24, 1944 as, "...one long picture of laxity in home control, law violations by the children and the father, one older brother in the penitentiary now and the father at large under heavy bond awaiting trial in federal court".

2) Arrest record.

b6

8-9-44, Seattle Police Department, malicious mischief, throwing bottles through window of passing car. Investigation at this time established the fact that [redacted] had been handled by the Seattle Police Department in 1940 for stealing bicycle parts and in 1943 on two occasions for acts of destruction of property.

October 24, 1944, Seattle Police Department, burglary.

November 1, 1944, made a ward of the Juvenile Court, released to custody of parents under court supervision.

December 6, 1944, Seattle Police Department, operating auto without license.

Re: Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency,
State of Washington, Juvenile Delinquency, Research Matter.

3) Analysis by Juvenile Authorities.

August 11, 1944. "... The boy's attitude is described as being sullen and uncooperative".

b6

Concerning his refusal to admit complicity in a burglary, "He gives the writer the impression of being untruthful and being well schooled and well versed in what he is to say".

November 10, 1944. [] is not only unpredictable but he is dishonest. He makes no pretense of adhering to the truth and he has no evident remorse. Neither is there any hesitancy in telling us any story he thinks will get by".

4) Mental Ability.

June 6, 1944, examined by Child Guidance Department. Results: CA 14.7, MA 10.2, IQ 72.

b6

"Day adjustment school was recommended, which [] attended with small success. The school reported he was usually absent 40 to 50% of the time". This school reports that [] is "shifty, unsatisfactory and disinterested. They have not found him particularly untruthful, but evasive, coming to school with many alibis and flimsy excuses. They get very little support from the parents and don't know them well at all".

D. []

The following case history is included in this letter because [] is charged jointly with the murder of John Emberg in the juvenile tank at the King County Jail.

1) Family.

Father, WILLIAM FRANKLIN MABE, born 1893, present address unknown; Protestant, White, American. Mother, CLEO MABE, born 1904, last known address Ieland Hotel, 84 Pike Street; Protestant, White, American.

[] father, William Franklin Mabe, was born in 1893 in Virginia. He completed the 4th grade in school and worked as a coal miner and lumber jack in Virginia and North Carolina. In 1924 because of unemployment he came to Washington. He worked here as a machinist and caterpillar operator. After coming to Washington he started drinking heavily "and he has been active in many radical demonstrations and had a tendency to treat life quite philosophically until an extremity was reached, at which time he resorted to liquor".

Mother, CLEO HAWKINS MAEB, born in Virginia, completed 8th grade; married husband at age 17. Occupation, prostitute.

The following is a summary of the information furnished the King County Juvenile Court by the Ryther Child Center, 4416 Stoneway, Seattle, May 12, 1943, concerning this juvenile:

[redacted] was placed in the Washington Children's Home April 20, 1934 at the age of 7 for foster home placement, this being necessary by neglect in the Mabe home. The Washington Children's Home referred him back to the Juvenile Court on October 14, 1934 as unable to cope with. Mabe family was first known to the "Family Society" in 1931 when the father applied for aid due to unemployment. On March 21, 1934 the father again reapplied after aid was refused by the State Department of Public Welfare after Mabe had been laid off by the WPA. At this time the mother was living with another man and the children, [redacted], and [redacted] were living with neighbors. The mother and [redacted] are presently prostitutes. Since 1931 there has been continual marital discord in the Mabe home, the father and mother continuously fighting. On one occasion [redacted] helped his mother by hitting his father over the head with a piece of stove wood. Many times these three children were left alone in the house all night and on some occasions were left alone three to four days with very little food. After being made a ward of the Juvenile Court in 1935, unsuccessful attempts were made to find [redacted] a foster home (fourteen different homes and nineteen different placements being attempted).

2) Education and Mentality.

At the time of placement with the Ryther Child Center, [redacted] could neither read nor write. Because of this efforts were made to place him in the 1st, 2nd and 3rd grades, all without success, as he was incorrigible at school, teasing other children and doing various things to gain attention. A mental test taken at this time shows an IQ of 91. The following is a report made by the Ryther Center:

Letter to Director

April 14, 1945

Re: Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency,
State of Washington, Juvenile Delinquency, Research Matter.

"During the past two years, although he has only been successful in achieving the 7th grade, teachers have recognized in him much more than average mental capacity. Some say he shows evidence of brilliance in subjects in which he is interested and in situations that are favorable to him. It is also significant that his teachers many of them have been genuinely interested and fond of the boy".

Under the heading of "Problems" this report noted: "In addition to the problems already discussed, [] was at one time cruel to animals. This has not been a recent difficulty".

Under the heading of "Personality", "... He has become a more subdued rather frail looking boy, presenting a wide range of mood, capable of great inaccessibility on the one hand and very companionable relationship on the other. Foster parents tried have always relinquished him regretfully and have been fond of him".

A Seattle Public School report dated March 20, 1934 indicated on [] part the following: "Truancy and petty thievery in the Mabe children, drunkenness and low mentality in the parents".

Characteristics reported by foster parents and teachers concerning [] "Uncontrollable temper, refusal to obey and an abnormal interest in sex."

It will also be noted that on March 20, 1936 a report by the Ryther Child Center characterized [] as "without any question the best loved child here. He has a degree of humor, imagination and curiosity which coupled with his superb courage has won him respect from children as well as employees".

3) Arrest Record

5-5-43, King County Sheriff's Office, burglary of cigarettes.

E. []

b6

There is no record of this individual at the King County Juvenile Court. The only information available concerning this colored boy was obtained from Chief Criminal Investigator RICHARD MAHONEY of the King County Prosecutor's Office, who stated that [] had been characterized by his aunt and uncle as completely unmanageable. [] apparently is on parole from Louisiana or Mississippi authorities for some serious trouble and has recently come to Washington to live with his aunt and uncle. They have requested that he be committed to a reformatory. Mahoney stated that he comes from a broken home.

F. [REDACTED]

1) Family.

From the records of the Juvenile Court the following summary of [REDACTED] background is set out. His father and mother were divorced in 1933. He is characterized as being ungovernable and has been in trouble for petty theft, burglary and as a run-away. His father, now divorced from his mother, is a regular Army sergeant retired. His mother and stepfather are both employed, presently, and earn $580.00 a month between them.

2) Mental Aptitude.

His mental aptitude is characterized as average, and he is characterized as being lazy. He was committed to the Luther Burbank Training School on February 23, 1944 and on January 3, 1945 was returned as ungovernable. He was at the time of the Emberg murder confined in the King County Jail awaiting disposition by the Juvenile Court.

III JAIL CONDITIONS, KING COUNTY, WASHINGTON

ROY CASEY, Inspector, Bureau of Prisons, was interviewed by Special Agents ROBERT G. LAWRENCE and SAMUEL B. MURPHY at the offices of the Seattle Field Division on March 15, 1945. He made available for examination copies of statements executed by juveniles in Tanks 4C and 5C of the King County Jail in connection with the murder of John Emberg. Casey characterized conditions in the King County Jail as tolerable as regards sanitation and maintenance but the worst in his experience as far as discipline and living conditions. He mentioned the kangaroo court system, the peddling of licentious magazines directly to juveniles by the concessionaire in the jail, the fact that cigarettes were sold to juveniles by trustees and the fact that all prisoners were allowed a practically unlimited supply of money. Casey indicated that the guards at the jail were entirely inadequate (which is borne out by the fact that during the past six months six prisoners have escaped from the jail at one time). He advised that conditions in the jail subsequent to the Emberg murder and the resultant publicity therefrom are not much better. He advised that the same abuses are continuing and that although four additional guards are shown on the payroll, he doubts whether this represents an actual increase.

He advised that Sheriff HANLAN CALLAHAN was presently faced with a $10,000 suit by John Emberg's parents and possibly will not make changes fearing incrimination pending the outcome of this suit. Casey advised that he had warned

Letter to Director

April 14, 1945

Re: Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency,
State of Washington, Juvenile Delinquency, Research Matter

Callahan about the kangaroo courts in 1943, at which time Callahan had disagreed with him concerning them in principle. Callahan later advised the Bureau of Prisons, in response to a letter, that he had abolished the kangaroo court system, although he actually had not. At present the name of the court has been merely changed to sanitary court and the same procedure is being followed.

Casey on March 15, 1945 recommended to the Bureau of Prisons that the jail be condemned for federal use and indicated on that date that federal juveniles are now being sent to the Skagit County Jail, Mount Vernon, Washington, and that federal women prisoners are being held at the County Jail in Olympia and at the city jail at Tacoma. It will be here noted that subsequent to this interview with Casey, the King County Jail has been declared unfit for federal prisoners by the Bureau of Prisons and at the present time no federal prisoners are being held there even temporarily.

Casey stated that the juvenile ward was now partially complete on the 6th floor of the County City Building. He stated that this was under the supervision of Superior Judge LONG, in charge of the Juvenile Court. He stated that they had presently employed there ten guards to guard three inmates, and that he had observed cigarettes in profusion in the cell in the ward, low magazines in possession of these three boys. He stated that quarters for juvenile girls were being built on the 10th floor of the County City Building in the quarters formerly occupied by the Prosecuting Attorney's Office.

IV INTERIM COMMITTEE

Judge WILLIAM LONG of the Juvenile Court, Seattle, Washington, was interviewed by Special Agent SAMUEL B. MURPHY of this office on March 13, 1945. He furnished Agent Murphy with a copy of a memorandum prepared by him concerning the Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency, which is being forwarded to the Bureau as an enclosure herewith.

Judge Long indicated that as a result of public interest engendered by the Emberg case, Long has been able to secure an appropriation of $10,000 from the King County Commissioners for the purpose of making a study of the handling of juveniles in King County. RALPH WALES, of which more is said later, has been hired for this project and is now correlating information being furnished by Long's staff, i.e. individual suggestions and ideas as well as material and studies from other states and cities with the purpose of quickly presenting a "master plan" to the State Legislature in order to receive two and a half million dollars, or a portion thereof, from funds supposedly "earmarked" for such a project.

Letter to Director

April 14, 1945

Re: Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency,
State of Washington, Juvenile Delinquency, Research Matter

Long is contemplating a trip in the near future to many other cities to gather such material which is being prepared in advance for him in those places.

As a "stop gap" an Interim Committee has been set up, composed of representatives from church, charity, University, service clubs and other organizations to take temporary remedial action. Long stated that the 6th floor of the County City Building is being converted into a temporary juvenile detention home and that the problem of detention of juvenile girls is presently under consideration.

Concerning the handling of juveniles generally in the State of Washington, Long advised that there were presently three types of juvenile quarters: the parental schools, of which there are two in Seattle, are administered by the School Board of the School District. Both these schools are overcrowded and 150 children are on the waiting list. Other sections of the State have nothing comparable and can no longer have their children admitted to these King County institutions; custodial schools. These schools are for the mentally deficient.

There are two in the State. They are administered by State authorities and there are presently 300 names on their waiting list; Chehalis Training School, Chehalis, Washington, is characterized by Long as obsolete, inadequate and outdated, overcrowded to the extent that negotiations are required for commitment of a juvenile by a State Superior Court Judge. This school is administered by the State.

It will here be noted that Richard Mahoney, Chief Investigator, Prosecuting Attorney's Office, has previously advised Special Agent Murphy of this office that perversion is rampant at Chehalis, making the statement that he had yet to talk to an inmate released from Chehalis who had not practiced perversions while an inmate thereof.

Monroe Industrial School, characterized by Long as a junior penitentiary. Inmates are from the ages 18 to 35 and Long advised he was now being forced to send juveniles 16 and 17 years old to Monroe if they were bad due to limited facilities otherwise. It will here be noted that Mahoney, previously mentioned, has advised that the administration of Monroe was so corrupt, crooked and rotten that a "shake-up" therein was imminent.

Concerning RALPH WALES, Judge Long stated that Wales was a Research Consultant and a Planning Officer, for six years Western Director of National Probation Association and a graduate of John Hopkins University. He stated that Wales had just completed a study of the juvenile detention problems in the States of Arizona, Colorado and Nevada, and had just completed a study of the detention problem of all criminals for Multnomah County, Oregon, of which Portland is the county seat. Wales has been employed by the Interim Committee to organize and coordinate all material being brought in. Long's entire staff is required to submit suggestions to him and other states and localities are being requested to furnish information concerning the methods of handling instant problems. It is anticipated by Long that most of the $10,000 so far appropriated by the County will go towards Wales' instant study. Long advised that Wales made a study of the Juvenile Court and related matters for King County in 1937 and has been rendering consultant service ever since, that he therefore has a very thorough knowledge of the local problem and the possible remedies therefor.

Letter to Director

April 14, 1945

Re: Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency,

In conclusion Long indicated that in his opinion the most serious drawbacks facing King County and the State of Washington in the handling of the juvenile problem lay in the lack of adequate trained personnel and in the lack of adequate physical facilities for the housing and detention of juveniles.

V POLITICAL REACTION.

The following information thought to be of possible interest in connection with instant matter was furnished me by Sheriff Harlan Callahan on January 29, 1945. At this time Callahan stated that some of his Democratic friends had indicated that Governor Men C. Wallgren was interested in checking not only the Emberg matter but the state penal institutional system with a view of ascertaining whether there might be uncovered scandals which would reflect adversely on his predecessor, Governor Arthur Langlie. It is rumored that Governor Langlie will be running for U. S. Senate upon the expiration of the term of recently appointed U. S. Senator Hugh Mitchell, the former Secretary of Governor Wallgren. If the present administration of Wallgren is able to find things that would reflect adversely upon Langlie, the Democrats feel that such data could be utilized effectively in the event he runs for the U. S. Senate. Callahan indicated that he could not vouch for the authenticity of this plan but indicated that unquestionably a certain amount of credence could be given it. He pointed out in this connection that Sid Riley, an attorney from Spokane, who is serving as one of the legal aides to Governor Wallgren, was appointed by the Governor as an interested spectator to sit in at the coroner's inquest in the Emberg matter, undoubtedly with a view to surveying the possibilities of this case as a vehicle for instituting a state-wide investigation of juvenile delinquency and detention matters.

VI NEWSPAPER REACTION.

No attempt is being made herein to summarize the newspaper publicity given instant murder. However, the following comments of Mr. E. T. STONE, Managing Editor of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, were made to me, which are felt to be of some significance.

Letter to Director

April 14, 1945

Re: Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency,
State of Washington, Juvenile Delinquency, Research Matter.

He stated at the time of this interview that on January 9, 1945 in answer to the question as to what progress had been made by the Committee appointed by Mayor William F. Devin, which was known as the Civilian War Commission Juvenile Protection Committee, which Committee was appointed by Mayor Devin in October of 1943, Mr. Stone advised that the newspaper had had a sad experience with this Committee. He stated that in September, 1943, there was a considerable amount of discussion concerning the increase of juvenile delinquency nation-wide; that the newspaper after due deliberation had with proper spirit and unbiased motives felt that the creation of a committee in the City of Seattle with a view of coordinating the activities of all agencies interested in youths would insure greatly to the benefit of Seattle and might succeed in combatting the grave problem. Mr. Stone had felt that the logical chairman of such a committee would be Juvenile Judge William Long.

At the time the newspaper was ready to launch its plan via the medium of the newspaper, Mr. Stone discovered that Mayor William Devin had a similar plan in mind and had contemplated appointing as chairman of the committee Federal Judge Lloyd Black. Stone felt that in view of this it would be well for the Post-Intelligencer to defer to the Mayor and accordingly the latter committee was created and Judge Black was appointed chairman.

According to Stone at about the second meeting of the committee Judge Long to the astonishment and dismay of the Post-Intelligencer launched a tirade against all who were accusing youth of being delinquent. Judge Long, according to Stone, indicated that the youth of today is no more delinquent than it has ever been and that to make a hue and cry concerning juvenile delinquency constitutes an indictment against modern youth. Mr. Stone advised that these comments of Judge Long immediately threw the entire committee into a turmoil and that as a matter of fact since that time the accomplishments of the committee have been practically nil. He stated that this committee has met periodically and spasmodically ever since but that to his knowledge nothing tangible has ever transpired.

Stone advised he had never been able to understand Judge Long's attitude and the reason for the statement, unless it could have been motivated by jealousy in that he was not made the chairman of the committee. Stone ventured the observation that he does not feel that Judge Long is very competent, that he has played the role of politician rather than as arbitrator of juvenile matters, and observed that no doubt much of the blame for the Emberg incident can be attributed to Judge Long.

He stated that he has instructed his reporters to follow the Emberg incident carefully and endeavor to keep interest alive until some tangible effort is made to definitely improve the deplorable conditions existing with reference to the detention of juveniles.

Letter to Director

April 14, 1945

Re: Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency,
State of Washington, Juvenile Delinquency, Research Matter.

I have discussed this matter briefly with Federal Judge LLOYD BLACK and asked him what had been the accomplishments of the aforementioned Committee. He responded by saying it is sometimes difficult to know what the accomplishments of a given committee are, that in fact it is sometimes difficult to know what have been the accomplishments of Christianity despite the fact that it has been in existence for some centuries. He continued with similar analogies, pointing out the difficulty of sometimes determining what the overall accomplishment might be resultant from any particular movement. Factually he pointed out that he guessed that some young peoples' clubs had been created as a direct result of the earlier meetings of the Committee.

VII COMMUNIST INTEREST AND ACTIVITY

Confidential Informants Se-11-1 and Se-T-2 have in recent months noted that functionaries at Communist Political Association Headquarters at 304 Marion Street, Seattle, have become vitally interested in the Emborg matter and juvenile delinquency in general. Approximately a year ago Mayor William Devin set up a Juvenile Protection Committee under the chairmanship of Federal Judge Lloyd Black. Informants have reported that this Committee met infrequently over a year's period but presented no concrete solutions to the juvenile delinquency program.

CHARLES MEYER, Communist, Provisional Chairman of the American Youth for Democracy, and Secretary of the C.I.O. in Seattle, presented to this Committee a 12-point program on behalf of the C.I.O. and the American Youth for Democracy. This program urged utilization of existing recreational facilities and the building of additional facilities throughout the various neighborhoods. When the Emborg incident brought juvenile delinquency to the public's attention again, Communist Political Association functionaries revived this American Youth for Democracy program and again presented it to the interested authorities. b6

Through County Commissioner HAROLD SPARKMAN a mass meeting was held at the County Commissioners' offices on February 3, 1945. Confidential Informant [] attended this meeting and noted that the room was packed with CPA members and that for the most part they held the floor. Jess Fletcher and Ward Coley of the Building Service Employees Union, Communists, vehemently urged the immediate removal of Sheriff Harlan S. Callahan and Judge William Long for gross negligence. CARL REEVE, Secretary of the Northwest District, CPA, spoke as a land owner and as a representative of the Communist Political Association, advocating the program originally presented by the American Youth for Democracy. Reeve went over the program and urged its adoption at this time.

At a functionaries' meeting at CPA Headquarters on February 5, 1945, Reeve reported to his associates on the proceedings of the mass meeting and stated that if Judge William Long admits his mistakes the Communists should have played it up. Reeve pointed out that the real core of responsibility rests with those close to the Langlie (Republican) administration and the ousting of these people (Callahan and Long) will only come if the people agree that there has been a program put forth and then nothing done. He further pointed out that the press tried to shield Callahan, Mayor Devin and the Republican Party set-up.

Following the mass meeting on February 3rd, the Interim Committee on Juvenile Delinquency was set up. Confidential Informant Ce-T-2 reported on February 13, 1945 that Harold Sparkman, County Commissioner, directly requested the Communist Political Association to supply a member for this Committee. Sparkman suggested that some member be named who is "not too far out in front", and Carl Reeve suggested Barbara Hartle, President of the King County CPA. The Committee as finally constituted contained six well known and active Communists, Jess Fletcher, Hilda Hansen, Harold Johnston, Mrs. Nora McCoy, Mrs. Florence Dean James, Harold Snyder. The first three listed are active trade union leaders, while Mrs. McCoy is an office worker at the Old Age Pension Union, a front group, and Mrs. James, co-director of the Seattle Repertory Theater, a Communist club. Harold Snyder is a school teacher. There were in addition 23 members not believed to be associated with the Communist Political Association on the Committee.

Apparently additional members were appointed to this Committee as informants have advised that GENEVIEVE BAKER, Executive Secretary of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, is also active on the Committee.

Miss FLORENCE VOGEL, Executive Secretary, Main Branch of Seattle Y.W.C.A. advised Special Agent KENNETH A. LOFGREN that she had received a letter from ELEANOR MacMICKLE, Executive Secretary, Northwest American Youth for Democracy. This letter, dated April 4, 1945, on American Youth For Democracy stationery, was entitled:

"County Commissioners' Juvenile Investigation Committee Sub-committee on Prevention of Delinquency"

The letter reads as follows:

Letter to Director

April 14, 1945

Re: Interim Committee

"Dear Sirs:

"The Northwest Regional Office of American Youth for Democracy is represented on the County Commissioners' Juvenile Investigation Committee, whose chairman is Mr. Allen Pomeroy, Assistant U. S. Attorney. As a member of that committee we were assigned to the sub-committee on Prevention of Delinquency. It is our requested assignment to make a survey of King County Youth organizations.

"The purpose of this survey is (1) to find out from the young people themselves what they feel is causing the large war-time increase in delinquency; (2) what activities their organization has outlined for war-time as compared with peace-time needs; (3) what they feel is youth's responsibility to youth; and (4) what control youth can and should have over its own affairs, not on an individual basis, but on a scale that would involve a whole area, like King Co.

"The results of this survey will be tabulated and submitted, with whatever conclusions we draw, first to the subcommittee on Prevention of Delinquency and then to the committee of the whole. The committee will then publish the results of this survey as a part of their report, so that its significance can be viewed in relation to the whole work and findings of the committee.

"We would greatly appreciate your cooperation in answering the following questionnaire. The problems of youth are of more than a temporary and war-time nature. The whole committee realizes this and plans to incorporate, in its proposed coordinating councils, youth organization representatives who will serve on an equal basis on the councils.

"In explanation, coordinating councils have functioned in the past in Seattle communities. There will be however continued duplication of effort and a lack of coordination. In the councils which we hope to produce as part of the permanent results of the committee's work, we intend to eliminate duplication and to build neighborhood participation, not only in youth affairs, but also in all aspects of community and county affairs. These committees, functioning through the neighborhoods and clearing information and ideas through a county body, will include representatives of labor groups, P.T.A., fraternal organizations, churches, youth groups, and similar organizations. In addition to taking up youth problems and providing cooperative support for youth activities, they will also handle matters of interest to all age or interest groups.

"Our sub-committee has as its objective the prevention of juvenile "delinquency and the elimination of its causes, as completely as is possible. In order to do this, we want your observations on the subject, as well as what your organization has to offer in the way of program and facilities. Finally, we want a concrete statement in answer to the question of youth participation in youth affairs.

"If your organization does not include youth, please pass this letter and questionnaire on to a youth organization.

"Thank you for your cooperation. May we request a prompt reply? Please send your answers to

Re: Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency

The CPA line on the juvenile delinquency matter has been expressed through the pages of the New World, front newspaper published at Seattle. ELMER McGRATH, Communist reporter for this paper, consults with Carl Reeve of the CPA before writing anything on this subject. Nearly every issue of the paper contains articles blasting Long and Callahan and any efforts to place the blame upon war working parents of juveniles. Every attempt is made to fix the responsibility upon the civic authorities rather than on parents.

According to Confidential Informant Co-T-2, Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas called at the office of the New World on February 15, 1945 and wanted a petition to be circulated on behalf of their son, [redacted] one of the boys who took part in the Emborg incident. It was decided at that time by persons at CPA Headquarters that it would be unwise to circulate such a petition as there was no logical basis for it.

JOHN CAUGHLAN, CPA attorney, was retained by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas for the purpose of defending their son. Informants have reported that Coughlan is in daily contact with Carl Reeve during the murder trial, which is now in progress. It was Carl Reeve's suggestion that a plea of mental irresponsibility be entered. Coughlan was instructed to point out that the mental irresponsibility was brought out by the conditions in the jail and that witnesses should be put on the stand who could show these conditions which were prevalent in the jail. Reeve pointed out to Coughlan that he should attack not only on technical points but on political and social points. Reeve pointed out the similarity to the Leopold-Loeb case and for the purpose of studying up on this case reported to informants that he had obtained a copy of the life of Darrey and was also reading the complete proceedings of this case as appeared in the July and August issues of the 1924 New York Times. Reeve extracted excerpts from these articles and books for Coughlan to use in his cross examination of the witnesses. Reeve urges Coughlan to point out in the trial that the juveniles should have been examined by a doctor before being admitted to the County Jail, and that if Thomas had been so examined his mental irresponsibility would have been revealed. In his closing remarks Coughlan should bring out the fact that this is an unusual case because the murder took place in a county institution and although the boys screamed for help they received no assistance. Coughlan is advised to place psychiatrists on the stand and when he brings up the point that this will cost $700 or more, Reeve states that they can make an appeal for him through the New World for additional funds.

According to these informants, at the beginning of the trial the defense attorneys had agreed to base the defense upon the social aspects of the case, juvenile delinquency and rotten jail conditions. As the trial progressed it appeared that the other attorneys were breaking the agreement and were demanding separate trials for their clients. Pressure was exerted through the CPA on the Longshoremen's Union to instruct PHILIP POTI, attorney for [redacted] to cooperate with Caughlan in playing up the social and political aspects of the case because Poth is attorney for the Longshoremen's Union. Earl Nelson, CPA member, was the go-between to place the CPA's request before the Longshoremen's Union. On April 11, 1945, Confidential Informant Ce-T-11 reported that Carl Reeve thought that the following points ought to be listed by Caughlan in his arguments:

1. The effects of the jail conditions on the mentality of adolescent delinquents. This is not only a technical legal matter, it is unlawful because of the terrible effects of being in jail under such conditions. It affects their mentality and drives them insane.
2. Recite the jail conditions as to food, isolation, etc.
3. The youthful age of the defendants.
4. John Emberg's imbecilic background. He should never have been there in the first place.
5. John Emberg's mental condition at the time, his mental irresponsibility.
6. The mental condition of Charles Thomas, his youthfulness, his psychological condition and his outbursts in court. (Caughlan observed we will show that he has been placed in the most horrible condition of solitary confinement which everyone agrees is feared by the most hardened criminal).
7. Emberg's screams for help which were unanswered.
8. The body was warm when found, failure of the Sheriff to call a doctor not knowing whether he was dead or alive.
9. That Thomas was beaten up previously (this is probably in error and refers to Emberg).
10. The general harrying of Thomas (Emberg?)

Reeve advises Caughlan to subpoena everyone, County Commissioners, Allan Pomeroy (Assistant United States Attorney) head of the Interim Committee, members of the State Legislature Committee and even Governor Wallgren's representative at the trial, one Riley. Reeve concludes by stating that Caughlan's whole case rests on whether he can convince the jury that this is a social trial.

Further developments in this situation and related juvenile matters are being followed by this office and events of significance will be reported periodically.

INSPECTOR HARBO:

Mr. Boardman has been Special Agent in Charge at Seattle since March, 1944. Because of certain deficiencies in investigative operations and personnel supervision found during the inspection in October, 1944, he was placed on probation. During the current inspection these deficiencies were found to have been entirely corrected. Last October a few employees indicated the morale in the office was not as good as it had been previously. During the current inspection all employees stated the morale was very good and there had been a big improvement since last October. It was my impression that the entire personnel had been striving to do a better job and actually had succeeded in doing so. Although he is somewhat reserved by nature, SAC Boardman has succeeded in developing a more genial manner in greeting and speaking to personnel. At the same time he is a strict administrator and the office was in very good condition. He is on top of the situation at Seattle and is doing a good job. I have recommended that he be removed from probation as an SAC.

SUBJECT: REQUEST FOR ANNUAL LEAVE

L. V. BOARDMAN

I am enclosing an annual leave request for annual leave commencing 8.30 a.m., June 3, 1946, concluding 5.30 p.m., June 21, 1946. I desire this leave for the purpose of going to Virginia, Minnesota, picking up my family, and returning them to Philadelphia. As the Bureau is aware, I did not have a place to live in Philadelphia at the time of my transfer. For that matter, I still do not have a place to live, but I have a temporary place of abode until September and, therefore, plan to bring the family to Philadelphia in hopes that in the intervening months may have found a permanent place in which to live.

While in Minnesota, I have two or three personal matters to attend to and, therefore, request the above-designated amount of annual leave.

During the requested period of time, there are a minimum number of commitments, none of which cannot be handled by the ASAC.

The Bureau's early approval will be appreciated.

Dear Mr. Boardman:

Your letter of April 14, 1945, concerning the Interim Committee to Study Juvenile Delinquency in the state of Washington, has been received. I did want to write and tell you how pleased I am with the thorough summary you submitted. Your clear and detailed letter was one of the most helpful Juvenile Delinquency Research communications which the Bureau has yet received.

The Bureau is interested in further data along this line which may be developed in Seattle and I hope that you will continue to give Juvenile Research matters the same fine attention they have received in the past.

With best wishes and kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Boardman:

I have carefully reviewed the report submitted by Inspector R. T. Harbo following the recent inspection of the Seattle Office and was very glad to note the decided improvement observed in the over-all phases of operations in the Seattle Field Division. Accordingly, you are hereby being removed from probation.

Supplied you herewith is a copy of the summary of the inspection report which you should carefully consider along with the matters called to your attention by memorandum from the Inspector. The Bureau should be advised just as soon as all the delinquencies have been corrected.

From the very satisfactory conditions noted with respect to physical condition and maintenance, it would appear that you have succeeded in developing a wholesome inspection consciousness among the personnel of the Seattle Office. This is a desirable situation for it is only through inspiring a feeling of individual responsibility on the part of each of the employees that a high standard of excellence can at all times be maintained.

It would appear that closer supervision should be given investigations relating to Theft of Government Property. I have noted your explanation for the relatively high delinquency with respect to this category of cases but desire to emphasize the fact that one phase of office operations should not be neglected to the advantage of another. You should give your immediate personal attention to correcting the situation with respect to Theft of Government Property cases.

(U) In view of the advice of the Inspector, you are hereby authorized to maintain files relating to Communist and Russian cases, consisting of logs maintained in connection with microphone and technical surveillances, in the office of the Communist supervisor rather than in the Chief Clerk's office. The physical organization of the office would tend to justify a deviation to this normal rule in this instance. You should determine, of course, that these files are at all times securely maintained.

He is now eligible for an increase under the provisions of the Uniform Promotion Act effective 10-3-45.

On 1-3-45 he was placed on probation due to the unsatisfactory conditions found during an inspection of the Seattle office.

On 3-31-45 Mr. Glavin rated him VERY GOOD. On 6-4-45 he was removed from probation.

RECOMMENDATION: It is recommended that he be afforded a $210 increase in grade CAF 13, from $6650 to $6860 per annum, under the provisions of the Uniform Promotion Act effective 10-3-45.

Dear Mr. Boardman:

Reference is made to your suggestions concerning police training during your recent conversation with me in Washington. In this connection, I thought you would be interested to know that the Bureau has approved your suggestion that surveys on carefully selected subjects be made as to the methods employed in certain selected police agencies with respect to a number of types of subject matter dealing with police work. This is being confined to police organizations located in field office headquarters cities and resident headquarters in order to limit the cost for obtaining such information. The information collected will be added to that already available in the Bureau records on various subject matters so that it may be utilized in police training work.

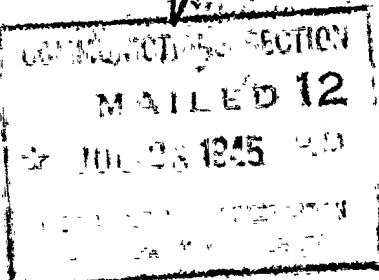

In connection with your suggestion for the development of long-range police training programs throughout the Field, you are advised that there will be correlated, in an early communication addressed to all Special Agents in Charge, the material which has come out from time to time from the Bureau setting forth information which will permit field offices to develop long-range programs of police training suited to the needs and desires of various departments and sections in which schools are to be held.

For your further information, you are authorized to assist to the extent desired in police training programs of police agencies in British Columbia, as requested.

I want to express to you my sincere thanks for your thoughtfulness in submitting these suggestions and ideas in further promoting the Bureau's interest in this field.

Sincerely yours,

RE: TWENTIETH CENTURY-FOX FILM CORPORATION
"House On Ninety-Second Street"

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to my teletype dated September 14, 1945, informing of my invitation to attend a preview of the film "House On Ninety-Second Street" on September 17, 1945.

FRANK T. JENKINS, Pacific Northwest Publicity Manager, Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation, 2421 Second Avenue, Seattle, Washington, after arranging for me to preview the above picture, stated that he would be very happy to arrange for all of the employees of this office to see this motion picture at any time that would suit the convenience of the personnel. Accordingly, arrangements were made for a preview in the projection room at the above address for all the employees of this office at 8:15 P.M., Monday and Tuesday, September 24th and 25th, at which time all employees were invited to attend. The capacity of the theater was fifty-five and the place was filled to capacity on both evenings with Bureau employees.

The employees made very commendatory comments concerning the film and felt that it had considerable interest, was excellent from the professional standpoint, and was excellent from the standpoint of favorable publicity for the FBI. I personally felt that it was an excellent film and feel that the Bureau will receive a splendid audience reaction.

Very truly yours,
